SUBJECT TO COMPLETION, DATED DECEMBER 14, 2015

PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

To the Shareholders of Floridian Financial Group, Inc.:

On November 2, 2015, Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida, or Seacoast, Seacoast National Bank, or SNB, Floridian Financial Group, Inc., or Floridian, and Floridian Bank entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (which we refer to as the merger agreement) that provides for the acquisition of Floridian by Seacoast. Under the merger agreement, Floridian will merge with and into Seacoast, with Seacoast as the surviving corporation (which we refer to as the merger). Immediately following the merger, Floridian Bank will merge with and into SNB, with SNB as the surviving bank (which we refer to as the bank merger).

In the merger, each share of Floridian common stock (except for specified shares of Floridian common stock held by Floridian or Seacoast and any dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive, at the shareholder's election, either: (a) a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 shares of Seacoast common stock (which we refer to as the mixed election consideration); (b) $12.25 in cash (which we refer to as the cash election consideration); or (c) 0.8140 shares of Seacoast common stock (which we refer to as the stock election consideration). Both the cash election consideration and the stock election consideration are subject to proration and adjustment procedures to ensure that the total amount of cash paid, and the total number of shares of Seacoast common stock issued, in the merger to Floridian shareholders, as a whole, will equal as nearly as practicable the total amount of cash and number of shares that would have been paid and issued if all of the Floridian shareholders received the mixed election consideration. Floridian shareholders who fail to make a timely election or who make no election will receive the mixed election consideration.

The precise consideration that Floridian shareholders will receive if they elect the cash election consideration or the stock election consideration will not be known at the time that Floridian shareholders vote on the approval of the merger agreement or make an election. For a description of the consideration that Floridian shareholders will receive if they elect the cash election consideration or the stock election consideration, and the potential adjustments to this consideration, see The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 59 of this proxy statement/prospectus and The Merger Agreement Election and Proration Procedures beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Based on the closing price of Seacoast's common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on [], the last practicable date before the date of this document, the value of the mixed election consideration was approximately $[]. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for Seacoast (trading symbol SBCF) because the value of the per share stock consideration will fluctuate.

Based on the current number of shares of Floridian common stock outstanding and reserved for issuance under Floridian warrants and employee benefit plans, Seacoast expects to issue approximately 3.28 million shares of common stock and pay approximately $26.6 million in cash to Floridian shareholders in the aggregate upon completion of the merger. Based on these numbers, upon completion of the merger, current Floridian shareholders would own approximately 8.8% of the common stock of Seacoast immediately following the merger. However, any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Floridian common stock outstanding that occurs for any reason prior to the completion of the merger would cause the actual number of shares issued upon completion of the merger to change.

Floridian will hold a special meeting of its shareholders in connection with the merger. Holders of Floridian common stock will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement and related matters as described in this proxy statement/prospectus. Floridian shareholders will also be asked to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the merger agreement and related matters, as described in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The special meeting of Floridian shareholders will be held on [] at Westin Lake Mary, 2974 International Parkway, Lake Mary, Florida 32746, at [] local time.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Floridian's board of directors has determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the merger, are in the best interests of Floridian and its shareholders, has unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that Floridian shareholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn the Floridian special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

This document, which serves as a proxy statement for the special meeting of Floridian shareholders and as a prospectus for the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued in the merger to Floridian shareholders, describes the special meeting of Floridian, the merger, the documents related to the merger and other related matters. Please carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus, including Risk Factors beginning on page 14 of this proxy statement/prospectus, for a discussion of the risks relating to the proposed merger. You also can obtain information about Seacoast from documents that Seacoast has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETING

The following are answers to certain questions that you may have regarding the special meeting and merger. The parties urge you to read carefully the remainder of this document because the information in this section may not provide all the information that might be important to you in determining how to vote. Additional important information is also contained in the appendices to, and the documents incorporated by reference in, this document. In this proxy statement/prospectus we refer to Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida as Seacoast, Seacoast National Bank as SNB, Floridian Financial Group, Inc. as Floridian and Floridian Bank as Floridian Bank.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement/prospectus?

Seacoast, SNB, Floridian and Floridian Bank have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 2, 2015 (which we refer to as the merger agreement) pursuant to which Floridian will be merged with and into Seacoast, with Seacoast continuing as the surviving company (which we refer to as the merger).

A: Immediately following the merger, Floridian Bank, a wholly owned bank subsidiary of Floridian, will merge with and into Seacoast's wholly owned bank subsidiary, SNB, with SNB continuing as the surviving bank and continuing under the name Seacoast National Bank (the bank merger). A copy of the merger agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A.

The merger cannot be completed unless, among other things, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

In addition, Floridian is soliciting proxies from holders of Floridian common stock with respect to a proposal to adjourn the Floridian special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement if there are insufficient votes at the time of such adjournment to approve such proposal.

Floridian will hold a special meeting to obtain these approvals. This proxy statement/prospectus contains important information about the merger and the other proposals being voted on at the special meeting, and you should read it carefully. It is a proxy statement because Floridian's board of directors is soliciting proxies from its shareholders. It is a prospectus because Seacoast will issue shares of Seacoast common stock to holders of Floridian common stock in connection with the merger. The enclosed materials allow you to have your shares voted by proxy without attending the Floridian special meeting. Your vote is important. We encourage you to submit your proxy as soon as possible.

Q: Why do Seacoast and Floridian want to merge?

We believe the combination of Seacoast and Floridian will create one of the leading community banking franchises in the state of Florida. The Floridian board of directors has determined that the merger is fair to, and in the best interest of, its shareholders, and Floridian recommends that its shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement.

A: You should review the reasons for the merger described in greater detail under The Merger Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Floridian Board of Directors beginning on page 30 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: If the merger is completed, each issued and outstanding share of Floridian common stock, other than (i) any shares of Floridian common stock held in the treasury of Floridian or owned by Seacoast, SNB, Floridian Bank or by any of their respective subsidiaries (other than any such shares owned in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted), which will each be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor (the shares in (i) are referred to as "excluded shares") and (ii) shares of Floridian common stock held by Floridian shareholders who have perfected and not effectively withdrawn a demand for, or lost the right to, appraisal under Florida law, which shall be entitled to the appraisal rights provided under Florida law as described under The Merger Appraisal Rights for Floridian Shareholders beginning on page 53 of this proxy statement/prospectus (the shares in (ii) are referred to as "dissenting shares"), will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof (subject to the proration procedures described below): (a) a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 shares of Seacoast common stock (which we refer to as the mixed election consideration); (b) $12.25 in cash (which we refer to as the cash election consideration); or (c) 0.8140 shares of Seacoast common stock (which we refer to as the stock election consideration). Seacoast will not issue any fractional shares of Seacoast common stock in the merger. Rather, Floridian shareholders who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Seacoast common stock upon the completion of the merger will instead receive an amount in cash equal to such fractional part of a share of Seacoast common stock multiplied by the average closing price per share of Seacoast common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the ten trading day period ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger.

vii

Q: Will Floridian shareholders receive the form of consideration they elect?

Each Floridian shareholder that elects to receive the mixed election consideration will receive the form of consideration that such shareholder elects in the merger. Each Floridian shareholder that elects to receive consideration other than the mixed election consideration may not receive the exact form of consideration that such shareholder elects in the merger. It is currently estimated that, if the merger is completed, Seacoast will issue approximately 3.28 million shares of Seacoast common stock and that the amount of cash to be paid to Floridian shareholders will be approximately $26.6 million. Under the proration and adjustment procedures provided for in the merger agreement, the total amount of cash paid, and the total number of shares of Seacoast common stock issued, in the merger to the holders of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares), as a whole, will equal as nearly as practicable the total amount of cash and number of shares that would have been paid and issued if all of such shares of Floridian common stock were converted into the mixed election consideration.

A: Holders of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares and dissenting shares) who make no election or an untimely election will receive the mixed election consideration with respect to such shares of Floridian common stock. The mix of consideration payable to Floridian shareholders who make the cash election or the stock election will not be known until the results of the elections made by Floridian shareholders are tallied, which will not occur until near or after the closing of the merger. The greater the oversubscription of the stock election consideration, the less stock and more cash a Floridian shareholder making the stock election will receive. Reciprocally, the greater the oversubscription of the cash election consideration, the less cash and more stock a Floridian shareholder making the cash election will receive. However, in no event will a Floridian shareholder who makes the cash election or the stock election receive less cash and more shares of Seacoast common stock, or fewer shares of Seacoast common stock and more cash, respectively, than a shareholder who elects the mixed election consideration. See The Merger Agreement Election and Proration Procedures Proration Procedures beginning on page 61 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: How do Floridian shareholders make their election to receive cash, shares of Seacoast common stock or a combination of both?

An election form will be mailed on a date to be mutually agreed by Floridian and Seacoast that is thirty to forty-five days prior to the anticipated closing date of the merger or on such other date as Seacoast and Floridian mutually agree (the election form mailing date) to each holder of record of shares of Floridian common stock as of the close of business on the fifth business day prior to such mailing (the election form record date). Seacoast will also make one or more election forms available, if requested, to each person that subsequently becomes a holder or

A: beneficial owner of shares of Floridian common stock. Each Floridian shareholder should complete and return the election form according to the instructions included with the form. The election form will be provided to Floridian shareholders under separate cover and is not being provided with this document. The election deadline will be 5:00 p.m., Eastern time, on the twenty-fifth day following the election form mailing date (or such other time and date as Seacoast and Floridian shall agree) (the election deadline). See The Merger Agreement Election and Proration Procedures Election Materials and Procedures beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

If you own shares of Floridian common stock in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee and you wish to make an election, you should seek instructions from the bank, broker or other nominee holding your shares concerning how to make an election.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Q: What happens if a Floridian shareholder does not make a valid election to receive cash or Seacoast common shares?

If a Floridian shareholder does not return a properly completed election form by the election deadline, such shareholder will be deemed to have made the mixed election described above, and his or her shares of Floridian

A: common stock (other than excluded shares and proposed dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive the mixed election consideration with respect to such shares of Floridian common stock. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 59 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Will the value of the stock election consideration and the mixed election consideration change between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the time the merger is completed?

Yes, the value of the stock election consideration and the mixed election consideration will fluctuate between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the completion of the merger based upon the market value of Seacoast common stock. In the merger, holders of Floridian common stock who receive all or a portion of their merger

A: consideration in the form of Seacoast common stock will receive a fraction of a share of Seacoast common stock for each share of Floridian common stock they hold. Any fluctuation in the market price of Seacoast common stock after the date of this proxy statement/prospectus will change the value of the shares of Seacoast common stock that Floridian shareholders will receive.

Q: How does Floridian's board of directors recommend that I vote at the special meeting?

A: Floridian's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and FOR the adjournment proposal.

Q: When and where is the special meeting?

A: The Floridian special meeting will be held on [], at Westin Lake Mary, 2974 International Parkway, Lake Mary, Florida 32746, at [] local time.

Q: Who can vote at the special meeting of shareholders?

A: Holders of record of Floridian common stock at the close of business on [], which is the date that the Floridian board of directors has fixed as the record date for the special meeting, are entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: What do I need to do now?

After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in your name as a shareholder of record, you must complete, sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid return envelope as soon as possible. You should return your proxy card even if you plan to attend the special meeting in person. You may also authorize a proxy to vote your shares by telephone or through

A: the Internet as instructed on the enclosed proxy card. If you hold your shares in street name through a bank, broker or other nominee, you must direct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank, broker or other nominee. Street name shareholders who wish to vote in person at the special meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares. Submitting your proxy card, authorizing a proxy by telephone or through the Internet, or directing your bank or broker to vote your shares will ensure that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the special meeting?

A: The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes, if any, will be included in determining the number of shares present at the meeting for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

ix

Q: What is the vote required to approve each proposal?

Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock entitled to vote on the merger agreement as of the close of business on [], the record date for the special meeting. If you (1) fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, (2) A: mark ABSTAIN on your proxy or (3) fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote with respect to the proposal to approve the merger agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal and no effect on the adjournment proposal. The adjournment proposal will be approved if the votes of Floridian common stock cast in favor of the adjournment proposal exceed the votes cast against the adjournment proposal.

Q: Why is my vote important?

If you do not submit a proxy or vote in person, it may be more difficult for Floridian to obtain the necessary quorum to hold its special meeting. In addition, your failure to submit a proxy or vote in person, or failure to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote, or abstention will have the same effect as a vote against A: approval of the merger agreement. The merger agreement must be approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock entitled to vote on the merger agreement. Floridian's board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Q: How many votes do I have?

You are entitled to one vote for each share of Floridian common stock that you owned as of the close of business on the record date. As of the close of business on the record date, [] shares of Floridian common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote at the Floridian special meeting.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my bank, broker or other nominee, will my bank, broker or other nominee automatically vote my shares for me?

No. Your bank, broker or other nominee cannot vote your shares without instructions from you. You should A: instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote your shares in accordance with the instructions provided to you. Please check the voting form used by your bank, broker or other nominee.

Q: What if I abstain from voting or fail to instruct my bank, broker or other nominee?

If you (1) fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, (2) mark ABSTAIN on your proxy or (3) fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote with respect to the proposal to approve the merger A: agreement, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the proposal. If you fail to submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting or fail to instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote or mark ABSTAIN on your proxy with respect to the adjournment proposal, it will have no effect on such proposal.

Q: Can I attend the special meeting and vote my shares in person?

Yes. All Floridian shareholders, including shareholders of record and shareholders who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Holders of record of Floridian common stock can vote in person at the special meeting even if they have already sent in their proxy card. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. A: If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership. In addition, you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. Floridian reserves the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership or without proper photo identification. The use of cameras, sound recording equipment, communications devices or any similar equipment during the special meeting is prohibited without Floridian's express written consent.

Q: Can I change my vote?

Yes. If you are a holder of record of Floridian common stock, you may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Floridian's corporate secretary, (3) following the instructions on your proxy card and revoking via telephone or the Internet or (4) attending the special meeting in person, notifying the corporate secretary and voting by ballot at the special meeting. Attendance at the special meeting will not automatically revoke your proxy. A revocation or later-dated proxy received by Floridian after the vote will not affect the vote. Floridian's corporate secretary's mailing address is: 175 Timacuan Blvd., Lake Mary, Florida 32746. If you hold your shares in street name through a bank or broker, you should contact your bank or broker to revoke your proxy.

Q: What are the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of Floridian common stock?

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, and it is a condition to the respective obligations of Floridian and Seacoast to complete the merger that each of Floridian and Seacoast receives a legal opinion to that effect. If, as expected, the merger qualifies as a reorganization, the specific tax consequences to a U.S. holder (as defined in The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 50 of this proxy statement/prospectus) exchanging Floridian common stock in the merger will generally depend upon the form of consideration such U.S. holder receives in the merger.

A U.S. holder exchanging all of its shares of Floridian common stock for solely Seacoast common stock (and cash instead of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock) pursuant to the merger agreement will generally not recognize gain or loss, except with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock.

A U.S. holder exchanging all of its shares of Floridian common stock for solely cash pursuant to the merger agreement will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash it receives and its cost basis in its Floridian common stock.

A U.S. holder exchanging all of its shares of Floridian common stock for a combination of Seacoast common stock and cash pursuant to the merger agreement will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock in the merger and (ii) the excess of the amount realized in the transaction (i.e., the fair market value of the Seacoast common stock at the effective time of the merger plus the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock in the merger) over its tax basis in its surrendered Floridian common stock.

For further information, see The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 50 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Floridian common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: Are Floridian shareholders entitled to appraisal rights?

Yes. If a Floridian shareholder wants to exercise appraisal rights and receive the fair value of shares of Floridian common stock in cash instead of the aggregate merger consideration, then you must file a written objection with Floridian prior to the special meeting stating, among other things, that you will exercise your right to dissent if the merger is completed. Also, you may not vote in favor of the merger agreement and must follow other procedures, both before and after the special meeting, as described in Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus. Note that if you return a signed proxy card without voting instructions or with instructions to vote FOR the merger agreement, then your shares will automatically be voted in favor of the merger agreement and you will lose all appraisal rights available under Florida law. A summary of these provisions can be found under The Merger Appraisal Rights for Floridian Shareholders beginning on page 53 of this proxy statement/prospectus and detailed information about the special meeting can be found under Information About the Floridian Special Meeting beginning on page 21 of this proxy statement/prospectus. Due to the complexity of the procedures for exercising the right to seek appraisal, Floridian shareholders who are considering exercising such rights are encouraged to seek the advice of legal counsel. Failure to strictly comply with the applicable Florida law provisions will result in the loss of the right of appraisal.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger is not completed, Floridian shareholders will not receive any consideration for their shares of Floridian common stock. Instead, Floridian will remain an independent company. Under specified circumstances, Floridian may be required to pay to Seacoast, and Seacoast may be entitled to receive from Floridian, (i) expense reimbursement up to a cap of $500,000 and (ii) a $3,000,000 termination fee (crediting any expense reimbursement paid), with respect to the termination of the merger agreement, as described under The Merger Agreement Expenses, The Merger Agreement Termination and The Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on pages 74, 72 and 73, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: If I am a Floridian shareholder, should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. Please do not send in your Floridian stock certificates with your proxy. Seacoast's transfer agent, Continental Stock Transfer and Trust Company, will send you instructions for exchanging Floridian stock certificates for the applicable merger consideration. See The Merger Agreement Procedures for Converting Shares of Floridian Common Stock into Merger Consideration beginning on page 63 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Whom may I contact if I cannot locate my Floridian stock certificate(s)?

