Item 5. Other Events.

On June 25, 2004, we received a lawsuit filed by Manhattan Scientifics, Inc. The lawsuit was filed in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, Index No. 601793/04. The plaintiff is Manhattan Scientifics, Inc. and the defendants are us and Richard Govatski, individually. Mr. Govatski is our President and director. The 2 claims for relief in the complaint are as follows: (1) alleged breach of a Common Stock Purchase Warrant issued by us to Manhattan Scientifics for allegedly declining to honor Manhattan Scientifics request to exercise, on a cashless basis, certain of the warrants, and (2) a claim for tortious interference with contract against Mr. Govatski, individually. Both claims are each for damages not less than $1,500,000. For the claim against us, it is our position, among other defenses that the warrants were issued in a transaction that was not an arms length transaction and therefore, the warrants, among other things, cannot be honored and should be cancelled. We intend to vigorously defend this lawsuit. This claim and the causes of action are the same claims and causes of action that were filed against us in the lawsuit filed by the same plaintiff in federal court earlier this month. Such claims were dismissed for lack of diversity jurisdiction.
