Item 5.02

Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 22, 2018, Rare Element Resources, Inc. (the Company), a Wyoming corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Rare Element Resources Ltd. (the Registrant), entered into an employment agreement with Randall J. Scott, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the Employment Agreement). The Employment Agreement terminates and replaces Mr. Scott's existing severance compensation agreement with the Company. The Registrant believes that the Employment Agreement is a fair and appropriate step to ensure Mr. Scott's continued employment, attention and dedication.

Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, (i) Mr. Scott's initial annual base is US$210,000, effective as of January 1, 2018; (ii) Mr. Scott will be eligible to receive an annual performance bonus and such long-term incentive awards as may be determined by the board of directors of the Registrant; and (iii) Mr. Scott will be eligible to participate in the employee benefit programs, if offered, of the Registrant.

Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Scott is entitled to separation benefits in the event that his employment is terminated by the Company without cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) or by Mr. Scott for good reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) due to certain reasons, including a material change in title or duties, a material reduction in compensation, a material geographic relocation, or a material breach of the Employment Agreement by the Company, in each case which the Company has failed to cure. The severance payment to be received by Mr. Scott upon termination under the circumstances described above will be equal to one year of Mr. Scott's base salary in effect on the date of termination and paid to Mr. Scott in a lump sum 60 days after the date of such termination. In addition, Mr. Scott's equity incentive awards will vest automatically upon such termination.

Pursuant to the terms of the Employment Agreement, Mr. Scott will be indemnified by the Company for all losses, settlements and other amounts arising from all claims or proceedings in which Mr. Scott may be involved relating to the business or affairs of the Company if in each case Mr. Scott acted in good faith and in a manner that he believed to be in the best interest of the Company, and his conduct did not constitute gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. In addition, during the term of Mr. Scott's employment and for six years after his employment terminates, or so long as the Company's directors and officer's liability insurance or indemnification policy (D&O Policy) remains in effect, whichever period is shorter, Mr. Scott will be entitled to coverage under the D&O Policy.

As consideration for the separation benefits under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Scott agreed to certain confidentiality obligations with respect to proprietary information of the Company, the Registrant, and their respective parents, subsidiaries and related entities (the Company Group) gained as a result of his employment. In addition, Mr. Scott is subject to non-compete provisions under the Employment Agreement that prohibit him from engaging in any competitive business (as defined in the Employment Agreement) during the term of the Employment Agreement or for a period of one year following termination within certain geographical boundaries based on the locations where the Company Group does business.

Mr. Scott is also prohibited during the term of the Employment Agreement and for one year following termination from soliciting the services of any employee of the Company Group or the business of any customer of the Company Group.

This description of the Employment Agreement above is merely a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Employment Agreement attached as Exhibit 10.1 hereto, which is incorporated by reference herein.