A: If you are unable to locate your original Floridian stock certificate(s), you should contact ComputerShare, Inc., Attn: Lost Certificate Department at P.O. Box 30170, College Station, Texas 77842, or at (800) 368-5948. Following the merger, any inquiries should be directed to Seacoast's transfer agent, Continental Stock Transfer and Trust Company at 17 Battery Place, 8th Floor, New York, New York 10004, or at (800) 509-5586.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: Seacoast and Floridian expect to complete the merger in the first quarter of 2016. However, neither Seacoast nor Floridian can assure you when or if the merger will occur. Floridian must first obtain the approval of Floridian shareholders for the merger and Seacoast must receive the necessary regulatory approvals. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: If you have any questions concerning the merger or this proxy statement/prospectus, would like additional copies of this proxy statement/prospectus or need help voting your shares of Floridian common stock, please contact: Linda Cook, Corporate Secretary of Floridian, at (407) 321-9055.

SUMMARY

*The following summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus. It does not contain all of the information that is important to you. Each item in this summary refers to the page where that subject is discussed in more detail. You should carefully read the entire proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents to which we refer to fully understand the merger. See Where You Can Find More Information on how to obtain copies of those documents. In addition, the merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. Floridian and Seacoast encourage you to read the merger agreement because it is the legal document that governs the merger.*

Unless the context otherwise requires, throughout this document, we, and our refer collectively to Seacoast and Floridian. We refer to the proposed merger of Floridian with and into Seacoast as the merger, the merger of Floridian Bank with and into SNB as the bank merger, and the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 2, 2015 by and among Seacoast, SNB, Floridian and Floridian Bank as the merger agreement.

Information Regarding Seacoast and Floridian

Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida

815 Colorado Avenue
Stuart, Florida 34994
(772) 288-6085

Seacoast is a bank holding company, incorporated in Florida in 1983, and registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. Seacoast's principal subsidiary is SNB, a national banking association. SNB commenced its operations in 1933 and operated as First National Bank & Trust Company of the Treasure Coast prior to 2006 when it changed its name to Seacoast National Bank.

Seacoast and its subsidiaries provide integrated financial services, including commercial and retail banking, wealth management and mortgage services to customers through 43 traditional branches and five commercial banking centers. Offices stretch from Ft. Lauderdale, Boca Raton and West Palm Beach north through the Space Coast of Florida, into Orlando and Central Florida, and west to Okeechobee and surrounding counties.

Seacoast is one of the largest community banks headquartered in Florida with approximately $3.4 billion in assets and $2.7 billion in deposits as of September 30, 2015.

On October 14, 2015, Seacoast announced that SNB entered into a Branch Sale Agreement with BMO Harris Bank N.A. (which we refer to as BMO), pursuant to which SNB has agreed to purchase, subject to the terms and conditions of the Branch Sale Agreement, fourteen branches of BMO located in the Orlando MSA. SNB will assume approximately $355 million in deposits, of which approximately 56% are checking accounts, and approximately $70 million in loans related to business banking customers at a deposit premium of 3% of the deposit balances. Subject to regulatory approval and the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, the acquisition is expected to close in the first half of 2016. The foregoing transaction is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the branch acquisition.

Floridian Financial Group, Inc.

175 Timacuan Blvd,
Lake Mary, FL 32746
Telephone: (407) 321-3233

Floridian is a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, for Floridian Bank, and is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and Florida Office of Financial Regulation and is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida. Its main office is located at 175 Timacuan Boulevard, Lake Mary, Florida 32746. Floridian Bank is a Florida-chartered state nonmember bank, which commenced operations in 2006, and is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Florida Office of Financial Regulation and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Floridian Bank is a full-service commercial bank, providing a wide range of business and consumer financial services in its target marketplaces, and is headquartered in Daytona Beach, Florida.

Floridian became a multi-bank holding company in 2008 when it acquired Orange Bank of Florida (Orange Bank), a Florida-chartered commercial state nonmember bank headquartered in Orlando, Florida. In 2014, Orange Bank merged with and into Floridian Bank, with Floridian Bank continuing as the surviving Florida-chartered state nonmember bank.

At September 30, 2015, Floridian had total assets of approximately $423.4 million, total deposits of approximately $361.5 million, total net loans of approximately $284.1 million, and shareholders equity of approximately $51.0 million.

The Merger (see page 59)

The terms and conditions of the merger are contained in the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated by reference herein. You should read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

In the merger, Floridian will merge with and into Seacoast, with Seacoast as the surviving company in the merger. Immediately following the merger of Floridian into Seacoast, Floridian Bank will merge with and into SNB, with SNB as the surviving bank of such bank merger.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger (see page 59)

The closing date is currently expected to occur in the first quarter of 2016. Simultaneously with the closing of the merger, Seacoast will file the articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. The merger will become effective at such time as the articles of merger are filed or such other time as may be specified in the articles of merger. Neither Seacoast nor Floridian can predict, however, the actual date on which the merger will be completed because it is subject to factors beyond each company's control, including whether or when the required regulatory approvals and Floridian's shareholder approval will be received.

Merger Consideration (see page 59)

Floridian shareholders have a choice that will impact the consideration that they will receive in the merger. Each issued and outstanding share of Floridian common stock, other than excluded shares and dissenting shares, will be converted into the right to receive the mixed election consideration, which is a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 of a share of Seacoast common stock. Alternatively, Floridian shareholders will have the right to make either a cash election to receive the cash election consideration, which is $12.25 in cash, or a stock election to receive the stock election consideration, which is 0.8140 of a share of Seacoast common stock, for each of their Floridian shares. Both the cash election and the stock election are subject to the proration and adjustment procedures, described under The Merger Agreement Election and Proration Procedures beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus, to cause the total amount of cash paid, and the total number of shares of Seacoast common stock issued, in the merger to the holders of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares), as a whole, to equal as nearly as practicable the total amount of cash and number of shares that would have been paid and issued if all of such shares of Floridian common stock were converted into the mixed election consideration. Holders of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares and dissenting shares) who make no election or an untimely election will receive the mixed election consideration with respect to such shares of Floridian common stock.

No holder of Floridian common stock will be issued fractional shares of Seacoast common stock in the merger. Each holder of Floridian common stock who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Seacoast common stock will receive, in lieu thereof, cash, without interest, in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Seacoast common stock multiplied by the average closing price of Seacoast common stock, as recorded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, for the ten trading day period ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the effective time of the merger. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 59 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The value of the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger. Based on the closing price of Seacoast common stock on November 2, 2015, the date of the signing of the merger agreement, the value of the per share mixed election consideration payable to holders of Floridian common stock was approximately $12.53. Based on the closing price of Seacoast common stock on [], the last practicable date before the date of this document, the value of the per share mixed election consideration payable to holders of Floridian common stock was approximately $[]. Floridian shareholders should obtain current sale prices for Seacoast common stock, which is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol SBCF.

Election and Proration Procedures (see page 60)

Both the cash election consideration and the stock election consideration are subject to proration and adjustment procedures, depending on the aggregate elections of the Floridian shareholders. If a Floridian shareholder elects cash, and the product of the number of shares with respect to which cash elections have been made multiplied by the cash election consideration of $12.25 (such product, the cash election amount) is greater than the difference between (a) the product of $4.29 multiplied by the total number of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares) issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, minus (b) the product of (x) the total number of shares with respect to which a mixed election has been made multiplied by (y) $4.29, minus (c) the product of (i) the total number of proposed dissenting shares as of immediately prior to the effective time of the merger multiplied by (ii) the cash election consideration of $12.25 (such difference, the available cash election amount), such shareholder will receive for each share of Floridian common stock for which such shareholder elects cash:

an amount in cash (without interest) equal to $12.25 multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the available cash election amount and the denominator of which shall be the cash election amount (such fraction, the cash fraction); and a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Seacoast common stock equal to the product of the stock election consideration of 0.8140 multiplied by a fraction equal to one minus the cash fraction.

If a Floridian shareholder elects stock, and the available cash election amount is greater than the cash election amount, such shareholder will receive for each share of Floridian common stock for which such shareholder elects stock:

an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the amount of such excess divided by the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which stock elections were made; and a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Seacoast common stock equal to the product of (i) the stock election consideration of 0.8140 multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the difference between (a) $12.25 minus (b) the amount of cash calculated in the immediately preceding bullet, and the denominator of which shall be $12.25.

The greater the oversubscription of the stock election, the less stock and more cash a Floridian shareholder making the stock election will receive. Reciprocally, the greater the oversubscription of the cash election, the less cash and more stock a Floridian shareholder making the cash election will receive. However, in no event will a Floridian shareholder who makes the cash election or the stock election receive less cash and more shares of Seacoast common stock, or fewer shares of Seacoast common stock and more cash, respectively, than a shareholder who makes the mixed election. For additional detail and for illustrative examples, see The Merger Agreement Election and Proration Procedures beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Equivalent Floridian Common Per Share Value (see page 12)

Seacoast common stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol SBCF. The Floridian common stock is not listed or traded on any established securities exchange or quotation system. Accordingly, there is no established public trading market for the Floridian common stock. The following table presents the closing price of Seacoast common stock on November 2, 2015, the last trading date prior to the public announcement of the merger agreement, and [], the last practicable trading day prior to the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus. The table also presents the equivalent value of the mixed election consideration per share of Floridian common stock on those dates, calculated by multiplying the closing sales price of Seacoast common stock on those dates by the exchange ratio of 0.5291 and adding $4.29 to such amount.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Date	Seacoast closing sale price	Equivalent Floridian per share value
November 2, 2015	$ 15.57	$ 12.53
[]	$	$

The value of the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger. If Seacoast shares increase in value, so will the value of the mixed election consideration and stock election consideration. Similarly, if Seacoast shares decline in value, so will the value of the consideration to be received by Floridian shareholders. Floridian shareholders should obtain current sale prices for the Seacoast common stock.

Procedures for Converting Shares of Floridian Common Stock into Merger Consideration (see page 63)

Promptly after the effective time of the merger, Seacoast’s exchange agent, Continental Stock Transfer and Trust Company, will mail to each holder of record of Floridian common stock that is converted into the right to receive the applicable merger consideration a letter of transmittal and instructions for the surrender of the holder’s Floridian stock certificate(s) and book entry shares for the applicable merger consideration (including cash in lieu of any fractional Seacoast shares), and any dividends or distributions to which such holder is entitled to pursuant to the merger agreement.

Please do not send in your certificates until you receive these instructions.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (see page 50)

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as the Code, and it is a condition to the respective obligations of Floridian and Seacoast to complete the merger that each of Floridian and Seacoast receives a legal opinion to that effect. If, as expected, the merger qualifies as a reorganization, the specific tax consequences to a U.S. holder (as defined in The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 50 of this proxy statement/prospectus) exchanging Floridian common stock in the merger will generally depend upon the form of consideration such U.S. holder receives in the merger.

A U.S. holder exchanging all of its shares of Floridian common stock for solely Seacoast common stock (and cash instead of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock) pursuant to the merger agreement will generally not recognize gain or loss, except with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock.

A U.S. holder exchanging all of its shares of Floridian common stock for solely cash pursuant to the merger agreement will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash it receives and its cost basis in its Floridian common stock.

A U.S. holder exchanging all of its shares of Floridian common stock for a combination of Seacoast common stock and cash pursuant to the merger agreement will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock in the merger and (ii) the excess of the amount realized in the transaction (i.e., the fair market value of the Seacoast common stock at the effective time of the merger plus the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock in the merger) over its tax basis in its surrendered Floridian common stock.

For further information, see The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 50 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The U.S. federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to all holders of Floridian common stock. Your tax consequences will depend on your individual situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences of the merger to you.

Appraisal Rights (see page 53 and Appendix D)

Under Florida law, Floridian shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and receive a cash payment equal to the fair value of their shares of Floridian stock instead of receiving the applicable merger consideration. To exercise appraisal rights, Floridian shareholders must strictly follow the procedures established by Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the "FBCA"), which include filing a written objection with Floridian prior to the special meeting stating, among other things, that the shareholder will exercise his or her right to dissent if the merger is completed, and not voting for approval of the merger agreement. A shareholder's failure to vote against the merger agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights.

Opinions of Floridian's Financial Advisors (see page 33 and Appendices B and C)

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. ("Sandler O'Neill") has delivered a written opinion to the board of directors of Floridian that, as of the date of the merger agreement, based upon and subject to certain matters stated in the opinion, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Floridian common stock from a financial point of view. We have attached this opinion to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. The opinion of Sandler O'Neill is not a recommendation to any Floridian shareholder as to how to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Austin Associates, LLC ("Austin") has delivered a written opinion to the board of directors of Floridian that, as of the date of the merger agreement, based upon and subject to certain matters stated in the opinion, the terms of the merger agreement are fair to Floridian and its shareholders from a financial point of view. We have attached this opinion to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix C. The opinion of Austin is not a recommendation to any Floridian shareholder as to how to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

For further information, including with respect to the procedures followed, matters considered and limitations and qualifications on the reviews undertaken by each of Sandler O'Neill and Austin in providing its respective opinion, please see the section entitled The Merger - Opinions of Floridian's Financial Advisors beginning on page 33 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Recommendation of the Floridian Board of Directors (see page 21)

After careful consideration, the Floridian board of directors unanimously recommends that Floridian shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and the approval of the adjournment proposal described in this document.

Each of the directors of Floridian has entered into a voting agreement with Seacoast pursuant to which each has agreed to vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement and any other matter required to be approved by the shareholders of Floridian to facilitate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, subject to the terms of the voting agreements.

For more information regarding the voting agreements, please see the section entitled Information About the Floridian Special Meeting - Shares Subject to Voting Agreements; Shares Held by Directors beginning on page 23 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

For a more complete description of Floridian's reasons for the merger and the recommendations of the Floridian board of directors, please see the section entitled The Merger - Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Floridian Board of Directors beginning on page 69 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Interests of Floridian Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (see page 56)

In the merger, the directors and executive officers of Floridian will receive the same merger consideration for their Floridian shares as the other Floridian shareholders. In considering the recommendation of the Floridian board of directors that you vote to approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that some of the executive officers and directors of Floridian may have interests in the merger and may have arrangements that may be considered to be different from, or in addition to, those of Floridian shareholders generally. Interests of officers and directors that may be different from or in addition to the interests of Floridian's shareholders include:

The merger agreement provides for the acceleration of the vesting of certain Floridian stock options;

5

Floridian's directors and executive officers are entitled to continued indemnification and insurance coverage under the merger agreement;

Certain Floridian executives are entitled to certain payments upon a change of control of Floridian; and Thomas Dargan, Floridian's President and Chief Executive Officer, has entered into an employment agreement with SNB, effective as of the effective date of the merger.

These interests are discussed in more detail in the section entitled The Merger - Interests of Floridian Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement/prospectus. The Floridian board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, along with other matters, in reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Floridian shareholders vote in favor of approving the merger agreement.

Regulatory Approvals (see page 52)

Completion of the merger and the bank merger are subject to various regulatory approvals, including approvals from the Federal Reserve and the OCC. Notifications and/or applications requesting approvals for the merger or for the bank merger may also be submitted to other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. The parties have filed notices and applications to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals of the Federal Reserve and the OCC. Although the parties currently believe they should be able to obtain all regulatory approvals in a timely manner, they cannot be certain when or if they will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to or have a material adverse effect on the combined company after the completion of the merger. The regulatory approvals to which the completion of the merger and bank merger are subject are described in more detail under the section entitled The Merger - Regulatory Approvals, beginning on page 52 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (see page 71)

The completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or, where permitted, waived, including but not limited to:

- the approval of the merger agreement by Floridian shareholders;
- all regulatory approvals from the Federal Reserve, the FDIC, the OCC and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation, and any other regulatory approval the failure of which to obtain would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Seacoast or Floridian, in each case required to consummate the merger and the bank merger, shall have been obtained and remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods shall have expired, and, in the case of Seacoast, such approvals or consents shall not be subject to any conditions or consequences that would have a material adverse effect on Seacoast or any of its subsidiaries after the effective time of the merger (measured on a scale relative to Floridian);
- the absence of any order, injunction or decree issued by any court or agency of competent jurisdiction or other law preventing or making illegal the consummation of the merger, the bank merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
- the effectiveness of the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Act, and no order suspending such effectiveness having been issued or threatened;
- the authorization for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market of the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued in the merger;
- the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement on the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger (or such other date specified in the merger agreement) other than, in most cases, inaccuracies that would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on such party; performance in all material respects by the other party of its respective obligations under the merger agreement;

6

the receipt of corporate authorizations and other certificates;
in the case of Seacoast, Floridian's receipt of all consents required as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement pursuant to certain material contracts;
the absence of any material adverse effect on the other party;
receipt by each party of an opinion of its counsel to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;
the maintenance by Floridian of a specified minimum consolidated tangible shareholders' equity; the employment agreement between Thomas H. Dargan, Jr. and SNB is in full force and effect; and the receipt of executed claims letters and restrictive covenant agreements from certain directors of Floridian and Floridian Bank, each of which shall remain in full force and effect.
No assurance is given as to when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

Third Party Proposals (see page 68)

Floridian has agreed to a number of limitations with respect to soliciting, negotiating and discussing acquisition proposals involving persons other than Seacoast, and to certain related matters. The merger agreement does not, however, prohibit Floridian from considering an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal from a third party if certain specified conditions are met.

