Vale launches offering to sell Norsk Hydro shares

Rio de Janeiro, November 11, 2013 Vale S.A. (Vale) announces an offering to sell, through a wholly-owned subsidiary, existing shares in Norsk Hydro ASA (Hydro), a company listed on the Oslo Stock Exchange and the London Stock Exchange (ticker symbol: NHY). The offering will consist of up to 224.0 million shares through a base offering of shares, plus up to 22.4 million additional shares, which will be made available by Vale pursuant to an over-allotment option.

The price per share and the final number of shares to be sold will be determined on the basis of an accelerated bookbuilding process which will be launched immediately following the publication of this announcement. A further announcement will be made following pricing of the transaction. Vale has agreed not to dispose of any further Hydro shares for 180 days following the completion of the offering, subject to certain customary exceptions.

After the offering, if all the Hydro shares available in the base offering are sold and assuming no exercise of the over-allotment option, Vale's remaining stake, owned through a wholly-owned subsidiary, will comprise 223.8 million shares, equivalent to 10.82% of Hydro's share capital and voting rights. If all the Hydro shares available in the base offering are sold and the over-allotment option is exercised in full, Vale's remaining stake will comprise 201.4 million shares, equivalent to 9.74% of Hydro's share capital and voting rights. Vale currently holds 447,834,465 Hydro shares, representing 21.64% of Hydro's share capital and voting rights. In addition, Vale has a representative on the board of directors of Hydro.

In order to cover any over-allotments, Vale will grant any joint bookrunners an over-allotment option, which gives the joint bookrunners an option to call for Vale to sell up to 22.4 million additional Hydro shares beyond the number of Hydro shares sold in the base offering. The option is exercisable in whole or in part within a 30-day period following the offering.

The offering of Hydro shares is consistent with Vale's strategy of reducing its exposure to non-core assets, and a result of its focus on discipline in capital allocation and value maximization for shareholders.

whom the offering can otherwise be made pursuant to available exemptions under the Prospectus Directive. In addition, in the United Kingdom, this document is being distributed only to, and is directed only at, Qualified Investors who are persons who have professional experience in matters relating to investments falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005, as amended (the "Order") or who are high net worth entities falling within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) of the Order, and other persons to whom it may otherwise lawfully be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as "relevant persons"). Any investment activity to which this document relates is available only to relevant persons in the United Kingdom, and will only be engaged with such persons. In any member state of the European Economic Area other than the United Kingdom, the offering will be made pursuant to available exemptions under the Prospectus Directive. The offering is subject to a lower limit per order of EUR 100,000.

This press release is for information only and does not constitute or form part of and should not be construed as an offer to sell or issue or the solicitation of any offer to buy or acquire securities of Vale or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates in Hong Kong or an inducement to enter into investment activity, and neither this press release nor anything herein forms the basis for any contract or commitment for such purpose. This press release has not been registered with the Registrar of Companies in Hong Kong and its contents have not been reviewed by any regulatory authority in Hong Kong. Accordingly, (a) the securities referred to in this press release may not be offered, sold, transferred or delivered in Hong Kong by means of any document other than to persons who are professional investors within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 572, Laws of Hong Kong) and any rules made thereunder or in other circumstances which do not result in the document being a prospectus within the meaning of the Companies Ordinance (Cap.32, Laws of Hong Kong) or which do not constitute an offer to the public within the meaning of the Companies Ordinance; and (b) no person may issue any invitation, advertisement or other document relating to the securities referred to in this press release whether in Hong Kong or elsewhere, which is directed at, or the contents of which are likely to be accessed or read by, the public in Hong Kong (except if permitted to do so under the applicable securities law in Hong Kong) other than with respect to the securities which are or are intended to be disposed of only to persons outside Hong Kong or only to professional investors within the meaning of the Securities and Futures Ordinance and any rules made thereunder.

In connection with the offering, a stabilization agent will be appointed and the stabilization agent (or persons acting on behalf of the stabilization agent) may over-allot shares or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the shares at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, there is no assurance that the stabilization agent (or persons acting on behalf of the stabilization agent) will undertake stabilization action. Any stabilization action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the final price of the shares is made and, if begun, may be ended at any time, but it must end no later than 30 days after the date shares have been allotted in the offering. Any stabilization action or over-allotment must be conducted by the stabilization agent (or persons acting on behalf of the stabilization agent) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules. In order to cover any over-allotments, Vale will grant the joint bookrunners an over-allotment option, which is exercisable in whole or in part within a 30-day period from the date shares have been allocated in the offering.
