TD Bank to Conduct Normal Course Issuer Bid to Purchase Common Shares

Toronto, February 27, 2004 The Toronto-Dominion Bank (TD) announced today that the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) has accepted its notice of intention to make a normal course issuer bid. Under its normal course issuer bid, TD intends to purchase up to 10 million of its common shares, representing approximately 1.5% of the 660,075,348 common shares issued and outstanding as at February 20, 2004.

The number of shares and timing of any purchases under the bid will be as determined by TD. It is TD's goal to purchase sufficient shares during fiscal 2004 to neutralize any common share dilution arising from its Dividend Reinvestment Plan and from exercised stock options. As well, TD may at certain times purchase common shares if it believes that the market price of its shares is attractive and that such purchases would be in its best interest and an appropriate use of corporate funds in light of potential benefits to remaining shareholders.

Purchases under the bid may commence on March 2, 2004 and will terminate on March 1, 2005, or on such earlier date as TD may complete its purchases pursuant to the notice of intention to make a normal course issuer bid filed with the TSX. Purchases will be made on the open market by TD through the facilities of the TSX in accordance with the rules and policies of the exchange. The price that TD will pay for any purchased shares will be the market price of such shares on the TSX at the time of acquisition. All purchased shares will be cancelled.
