Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 30, 2008, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Compensation Committee") of UTStarcom, Inc. (the "Company") approved amendments and restatements of the Company's Executive Involuntary Termination Severance Pay Plan (the "Executive Severance Plan") and certain existing Change of Control/Involuntary Termination Severance Agreements between the Company and each of Hong Liang Lu, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Peter Blackmore, the Company's President and Chief Operating Officer, and Francis P. Barton, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, to bring the Executive Severance Plan and the individual agreements into compliance with Section 409A (Section 409A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and any final regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder, and as noted below. The material terms of the Executive Severance Plan and each of the agreements as in place prior to these amendments and restatements were previously disclosed by the Company in filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The material terms of the Executive Severance Plan and each of the agreements, as amended and restated, are set forth below.

Executive Severance Plan

The Executive Severance Plan, as amended and restated effective January 30, 2008, provides for the payment of severance benefits to certain eligible employees, as defined in the Executive Severance Plan (each a "Covered Employee"). Covered Employees under the Executive Severance Plan are designated by the Executive Severance Plan administrator, but generally are Senior Vice President level or above.

The Executive Severance Plan provides that if the Company (or any parent or subsidiary of the Company) terminates a Covered Employee's employment for other than cause, death or disability, or a Covered Employee terminates his or her employment with the Company for good reason (as such terms are defined in the Executive Severance Plan), the Covered Employee shall receive the following severance benefits: (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to one (1) year of base pay plus one hundred percent (100%) of the Covered Employee's target bonus for the year of termination, (ii) an amount equal to twelve (12) months of the premiums for continuation coverage under COBRA of each Covered Employee (and any eligible dependents) under the Company's medical, dental and vision plans at the same level of coverage in effect on the severance date, (iii) the Covered Employee shall fully vest in and, if applicable, have the right to exercise, all of his or her outstanding and unvested equity compensation awards, and (iv) all such equity awards (including awards that vest as a result of the Executive Severance Plan) shall be exercisable until the earliest of (a) twelve (12) months from the Covered Employee's date of termination, (b) the latest date the equity award could have expired by its original terms under any circumstances, (c) the tenth (10th) anniversary of the original date of grant of the equity award, or (d) the date provided for under the equity plan under which the award was granted.

Severance benefits payable under the terms of the Executive Severance Plan are payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days of the date of termination; however, if the Covered Employee is a Specified Employee within the meaning of Section 409A at the time of such termination, then the severance and benefits payable to the Covered Employee pursuant to the Executive Severance Plan (other than due to death), if any, and any other severance payments or separation benefits which may be considered Deferred Compensation Separation Benefits, which are otherwise due to the Covered Employee on or within the six (6) month period following the Covered Employee's termination will accrue during such six (6) month period and will become payable in a lump sum payment on the date six (6) months and one (1) day following the date of the Covered Employee's termination of employment or the date of the Covered Employee's death, if earlier. All subsequent Deferred Compensation Separation Benefits, if any, will be payable in accordance with the payment schedule applicable to each payment or benefit.

As a condition to receiving benefits under the Executive Severance Plan, the Covered Employee is required to sign and not revoke a waiver and release of all claims arising out of the Covered Employee's termination of employment and a nondisparagement agreement. The benefits

Hong Liang Lu Agreement

The Amended and Restated Change of Control/Involuntary Termination Severance Agreement, as amended and restated effective January 30, 2008, between the Company and Hong Liang Lu (the "Lu Change of Control Agreement"), amends and restates Mr. Lu's previous Amended and Restated Change of Control/Involuntary Termination Severance Agreement with the Company dated November 30, 2007. The Lu Change of Control Agreement has a term of three (3) years from January 30, 2008. Following the expiration of the three (3)-year term, Mr. Lu and the Company may, but are not obligated to, enter into a new agreement. If Mr. Lu's employment continues following the expiration of the three (3)-year term and the Company and Mr. Lu do not enter into a new agreement, Mr. Lu's then current benefits arrangements shall continue in accordance with the terms of the Lu Change of Control Agreement until the parties agree otherwise.