Termination (see page 72)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, whether before or after the approval of the merger agreement by Floridian shareholders:

by the mutual consent of Seacoast and Floridian; or by Seacoast or Floridian in the event of the breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement by the other party that would prevent any closing condition from being satisfied and such breach cannot be or has not been cured within thirty days of written notice of such breach provided that the right to cure may not extend beyond the expiration date described below; or by Seacoast or Floridian if approval by the shareholders of Floridian is not obtained at the meeting at which a vote was taken; or by Seacoast or Floridian if any court or other governmental authority issues a final and non-appealable order permanently prohibiting the merger or the bank merger; or by Seacoast or Floridian if the merger is not consummated by the expiration date of April 30, 2016; provided, that neither party has the right to terminate the merger agreement if such party was in breach of its obligations under the merger agreement and such breach was the cause of the failure of the merger to be consummated by such date, and provided further that, if on the expiration date all conditions to the merger have been satisfied or waived or are capable of being satisfied by the closing other than the condition relating to the receipt of required regulatory approvals, then either party has the right to extend the expiration date by an additional three month period; or by Seacoast if any governmental authority has denied any required regulatory approval or imposed a burdensome condition on Seacoast or any of its affiliates in connection with granting any regulatory approval; or by Seacoast in the event that (i) the Floridian board of directors or any committee thereof has effected an adverse recommendation change (see The Merger Agreement - Floridian Board Recommendation beginning on page 69 of this proxy statement/prospectus), or (ii) Floridian has failed to substantially comply with its obligations under the merger agreement with respect to third party acquisition proposals or by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the special meeting; or by Floridian in the event that: (i) (A) the average closing price of Seacoast's common stock for the ten trading days ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the later of (x) the date on which the last required regulatory consent is obtained or (y) the date on which Floridian shareholder approval of the merger agreement is obtained, is less than (B) 85% of the average closing price of Seacoast's common stock for the ten trading days ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement (i.e., Seacoast's stock price has been reduced to $12.79); (ii) Seacoast's common stock underperforms a peer group index (the NASDAQ Bank Index) by more than 20%; and (iii) Seacoast does not elect to increase the stock election consideration by a formula-based amount outlined in the merger agreement; or by Seacoast if holders of more than 10% in the aggregate of the shares of Floridian common stock shall have voted their shares against the merger agreement or the merger at the Floridian special meeting and have given notice of their intention to exercise their dissenters' rights in accordance with Florida law.

Termination Fee (see page 73)

Floridian will owe Seacoast a termination fee of $3,000,000 if:

(i) (a) either party terminates the merger agreement in the event that approval by the shareholders of Floridian is not obtained at the Floridian special meeting or in the event that the merger is not consummated by the expiration date; or (b) Seacoast terminates the merger agreement as a result of any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement by Floridian that cannot or has not been cured within thirty days of notice of such breach; (ii) a third party acquisition proposal has been made prior to such termination; and (iii) within twelve months of termination, Floridian enters into a definitive agreement or letter of intent with respect to an acquisition proposal or consummates an acquisition proposal; or Seacoast terminates the merger agreement as a result of the Floridian board of directors or any committee thereof effecting an adverse recommendation change (for more detail on adverse recommendation changes, see The Merger Agreement Floridian Board Recommendation beginning on page 69 of this proxy statement/prospectus); or Seacoast terminates the merger agreement as a result of Floridian not substantially complying with its obligations under the merger agreement with respect to third party acquisition proposals or by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the special meeting.

Except in the case of a breach of the merger agreement, the payment of the termination fee will fully discharge Floridian from any losses that may be suffered by Seacoast arising out of the termination of the merger agreement.

Furthermore, in the event the merger agreement is terminated because Floridian shareholder approval is not obtained, then Floridian shall reimburse Seacoast for all of its reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses in connection with the merger up to a cap of $500,000; provided that, in the event the termination fee later becomes payable by Floridian, any such expenses paid will be credited against the termination fee.

NASDAQ Listing (see page 67)

Seacoast will cause the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued to the holders of Floridian common stock in the merger to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the effective time of the merger.

Accounting Treatment (see page 52)

Seacoast will account for the merger under the acquisition method of accounting for business combinations under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Dividends from SNB are Seacoast's primary source of funds to pay dividends on its common stock. Under the National Bank Act, national banks may in any calendar year, without the approval of the OCC, pay dividends to the extent of net profits for that year, plus retained net profits for the preceding two years (less any required transfers to surplus). The need to maintain adequate capital in SNB also limits dividends that may be paid to Seacoast. Beginning in the third quarter of 2008, Seacoast reduced its dividend per share of common stock to de minimis $0.01. On May 19, 2009, Seacoast's board of directors voted to suspend quarterly dividends on its common stock entirely.

Any dividends paid on Seacoast's common stock would be declared and paid at the discretion of its board of directors and would be dependent upon Seacoast's liquidity, financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements and such other factors as the board of directors may deem relevant. Seacoast does not expect to pay dividends on its common stock in the foreseeable future and expects to retain all earnings, if any, to support its capital adequacy and growth.

With respect to the quarter ended on June 30, 2014, Floridian paid a quarterly dividend of $0.03 per share to its common shareholders, and commencing with the quarter ended on September 30, 2014, Floridian has paid quarterly dividends of $0.05 per share to its common shareholders.

Comparison of Shareholders' Rights (see page 75)

The rights of Floridian shareholders who continue as Seacoast shareholders after the merger will be governed by the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Seacoast rather than the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Floridian. ⁽¹⁾ Seacoast common stock prices have been adjusted to reflect the 1 for 5 reverse stock split effective as of December 13, 2013.

Dividends from SNB are Seacoast's primary source of funds to pay dividends on its common stock. Under the National Bank Act, national banks may in any calendar year, without the approval of the OCC, pay dividends to the extent of net profits for that year, plus retained net profits for the preceding two years (less any required transfers to surplus).

The need to maintain adequate capital in SNB also limits dividends that may be paid to Seacoast. Beginning in the third quarter of 2008, Seacoast reduced its dividend per share of common stock to de minimis $0.01. On May 19, 2009, Seacoast's board of directors voted to suspend quarterly dividends on its common stock entirely.

Any dividends paid on Seacoast's common stock would be declared and paid at the discretion of its board of directors and would be dependent upon Seacoast's liquidity, financial condition, results of operations, capital requirements and such other factors as the board of directors may deem relevant. Seacoast does not expect to pay dividends on its common stock in the foreseeable future and expects to retain all earnings, if any, to support its capital adequacy and growth.

With respect to the quarter ended on June 30, 2014, Floridian paid a quarterly dividend of $0.03 per share to its common shareholders, and commencing with the quarter ended on September 30, 2014, Floridian has paid quarterly dividends of $0.05 per share to its common shareholders.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

RISK FACTORS

An investment in Seacoast common stock in connection with the merger involves risks. Seacoast describes below the material risks and uncertainties that it believes affect its business and an investment in the Seacoast common stock. In addition to the other information contained in, or incorporated by reference into, this proxy statement/prospectus, including Seacoast's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 and the matters addressed under Forward-Looking Statements, you should carefully read and consider all of the risks and all other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus in deciding whether to vote to approve the merger agreement. Additional Risk Factors included in Item 1A in Seacoast's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2014 are incorporated herein by reference. You should read and consider those Risk Factors in addition to the Risk Factors listed below. If any of the risks described in this proxy statement/prospectus occur, Seacoast's financial condition, results of operations and cash flows could be materially and adversely affected. If this were to happen, the value of the Seacoast common stock could decline significantly, and you could lose all or part of your investment.

Risks Associated with the Merger

The market price of Seacoast common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting Floridian or Seacoast.

The businesses of Seacoast and Floridian differ in some respects and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company (including after giving effect to the branch acquisition) and the market price of Seacoast's shares of common stock after the merger and the branch acquisition may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Seacoast and Floridian. For a discussion of the business of Seacoast and of certain factors to consider in connection with that business, see the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus and referred to under Documents Incorporated by Reference beginning on page 91 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Because the sale price of Seacoast common stock will fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of the stock consideration that you will receive in the merger until the closing.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of Floridian common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (excluding excluded shares and dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof: (1) a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 shares of Seacoast common stock; (2) $12.25 in cash; or (3) 0.8140 shares of Seacoast common stock. Shares of Floridian common stock with respect to which no election is made (other than excluded shares and dissenting shares) will receive the mixed election consideration. The value of the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued to Floridian shareholders in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger due to a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the parties' respective businesses, operations and prospects and regulatory considerations, among other things. Many of these factors are beyond the control of Seacoast and Floridian. We make no assurances as to whether or when the merger will be completed. Floridian shareholders should obtain current sale prices for shares of Seacoast common stock before voting their shares of Floridian common stock at the special meeting.

Floridian shareholders may receive a form of consideration different from what they elect.

Although each Floridian shareholder may elect to receive all cash or all Seacoast common stock in the merger, the pool of cash and the shares of Seacoast common stock available for all Floridian shareholders will be a fixed percentage of the aggregate merger consideration at closing, and will not exceed the aggregate number of shares of Seacoast common stock that would have been issued, and the aggregate amount of cash that would have been paid, to all of the holders of shares of Floridian common stock had the mixed election consideration of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 of a share of Seacoast common stock been elected with respect to each share of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares). As a result, if the aggregate amount of shares with respect to which either cash elections or stock elections have been made would otherwise result in payments of cash or stock in excess of the maximum amount of cash or stock available, and a Floridian shareholder has chosen the consideration election that exceeds the maximum available, such Floridian shareholder will receive consideration in part in a form that such shareholder did not choose. This could result in, among other things, tax consequences that differ from those that would have resulted if such Floridian shareholder had received the form of consideration that the shareholder elected (including the potential recognition of gain for federal income tax purposes if the shareholder receives cash). For illustrative examples of how the proration procedures would work in the event there is an oversubscription of the cash election or stock election in the merger, see The Merger Agreement Election and Proration Procedures beginning on page 60 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Shares of Seacoast common stock to be received by holders of Floridian common stock as a result of the merger will have rights different from the shares of Floridian common stock.

Upon completion of the merger, the rights of former Floridian shareholders who receive shares of Seacoast common stock in the merger will be governed by the articles of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws of Seacoast. The rights associated with Floridian common stock are different from the rights associated with Seacoast common stock, although both companies are organized under Florida law. Please see the section entitled Comparison of Shareholders Rights beginning on page 75 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a discussion of the different rights associated with Seacoast common stock.

Floridian shareholders who receive shares of Seacoast common stock in the merger will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Floridian shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of Floridian and on other matters affecting Floridian. Upon the completion of the merger, Floridian shareholders who receive shares of Seacoast common stock in the merger will be shareholders of Seacoast with a percentage ownership in Seacoast that is smaller than such shareholder's current percentage ownership of Floridian. It is currently expected that the former shareholders of Floridian as a group will receive shares in the merger constituting approximately 8.8% of the outstanding shares of the combined company's common stock immediately after the merger. Because of this, Floridian shareholders who receive shares of Seacoast common stock in the merger will have less influence on the management and policies of the combined company than they now have on the management and policies of Floridian.

Seacoast and Floridian will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger and the branch acquisition are pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the merger and the branch acquisition on employees, customers, suppliers and vendors may have an adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of Floridian and Seacoast. These uncertainties may impair Seacoast's or Floridian's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel, depositors and borrowers pending the consummation of the merger, as such personnel, depositors and borrowers may experience uncertainty about their future roles following the consummation of the merger and the branch acquisition. Additionally, these uncertainties could cause customers (including depositors and borrowers), suppliers, vendors and others who deal with Seacoast or Floridian to seek to change existing business relationships with Seacoast or Floridian or fail to extend an existing relationship. In addition, competitors may target each party's existing customers by highlighting potential uncertainties and integration difficulties that may result from the merger and the branch acquisition.

Seacoast and Floridian have a small number of key personnel. The pursuit of the merger and the branch acquisition and the preparation for the integration of both may place a burden on each company's management and internal resources. Any significant diversion of management attention away from ongoing business concerns and any difficulties encountered in the transition and integration process could have a material adverse effect on each company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, the merger agreement restricts Floridian from taking certain actions without Seacoast's consent while the merger is pending. These restrictions may, among other matters, prevent Floridian from pursuing otherwise attractive business opportunities, selling assets, incurring indebtedness, engaging in significant capital expenditures in excess of certain limits set forth in the merger agreement, entering into other transactions or making other changes to Floridian's business prior to consummation of the merger or termination of the merger agreement. These restrictions could have a material adverse effect on Floridian's business, financial condition and results of operations. Please see the section entitled The Merger Agreement Conduct of Business Pending the Merger beginning on page 64 of this proxy statement/prospectus for a description of the covenants applicable to Floridian and Seacoast.

Seacoast may fail to realize the cost savings estimated for the merger and the branch acquisition.

Although Seacoast estimates that it will realize cost savings from the merger and the branch acquisition when fully phased in, it is possible that the estimates of the potential cost savings could turn out to be incorrect. For example, the combined purchasing power may not be as strong as expected, and therefore the cost savings could be reduced. In addition, unanticipated growth in Seacoast's business may require Seacoast to continue to operate or maintain some facilities or support functions that are currently expected to be combined or reduced. The cost savings estimates also depend on Seacoast's ability to combine the businesses of Seacoast, Floridian and the acquired branches in a manner that permits those costs savings to be realized. If the estimates turn out to be incorrect or Seacoast is not able to combine the two companies and the acquired branches successfully, the anticipated cost savings may not be fully realized or realized at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

The combined company expects to incur substantial expenses related to the merger and the branch acquisition.

The combined company expects to incur substantial expenses in connection with completing the merger and the branch acquisition and combining the business, operations, networks, systems, technologies, policies and procedures of Seacoast, Floridian and the acquired branches. Although Seacoast and Floridian have assumed that a certain level of transaction and combination expenses would be incurred, there are a number of factors beyond their control that could affect the total amount or the timing of these expenses. Many of the expenses that will be incurred, by their nature, are difficult to estimate accurately at the present time. Due to these factors, the transaction and combination expenses associated with the merger and the branch acquisition could, particularly in the near term, exceed the savings that the combined company expects to achieve from the elimination of duplicative expenses and the realization of economies of scale and cost savings related to the combination of the businesses following the completion of the merger and the branch acquisition. In addition, prior to completion of the merger and the branch acquisition, each of Floridian and Seacoast will incur or have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the negotiation and completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. If the merger is not completed, Seacoast and Floridian would have to recognize these expenses without realizing the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Integrating the merger and the branch acquisition simultaneously will require additional management time and attention and could increase the risks of achieving successful integrations relative to integrating either transaction individually.

Seacoast has a small number of key personnel and integrating both the merger and the branch acquisition within a short period of time may place a burden on Seacoast's management and internal resources that would not be present if either transaction were integrated individually. Completing both integrations simultaneously may also produce additional uncertainties and any unforeseen obstacles with respect to either integration may jeopardize the realization of the other transaction's individual benefits. Simultaneous demands may elongate the integration periods for each transaction and further delay or impair the realization of anticipated benefits.

Seacoast and Floridian may waive one or more of the conditions to the merger without re-soliciting Floridian shareholder approval for the merger agreement.

Each of the conditions to the obligations of Seacoast and Floridian to complete the merger may be waived, in whole or in part, to the extent permitted by applicable law, by agreement of Seacoast and Floridian, if the condition is a condition to both parties' obligation to complete the merger, or by the party for which such condition is a condition of its obligation to complete the merger. The boards of directors of Seacoast and Floridian may evaluate the materiality of any such waiver to determine whether amendment of this proxy statement/prospectus and re-solicitation of proxies is necessary. Seacoast and Floridian, however, generally do not expect any such waiver to be significant enough to require re-solicitation of Floridian's shareholders. In the event that any such waiver is not determined to be significant enough to require re-solicitation of Floridian's shareholders, the companies will have the discretion to complete the merger without seeking further shareholder approval.

If the merger fails to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, Floridian shareholders may be required to recognize additional gain or loss on the exchange of their shares of Floridian common stock in the merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and it is a condition to the respective obligations of Floridian and Seacoast to complete the merger that each of Floridian and Seacoast receives a legal opinion to that effect. None of these opinions will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Floridian and Seacoast have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth herein.

