Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 22, 2005, in connection with Mr. H. Howard Cooper's resignation as an executive chairman of the Company, Teton Petroleum Company ("we" or the "Company") replaced Mr. Cooper's existing employment contract with the Company with a consulting agreement with Mr. Cooper.

The consulting agreement provides for Mr. Cooper's retention as a consultant for an initial term ending on February 28, 2006, and will continue for an additional one-year term unless 60 days prior to the anniversary date either party gives notice of his or its desire to terminate the agreement. The consulting contract provides for compensation for Mr. Cooper at his level of compensation as Chairman ($200,000) and retains all benefits previously provided under his employment agreement. In the event that Mr. Cooper's consulting contract is terminated other than for cause, he is entitled to a severance benefit of 12 months compensation. Mr. Cooper also agreed not to compete with the Company during the term of the consulting agreement and for so long as he receives severance benefits.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

On February 22, 2005, we rescinded Mr. Cooper's existing employment contract with the Company and replaced it with a consulting contract. See "Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement." Mr. Cooper's employment agreement had provided for an initial base salary of $13,339 per month, and was for an initial term of 3 years.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On February 22, 2005, Mr. Cooper resigned as Executive Chairman of the Company. As Executive Chairman, Mr. Cooper had an active role in the day-to-day affairs of the Company. Mr. Cooper will stand for re-election as a director of the Company.

On February 22, 2005, the Company's Board of Directors unanimously elected James J. Woodcock, a director of the Company, as its non-executive Chairman. Mr. Woodcock will not have an active role in the day-to-day affairs of the Company.