The Lu Change of Control Agreement provides that if Mr. Lu's employment with the Company is terminated as a result of an involuntary termination by the Company or terminated by Mr. Lu for good reason (as both terms are defined in the Lu Change of Control Agreement), at any time within eighteen (18) months after a change of control, he shall be entitled to the following severance benefits: (i) twenty-four (24) months of base salary as in effect as of the date of such termination, (ii) two hundred percent (200%) of his full annual performance target bonus for the year in which termination occurs, less applicable withholding, (iii) all equity awards including, without limitation, option grants, restricted stock and stock purchase rights, granted to Mr. Lu prior to the change of control will become fully vested or released from the Company's repurchase right (if any shares of stock purchased by or granted to Mr. Lu prior to the change of control remain subject to that repurchase right) and exercisable as of the date of termination to the extent such equity awards are outstanding and unexercisable or unreleased at the time of such termination, (iv) such equity awards shall be exercisable until the earliest of (a) twelve (12) months from Mr. Lu's date of termination, (b) the latest date the equity award could have expired by its original terms under any circumstances, (c) the tenth (10th) anniversary of the original date of grant of the equity award, or (d) the date provided for under the equity plan under which the award was granted, and (v) an amount equal to twelve (12) months of health insurance premiums for continuation coverage pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, as amended (COBRA), at the same level of health (i.e., medical, vision and dental) coverage and benefits in effect for Mr. Lu on the day preceding the date of his termination of employment. The Lu Change of Control Agreement also provides that if Mr. Lu's employment with the Company is terminated as a result of an involuntary termination by the Company or terminated by Mr. Lu for good reason (both as defined in the Lu Change of Control Agreement) during the term of the Lu Change of Control Agreement, apart from a change of control, he shall be entitled to the following severance benefits: (i) twenty-four (24) months of base salary as in effect as of the date of such termination, (ii) one hundred percent (100%) of his full annual performance target bonus for the year in which termination occurs, less applicable withholding, (iii) all equity awards, including without limitation option grants, restricted stock and stock purchase rights, granted to Mr. Lu will become fully vested or released from the Company's repurchase right (if any shares of stock purchased by or granted to Mr. Lu remain subject to such repurchase right) and exercisable to the extent such equity awards are outstanding and unexercisable or unreleased at the time of such termination, (iv) such equity awards shall be exercisable until the earliest of (a) twelve (12) months from his date of termination, (b) the latest date the equity award could have expired by its original terms under any circumstances, (c) the tenth (10th) anniversary of the original date of grant of the equity award, or (d) the date provided for under the equity plan under which the award was granted, and (v) an amount equal to twelve (12) months of health insurance premiums for continuation coverage pursuant to COBRA, at the same level of health (i.e., medical, vision and dental) coverage and benefits in effect for Mr. Lu on the day preceding the date of his termination of employment.

Severance benefits payable under the terms of the Lu Change of Control Agreement are payable in a lump sum within thirty (30) days of the date of termination; however, if Mr. Lu is a specified employee (Specified Employee) within the meaning of Section 409A at the time of his termination, then the severance and benefits payable to Mr. Lu pursuant to the Agreement (other than due to death), if any, and any other severance payments or separation benefits which may be considered deferred compensation under Section 409A (together, the Deferred Compensation Separation Benefits), which are otherwise due to Mr. Lu on or within the six (6) month period following Mr. Lu's termination will accrue during such six (6) month period and will become payable in a lump sum payment on the date six (6) months and one (1) day following the date of his termination of employment or the date of his death, if earlier. All subsequent Deferred Compensation Separation Benefits, if any, will be payable in accordance with the payment schedule applicable to each payment or benefit. As a condition to receiving severance benefits as described above, Mr. Lu is required to sign a waiver and release of all claims arising out of his termination of employment and a nondisparagement agreement.

The Board and Mr. Blackmore may mutually agree in writing to extend the Trigger Date; provided, however, the Trigger Date cannot be extended beyond February 13, 2009.