If the merger fails to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, Floridian shareholders may be required to recognize additional gain or loss on the exchange of their shares of Floridian common stock in the merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes. For further information, see The Merger Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger beginning on page 50 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Before the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger and the bank merger, may be completed, various approvals must be obtained from bank regulatory authorities. These governmental entities may impose conditions on the granting of such approvals. Such conditions or changes and the process of obtaining regulatory approvals could have the effect of delaying completion of the merger or of imposing additional costs or limitations on Seacoast following the merger. The regulatory approvals may not be received at all, may not be received in a timely fashion, and may contain conditions on the completion of the merger that are not anticipated or have a material adverse effect. If the consummation of the merger is delayed, including by a delay in receipt of necessary governmental approvals, the business, financial condition and results of operations of each company may also be materially adversely affected.

The fairness opinions of Floridian's financial advisors will not reflect changes in circumstances between the date of the opinion and the completion of the merger.

Floridian's board of directors received opinions from two financial advisors to address the fairness of the consideration to be received by the holders of Floridian common stock pursuant to the merger agreement from a financial point of view as of the date of each such opinion. Subsequent changes in the operation and prospects of Seacoast or Floridian, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Seacoast or Floridian, and on which these opinions were based, may significantly alter the value of Seacoast or the price of the shares of Seacoast common stock by the time the merger is completed. Because Floridian does not anticipate asking its advisors to update their respective opinions, the opinions will not address the fairness of the merger consideration from a financial point of view at the time the merger is completed, or as of any other date other than the date of such opinion. For a description of the opinions that Floridian received from its financial advisors, please refer to the section entitled

If the merger fails to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, Floridian shareholders

The Merger Opinions of Floridian s Financial Advisors beginning on page 33 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Floridian s executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of Floridian shareholders generally.

Executive officers of Floridian negotiated the terms of the merger agreement with Seacoast, and the Floridian board of directors unanimously approved and recommended that Floridian shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should be aware that certain Floridian and Floridian Bank executive officers and directors have financial interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of

Floridian shareholders generally. See The Merger Interests of Floridian Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 56 of this proxy statement/prospectus for information about these financial interests.

The termination fees, expense reimbursement and the restrictions on third party acquisition proposals set forth in the merger agreement may discourage others from trying to acquire Floridian.

Until the completion of the merger, with some limited exceptions, Floridian is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussions concerning a proposal to acquire Floridian, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than Seacoast. In addition, Floridian has agreed to pay to Seacoast in certain circumstances (i) up to $500,000 for reimbursement of expenses in connection with the transaction and (ii) a termination fee equal to $3,000,000 (against which any expenses previously reimbursed by Floridian would be credited). These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Floridian even though those other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Floridian shareholders than Seacoast has offered in the merger. The payment of any termination fee could also have an adverse effect on Floridian's financial condition. See The Merger Agreement Floridian Board Recommendation beginning on page 69 and The Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 73 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Failure of the merger to be completed, the termination of the merger agreement or a significant delay in the consummation of the merger could negatively impact Seacoast and Floridian.

If the merger is not consummated, the ongoing business, financial condition and results of operations of each party may be materially adversely affected and the market price of Seacoast's common stock may decline significantly, particularly to the extent that the current market price reflects a market assumption that the merger will be consummated. If the consummation of the merger is delayed, the business, financial condition and results of operations of each company may be materially adversely affected. If the merger agreement is terminated and Floridian's board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Floridian's shareholders cannot be certain that Floridian will be able to find a party willing to engage in a transaction on more attractive terms than the merger.

Some of the performing loans in the Floridian loan portfolio being acquired by Seacoast may be under collateralized, which could affect Seacoast's ability to collect all of the loan amount due.

In an acquisition transaction, the purchasing financial institution may be acquiring under collateralized loans from the seller. Under collateralized loans are risks that are inherent in any acquisition transaction and are mitigated through the loan due diligence process that the purchaser performs and the estimated fair market value adjustment that the purchaser places on the seller's loan portfolio. The year a loan was originated can impact the current value of the collateral. Many Florida banks have performing loans that are under collateralized because of the decline in real estate values during the 2006 through 2010 economic downturn. While real estate values generally commenced stabilizing in 2011, and in some markets began to increase in recent years, nonetheless like other financial services institutions, Floridian's and Seacoast's loan portfolios have under collateralized loans that are still performing.

When it acquires another loan portfolio, Seacoast will place what is referred to as a fair market value adjustment on the acquired loan portfolio to address certain risks, including those relating to under collateralized loans. There is no assurance that the adjustment that Seacoast has placed on the Floridian loan portfolio to mitigate against under collateralized performing loans will be adequate or that Seacoast will not incur losses that could be greater than this adjustment.

Risks Associated with Seacoast's Business

New lines of business or new products and services may subject Seacoast to additional risks.

From time to time, Seacoast may implement or may acquire new lines of business or offer new products and services within existing lines of business. There are substantial risks and uncertainties associated with these efforts, particularly in instances where the markets are not fully developed. In developing and marketing new lines of business and/or new products and services, Seacoast may invest significant time and resources.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Initial timetables for the introduction and development of new lines of business and/or new products or services may not be achieved and price and profitability targets may not prove feasible. External factors, such as compliance with regulations, competitive alternatives and shifting market preferences, may also impact the successful implementation of a new line of business or a new product or service. Furthermore, any new line of business and/or new product or service could have a significant impact on the effectiveness of Seacoast's system of internal controls. Failure to successfully manage these risks in the development and implementation of new lines of business or new products or services could have a material adverse effect on Seacoast's business, financial condition and results of operations.

An interruption in or breach in security of Seacoast's information systems may result in a loss of customer business and have an adverse effect on Seacoast's results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Seacoast relies heavily on communications and information systems to conduct its business. Any failure, interruption or breach in security of these systems could result in failures or disruptions in Seacoast's customer relationship management, general ledger, deposits, servicing or loan origination systems. If any such failures, interruptions or security breaches of its communications or information systems occur, they may not be adequately addressed by Seacoast. Further, the occurrence of any such failures, interruptions or security breaches could damage Seacoast's reputation, result in a loss of customer business, subject Seacoast to additional regulatory scrutiny or expose Seacoast to civil litigation and possible financial liability, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Seacoast's results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, and include information about possible or assumed future results of operations of Seacoast after the merger is completed as well as information about the merger. Words such as believes, expects, anticipates, estimates, intends, would, could, should, may, or similar expressions, or the negatives thereof, are intended to identify forward-looking statements, but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. Many possible events or factors could affect the future financial results and performance of each of Seacoast and Floridian before the merger or Seacoast after the merger, and could cause those results or performance to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements. These possible events or factors include, but are not limited to:

- the failure to obtain the approval of Floridian's shareholders in connection with the merger;
- the timing to consummate the proposed merger;
- the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed merger may not be satisfied;
- the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed merger is not obtained or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated;
- the parties' ability to achieve the synergies and value creation contemplated by the proposed merger and the branch acquisition;
- the parties' ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Seacoast, Floridian and the branches acquired in the branch acquisition;
- the diversion of management time on issues related to the merger and the branch acquisition;
- the failure to consummate or delay in consummating the merger for other reasons;
- changes in laws or regulations; and
- changes in general economic conditions.

For additional information concerning factors that could cause actual conditions, events or results to materially differ from those described in the forward-looking statements, please refer to the Risk Factors section of this proxy statement/prospectus beginning on page 14, as well as the factors set forth under the headings Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations in Seacoast's most recent Form 10-K report and to Seacoast's most recent Form 10-Q and 8-K reports, which are available online at www.sec.gov, and are incorporated herein by reference. INFORMATION ABOUT THE FLORIDIAN SPECIAL MEETING

This section contains information about the special meeting that Floridian has called to allow Floridian shareholders to vote on the approval of the merger agreement. The Floridian board of directors is mailing this proxy statement/prospectus to you, as a Floridian shareholder, on or about []. Together with this proxy statement/prospectus, the Floridian board of directors is also sending you a notice of the special meeting of Floridian shareholders and a form of proxy that the Floridian board of directors is soliciting for use at the special meeting and at any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting.

Time, Date, and Place

The special meeting is scheduled to be held on [], at Westin Lake Mary, 2974 International Parkway, Lake Mary, Florida 32746, at [] local time.

Matters to be Considered at the Meeting

At the special meeting, Floridian shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on:

a proposal to approve the merger agreement (which we refer to as the merger proposal);
a proposal of the Floridian board of directors to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement (which we refer to as the adjournment proposal); and any other matters as may properly be brought before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting.

At this time, the Floridian board of directors is unaware of any other matters that may be presented for action at the special meeting. If any other matters are properly presented, however, and you have completed, signed and submitted your proxy, the person(s) named as proxy will have the authority to vote your shares in accordance with his or her judgment with respect to such matters. A copy of the merger agreement is included in this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A, and we encourage you to read it carefully in its entirety.

Recommendation of the Floridian Board of Directors

The Floridian board of directors unanimously recommends that Floridian shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal. See The Merger Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendations of the Floridian Board of Directors beginning on page 30 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Record Date and Quorum

[] has been fixed as the record date for the determination of Floridian shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement thereof. At the close of business on the record date, there were [] shares of Floridian common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, held by approximately [] holders of record.

A quorum is necessary to transact business at the special meeting. The presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock entitled to vote at the meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum. Shares of Floridian common stock represented at the special meeting but not voted, including shares that a shareholder abstains from voting and shares held in street name with a bank, broker or other nominee for which a shareholder does not provide voting instructions, will be counted for purposes of establishing a quorum. Once a share of Floridian common stock is represented at the special meeting, it will be counted for the purpose of determining a quorum not only at the special meeting but also at any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. In the event that a quorum is not present at the special meeting, it is expected that the special meeting will be adjourned or postponed.

Required Shareholder Vote

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock must vote in favor of the proposal to approve the merger agreement. If you vote to ABSTAIN with respect to the merger proposal or if you fail to vote on the merger proposal, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the merger proposal, this will have the same effect as voting AGAINST the merger proposal.

The adjournment proposal will be approved if the votes of Floridian common stock cast in favor of the adjournment proposal exceed the votes cast against the adjournment proposal. If you vote to ABSTAIN with respect to the adjournment proposal or if you fail to vote on the adjournment proposal, or fail to instruct your bank or broker how to vote with respect to the adjournment proposal, this will have no effect on the outcome of the vote on the adjournment proposal.

Each share of Floridian voting common stock you own as of the record date for the special meeting entitles you to one vote at the special meeting on all matters properly presented at the meeting.

How to Vote Shareholders of Record

Voting in Person. If you are a shareholder of record, you can vote in person by submitting a ballot at the special meeting. Nevertheless, we recommend that you vote by proxy as promptly as possible, even if you plan to attend the special meeting. This will ensure that your vote is received. If you attend the special meeting, you may vote by ballot, thereby canceling any proxy previously submitted.

Voting by Proxy. Your proxy card includes instructions on how to vote by mailing in the proxy card. If you choose to vote by proxy, please mark each proxy card you receive, sign and date it, and promptly return it in the envelope enclosed with the proxy card. If you sign and return your proxy without instruction on how to vote your shares, your shares will be voted FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal. Your proxy card also includes instructions on how to vote by telephone (by accessing the toll-free number listed on the proxy card) or by the Internet (by accessing the Internet site listed on the proxy card). At this time, the Floridian board of directors is unaware of any other matters that may be presented for action at the special meeting. If any other matters are properly presented, however, and you have signed and returned your proxy card, the person(s) named as proxy will have the authority to vote your shares in accordance with his or her judgment with respect to such matters. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy card. You will receive a separate letter of transmittal and instructions on how to surrender your Floridian stock certificates for the merger consideration.

How to Vote Shares Held in Street Name

If you are a Floridian shareholder and your shares are held in street name through a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by the bank, broker or other nominee. You may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Floridian or by voting in person at the Floridian special meeting unless you provide a legal proxy, which you must obtain from your bank, broker or other nominee. Further, brokers, banks or other nominees who hold shares of Floridian common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to Floridian to vote those shares with respect to any of the proposals without specific instructions from their customers, as brokers, banks and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on these matters. Therefore, if you are a Floridian shareholder and you do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares:

your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the merger proposal, which broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST this proposal; and your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the adjournment proposal, which broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote count for this proposal.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. WHETHER OR NOT YOU PLAN TO ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING IN PERSON, PLEASE MARK, SIGN AND DATE THE ENCLOSED PROXY CARD AND PROMPTLY RETURN IT IN THE ENCLOSED POSTAGE-PAID ENVELOPE. SHAREHOLDERS WHO ATTEND THE SPECIAL MEETING MAY REVOKE THEIR PROXIES BY VOTING IN PERSON.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Revocation of Proxies

You can revoke your proxy at any time before your shares are voted. If you are a shareholder of record, then you can revoke your proxy by:

submitting another valid proxy card bearing a later date; or attending the special meeting and voting your shares in person; or telephone or the Internet, by following the instructions on your proxy card; or delivering prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation to Floridian's Corporate Secretary at the following address: 175 Timacuan Blvd., Lake Mary, Florida 32746.

If you choose to send a completed proxy card bearing a later date or a notice of revocation, the new proxy card or notice of revocation must be received before the beginning of the special meeting. Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a proxy. If you hold your shares in street name with a bank, broker or other nominee, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee to change your vote. Your last vote will be the vote that is counted.

Shares Subject to Voting Agreements; Shares Held by Directors

A total of 1,069,008 shares of Floridian common stock, representing approximately 17.23% of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting are subject to voting agreements between Seacoast and each of Floridian's directors. Pursuant to his or her respective voting agreement, each director has agreed to, at any meeting of Floridian shareholders, however called, or any adjournment or postponement thereof (and subject to certain exceptions), vote (or cause to be voted) his or her shares of Floridian common stock beneficially owned by such director:

in favor of the approval of the merger agreement;
against any acquisition proposal, without regard to any recommendation to the shareholders of Floridian by the board of directors of Floridian concerning such acquisition proposal, and without regard to the terms of such acquisition proposal, or other proposal made in opposition to or that is otherwise in competition or inconsistent with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;
against any agreement, amendment of any agreement, or any other action that is intended or would reasonably be expected to prevent, impede, or, in any material respect, interfere with, delay, postpone, or discourage the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; and against any action, agreement, transaction, or proposal that would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement or other obligation of Floridian in the merger agreement.
Pursuant to the voting agreement, without the prior written consent of Seacoast, each director has further agreed not to sell or otherwise transfer any shares of Floridian common stock. The foregoing summary of the voting agreements entered into by Floridian's directors does not purport to be complete, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of voting agreement attached as Exhibit B to the merger agreement, which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

As part of its ongoing consideration and evaluation of its long-term prospects and strategies, the Floridian board of directors and senior management have regularly reviewed and assessed Floridian's business strategies and objectives, including strategic opportunities and challenges, and have considered various strategic options potentially available to them, all with the goal of enhancing value for Floridian's shareholders. The strategic discussions have focused on, among other things, the evaluation of potential buyers, the need to grow to be in a position to deliver a competitive return to Floridian's shareholders, and the business environment facing financial institutions generally and Floridian Bank, including specifically, net interest margin and bank regulatory pressures.

On January 12, 2012, a Merger and Acquisition Committee (the M&A Committee) was formed for the purpose of considering and recommending action to the full board of directors on any strategic transactions that might arise in the future. The members of the M&A Committee had been selected based on the directors' respective experience in the financial services industry, and experience with mergers and acquisition transactions, and initially consisted of Peter Heebner, Richard Dunn, John Waters and Thomas Dargan. The M&A Committee generally met on a quarterly basis, or more frequently as needed, from the date of formation through the date Floridian ultimately signed the merger agreement with Seacoast.

Between January 2012 and October 2013, members of management and the M&A Committee had several informal communications and meetings with approximately eight financial institutions regarding a possible merger transaction, including Company A, Company B, Company C, Company D, Company E, Company F, Company G, and Seacoast.

During this period time, representatives of Sandler O'Neill assisted Floridian in finding and evaluating potential opportunities, although Sandler O'Neill was not formally engaged as Floridian's financial advisor until 2014. Certain of these informal communications resulted in informal non-binding written offers, each of which was evaluated by the M&A Committee and the full board of directors, from time to time. During this period, the board of directors also consulted with legal counsel for advice on complying with its fiduciary duties in light of the informal proposals that had been received. None of these informal proposals resulted in any letters of intent or definitive agreements being entered into during this period. Additionally, during this period the board of directors reassigned the directors participating on the M&A Committee to include Mr. Peacock (as chairman), and Messrs. Dargan, Habas, Heebner, and Waters.

Between October 2013 and January 2014, the M&A Committee met several times and continued to review and discuss potential strategic options. During this time, the M&A Committee recommended to the full board of directors that an investment banker be formally engaged to assist with helping Floridian find potential opportunities. With the approval of the full board of directors, upon the M&A Committee's recommendation, the M&A Committee proceeded with interviewing investment bankers to assist Floridian.

