Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On July 15, 2013, Joe's Jeans Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company"), Hudson Clothing Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Hudson"), Fireman Capital CPF Hudson Co-Invest LP, a Delaware limited partnership ("Fireman"), Peter Kim, Paul Cardenas, Tony Chu, and certain optionholders of Hudson named therein, entered into a stock purchase agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") pursuant to which the Company will acquire all of the outstanding equity interests in Hudson (the "Acquisition"), a designer and marketer of women's and men's premium branded denim apparel. The aggregate purchase price will be approximately $97.6 million, subject to certain adjustments, and will be payable in cash and/or convertible notes issued by the Company.

The Company expects the transaction will close on or about August 31, 2013, subject to the contingencies described herein and subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions as set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement, including the absence of a material adverse effect on the business to be acquired, the absence of legal actions relating to the transaction, the accuracy of the representations and warranties made by both parties, the receipt of certain regulatory and other consents and the execution of ancillary agreements. Among other things, the transaction is contingent on obtaining the receipt of commitments for and closing under senior secured and junior debt financing facilities in an amount of not less than $80 million to provide for acquisition financing and future working capital needs of the Company. At the closing, the Company estimates that the outstanding indebtedness will be approximately $85 million including the convertible notes. In connection with such financing, intercreditor arrangements, including agreements concerning the nature of the subordination of the convertible notes, may be required among the prospective holders of the convertible notes and the prospective senior lender. The Company has non-binding funding term sheets from prospective lenders for the funding, subject to certain customary closing conditions. Based on discussions with possible senior lenders, the Company believes that it will be able to obtain satisfactory senior financing, but there can be no assurance that adequate financing will be obtained or that the terms of the subordination will be agreed upon. The Stock Purchase Agreement terminates unless the Acquisition closes by August 31, 2013 unless extended by the parties.

The convertible notes, if issued, will be issued with different interest rates to Hudson's management stockholders and Fireman (and related persons), respectively. Convertible notes, in an aggregate principal amount of approximately $24.1 million, subject to adjustment for the purchase price, to be issued to Hudson's management stockholders (the "Management Notes") will be structurally and contractually subordinated to the Company's senior debt, have a term of six years, would accrue cash interest paid quarterly on the outstanding principal amount at an annual rate of 10% per annum, and will be convertible by each of the holders beginning two years after the closing of the Acquisition and ending six years after the closing, into shares of the Company's common stock, $0.10 par value ("Common Stock") or cash, at the Company's election. The $10 million, subject to adjustment for the purchase price, in aggregate principal amount of convertible notes to be issued to Fireman (and related persons) (the "Fireman Notes," and together with the Management Notes, the "Buyer Notes") will be structurally and contractually subordinated to the Company's senior debt, have a term of six years, would accrue cash interest paid quarterly on the outstanding principal amount at an annual rate of 6.50% per annum, and will be convertible by the holder beginning one year and one day after the closing of the acquisition and ending six years after the closing, into shares of Common Stock or cash, at the Company's election.

Each of the Buyer Notes would be convertible, in whole but not in part, at a conversion price of $1.78 per share, subject to certain adjustments that are typical for convertible notes of this type, into approximately 19.1 million shares of Common Stock, subject to receipt of the Company's stockholder approval to comply with NASD rules, which the Company has agreed to seek after the closing of the Acquisition. The Fireman Notes may be converted at its sole election and the Management Notes may be converted at either a majority of the holders' election or individually, depending on the holder. The Company will also seek stockholder approval to increase the number of authorized shares, if necessary. The Company contemplates seeking stockholder approval promptly after the closing of the Acquisition. Prior to receipt of such stockholder approval, the conversion rights will be limited to approximately 13.5 million shares of Common Stock. If the Company elects to pay cash with respect to a conversion of the Buyer Notes, the amount of cash to be paid per share shall equal (a) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion multiplied by (b) the average of the closing prices for the Common Stock over the 20 trading day period immediately preceding the notice of conversion. The Company will have the right to redeem all or any portion of the principal amount of the Buyer Notes at any time by paying such amount plus the present value of interest that would have accrued thereon through the maturity date at the discounted present value of the interest and upon such redemption the holder would retain the conversion right applicable to the note. Certain stockholders of the Company holding approximately 23% of the voting power of the Company, have each entered into a letter solely between such stockholder and the Company (the Voting Letters) to vote in favor of authorizing the Company to issue, at the Company's election, the maximum amount of shares of Common Stock upon conversion of the Buyer Notes, the approval of an amendment to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation to increase the amount of authorized shares of Common Stock in an amount sufficient to permit the issuance of the Common Stock upon conversion of all Buyer Notes and approve any other matters related to the Acquisition. Each of the Voting Letters is substantially the same. The form of the Voting Letters is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1. As a condition to the closing of the Acquisition, the Company expects to enter into a registration rights agreement with the holders of the Buyer Notes substantially in the form included as Exhibit B to the Stock Purchase Agreement (the Registration Rights Agreement). Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement, the Company will provide certain demand registration rights to register the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Buyer Notes on up to two registration statements on Form S-1 or an unlimited number of registration statements on Form S-3, subject to availability, and will also provide certain piggy back registration rights.

The foregoing descriptions of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Buyer Notes, the Voting Letters, the Registration Rights Agreement, do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified, in their entirety by, the full text of the Stock Purchase Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1, the form of the Buyer Notes, which is included as Exhibit A to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the form of the Voting Letters, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1, the Registration Rights Agreement, which is included as Exhibit B to the Stock Purchase Agreement, each of which is incorporated herein by reference.

In addition, Peter Kim, the Chief Executive Officer and founder of Hudson, will remain Chief Executive Officer of Hudson after the completion of the Acquisition. The Company and Hudson have entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Kim, which will only become effective upon completion of the Acquisition, and has a term of three years. Mr. Kim has also entered into a non-competition agreement with the Company and Hudson, which will only become effective upon completion of the Acquisition, pursuant to which Mr. Kim has agreed not to engage in, compete with or permit his name to be used by or in connection with any premium denim apparel business outside his role with Hudson, that is competitive to the Company, Hudson or their respective subsidiaries for a period of up to three years from the closing of the Acquisition. At the closing of the Acquisition, the Company's Board of Directors will also increase its size by one additional member and appoint Mr. Kim as a member.
