Item 1.01.

Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 31, 2014, Douglas Dynamics, Inc. (the Company), as guarantor, and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, Douglas Dynamics, L.L.C. (DDI LLC), Douglas Dynamics Finance Company (DDI Finance), Fisher, LLC (Fisher), Trynex International LLC (Trynex), and, following the consummation of the Merger Transaction (as defined below), Henderson Enterprises Group, Inc. (as successor by merger to DDIZ Acquisition, Inc.) (Enterprises) and Henderson Products, Inc. (Products), as borrowers (collectively, the Borrowers), entered into a Second Amended and Restated Credit and Guaranty Agreement (the Revolving Credit Agreement) with the banks and financial institutions listed in the Revolving Credit Agreement, as lenders, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as joint bookrunners and joint lead arrangers, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as syndication agent. The Revolving Credit Agreement was an amendment and restatement of an existing Amended and Restated Credit and Guaranty Agreement, dated as of April 18, 2011, as amended by a First Amendment, dated as of November 9, 2012. The following summary of the material terms of the Revolving Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Revolving Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Revolving Credit Agreement provides for a senior secured revolving credit facility in the amount of $100.0 million, of which $10.0 million will be available in the form of letters of credit and $5.0 million will be available for the issuance of short-term swingline loans. The Revolving Credit Agreement also allows the Borrowers to request the establishment of one or more additional revolving commitments in an aggregate amount not in excess of $30.0 million, subject to specified terms and conditions. The availability of credit under the facility is limited by a borrowing base, which is 85% of the eligible accounts receivable of the Borrowers, plus the lesser of 70% of the cost and 85% of the net recovery value of eligible inventory, plus certain cash and cash equivalents, less any reserves established by the collateral agent or administrative agent, all as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement. For purposes of the borrowing base, the advance rate in respect of accounts and inventory of Enterprises and its subsidiaries is limited to 75% until an acceptable field exam is completed. The final maturity date of the Revolving Credit Agreement is December 31, 2019.

The Borrowers will be required to pay a fee for unused amounts under the Revolving Credit Agreement in an amount ranging from 0.25% to 0.375% of the unused portion of the facility, depending on the utilization of the facility. The Revolving Credit Agreement provides that the Borrowers have the option to select whether borrowings will bear interest at either (i) a margin ranging from 1.50% to 2.00% per annum, depending on the utilization of the facility, plus the London Interbank Offered Rate for the applicable interest period multiplied by the Statutory Reserve Rate (as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement) or (ii) a margin ranging from 0.50% to 1.00% per annum, depending on the utilization of the facility, plus the greatest of (a) the Prime Rate (as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement) in effect on such day, (b) the weighted average of the rates on overnight Federal funds transactions with members of the Federal Reserve System arranged by Federal funds brokers plus 0.50% and (c) the London Interbank Offered Rate for a one month interest period multiplied by the Statutory Reserve Rate plus 1%.

On December 31, 2014, DDI LLC, as borrower, and the Company, DDI Finance, Fisher, Trynex, and, following the consummation of the Merger Transaction, Enterprises and Products, as guarantors, also entered into an Amended and Restated Credit and Guaranty Agreement (the Term Loan Credit Agreement) with the banks and financial institutions listed therein, as lenders, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as joint bookrunners and joint lead arrangers, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as collateral agent and administrative agent, and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., as syndication agent. The Term Loan Credit Agreement was an amendment and restatement of an existing Credit and Guaranty Agreement, dated as of April 18, 2011. The following summary of the material terms of the Term Loan Credit Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Term Loan Credit Agreement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated by reference herein.

The Term Loan Credit Agreement provides for a senior secured term loan facility in the aggregate principal amount of $190.0 million and generally bears interest at (at DDI LLC's election) either (i) 3.25% per annum plus the greatest of (a) the Prime Rate (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) in effect on such day, (b) the weighted average of the rates on overnight Federal funds transactions with members of the Federal Reserve System arranged by Federal funds brokers plus 0.50% and (c) 1.00% plus the greater of (1) the London Interbank Offered Rate for a one month interest period multiplied by the Statutory Reserve Rate (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) and (2) 1.00% or (ii) 4.25% per annum plus the greater of (a) the London Interbank Offered Rate for the applicable interest period multiplied by the Statutory Reserve Rate and (b) 1.00%. The Term Loan Credit Agreement also allows DDI LLC to request the establishment of one or more additional term loan commitments in an aggregate amount not in excess of $80.0 million subject to specified terms and conditions, which amount may be further increased so long as the First Lien Debt Ratio (as defined in the Term Loan Credit Agreement) is not greater than 3.25 to 1.00. The final maturity date of the Term Loan Credit Agreement is December 31, 2021. DDI LLC applied all of the proceeds of the Term Loan Credit Agreement to the payment of transaction consideration and expenses in connection with the Revolving Credit Agreement, the Term Loan Credit Agreement and the Merger Transaction.

The Revolving Credit Agreement and the Term Loan Credit Agreement include customary representations, warranties and negative and affirmative covenants, as well as customary events of default and certain cross default provisions that could result in acceleration of the Revolving Credit Agreement or the Term Loan Credit Agreement. Subject to certain qualifications and exceptions, the amended and restated Revolving Credit Agreement and the Term Loan Credit Agreement will, among other things, limit the ability of the Company and the Borrowers to:

- incur or guarantee additional indebtedness;
- create liens;
- enter into sale and leaseback transactions;
- make further negative pledges;
- make certain dividends, distributions and other restricted payments;
- create restrictions on distributions by subsidiaries;

- make certain investments;
- make certain fundamental changes, asset dispositions and acquisitions;
- dispose of interests in subsidiaries;
- change their fiscal year;
- engage in certain transactions with shareholders and affiliates;

- engage in different lines of business;
- permit the Company to engage in any activity not related to its status as a public company or its ownership of the interests of DDI LLC;
- amend or waive rights under certain agreements; or
- prepay other indebtedness.

In addition, the Revolving Credit Agreement (i) requires the Company to have a Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (as defined in the Revolving Credit Agreement) of not less than 1.0 to 1.0 at any time when the excess availability of the Borrowers is less than the greater of $10,000,000 and 10.0% of the revolving commitments and (ii) restricts the ability of the Company and its subsidiaries to make capital expenditures.

The Revolving Credit Agreement and the Term Loan Credit Agreement are secured by substantially all of the assets of the Company and the Borrowers owned as of December 31, 2014 or acquired thereafter.