On January 16, 2014, at a regular meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, Mr. Peacock provided an update from the M&A Committee, noting that the members of the committee had generally been meeting on a bi-weekly basis recently. Mr. Peacock noted that he had an in-person meeting with Company B and that he would be providing financial information to this potential acquirer when available. He also noted that the M&A Committee would be arranging separate meetings with three separate investment banking firms to review presentations by these firms regarding potential formal engagement by Floridian.

During February and March of 2014, the M&A Committee met with three potential investment banking firms regarding a potential engagement. After consideration of the presentations, the M&A Committee resolved to recommend that the full board approve the engagement of Sandler O'Neill to assist Floridian going forward based on, among other things, Sandler O'Neill's expertise in the banking and financial services market.

On March 14, 2014, at a special meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, Mr. Peacock updated the board on the presentations from the three investment banking firms. After discussion, the M&A Committee recommended that the board approve the engagement of Sandler O'Neill to assist with a potential transaction. Based on the M&A Committee's recommendation, the board of directors authorized and directed the

M&A Committee to negotiate an acceptable engagement letter with Sandler O Neill. Mr. Peacock then provided an update on the status of the potential strategic options that were still being evaluated by the M&A Committee.

On April 1, 2014, at a special meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, the board approved the engagement of Sandler O Neill as independent financial advisor to the board in connection with a potential business combination. Mr. Peacock also discussed with the board the status of the discussions with Company B. Mr. Peacock also reported a renewed indication of interest by Company F concerning a transaction with Floridian. Mr. Peacock indicated that he would also contact representatives of Company E to see if there was still interest in pursuing a transaction. From and after Sandler O Neill's engagement, Floridian and representatives of Sandler O Neill worked to identify potential strategic opportunities, including analyzing potential opportunities with several of the institutions that Floridian had previously been in discussions with.

On July 3, 2014, Mr. Peacock met with representatives of Company E to discuss Company E's interest in acquiring Floridian in an all-cash deal. Company E indicated that they were two months into due diligence on a separate acquisition but would review Floridian's financial information and potential cost savings.

At the next regular meeting of the board of directors of Floridian on July 15, 2014, Mr. Peacock provided the full board with an update from the M&A Committee's recent activities. Mr. Peacock discussed that the M&A Committee had renewed conversations with Company A regarding a merger of equals; however, there were concerns as to whether the transaction could be accomplished with the results or on the timeline that Company A had envisioned. Mr. Peacock also provided an update on a potential all-cash transaction with Company E. Mr. Peacock also advised the board that Company E had several other possible acquisitions pending.

On August 22, 2014, the M&A Committee met to discuss developments in discussions with Company E. Mr. Peacock reported that Company E indicated to him that Company E's offer would likely be below Company E's own valuation analysis. This was subsequently confirmed several weeks later by Company E after its board met and discussed the potential transaction.

On October 16, 2014, at a regular meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, Mr. Peacock updated the board on the M&A Committee's negotiations with Company E. Mr. Peacock indicated that Company E's Chief Executive Officer was unable to get the terms of a potential acquisition of Floridian approved by Company E's board due to the fact that Company E had a number of other transactions pending which were taking priority. Mr. Peacock indicated that the M&A Committee would continue to seek out possible strategic transactions for Floridian.

In November 2014, to gauge interest in a potential transaction with Floridian, representatives of Sandler O Neill established a virtual data room containing information regarding Floridian's operations and invited representatives from other financial institutions to review this information, subject to the interested parties executing a nondisclosure agreement. Approximately eight institutions reviewed the information in this data room; however, no offers or indications of interest resulted.

On January 26, 2015, at a meeting of the M&A Committee, Mr. Peacock reported that he had received an informal indication of interest from Seacoast, and advised that Seacoast would be following up with a more formal written proposal, although a formal proposal was not immediately received.

Three days later, at a regular meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, Mr. Peacock noted the fact that no institutions that had been contacted by representatives of Sandler O Neill had expressed interest in pursuing a deal with Floridian based on their review of the information contained in the virtual data room. Mr. Peacock indicated that the M&A Committee would continue discussions with the two potential merger partners, Company A and Company E.

Over the next several months, the M&A Committee continued to discuss and evaluate opportunities. On May 7, 2015, at a regular meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, Mr. Peacock updated the board on two potential transactions that were being discussed by the M&A Committee. One involved a merger of equals transaction with Company G with Floridian as the nominal acquirer. The other was a potential transaction with a significantly larger institution, Company D. Mr. Peacock indicated that discussions were still continuing regarding the pricing of each of these potential transactions. After discussion regarding the two proposals, the board authorized the M&A Committee to submit a nonbinding proposal with respect to the merger of equals with Company G.

On June 5, 2015, at a special meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, Mr. Peacock updated the board on the M&A Committee's discussions with Company G regarding a possible merger of equals transaction. Preliminary terms including price and board and management composition, were discussed. The board then discussed the proposal at length and ultimately resolved to proceed with pursuing this transaction on the terms discussed. At the meeting, the board approved making an offer to Company G related to a proposed all stock acquisition valuing Company G at 120% of Company G's tangible book value.

On June 24, 2015, at a meeting of the M&A Committee, Mr. Peacock reported that discussions with Company G had been suspended due to issues related to corporate governance and management for the pro forma entity following the consummation of a proposed merger with Company G and that further details would be provided to the full board of directors at a special meeting to be held on July 1, 2015.

On July 1, 2015, Messrs. Peacock, Habas and Waters met with Dennis Hudson, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Seacoast, to further discuss a potential acquisition transaction. At this meeting, Mr. Peacock and Mr. Waters recommended that Seacoast prepare a presentation for Floridian's full board of directors regarding the potential acquisition. Later that day, Mr. Peacock provided an update to the full board of directors regarding the reasons why Floridian had terminated negotiations with Company G, which primarily related to the inability of the two entities to resolve important corporate governance and management issues regarding the surviving institution.

On the morning of July 24, 2015, Messrs. Heebner and Dargan met with representatives of Company G as a final effort to attempt to resolve the corporate governance and management issues in connection with a proposed combination.

Between July 24 and August 20, 2015, the M&A Committee met several times to discuss details about possible alternative transactions with Company A, Company E and Company G. The M&A Committee recommended that further negotiations with Company G continue.

On August 20, 2015, Messrs. Peacock, Habas, Hurt and Dargan met with representatives of Company A to discuss a proposed combination. Later that day, Messrs. Peacock, Habas and Hurt met with Mr. Hudson from Seacoast at which time Seacoast delivered a draft letter of intent reflecting a purchase price of $11.75 per Floridian share, payable in stock and cash. Following this meeting, representatives of Sandler O'Neill contacted Company E to gauge Company E's potential interest in submitting an offer to acquire Floridian in light of its earlier interest.

On August 24, 2015, Sandler O'Neill prepared an analysis of a proposed merger of Floridian with Seacoast, which was provided to members of the M&A Committee. On August 28, 2015, at a meeting of the M&A Committee, the M&A Committee unanimously approved going forward with the merger discussions with Seacoast based on a letter of intent received from Seacoast on August 20, 2015 which provided for, among other things, an exclusivity period and proposed price per share of $11.75, or approximately 140% of Floridian's tangible book value per share, payable in 65% stock and 35% cash. The approval was subject to further negotiations with Seacoast to attempt to obtain an increase to the price per share.

On August 31, 2015, at a special meeting of the board of directors of Floridian, the board further discussed the Seacoast draft letter of intent, including the prospects of Floridian continuing as a separate entity and the board concluded that it would take much longer for Floridian to reach the price per share being offered by Seacoast through organic growth and that a merger with Seacoast would, for that and other reasons, be in the best interests of Floridian's shareholders. The board also discussed an alternative transaction with Company E, which included an all-cash offer with a price per share below the Seacoast's offer. After a lengthy discussion of the alternatives, with input from representatives of Sandler O'Neill, the board unanimously approved the Seacoast letter of intent and authorized Mr. Dargan to execute the letter of intent on behalf of Floridian, subject to further price negotiations.

Following the August 31st board meeting, Mr. Peacock and representatives of Sandler O Neill had several discussions with Seacoast and Seacoast's financial advisor, FBR Capital Markets & Co. (FBR) regarding the price per share to be paid in the proposed transaction. After lengthy negotiations, Seacoast ultimately agreed to increase the per share consideration to $12.25 per share.

On September 3, 2015, Floridian and Seacoast executed a nonbinding letter of intent to a proposed merger of the two entities, which reflected a price per share of $12.25 with the consideration to be paid 35% in cash and 65% in common stock of Seacoast, subject to the entry into a definitive merger agreement. The letter of intent included a sixty-day exclusivity period.

On September 30, 2015, Floridian hosted members of management of Seacoast, along with representatives of Seacoast's financial advisor, FBR, and legal advisor, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP (Cadwalader), at Floridian's offices in Daytona Beach, Florida. Representatives from Floridian's financial advisor, Sandler O Neill, were also present. At this meeting, Seacoast's management conducted additional due diligence on Floridian.

On October 4, 2015, Gunster, Yoakley & Stewart, P.A., legal counsel to Floridian (Gunster), received an initial draft merger agreement from Cadwalader. Among other things, the initial draft of the merger agreement required Floridian to pay a termination fee of $3 million to Seacoast if (i) the Floridian board of directors changed its recommendation that Floridian shareholders approve the merger agreement or (ii) the merger agreement was terminated under certain scenarios and Floridian entered into an agreement with respect to an acquisition proposal with a third party within 18 months after such termination. The draft merger agreement also required Floridian, in the event of certain termination scenarios, to reimburse Seacoast for its out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement, up to an unspecified amount, but there was no reciprocal reimbursement right for Floridian. Later that day, a conference call was held with members of the M&A Committee and representatives of Sandler O Neill and to discuss timing of providing comments to the draft merger agreement and proposed timeline for approval of the transaction.

On October 6, 2015, the M&A Committee and representatives of Sandler O Neill and Gunster met telephonically to discuss the draft definitive agreement. Specifically, the M&A Committee discussed price protection provisions for the stock portion of the merger consideration in the event of a change in the market price of Seacoast's stock and the impact it would have on the value of the merger consideration despite the fact that the risk of a change in the purchase price was hedged with 35% of the purchase price payable in cash.

On October 8, 2015, representatives from Gunster and Sandler O Neill attended a regular meeting of the board of directors of Floridian to discuss the proposed merger with Seacoast. The purpose of the meeting was to update the full board on the proposed merger with Seacoast and to discuss the timing of the proposed transaction. Representatives from Gunster gave a detailed presentation on director duties and obligations under Florida law regarding merger transactions, including the duty of care and duty of loyalty and emphasized the need to continue following a proper process to ensure the best deal is negotiated for the Floridian shareholders. Following discussion, the board determined that the M&A Committee should continue to negotiate the proposed merger on behalf of Floridian and will provide periodic updates to the full board when necessary. The board determined that Mr. Peacock and Mr. Waters should lead these negotiations due to their independence and knowledge and experience with mergers and acquisitions.

During the next few days, Gunster and members of the M&A Committee discussed the draft merger agreement as well as strategic matters. In the course of these discussions, the M&A Committee determined to negotiate several material provisions contained in the draft merger agreement, including, without limitation, extending the period of time over which the stock election consideration and stock portion of the mixed election consideration was to be calculated, the contractual right to continue paying a regular quarterly dividend during the pendency of the merger, inclusion of a broad fiduciary out to allow the board to terminate the deal to comply with its fiduciary duties, requiring a second fairness opinion, specifying stay bonuses for key Floridian employees, inclusion of a reverse termination fee, shortening the drop-dead date for the merger, removing a minimum tangible book value closing condition, and reducing the termination fee from $3,000,000 to $2,250,000. The M&A Committee also recognized the potential contractual obligation to make a

Section 280G excise tax gross-up payment to certain of Floridian's executives and worked with counsel to calculate the potential 280G impact and the effect such gross-up might have on the terms of the proposed transaction.

Over the next five days, Cadwalader and Gunster exchanged revised drafts of the ancillary merger agreements, which included drafts of Mr. Dargan's employment agreement, and the forms of the voting agreement, restrictive covenant agreement and claims letter. During this period, Mr. Dargan also had several calls with Mr. Hudson regarding the terms of Mr. Dargan's proposed employment agreement with SNB. Mr. Peacock, separately, had several calls with Mr. Hudson concerning Mr. Dargan's proposed employment agreement as well as issues related to potential 280G payments under existing employment contracts.

On October 14, 2015, Seacoast hosted members of management of Floridian, including Mr. Dargan and Ms. Gilliland and Mr. Sanchez, along with representatives from Gunster and Sandler O'Neill, at Seacoast's executive offices. At this meeting, Floridian's management conducted additional due diligence on Seacoast. Attorneys from Gunster also assisted in due diligence matters at this meeting. Following this meeting members of the M&A Committee held a conference call with representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Gunster to discuss the proposed transaction with Seacoast, including matters related to the timeline for completion of the transaction as well as matters related to corporate governance. Representatives of Gunster provided an overview of corporate governance requirements, including the recommendation that, in an abundance of caution and to mitigate any perceived conflict of interest, Floridian engage a second investment banking firm to provide a second fairness opinion in connection with the proposed transaction because Sandler O'Neill had previously been engaged by Seacoast on other unrelated matters. Members of the M&A Committee discussed key deal points that needed to be included in the merger agreement, including provisions protecting against an adverse change in Seacoast's stock price, retention bonuses for key personnel, fiduciary duty outs, and certain tax matters. A timeline for board approval of the merger, the signing of the merger agreement and filing of the S-4 registration statement was also discussed in detail. Members of the M&A Committee also instructed representatives of Sandler O'Neill to contact the financial advisor to Seacoast to discuss certain material concerns, including that the merger agreement should contain a double-trigger walk away right to protect against a decline in the value of Seacoast's stock. Following this meeting, Gunster provided a revised draft of the merger agreement to Cadwalader. Additional conferences took place over the next two weeks reviewing the impact of the employment arrangements, including excise tax reimbursement under Section 280G and the deductibility of those costs to a potential acquirer. Both Seacoast and the Floridian board of directors expressed concern over the impact of the potential contractual obligation to pay any contractually required gross-up payments because of the potential negative impact such payments might have on Floridian shareholder value in the proposed transaction.

Over the course of the following approximately two weeks, representatives of Seacoast and Floridian continued mutual due diligence. The parties concurrently worked to finalize the definitive merger agreement and ancillary documents. Cadwalader delivered revised drafts of the definitive agreements, which included, among other things, a double-trigger walk away right that would permit Floridian to terminate the merger agreement if there was a material decrease in the share price of Seacoast common stock that was not a result of a broad-based decline in bank equity prices generally, that any expense reimbursement paid by Floridian if the merger agreement was terminated under certain circumstances would be credited against any later payment of the $3 million termination fee, and also provided that the stock election consideration and stock portion of the mixed election consideration would be based on the 10-day average closing price of Seacoast common stock as of the second day prior to the signing of the merger agreement. The revised draft also provided Floridian with the right to continue declaring a regular quarterly dividend. On October 19, 2015, Floridian engaged Austin as financial advisor to provide a second fairness opinion in connection with the proposed merger.

On October 28, 2015, Seacoast and Floridian executed a letter agreement extending the period of exclusive negotiations between the two parties to the close of business on November 9, 2015.

On October 28, 2015, the parties resolved most of the remaining legal and business issues in the merger agreement and substantially final drafts of the merger agreement and ancillary documents were circulated to members of Floridian's full board of directors, as well as Floridian Bank directors, for review. Later that day,

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Mr. Peacock discussed with Mr. Hudson the key remaining issues related to the draft merger agreement, which included the double-trigger walk away right, the ability of Floridian to continue paying a dividend, subject to regulatory and other requirements, the minimum tangible book value to be delivered at closing, and the outside termination date. After discussion, Mr. Peacock and Mr. Hudson were able to reach a consensus on the remaining issues, which resolutions were promptly communicated to Gunster and Cadwalader for incorporation into the final draft merger agreement.

On October 30, 2015, Gunster provided the final draft of the merger agreement to members of Floridian's full board of directors which contained the final amount of the merger consideration. Mr. Dargan provided the final merger agreement to members of the board of directors of Floridian Bank who were not also directors of Floridian.

On November 2, 2015, the boards of directors of Floridian and Floridian Bank met to review the proposed merger with Seacoast. Representatives of Gunster, Sandler O'Neill, and Austin were present at the meeting. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger with Seacoast and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill as set forth in such opinion, the terms of the merger agreement were fair to Floridian and its shareholders from a financial point of view. Representatives of Austin also reviewed and discussed with the directors its financial analyses of the merger consideration and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of such date and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Austin as set forth in such opinion, the terms of the merger agreement were fair to Floridian and its shareholders from a financial point of view. In addition, representatives of Gunster reviewed with the directors the final draft of the proposed merger agreement, including the terms related to the price as well as the termination fee payable in the event that the merger agreement was terminated in certain circumstances, related transaction documents, as well as the legal standards applicable to the board's decisions and actions with respect to the proposed transaction, as they had previously done. Following the presentations by Floridian's management and advisors and discussion among the members of Floridian's board of directors, including consideration of the factors described under The Merger - Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Floridian Board of Directors beginning on page 30 of this proxy statement/prospectus, the Floridian board of directors unanimously (1) determined that the merger agreement, the merger, the voting agreements to be entered into by Floridian's directors, the employment agreement to be entered into between SNB and Mr. Dargan, and the other transactions contemplated thereby are advisable and in the best interests of Floridian and its shareholders, (2) adopted the merger agreement, the voting agreements, the employment agreement and approved the transactions contemplated thereby, (3) directed that the merger agreement be submitted for adoption by Floridian's shareholders, and (4) recommended that Floridian's shareholders adopt the merger agreement. The board of directors of Floridian Bank unanimously reached the same conclusions and adopted similar resolutions at a separate meeting.

