Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 6, 2014, Pyramid Oil Company, a California corporation (“Pyramid”), Yuma Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Yuma”), Pyramid Delaware Merger Subsidiary, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Pyramid (“Delaware Merger Subsidiary”), and Pyramid Merger Subsidiary, Inc., a Delaware corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Delaware Merger Subsidiary (“Merger Subsidiary”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger and Reorganization (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, among other things, (i) Pyramid will, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, merge with and into Delaware Merger Subsidiary (the “Reincorporation Merger”), the separate corporate existence of Pyramid shall cease and Delaware Merger Subsidiary shall be the successor or surviving corporation of the merger (“Pyramid Delaware”), and (ii) following the Reincorporation Merger, Merger Subsidiary will, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, merge with and into Yuma (the “Merger”), the separate corporate existence of Merger Subsidiary shall cease and Yuma shall be the successor or surviving corporation of the Merger and a wholly owned subsidiary of Pyramid Delaware. The Reincorporation Merger and the Merger are intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as a tax-free reorganization under the provisions of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Upon the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, Pyramid will become a Delaware corporation, each share of Pyramid common stock will be converted into one share of Pyramid Delaware common stock and each option to acquire Pyramid common stock granted pursuant to Pyramid's 2006 Equity Incentive Plan and outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of the Reincorporation Merger, whether vested or unvested, exercisable or unexercisable, will be automatically converted into the right to receive one share of Pyramid Delaware common stock for each share of Pyramid common stock subject to such option, on the same terms and conditions applicable to the option to purchase Pyramid common stock. Additionally, Pyramid will change its name to "Yuma Energy, Inc."

Upon consummation of the Merger, Yuma will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Pyramid Delaware and, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, holders of Yuma securities will receive, in exchange for such securities, up to 66,336,701 shares of Pyramid Delaware common stock, representing approximately 93% of Pyramid Delaware's shares of common stock to be outstanding, including shares of common stock subject to outstanding stock options. The parties to the Merger Agreement intend to consummate the Merger as soon as practicable after the Reincorporation Merger.

The respective boards of directors of Pyramid, Yuma, Delaware Merger Subsidiary and Merger Subsidiary have determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are fair to, advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders, and have unanimously approved the Merger and the Merger Agreement. The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are subject to approval of Pyramid's and Yuma's respective shareholders at shareholders' meetings to be called and held by Pyramid and Yuma, respectively, delivery to Pyramid of Yuma's audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2013 and other closing conditions, including the filing and effectiveness of a registration statement on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).

Pyramid and Yuma have made customary representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement and agreed to certain customary covenants, including covenants regarding operation of their respective business prior to the consummation of the Merger and covenants prohibiting Pyramid and Yuma from soliciting, or providing information or entering into discussions regarding, proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions, except in limited circumstances to permit the board of directors of each of Pyramid and Yuma to comply with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

Under the Merger Agreement, at the closing of the Merger, all of the directors and officers of Pyramid Delaware will resign from their positions as directors and officers effective upon the election of Yuma's designees, Sam L. Banks (Chairman), Richard K. Stoneburner, James W. Christmas, Frank A. Lodzinski, Richard W. Volk and Ben T. Morris as directors of Pyramid Delaware, and the appointment of Mr. Banks as Chief Executive Officer, Michael F. Conlon as President and Chief Operating Officer, and Kirk F. Sprunger as Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary, respectively, of Pyramid Delaware.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Pyramid and Yuma, including, among other things, if the Merger is not consummated on or before December 31, 2014, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances, each of Pyramid and Yuma may be obligated to pay the other party a fee of $1,000,000.

The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties by Pyramid, Delaware Merger Subsidiary and Merger Subsidiary, on the one hand, and by Yuma, on the other hand, made solely for the benefit of the other. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the Merger Agreement. The disclosure schedules contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, certain representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from what might be viewed as material to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between Pyramid, on the one hand, and Yuma, on the other hand. Accordingly, the representations and warranties and other disclosures in the Merger Agreement should not be relied on by any persons as characterizations of the actual state of facts about Pyramid or Yuma at the time they were made or otherwise.

Michael Herman, Pyramid's interim President and Chief Executive Officer, has entered into a voting agreement (the "Herman Voting Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, Mr. Herman has agreed to vote the shares of Pyramid common stock beneficially owned by him in favor of the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. As of the date hereof, Mr. Herman beneficially owns approximately 41% of the issued and outstanding shares of Pyramid common stock. Certain stockholders of Yuma have also entered into a voting agreement (the "Yuma Stockholders' Voting Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, such stockholders have agreed to vote the shares of Yuma common stock beneficially owned by them in favor of the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement and the approval of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. As of the date hereof, such Yuma stockholders beneficially own approximately 67% of the issued and outstanding common stock equivalent of Yuma.

The preceding summary does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, the Herman Voting Agreement and the form of Yuma Stockholders' Voting Agreement, which are filed as Exhibits 2.1, 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and which are incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On February 6, 2014, Pyramid and Yuma issued a joint press release announcing that they had entered into the Merger Agreement. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 hereto.
