Item 4. Description of Securities.

Under the Excess 401(k) Plan and the Excess 401(k) Plan for Designated Senior Executives, the Registrant provides eligible employees the opportunity to defer a specific percentage of their cash compensation. Under the Bonus Deferral Plan and the Bonus Deferral Plan for Designated Senior Executives, the Registrant provides eligible employees the opportunity to defer a specific percentage of their bonus compensation. The obligations of the Registrant under such Plans (the Obligations) will be unsecured general obligations of the Registrant to pay the deferred compensation, including, in the case of the Excess 401(k) Plan and the Excess 401(k) Plan for Designated Senior Executives, the amounts that the Registrant has credited to a participant s account as matching contributions, and earnings credited on such amounts in the future in accordance with the terms of the applicable Plan, and will rank equally and without preference with other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Registrant from time to time outstanding.

Under the Plans, amounts credited to a participant s account are credited with earnings based on a notional investment measurement, which may be shares in investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (mutual funds), commingled investment funds managed by banks or registered investment advisors, bank and debt obligations, investment contracts issued by insurance companies, direct or guaranteed federal or state governmental obligations and shares of common stock that are listed on a domestic or international stock exchange, including shares of the Registrant s Class A Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share, and Class B Common Stock, par value $0.001 per share. The Obligations are payable in cash after termination of employment in a lump-sum distribution or in installments, in accordance with the participant s payment election made in accordance with the terms of the applicable plan.

The Obligations are not subject in any manner to anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Any attempt by any person to transfer or assign benefits under the Plans, other than a claim for benefits by a participant or his or her beneficiary(ies), will be null and void.

There is no trading market for the Obligations. The Obligations are not convertible into any other security of the Registrant. No trustee has been appointed to take action with respect to the Obligations and each participant in the Plans will be responsible for enforcing his or her own rights with respect to the Obligations. The Registrant may, but is not obligated to, set aside amounts or establish a trust or fund to serve as a source of funds from which it can satisfy the Obligations. Participants in the Plans will have no rights to any assets held in any trust or fund except as general creditors of the Registrant. Assets in any trust or fund will at all times be subject to the claims of the Registrant s general creditors.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Certain legal matters with respect to the enforceability of the Obligations have been passed upon for the Registrant by Louis J. Briskman, Esq., Senior Executive Vice President and General Counsel of the Registrant. Mr. Briskman participates in the Excess 401(k) Plan for Designated Senior Executives and may continue to do so in the future.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant is incorporated in the State of Delaware. Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) allows a corporation to include in its certificate of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except in cases where the director breached his or her duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, failed to act in good faith, engaged in intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, willfully or negligently authorized the unlawful payment of a dividend or approved an unlawful stock redemption or repurchase or obtained an improper personal benefit. The Registrant s Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation (the CBS Charter) contains provisions that eliminate directors personal liability, in certain circumstances.

Pursuant to the CBS Charter and the Registrant's Amended and Restated Bylaws (the CBS Bylaws), the Registrant shall indemnify any person who was or is involved in or is threatened to be involved in any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer or employee (including a trustee) of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (such person, an indemnitee), to the fullest extent authorized by the DGCL, as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including attorneys fees), actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except with respect to proceedings to enforce rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses, the Registrant shall indemnify an indemnitee in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the indemnitee, if and only if the Board of Directors of the Registrant authorized the bringing of the action, suit or proceeding (or part thereof) in advance of the commencement of the proceeding.

Pursuant to the CBS Charter and the CBS Bylaws, to the extent that an indemnitee has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the indemnification provisions of the CBS Charter and the CBS Bylaws shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any statute, bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office. Without limiting the foregoing, the Registrant is authorized to enter into an agreement with any director, officer or employee of the Registrant providing indemnification for such person against expenses, including attorneys fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement that result from any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including any action, suit or proceeding by or in the right of the Registrant, that arises by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, to the fullest extent allowed by law, except that no such agreement shall provide for indemnification for any actions that constitute fraud, actual dishonesty or willful misconduct. The Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors, the form of which is filed as exhibit 10 to the Form 8-K filed by the Registrant on September 18, 2009 (File. No. 001-09553) and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Registrant may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer or employee of the Registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the Registrant as a director, officer or employee of another corporation, limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Registrant would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of the CBS Charter. The Registrant has purchased certain liability insurance for its officers and directors as permitted by Section 145(g) of the DGCL.