On the evening of November 2, 2015, Floridian and Seacoast executed the merger agreement and, before the markets opened on November 3, 2015, issued a joint press release announcing the transaction.

Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Floridian Board of Directors

After careful consideration, Floridian's board of directors, at a meeting held on November 2, 2015, determined that the merger agreement is in the best interests of Floridian and its shareholders. Accordingly, Floridian's board of directors adopted and approved the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and recommends that Floridian shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement. In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and to recommend that its shareholders approve the merger agreement, the Floridian board of directors consulted with Floridian's management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

each of Floridian's, Seacoast's and the combined company's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects. In reviewing these factors, the Floridian board of directors considered its view that Seacoast's business and operations complement those of Floridian and that the merger would result in a combined company with diversified revenue sources, a well-balanced loan portfolio and an attractive funding base, as evidenced by a significant portion of core deposit funding;

its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which Floridian and Seacoast operate, including national and local economic conditions, the interest rate environment, increasing operating costs resulting from regulatory initiatives and compliance mandates, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on Floridian both with and without the proposed transaction;

the results that Floridian could expect to achieve operating independently, and the likely risks and benefits to Floridian shareholders of that course of action, as compared to the value of the merger consideration to be received from Seacoast;

its view that the size of the institution and related economies of scale was becoming increasingly important to continued success in the current financial services environment, including the increased expenses of regulatory compliance, and that a merger with a larger bank holding company could provide those economies of scale, increase efficiencies of operations and enhance customer products and services;

its belief that the number of potential acquirers interested in smaller institutions like Floridian, with total assets less than $500 million and limited geographic markets, has diminished and may diminish even further over time;

its review and discussions with Floridian's management regarding the benefits of an acquisition by Seacoast compared to other alternatives;

the complementary nature of the credit cultures of the two companies, which management believes should facilitate integration and implementation of the transaction;

management's expectation that the combined company will have a strong capital position upon completion of the transaction;

the board's belief that the combined enterprise would benefit from Seacoast's ability to take advantage of economies of scale, including achieving critical mass in the Orlando market area, and grow in the current economic environment, making Seacoast an attractive partner for Floridian;

its belief that the transaction is likely to provide substantial value to Floridian's shareholders;

the opinions of Sandler O'Neill and Austin, Floridian's financial advisors, delivered to Floridian's board of directors, to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by each of Sandler O'Neill and Austin as set forth in their respective opinions, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Floridian common stock from a financial point of view, as more fully described in the section entitled The Merger - Opinions of Floridian's Financial Advisors beginning on page 33 of this proxy statement/prospectus;

the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, the expected tax treatment and deal protection provisions, including the ability of Floridian's board of directors, under certain circumstances, to withdraw or materially adversely modify its recommendation to Floridian shareholders that they approve the merger agreement (subject to payment of a termination fee), each of which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;

the fact that the merger consideration will consist of shares of Seacoast common stock, which would allow Floridian shareholders to participate in a significant portion of the future performance of the combined Floridian and Seacoast business and synergies resulting from the merger, and the value to Floridian shareholders represented by that consideration; the greater liquidity in the trading market for Seacoast common stock relative to the market for Floridian common stock due to the listing of Seacoast's shares on the Nasdaq Global Select Market;

31

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of Floridian's business and towards the completion of the merger;

the requirement that Floridian conduct its business in the ordinary course and the other restrictions on the conduct of Floridian's business prior to the completion of the merger, which may delay or prevent Floridian from undertaking business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the merger;

the potential risks associated with achieving anticipated cost synergies and savings and successfully integrating Seacoast's business, operations and workforce with those of Floridian; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Floridian board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but, rather, includes the material factors considered by the Floridian board of directors. In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Floridian board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Floridian board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Floridian's management and Floridian's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

For the reasons set forth above, the Floridian board of directors has unanimously adopted and approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and recommends that you vote FOR the merger proposal and FOR the adjournment proposal.

Each of the directors of Floridian has entered into a voting agreement with Seacoast, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote in favor of the Floridian merger proposal and the other proposals to be voted on at the Floridian special meeting. The voting agreements are discussed in more detail in the section entitled Information About the Floridian Special Meeting - Shares Subject to Voting Agreements; Shares Held by Directors beginning on page 23 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Seacoast's Reasons for the Merger

As a part of Seacoast's growth strategy, Seacoast routinely evaluates opportunities to acquire financial institutions. The acquisition of Floridian is consistent with Seacoast's expansion strategy. Seacoast's board of directors, senior management and certain lenders reviewed the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects for Floridian, the market condition of the market area in which Floridian conducts business, the compatibility of the management and the proposed financial terms of the merger. In addition, management of Seacoast believes that the merger will expand Seacoast's presence in the attractive Orlando and Daytona market areas, provide opportunities for future growth and provide the potential to realize cost savings. Seacoast's board of directors also considered the financial condition and valuation for both Floridian and Seacoast as well as the financial and other effects the merger would have on Seacoast's shareholders and stakeholders, including that the merger is expected to be $0.02 accretive to 2016 earnings per share and produce an internal rate of return of nearly 20%. The board considered the fact that the acquisition, combined with the branch acquisition, would cause Seacoast to be the largest Florida-based community bank in the Orlando growth market, that market overlap would drive significant realistic cost savings, and that cultural similarities supported the probability of an efficient, low risk integration with minimal customer attritions.

In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the merger, the Seacoast board did not find it useful to and did not attempt to quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weights to factors it considered. Further, individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. In addition, the Seacoast board did not undertake to make any specific determination as to whether any particular factor, or any aspect of any particular factor, was favorable or unfavorable to its ultimate determination.

Rather, the board conducted an overall analysis of the factors it considered material, including thorough discussions with, and questioning of, Seacoast's management.

Opinions of Floridian's Financial Advisors

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

By letter dated March 25, 2014, Floridian retained Sandler O'Neill to act as financial advisor to Floridian's board of directors in connection with Floridian's consideration of a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. At the November 2, 2015 meeting at which Floridian's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to Floridian's board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Floridian common stock from a financial point of view.

The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix B to this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Holders of Floridian common stock are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with their consideration of the proposed merger.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to Floridian's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the merger and is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of Floridian common stock. Sandler O'Neill's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of Floridian common stock as to how such holder of Floridian common stock should vote with respect to the merger or any other matter. It does not address the underlying business decision of Floridian to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Floridian or the effect of any other transaction in which Floridian might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by Floridian's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the merger consideration to be received by Floridian's common shareholders. Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

the merger agreement;

certain audited financial statements and other historical financial information of Floridian, as provided by Floridian, that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Seacoast that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

internal earnings estimates for Floridian for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018, as provided and confirmed by the senior management of Floridian;

publicly available analyst earnings per share estimates for Seacoast for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017 and an estimated long term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast;

the pro forma financial impact of the merger on Seacoast based on assumptions relating to earnings per share for Floridian for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, Seacoast's announced acquisition of certain branch offices, estimated transaction expenses, certain accounting adjustments and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast;

the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Seacoast common stock, including a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for Seacoast and similar publicly available information for certain other similar companies the securities of which are publicly traded;
a comparison of certain financial information for Floridian and Seacoast with similar institutions for which information is publicly available;
the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry (on a statewide and national basis), to the extent publicly available;
the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria that Sandler O Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O Neill also discussed with certain members of senior management of Floridian the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Floridian and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Seacoast regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Seacoast.

In performing its review, Sandler O Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by Sandler O Neill from public sources, that was provided to Sandler O Neill by Floridian or Seacoast or that was otherwise reviewed by Sandler O Neill and Sandler O Neill assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion without any independent verification or investigation.

Sandler O Neill has relied, at the direction of Floridian, without independent verification or investigation, on the assessments of the management of Floridian as to its existing and future relationships with key employees and partners, clients, products and services and Sandler O Neill has assumed, with Floridian's consent, that there will be no developments with respect to any such matters that would affect Sandler O Neill's analyses or opinion. Sandler O Neill further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Floridian and Seacoast that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would have made any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O Neill has not been asked to and has not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and Sandler O Neill does not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Floridian or Seacoast or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor has Sandler O Neill been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Sandler O Neill did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Floridian or Seacoast, or the combined entity after the merger and Sandler O Neill has not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Floridian or Seacoast, or any of their respective subsidiaries.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O Neill used internal earnings estimates for Floridian for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018, as provided and confirmed by the senior management of Floridian, as well as publicly available analyst earnings per share estimates for Seacoast for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017 and an estimated long term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast. Sandler O Neill also received and used in its pro forma analysis certain assumptions relating to earnings per share for Floridian for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, Seacoast's announced acquisition of certain branch offices, estimated transaction expenses, certain accounting adjustments and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast. With respect to those estimates and judgments, the respective managements of Floridian and Seacoast confirmed to Sandler O Neill that those estimates and judgments reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective managements of the future financial performance of Floridian and Seacoast, respectively, and Sandler O Neill assumed that such performance would be achieved. Sandler O Neill expressed no opinion as to such estimates or judgments, or the assumptions on which they are based. Sandler O Neill also assumed that there was no material change in Floridian s or Seacoast s assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Floridian and Seacoast would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

Sandler O'Neill also assumed, with Floridian's consent, that: (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement would comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the merger agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements were true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements would perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements were not and would not be waived; (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the merger agreement, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Floridian, Seacoast or the merger agreement or any related transaction; (iii) the merger agreement and any related transaction would be consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements; (iv) the merger would be consummated without Floridian's rights under Section 6.1(i) of the merger agreement having been triggered, or if such rights have been triggered, Seacoast shall have exercised the option referred to in Section 6.1(i)(ii) of the merger agreement; and (v) the merger would qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with Floridian's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice that Floridian received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of the date of its opinion. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sander O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date its opinion. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading value of Seacoast common stock after the date of its opinion or what the value of Seacoast common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Floridian common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Floridian's board of directors, but is a summary of the material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Floridian or Seacoast and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Floridian and Seacoast and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion, rather, Sandler O Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the merger consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole.

In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Floridian, Seacoast and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Floridian's board of directors at its November 2, 2015 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Floridian's common stock or the prices at which Floridian common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Floridian's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Floridian's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the merger.

Summary of Proposed Merger Consideration and Implied Transaction Metrics. Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger. Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, upon the effective time of the merger, all shares of Floridian common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (defined for the purposes of this section as Floridian Common Stock), other than certain shares described in the merger agreement, will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof in accordance with, and subject to, the terms, conditions and procedures set forth in the merger agreement, the merger consideration. The merger consideration is: (i) the combination of (A) $4.29 in cash, and (B) 0.5291 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Seacoast common stock; (ii) $12.25 in cash; or (iii) 0.8140 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable shares of Seacoast common stock. Sandler O'Neill calculated an aggregate implied transaction value of approximately $76.5 million. Based upon financial information for Floridian as of or for the twelve months ended September 30, 2015, Sandler O'Neill calculated the following implied transaction metrics:

Transaction Price Per Share/LTM Earnings Per Share:	35.9x

Net Present Value Analyses. Sandler O Neill performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Floridian common share assuming Floridian performed in accordance with internal earnings estimates reviewed and discussed with the senior management of Floridian. To approximate the terminal value of Floridian common stock at December 31, 2018, Sandler O Neill applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 11.0x to 19.0x and price to tangible book value multiples ranging from 85% to 125%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 9.9% to 15.9% when applied to 2018 earnings multiples and 9.9% to 15.9% when applied to multiples of 2018 tangible book value, Sandler O Neill also considered and discussed with the Floridian board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O Neill performed a similar analysis assuming Floridian's net income varied from 25% above estimates to 25% below estimates. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for Floridian common stock, applying the price to 2018 earnings multiples range of 11.0x to 19.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 12.9%.

Sandler O'Neill also performed an analysis that estimated the net present value per share of Seacoast common stock assuming that Seacoast performed in accordance with publicly available analyst earnings per share estimates for Seacoast for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017, and an estimated long term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast. To approximate the terminal value of Seacoast common stock at December 31, 2018, Sandler O'Neill applied price to 2018 earnings multiples ranging from 13.0x to 19.0x and multiples of 2018 tangible

The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 7.2% to 11.2% chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Seacoast's common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicates an imputed range of values per share of Seacoast common stock of $10.49 to $17.28 when applying earnings multiples and $11.24 to $20.44 when applying multiples of tangible book value.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed the estimated pro forma effects of the merger, based on the following assumptions: (i) the merger closes on March 31, 2016; (ii) aggregate consideration value of $76.5 million ($12.25 per share); (iii) 65% of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock are converted into Seacoast's common stock at the fixed exchange ratio of 0.8140 and 35% of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock are converted into $12.25 in cash; and (iv) all outstanding Floridian options and warrants are cashed out at closing.

Sandler O'Neill also incorporated the following assumptions, as provided by senior management of Seacoast: (a) estimated earnings per share projections for Seacoast, based on publicly available analyst earnings per share estimates, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast;

(b) estimated earnings per share projections for Floridian, as provided by the senior management of Seacoast; (c) estimated pre-tax one-time transaction costs and expenses of $7.5 million, 100% of which are recognized prior to closing; (d) certain purchase accounting adjustments, including a credit mark on loans of $9.2 million (3.2% of gross loans) and an interest rate mark on loans of negative $1.4 million; (e) cost savings based on 45% of Floridian's projected noninterest expense, as provided by senior management of Seacoast; (f) 1.25% core deposit premium on Floridian's non-time deposits; (g) pre-tax opportunity cost of cash of 1.0%; and (h) pro forma adjustments for Seacoast's announced acquisition of certain branch offices. The analyses indicated that the merger would be accretive to Seacoast's earnings per share in 2016 (excluding transaction expenses in 2016) and dilutive to Seacoast's tangible book value per share at closing of the merger.

In connection with this analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Floridian board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the merger, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill is acting as financial advisor to the board of directors of Floridian in connection with the merger and received a fee associated with the delivery of its fairness opinion from Floridian in the amount of $100,000, 50% of which shall be credited towards an additional fee of 1.0% of the aggregate transaction value that Sandler O'Neill will be entitled to receive if the merger is consummated. Floridian has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement, including the reasonable fees and disbursements of its legal counsel; provided, however, that such counsel expenses shall not be reimbursable in excess of $15,000 without Floridian's prior reasonable consent. Floridian has also agreed to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain claims and liabilities arising out of the engagement.

In the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill provided certain other investment banking services to Floridian and received fees for such services. In addition, in the two years preceding the date of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, Sandler O'Neill provided certain investment banking services to Seacoast and received fees for such services, and may provide, and receive compensation for, such services in the future, including during the pendency of the merger. In addition, in the ordinary course of Sandler O'Neill's business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from and sell securities to Floridian, Seacoast or their respective affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Floridian, Seacoast or their respective affiliates for its own account and for the accounts of its customers.

Opinion of Austin Associates, LLC

On October 16, 2015, Floridian engaged Austin to issue a fairness opinion in connection with the merger. Austin is an investment banking and consulting firm specializing in community bank mergers and acquisitions. Floridian selected Austin on the basis of its experience and expertise in representing community banks in similar transactions and its familiarity with Floridian.

As part of its engagement, Austin assessed the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the terms of the merger to the shareholders of Floridian. Austin did not serve as primary financial advisor to Floridian and did not participate in negotiations of the financial terms of the letter of intent or merger agreement. Austin participated telephonically in the November 2, 2015 meeting at which Floridian's board of directors considered the merger agreement. At that meeting, Austin presented its financial analysis of the transaction and delivered to the board its oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, that the terms of the merger agreement are fair to Floridian, and its shareholders, from a financial point of view. The full text of Austin's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion.

Austin expressed no opinion as to the price at which Floridian's or Seacoast's common stock would actually be trading at any given time;

Austin's opinion does not address the relative merits of the merger and the other business strategies considered by Floridian's board, nor does it address Floridian's board's decision to proceed with the merger; and Austin's opinion was based on market, economic and other relevant considerations as they existed and could be evaluated as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of Austin's opinion, including, but not limited to, changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the financial condition of either Seacoast or Floridian could materially affect the assumptions used by Austin in preparing its opinion.

