MECHEL REPORTS 2007 FIRST QUARTER FINANCIAL AND PRODUCTION RESULTS

Revenues of $1.4 billion

Operating income of $327.7 million

Net income of $205 million, $1.47 per ADR or $0.49 per diluted share

Moscow, Russia July 11, 2007 Mechel OAO (NYSE: MTL), a leading Russian integrated mining and steel group, today announced financial and production results for the first quarter ended March 31, 2007.

US$ thousand	1Q 2007	1Q 2006	Change Y-on-Y
Revenues	1,416,166	853,518	65.9	%
Net operating income	327,655	58,996	455.4	%
Net operating margin	23.1	% 6.9	%
Net income	205,014	62,881	226.0	%
EBITDA (1)	355,450	134,411	164.5	%
EBITDA margin	25.1	% 15.7	%

(1) See Attachment A.

Igor Zyuzin, Mechel's Chief Executive Officer, commented: The first quarter of 2007 was a successful one for Mechel that continued the strong performance we have seen recently. Coupled with a market environment that continues to be favorable, we increased our production volumes and improved operational performance, which drove significant growth in all aspects of our business when compared to a year ago.

Consolidated Results

Net revenue in the first quarter of 2007 increased 65.9% to $1.4 billion from $853.5 million in the first quarter of 2006, reflecting strong selling prices across the Company's main product categories. Operating income was $327.7 million, or 23.1% of net revenue, an increase of 455.4% over operating income of $59.0 million, or 6.9% of net revenue, in the first quarter of 2006.

For the first quarter of 2007, Mechel reported consolidated net income of $205.0 million, or $1.47 per ADR ($0.49 per diluted share), compared to consolidated net income of $62.9 million, or $0.48 per ADR ($0.16 per diluted share) in the first quarter of 2006.

Consolidated EBITDA was $355.5 million in the first quarter of 2007, compared to $134.4 million a year ago, an increase of 164.5%. The increase in EBITDA was primarily the result of the higher sales volumes in the Company's main product categories, as well as positive pricing dynamics and the impact of steps the Company has taken to improve production efficiency and lower operating costs. Selling expenses decreased to 8.4% of sales for the first quarter of 2007 compared with 12.0% for the same quarter in the prior year as a result of positive changes to the sales structure. General and administrative expense were reduced to 5.4% of sales for the quarter, compared with 7.2% in the first quarter of 2006, due to tighter cost controls.

Mining Segment Output

Product	1Q 2007, thousand tonnes	1Q 2007 vs. 1Q 2006
Coal	4,543	13	%
Coking coal	2,223	0	%
Steam coal	2,320	30	%
Iron ore concentrate	1,095	(3)%
Nickel	4.1	22	%

Mining segment revenue from external customers for the first quarter of 2007 totaled $421.4 million, or 29.8% of consolidated net revenue, an increase of 45.6% over segment revenue from external customers of $289.5 million, or 33.9% of consolidated net revenue, in the first quarter of 2006.

Operating income in the first quarter of 2007 in the mining segment was $181.7 million, or 30.8% of total segment revenues, an increase of 520.4% compared to operating income of $29.3 million, or 8.0% of total segment revenues, a year ago. EBITDA in the mining segment for the 2007 first quarter was $196.2 million, an increase of 238.3% compared to EBITDA of $58.0 million a year ago, with an EBITDA margin increase to 33.3% from 15.9% in the 2006 first quarter. Results in the Company's mining segment for the first quarter of 2006 include a one-time extraction tax accrual of $20 million, as previously announced.

Igor Zyuzin commented on the results of the mining segment, "Market conditions remained strong in the mining segment, and Mechel continued to implement its strategy aimed at further growing its mining operations. Investments in construction of new mining facilities and modernization of mining equipment allowed us to achieve significant increase in coal output in the first quarter of 2007 as compared to the same period a year ago. We leveraged the strong market conditions and doubled EBITDA margin for the segment to 33.3%. We also increased our nickel output by 22% due to the further optimization of our production processes. Taking into consideration current favorable market conditions, we remain optimistic with regard to the overall outlook for the segment for the remainder of this year."

Revenues from external customers in Mechel's steel segment increased 76.4% to $994.7 million, or 70.2% of consolidated net revenue, in the first quarter of 2007 as compared to $564.1 million, or 66.1%, in the first quarter of 2006.

For the first quarter of 2007, the steel segment generated operating income of $146.0 million, or 14.5% of total segment revenues, an increase of 391.3% compared to operating income of $29.7 million, or 5.2% of total segment revenues, during the first quarter of 2006. EBITDA in the steel segment for the 2007 first quarter was $159.2 million, an increase of 108.4% when compared to EBITDA of $76.4 million in the 2006 first quarter. The EBITDA margin in the first quarter of 2007 was 15.8%, compared to 13.4% a year ago.

Igor Zyuzin commented, In the steel segment, we continue to focus our efforts on enhancing profitability through modernization of production and control over costs as well as further shifting our sales mix to an increased proportion of value-added, higher margin products. The capital expenditure program which we continue to implement in the steel segment has enabled us to decrease raw material consumption ratios, resulting in reduced production costs and increased production output. We also continued to steadily increase the share of continuously cast steel. At the end of last year we commissioned a new continuous casting machine at Chelyabinsk Metallurgical Plant, and another one was commissioned at our Romanian subsidiary, Mechel Targoviste, in the first quarter of this year.

Recent developments

- In July, Mechel OAO announced the appointment of Stanislav Ploschenko as its Acting Chief Financial Officer. In this position Stanislav Ploschenko replaced Anton Vishanenko.
- In July, Mechel OAO provided additional information regarding its capital expenditure program for 2007-2011. Mechel plans to invest about $1.5 billion in its steel segment and about $1.2 billion in its coal segment during five years.

Igor Zyuzin concluded, Overall, we achieved significant progress in the first quarter of 2007, compared to the first quarter of 2006. We continue to steadily implement our strategy, focusing on modernizing production, increasing output and controlling costs while also capitalizing on the favorable conditions currently seen in our markets. As we carry out our recently announced capital expenditure program, we intend to further focus on increasing operational performance in both segments. Our position as an integrated producer with a diversified product portfolio and broad market base will allow us to flexibly react to the changing market environment, positioning us well for the future.

Igor Zyuzin concluded, Overall, we achieved significant progress in the first quarter of 2007, compared to the first

Non-GAAP financial measures. This press release includes financial information prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or US GAAP, as well as other financial measures referred to as non-GAAP. The non-GAAP financial measures should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the information prepared in accordance with US GAAP.

Earnings Before Interest, Depreciation and Amortization (EBITDA) and EBITDA margin. EBITDA represents earnings before interest, depreciation and amortization. EBITDA margin is defined as EBITDA as a percentage of our net revenues. Our EBITDA may not be similar to EBITDA measures of other companies; is not a measurement under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States and should be considered in addition to, but not as a substitute for, the information contained in our consolidated statement of operations. We believe that EBITDA provides useful information to investors because it is an indicator of the strength and performance of our ongoing business operations, including our ability to fund discretionary spending such as capital expenditures, acquisitions and other investments and our ability to incur and service debt. While interest, depreciation and amortization are considered operating costs under generally accepted accounting principles, these expenses primarily represent the non-cash current period allocation of costs associated with long-lived assets acquired or constructed in prior periods. Our EBITDA calculation is commonly used as one of the bases for investors, analysts and credit rating agencies to evaluate and compare the periodic and future operating performance and value of companies within the metals and mining industry. EBITDA can be reconciled to our consolidated statements of operations as follows:
