FORM 6-K

On June 6, 2018 SAP SE (SAP) delivered a presentation to financial analysts at SAP's Sapphire conference at which SAP's management discussed, among other things, SAP's Q1 2018 performance and provided an updated anticipated currency impact of exchange rates as of the end of May, 2018 on the Q2 and FY 2018 results. A copy of the slide used in the presentation is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

Any statements contained in this report that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements as defined in the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as anticipate, believe, estimate, expect, forecast, intend, may, plan, project, predict and similar expressions as they relate to SAP are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. SAP undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements are subject to various risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from expectations. The factors that could affect SAP's future financial results are discussed more fully in SAP's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), including SAP's most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the SEC. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of their dates.

The information furnished herewith in this report shall not be deemed filed for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, (the Exchange Act) or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section, and shall not be deemed to be incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, whether made before or after the date of this report, regardless of any general incorporation by reference language in such filing.