The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. It is, therefore, not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In performing its analyses, Austin made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Floridian and Seacoast and may not be realized. Any estimates contained in Austin's analyses are not necessarily predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates. Estimates of values of the companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which the companies or their securities may actually be sold. Unless specifically noted, none of the analyses performed by Austin was assigned a greater significance by Austin than any other. The relative importance or weight given to these analyses is not reflected in the order of either the analyses or their corresponding results in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Management of Floridian and Seacoast, respectively, advised Austin that there had been no material adverse change in their respective company's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Austin. Austin assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Floridian and Seacoast would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to Austin's analyses, that all of the representatives and warranties contained in the merger agreement were true and correct, that each party to the merger agreement would perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the merger agreement, and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement would not be waived. Finally, Austin relied upon the advice Floridian received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In its review, Austin relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to it or publicly available, and did not attempt to verify such information. As part of the due diligence process, Austin made no independent verification as to the status and value of Floridian's or Seacoast's assets, including the value of the loan portfolio and allowance for loan and lease losses, and instead relied upon representations and information concerning the value of assets and the adequacy of reserves of both companies in the aggregate. In addition, Austin assumed that, in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the transaction, no condition would be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the transaction to Floridian and its shareholders.

In connection with its opinion, Austin reviewed:

the merger agreement dated as of November 2, 2015;
certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Floridian and Seacoast that Austin deemed relevant;
certain non-public internal financial and operating data of Floridian and Seacoast that were prepared and provided to Austin by the respective managements of Floridian and Seacoast;
internal financial projections for Floridian for the year ending December 31, 2015 prepared by and reviewed with management of Floridian;

internal financial projections for Seacoast for the year ending December 31, 2015 prepared by and reviewed with management of Seacoast;
the pro forma financial impact of the merger on Seacoast, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, preliminary purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings as discussed with representatives of Seacoast;

the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;

such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Austin considered relevant.

Austin also discussed with certain members of senior management of Floridian the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Floridian, including certain operating, regulatory and other financial matters. Austin held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of Seacoast regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Seacoast.

The following is a summary of the material factors considered and analyses performed by Austin in connection with its opinion dated November 2, 2015. The summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Austin.

Summary of Financial Terms of Merger Agreement. Austin reviewed the financial terms of the merger agreement, including the form of consideration, the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the consideration, and the resulting implied value per share to be received by Floridian common shareholders pursuant to the merger. The merger consideration will be payable in cash, Seacoast common stock or some combination thereof, pursuant to shareholder election and subject to proration. Upon completion of the merger, each share of Floridian common stock will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of each shareholder: (1) a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 shares of Seacoast common stock (the mixed election consideration); (2) $12.25 in cash (the cash election consideration); or (3) 0.8140 shares of Seacoast common stock (the stock election consideration). Shares of Floridian common stock with respect to which no election is made will receive the mixed election consideration. The proration procedures provide for the aggregate amount of cash paid and Seacoast shares issued in the merger as a whole are equal to the total amount of cash and total number of Seacoast shares that would have been paid and issued if all Floridian shareholders received the mixed election consideration.

Holders of outstanding Floridian stock options will receive cash in an amount equal to the in-the-money value of such option. Any remaining Floridian warrants that have not been exercised prior to the effective time shall automatically expire. Austin calculated the implied value of the merger consideration to equal approximately $76.5 million as of November 2, 2015. This amount represents:

140 percent of Floridian's September 30, 2015 tangible common book value;
35.9 times last 12 months stated net income;
36.4 times last 12 months core net income; and
6.9 percent premium above Floridian's tangible common equity as a percent of core deposits.

Austin noted that the comparison indicated that Seacoast was below the 25th percentile of the peer group in profitability (core ROAA and core ROAE). In addition, Austin noted that Seacoast ranked between the median and 75th percentile in nonperforming assets (NPAs/Total Assets and NPAs/Tangible Equity + ALLL). Austin reviewed the following summary of the market trading data of Seacoast compared to the peer group, as of October 29, 2015:

Austin noted that Seacoast traded at the median of the peer group as measured by price to tangible book and above the 75th percentile as measured by price to LTM Core EPS. Seacoast does not currently pay dividends. Austin also noted that Seacoast was between the median and 75th percentile in average monthly volume to shares outstanding.

Stand-Alone Net Present Value Analysis. Austin performed an analysis that estimated the stand-alone net present value per share of Floridian common stock. Austin based the analysis on Floridian's projected earnings stream as derived from internal projections provided by Floridian's management for the years ending December 31, 2016 through 2018. Austin also assumed dividends of $0.20 per share for each year and the value of Floridian's net operating loss carryforward. In determining the terminal value of Floridian's common stock at December 31, 2018, Austin applied price to earnings multiples ranging from 11.0x to 15.0x projected 2018 earnings per share. The dividend stream and terminal values were then discounted to present values using discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 14.0%. The following table illustrates the net present value per share of Floridian common stock based on the above assumptions:

Discount Rate Range	2018 Terminal EPS Multiples
	11.0	12.0	13.0	14.0	15.0
10.0%	$ 6.66	$ 7.14	$ 7.63	$ 8.11	$ 8.60
11.0%	$ 6.51	$ 6.98	$ 7.45	$ 7.92	$ 8.39
12.0%	$ 6.36	$ 6.82	$ 7.28	$ 7.74	$ 8.20
13.0%	$ 6.22	$ 6.67	$ 7.11	$ 7.56	$ 8.01
14.0%	$ 6.08	$ 6.52	$ 6.96	$ 7.39	$ 7.83

Based on this analysis, Austin calculated the implied net present value of Floridian common stock ranges from $6.08 to $8.60 per share.

Austin also considered the impact to the net present value results from changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Austin performed a similar analysis assuming Floridian's net income varied plus or minus 20% from the baseline projections. This analysis resulted in the following per share value range using a discount rate of 12.0%.

% Change	Implied 2018 EPS	2018 Terminal EPS Multiples
		11.0	12.0	13.0	14.0	15.0
20.0%	$ 0.77	$ 7.37	$ 7.92	$ 8.47	$ 9.02	$ 9.57
10.0%	$ 0.71	$ 6.87	$ 7.37	$ 7.88	$ 8.38	$ 8.89
0.0%	$ 0.64	$ 6.36	$ 6.82	$ 7.28	$ 7.74	$ 8.20
-10.0%	$ 0.58	$ 5.86	$ 6.27	$ 6.68	$ 7.10	$ 7.51
-20.0%	$ 0.52	$ 5.35	$ 5.72	$ 6.09	$ 6.45	$ 6.82

Based on this analysis, Austin calculated the implied net present value of Floridian common stock ranges from $5.35 to $9.57 per share.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Austin analyzed the potential pro forma effect of the merger assuming the transaction was completed at year-end 2015. Assumptions were made regarding accounting adjustments, costs savings and other acquisition adjustments based on discussions with management of Floridian and Seacoast. Based on fully phased in cost savings and management's earnings estimates, this analysis indicated that the merger is expected to be accretive to Seacoast's estimated stand-alone EPS. Austin calculated that Seacoast's tangible book value per share would be diluted at closing, but recovered within 4.0 to 4.5 years. Seacoast would continue to be well-capitalized following the merger.

Austin's Compensation and Relationships with Floridian and Seacoast. Floridian paid Austin a fixed fee of $50,000 for its services in rendering the fairness opinion. Austin's fee is not contingent upon closing of the merger. Floridian also agreed to reimburse Austin for its out-of-pocket expenses, and to indemnify Austin against certain liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws. Austin has provided various consulting services to Floridian in the past, the fees for which were not material to Austin's overall business. Austin does not have any prior, existing or pending engagements with Seacoast.

Conclusion. Based on the preceding summary discussion and analysis, and subject to the assumptions set forth in its opinion, Austin determined the terms of the merger agreement to be fair, from a financial point of view, to Floridian and its shareholders. Each shareholder is encouraged to read Austin's fairness opinion in its entirety. The full text of this fairness opinion is included as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger

The following section summarizes the anticipated material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger generally applicable to U.S. holders (as defined below) of Floridian common stock. These opinions and the following discussion are based on, and subject to, the Code, the treasury regulations promulgated under the Code, existing interpretations, court decisions, and administrative rulings, all of which are in effect as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of the discussion.

This summary only addresses the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to the Floridian shareholders that hold Floridian common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code. This summary does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be applicable to Floridian shareholders in light of their particular circumstances or to Floridian shareholders subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax law, such as:

shareholders who are not U.S. holders;
pass-through entities or investors in pass-through entities;
financial institutions;
insurance companies;
tax-exempt organizations;
brokers, banks or dealers in securities or currencies;
traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting;
persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar;
persons who purchased or sell their shares of Floridian common stock as part of a wash sale;
shareholders who hold their shares of Floridian common stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction; and shareholders who acquired their shares of Floridian common stock pursuant to the exercise of employee stock options or otherwise acquired shares as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan.

In addition, the discussion does not address any alternative minimum tax or any state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger, nor does it address any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

U.S. Holders

For purposes of this summary, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial holder of Floridian common stock that is:

a citizen or resident of the U.S.; or a corporation (including any entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the U.S. or any of its political subdivisions; or a trust that: (i) is subject to both the primary supervision of a court within the U.S. and the control of one or more U.S. persons; or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on its income regardless of its source.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If a partnership (including any entity or arrangement, domestic or foreign, that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) holds Floridian common stock, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. Partnerships and partners in such a partnership should consult their tax advisers about the tax consequences of the merger to them.

The Merger

The parties intend for the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Floridian's obligation to complete the merger that Floridian receive an opinion from Gunster, dated as of the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Seacoast's obligation to complete the merger that Seacoast receive an opinion from Cadwalader, dated as of the closing date of the merger, to the effect that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, in connection with the filing of the registration statement of which this document is a part, each of Gunster and Cadwalader has delivered an opinion to Floridian and Seacoast, respectively, to the same effect as the opinions described above. These opinions will be based on representation letters provided by Floridian and Seacoast and on customary factual assumptions. None of the opinions described above will be binding on the Internal Revenue Service. Floridian and Seacoast have not sought and will not seek any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matters relating to the merger, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth below. In addition, if any of the representations or assumptions upon which those opinions are based are inconsistent with the actual facts, the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected. The remainder of this discussion assumes that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

The tax consequences of the merger to a U.S. holder of Floridian common stock will generally depend upon the form of consideration such U.S. holder receives in the merger.

Exchange for Solely Seacoast Common Stock. Pursuant to the merger agreement, upon exchanging all of your shares of Floridian common stock for solely Seacoast common stock (and cash instead of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock), you will generally not recognize gain or loss, except with respect to cash received instead of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock (see Cash Instead of Fractional Shares below).

Exchange for Solely Cash. Pursuant to the merger agreement, upon exchanging all of your shares of Floridian common stock for solely cash, you will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash you receive and your cost basis in your Floridian common stock.

Exchange for Seacoast Common Stock and Cash. Pursuant to the merger agreement, upon exchanging all of your shares of Floridian common stock for a combination of Seacoast common stock and cash, you will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of: (1) the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock); and (2) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the amount of cash treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock in the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Seacoast common stock) plus the fair market value of Seacoast common stock (including the fair market value of any fractional share) received in the merger, over (b) your cost basis in the Floridian common stock exchanged. If you acquired different blocks of Floridian common stock at different times or at different prices, you should consult your individual tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be determined.

Except as described in the section entitled Dividend Treatment below, any recognized gain will generally be long-term capital gain if, as of the effective date of the merger, your holding period with respect to the surrendered Floridian common stock exceeds one year. The aggregate tax basis of the Seacoast common stock you receive as a result of the merger (including any fractional shares of Seacoast common stock deemed received) will be the same as your aggregate tax basis in Floridian common stock you surrender in the merger, decreased by the amount of cash you receive that is treated as received in exchange for Floridian common stock (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Seacoast common stock) and increased by the amount of gain, if any, you recognize in the exchange (excluding any gain resulting from cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Seacoast common stock). The holding period of the Seacoast common stock you receive as a result of the exchange will include the holding period of Floridian common stock you surrendered in the merger.

Cash Instead of Fractional Shares. If you receive cash in the merger instead of a fractional share interest in Seacoast common stock, you will be treated as having received such fractional share in the merger, and then as having received cash in exchange for such fractional share. Gain or loss would be recognized in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your adjusted tax basis allocable to such fractional share. Except as described in the section entitled Dividend Treatment below, this gain or loss will generally be a capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, you have held your shares of Floridian common stock for more than one year.

Dividend Treatment. There are certain circumstances in which all or part of the gain you recognize will be treated as a dividend rather than as capital gains. In general, this determination depends upon whether, and to what extent, the merger reduces your deemed percentage share ownership interest in Seacoast. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon your particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, you should consult your own tax advisor regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to you.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

In general, information reporting requirements may apply to the cash payments made to a U.S. holder in connection with the merger, unless an exemption applies. Backup withholding may be imposed on the above payments if a U.S. holder (1) fails to provide a taxpayer identification number or appropriate certificates or (2) otherwise fails to comply with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules.

Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against its applicable U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the IRS. U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the application of backup withholding based on their particular circumstances and the availability and procedure for obtaining an exemption from backup withholding.

The foregoing discussion is for general information purposes only and is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. The discussion does not address tax consequences which may vary with, or are contingent on, your individual circumstances. Moreover, the discussion does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. Accordingly, you are strongly encouraged to consult with your own tax advisor as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010, the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

Accounting Treatment

The merger will be accounted for using the acquisition method of accounting with Seacoast treated as the acquiror. Under this method of accounting, Floridian's assets and liabilities will be recorded by Seacoast at their respective fair values as of the date of completion of the merger. Financial statements of Seacoast issued after the merger will reflect these values and will not be restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of Seacoast.

Regulatory Approvals

Under federal law, the merger must be approved (unless such requirement for approval has been waived) by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and the bank merger must be approved by the OCC. Once the Federal Reserve approves the merger (unless such requirement for approval has been waived), the parties must wait for up to thirty days before completing the merger. With the concurrence of the U.S. Department of Justice and permission from the Federal Reserve, however, the merger may be completed on or after the fifteenth day after approval from the Federal Reserve (unless such requirement for approval has been waived). Similarly, after receipt of approval of the bank merger from the OCC, the parties must wait for up to thirty days before completing the bank merger. If, however, there are no adverse comments from the U.S. Department of Justice and Seacoast receives permission from the OCC to do so, the bank merger may be completed on or after the fifteenth day after approval from the OCC.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, all of the required regulatory applications have been filed. There is no assurance as to whether the regulatory approvals will be obtained or as to the dates of the approvals. There also can be no assurance that the regulatory approvals received will not contain any condition that would increase any of the minimum regulatory capital requirements of Seacoast following the bank merger or have a material adverse effect.

See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Appraisal Rights for Floridian Shareholders

Holders of Floridian common stock as of the record date are entitled to appraisal rights under the FBCA. Pursuant to Section 607.1302 of the FBCA, a Floridian shareholder who does not wish to accept the consideration to be received pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement may dissent from the merger and elect to receive the fair value of his or her shares of Floridian common stock immediately prior to the date of the special meeting to vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger unless exclusion would be inequitable. Under the terms of the merger agreement, if holders of 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock validly exercise their appraisal rights, then Seacoast will not be obligated to complete the merger.

In order to exercise appraisal rights, a dissenting Floridian shareholder must strictly comply with the statutory procedures of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA, which are summarized below. A copy of the full text of those Sections is included as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus. Floridian shareholders are urged to read Appendix D in its entirety and to consult with their legal advisors. Each Floridian shareholder who desires to assert his or her appraisal rights is cautioned that failure on his or her part to adhere strictly to the requirements of Florida law in any regard will cause a forfeiture of any appraisal rights.

Procedures for Exercising Dissenters Rights of Appraisal. The following summary of Florida law is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the applicable provisions of the FBCA, a copy of which is included as Appendix D to this proxy statement/prospectus.

A dissenting shareholder who desires to exercise his or her appraisal rights must file with Floridian, prior to the taking of the vote on the merger agreement, a written notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the merger is effectuated. A vote against the merger agreement will not alone be deemed to be the written notice of intent to demand payment and will not be deemed to satisfy the notice requirements under the FBCA. A dissenting shareholder need not vote against the merger agreement, but cannot vote, or allow any nominee who holds such shares for the dissenting shareholder to vote, any of his or her shares of Floridian common stock in favor of the merger agreement. A vote in favor of the merger agreement will constitute a waiver of the shareholder's appraisal rights. A shareholder's failure to vote against the merger agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights. Such written notification should be delivered either in person or by mail (certified mail, return receipt requested, being the recommended form of transmittal) to:

Floridian Financial Group, Inc.
175 Timacuan Blvd.
Lake Mary, FL 32746
Attention: Thomas H. Dargan, Jr.

All such notices must be signed in the same manner as the shares are registered on the books of Floridian. If a Floridian shareholder has not provided written notice of intent to demand fair value before the vote on the proposal to approve the merger agreement is taken at the special meeting, then the Floridian shareholder will be deemed to have waived his or her appraisal rights.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Within ten days after the completion of the merger, Seacoast must provide to each Floridian shareholder who filed a notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares a written appraisal notice and an election form that specifies, among other things:

the date of the completion of the merger;

Seacoast's estimate of the fair value of the shares of Floridian common stock;

where to return the completed appraisal election form and the shareholder's stock certificates and the date by which each must be received by Seacoast or its agent, which date with respect to the receipt of the appraisal election form may not be fewer than forty, nor more than sixty, days after the date Seacoast sent the appraisal election form to the shareholder (and shall state that the shareholder shall have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless such form is received by Seacoast by such specified date) and which with respect to the return of stock certificates must not be earlier than the date for receiving the appraisal election form;

that, if requested in writing, Seacoast will provide to the shareholder so requesting, within ten days after the date set for receipt by Seacoast of the appraisal election form, the number of shareholders who return the forms by such date and the total number of shares owned by them; and the date by which a notice from the Floridian shareholder of his or her desire to withdraw his or her appraisal election must be received by Seacoast, which date must be within twenty days after the date set for receipt by Seacoast of the appraisal election form from the Floridian shareholder.

The form must also contain Seacoast's offer to pay to the Floridian shareholder the amount that it has estimated as the fair value of the shares of Floridian common stock, and request certain information from the Floridian shareholder, including:

the shareholder's name and address;

the number of shares as to which the shareholder is asserting appraisal rights;

that the shareholder did not vote for the merger;

whether the shareholder accepts the offer of Seacoast to pay its estimate of the fair value of the shares of Floridian common stock to the shareholder; and if the shareholder does not accept the offer of Seacoast, the shareholder's estimated fair value of the shares of Floridian common stock and a demand for payment of the shareholder's estimated value plus interest.

A dissenting shareholder must execute and submit the certificate(s) representing his or her shares and the appraisal election form, and in the case of certificated shares deposit the shareholder's certificates, by the specified date. Any dissenting shareholder failing to return a properly completed appraisal election form and his or her stock certificates within the period stated in the form will lose his or her appraisal rights and be bound by the terms of the merger agreement. Upon returning the appraisal election form, a dissenting shareholder will be entitled only to payment pursuant to the procedure set forth in the applicable sections of the FBCA and will not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a shareholder, unless the dissenting shareholder withdraws his or her demand for appraisal within the time period specified in the appraisal election form.

A dissenting shareholder who has delivered the appraisal election form and his or her Floridian common stock certificates may decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by giving written notice to Seacoast within the time period specified in the appraisal election form. Thereafter, a dissenting shareholder may not withdraw from the appraisal process without the written consent of Seacoast. Upon such withdrawal, the right of the dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares will cease, and he or she will be reinstated as a shareholder and will be entitled to receive the merger consideration.

If the dissenting shareholder accepts the offer of Seacoast in the appraisal election form to pay Seacoast's estimate of the fair value of the shares of Floridian common stock, payment for the shares of the dissenting shareholder is to be made within 90 days after the receipt of the appraisal election form by Seacoast or its agent. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder will cease to have any interest in such shares.

A shareholder must demand appraisal rights with respect to all of the shares registered in his or her name, except that a record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but which are owned by a beneficial shareholder, if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares owned by the beneficial shareholder. A record shareholder must notify Floridian in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to any shares held on behalf of the beneficial shareholder only if the beneficial shareholder submits to Floridian the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights before the date specified in the appraisal election form, and does so with respect to all shares that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

A shareholder who is dissatisfied with Seacoast's estimate of the fair value of the shares of Seacoast common stock must notify Seacoast of the shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest in the appraisal election form within the time period specified in the form. A shareholder who fails to notify Seacoast in writing of the shareholder's demand to be paid its stated estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest within the required time period waives the right to demand payment and will be entitled only to the payment offered by Seacoast in the appraisal election form.

Section 607.1330 of the FBCA addresses what should occur if a dissenting shareholder fails to accept the offer of Seacoast to pay the value of the shares as estimated by Seacoast, and Seacoast fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting shareholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting shareholder, plus interest.

If a dissenting shareholder refuses to accept the offer of Seacoast to pay the value of the shares as estimated by Seacoast, and Seacoast fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting shareholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting shareholder, plus interest, then within sixty days after receipt of a written demand from any dissenting shareholder, Seacoast shall, or at its election at any time within such period of sixty days may, file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in Florida where the registered office of Seacoast, maintained pursuant to Florida law, is located requesting that the fair value of such shares be determined by the court.

If Seacoast fails to institute a proceeding within the above-prescribed period, any dissenting shareholder may do so in the name of Seacoast. All dissenting shareholders whose demands remain unsettled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and a copy of the initial pleading will be served on each dissenting shareholder as provided by law. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There shall be no right to a jury trial.

Seacoast is required to pay each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due within ten days after final determination of the proceedings, which amount may, in the discretion of the court, include a fair rate of interest, which will also be determined by the court. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder ceases to have any interest in such shares.

Section 607.1331 of the FBCA provides that the costs of a court appraisal proceeding, including reasonable compensation for, and expenses of, appraisers appointed by the court, will be determined by the court and assessed against Seacoast, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenting shareholders, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent that the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to their appraisal rights. The court also may assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable, against: (i) Seacoast and in favor of any or all dissenting shareholders if the court finds Seacoast did not substantially comply with the notification provisions set forth in Sections 607.1320 and 607.1322 of the FBCA; or (ii) either Seacoast or a dissenting shareholder, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the appraisal rights. If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any dissenting shareholder were of substantial benefit to other dissenting shareholders, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against Seacoast, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenting shareholders who were benefited. To the extent that Seacoast fails to make a required payment when a dissenting shareholder accepts Seacoast's offer to pay the value of the shares as estimated by Seacoast, the dissenting shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from Seacoast all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

BECAUSE OF THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROVISIONS OF FLORIDA LAW RELATING TO DISSENTERS' APPRAISAL RIGHTS, SHAREHOLDERS WHO ARE CONSIDERING DISSENTING FROM THE MERGER ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN LEGAL ADVISORS.

Board of Directors and Management of Seacoast Following the Merger

The members of the board of directors and officers of Seacoast immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be the directors and officers of the surviving company and will hold office until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, or their earlier death, resignation or removal.

Information regarding the executive officers and directors of Seacoast is contained in documents filed by Seacoast with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, including Seacoast's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 and its definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A for its 2015 annual meeting, filed with the SEC on March 16, 2015 and April 7, 2015, respectively. See Where You Can Find More Information and Documents Incorporated by Reference beginning on pages i and 91, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Interests of Floridian Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In the merger, the directors and executive officers of Floridian will receive the same merger consideration for their Floridian shares as the other Floridian shareholders. In considering the recommendation of the Floridian board of directors that you vote to approve the merger agreement, you should be aware that some of the executive officers and directors of Floridian may have interests in the merger and may have arrangements, as described below, that may be considered to be different from, or in addition to, those of Floridian shareholders generally. The Floridian board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and to recommend that Floridian shareholders vote in favor of approving the merger agreement. For a more complete description of Floridian's reasons for the merger and the recommendations of the Floridian board of directors, please see the section entitled The Merger - Background of the Merger and The Merger - Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendations of the Floridian Board of Directors beginning on page 25 and 30, respectively, of this proxy statement/prospectus. Floridian's shareholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement. These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative below.

Payments under Certain Contracts

Pursuant to their existing employment agreements with Floridian and Floridian Bank, Messrs. Bulko and Dargan would each receive, upon a change of control of Floridian, a lump sum payment equal to two times the sum of their average base annual salary plus the average annual bonus received during the three-year period prior to the effective date of the change of control, plus an amount that would reimburse the executive for continued healthcare coverage for a period of 18 months thereafter. In addition, each of Messrs. Bulko and Dargan are party to Salary Continuation Agreements with Floridian and Floridian Bank, which provide that all unvested amounts under these agreements will accelerate and become fully vested upon a change in control and payable in 36 monthly installments following the change in control. In lieu of the payments due to him pursuant to his current employment agreement with Floridian upon a change in control, Mr. Dargan agreed to enter into a new employment agreement with SNB, effective upon consummation of the merger, the key terms of which are summarized below.

TABLE OF CONTENTSEntry into Employment Agreement

As a condition to Seacoast's obligation to consummate the merger, SNB and Mr. Dargan entered into an employment agreement, effective as of the effective date of the merger, pursuant to which Mr. Dargan would serve as Market Executive Officer of SNB. This employment agreement will supersede Mr. Dargan's existing employment agreement with Floridian and Floridian Bank. The employment agreement has an initial two-year term, and may be extended for successive periods of one year each on materially similar terms and conditions upon the mutual written agreement of the parties. The agreement provides for, among other things: (i) an annual salary of $255,000 per year; (ii) a lump sum signing bonus payment of $268,500; (iii) 17,841 shares of Seacoast common stock pursuant to the 2013 Long Term Incentive Plan; (iv) a retention equity award of 17,841 shares of restricted Seacoast common stock which vests in one installment on the second anniversary of Mr. Dargan's employment with Seacoast; (v) reimbursement of automobile expenses of up to $750 per month and club dues; and (vi) eligibility to participate in the medical, disability and life insurance plans applicable to the executives of Seacoast generally. If prior to the second anniversary of the effective date Mr. Dargan is terminated without cause or resigns for good reason, then, subject to Mr. Dargan executing an effective release of claims in favor of Seacoast, Mr. Dargan will be entitled to: (i) continued payment of salary through the second anniversary of the effective date; (ii) continued participation in Seacoast's medical, dental, disability and life insurance programs through the earlier of the end of the 18-month period beginning on the date of termination, such time as Mr. Dargan is eligible to receive comparable benefit of a subsequent employer, or the date on which Mr. Dargan becomes eligible for Medicare; and (iii) accelerated vesting of his retention equity award. The employment agreement contains restrictive covenants providing for non-recruitment of employees, non-solicitation of customers and non-competition which are effective for a period ending on the later of (x) the fifth anniversary of the effective date and (y) the first anniversary of Mr. Dargan's termination of employment for any reason.

Treatment of Floridian Equity Awards

At the effective time of the merger, all outstanding options to purchase shares of Floridian common stock, or "Floridian Equity Awards", that are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether or not then vested or exercisable, will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to promptly receive an amount in cash equal to the product of (x) the aggregate number of shares of Floridian common stock subject to such option multiplied by (y) the excess, if any, of the Per Share Merger Consideration Value over the exercise price per share of the Floridian option; "Per Share Merger Consideration Value" means the sum of (i) $4.29 and (ii) 0.5291 multiplied by the average closing price per share of Seacoast common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the ten trading day period ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Director Restrictive Covenant Agreement; Claims Letters

Each non-employee member of the Floridian and Floridian Bank boards of directors have entered into a restrictive covenant agreement, covering a five-year period commencing with the effective time of the merger, with Seacoast in the form attached as Exhibit D to the merger agreement attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. However, directors would be permitted to serve on other bank boards within the restricted territory after the second anniversary of the restrictive covenant agreement. In addition, each of the members of the Floridian and Floridian Bank boards of directors have entered into a claims letter in the form attached as Exhibit C to the merger agreement attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus, by which they have agreed to release certain claims against Floridian, effective as of the effective time of the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

As described under The Merger Agreement Indemnification and Directors and Officers Insurance beginning on page 68 of this proxy statement/prospectus, after the effective time of the merger, Seacoast will indemnify and defend the present and former directors, officers and employees of Floridian and its subsidiaries against claims pertaining to matters occurring at or prior to the closing of the merger as permitted by Floridian's articles of incorporation, bylaws and any existing indemnification agreement. Seacoast also has agreed, for a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, to provide coverage to present and former directors and officers of Floridian pursuant to Floridian's existing directors and officers liability insurance. This insurance policy may be substituted, but must contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms no less advantageous in the aggregate than the coverage currently provided by Floridian. In no event shall Seacoast be required to expend for the tail insurance a premium amount in excess of 150% of the annual premiums paid by Floridian for its directors and officers liability insurance in effect as of the date of the merger agreement.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, a copy of which is included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. You should read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety, as it is the legal document governing the merger.

The Merger and the Bank Merger

The boards of directors of Seacoast and Floridian have each unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement, which provides for the merger of Floridian with and into Seacoast, with Seacoast as the surviving company in the merger.

The merger agreement also provides that immediately after the effective time of the merger, Floridian Bank, a Florida chartered commercial bank and wholly-owned subsidiary of Floridian, will merge with and into SNB, a national banking association and wholly owned subsidiary of Seacoast, with SNB as the surviving bank of such merger. The terms and conditions of the merger of Floridian Bank and SNB are set forth in a separate merger agreement (referred to as the bank merger agreement), the form of which is attached as Exhibit A to the merger agreement, included as Appendix A to this proxy statement/prospectus. We refer to the merger of Floridian Bank and SNB as the bank merger.

Closing and Effective Time of the Merger

Unless both Seacoast and Floridian otherwise agree, the closing of the merger will take place at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, on a date which shall be no later than three business days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable law) of the latest to occur of the conditions to completion of the merger (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver thereof), unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by Seacoast and Floridian. Simultaneously with the closing of the merger, Seacoast will file articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. The merger will become effective at such time as the articles of merger are filed or such other time as may be specified in the articles of merger.

We currently expect that the merger will be completed in the first quarter of 2016, subject to the approval of the merger agreement by Floridian shareholders and other conditions. However, completion of the merger could be delayed if there is a delay in satisfying any other conditions to the merger. No assurance is made as to whether, or when, Seacoast and Floridian will complete the merger. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 71 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Merger Consideration

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each share of Floridian common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (excluding certain shares held by Floridian, Seacoast and their wholly-owned subsidiaries and dissenting shares described below) will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof (subject to the proration procedures described below): (a) the mixed election consideration, which is a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 shares of Seacoast common stock; (b) the cash election consideration of $12.25 in cash; or

(c) the stock election consideration of 0.8140 shares of Seacoast common stock.

No fractional shares of Seacoast common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, Seacoast will make to each Floridian shareholder who would otherwise receive a fractional share of Seacoast common stock a cash payment, without interest, equal to: (i) the fractional share amount multiplied by (ii) the average closing price per share of Seacoast common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market for the ten trading day period ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the date of the closing of the merger.

All shares of Seacoast common stock received by Floridian shareholders in the merger will be freely tradable, except that shares of Seacoast common stock received by persons who become affiliates of Seacoast for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be resold by them only in transactions permitted by Rule 144, or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act.

A Floridian shareholder also has the right to obtain the fair value of his or her shares of Floridian common stock in lieu of receiving the merger consideration by strictly following the appraisal procedures under the FBCA. Shares of Floridian common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and which are held by a shareholder who does not vote to approve the merger agreement and who properly demands the fair value of such shares pursuant to, and who complies with, the appraisal procedures under the FBCA are referred to as dissenting shares. See The Merger Appraisal Rights for Floridian Shareholders beginning on page 53 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

If Seacoast or Floridian change the number of shares of Seacoast common stock or Floridian common stock outstanding prior to the effective time of the merger as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or similar recapitalization with respect to the Seacoast common stock or Floridian common stock and the record date for such corporate action is prior to the effective time of the merger, then the merger consideration shall be appropriately and proportionately adjusted.

Based upon the closing sale price of the Seacoast common stock on the NASDAQ Global Select Market of $[] on [], the last practicable trading date prior to the printing of this proxy statement/prospectus, the value of the mixed election consideration was approximately $[].

The value of the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued to Floridian shareholders in the merger will fluctuate between now and the closing date of the merger. We make no assurances as to whether or when the merger will be completed, and you are advised to obtain current sale prices for the Seacoast common stock. See Risk Factors Because the sale price of the Seacoast common stock will fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the value of the stock consideration that you will receive in the merger until the closing beginning on page 14 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Election and Proration Procedures

Election Materials and Procedures

An election form will be mailed to each holder of record of Floridian common stock, as of the close of business on the fifth business day prior to such mailing date (the election form record date), on a date to be mutually agreed by Seacoast and Floridian that is not more than forty-five days nor less than thirty days prior to the anticipated closing date of the merger or on such other date as Seacoast and Floridian mutually agree (the mailing date). Seacoast will make available one or more election forms as may reasonably be requested from time to time by all persons who become holders or beneficial owners of Floridian common stock between the election form record date and the close of business on the business day prior to the twenty-fifth day following the mailing date (the election deadline).

Each election form will permit the holder (or the beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions) to specify (x) the number of shares of such holder's Floridian common stock with respect to which such holder makes a mixed election, (y) the number of shares of such holder's Floridian common stock with respect to which such holder makes a cash election and (z) the number of shares of such holder's Floridian common stock with respect to which such holder makes a stock election. Any shares of Floridian common stock with respect to which the exchange agent has not received an effective, properly completed election form accompanied by related stock certificates or book-entry shares on or before the election deadline will be deemed to be no election shares, and the holders of such no election shares will be deemed to have made a mixed election with respect to such no election shares. Both the cash election and the stock election are subject to proration and adjustment procedures to cause the total amount of cash paid, and the total number of Seacoast common shares issued, in the merger to the holders of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares), as a whole, to equal as nearly as practicable the total amount of cash and number of shares that would have been paid and issued if all of such shares of Floridian common stock were converted into the mixed election consideration.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Any election form may be revoked or changed by the authorized person properly submitting such election form, by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. In the event an election form is revoked prior to the election deadline, the shares of Floridian common stock represented by such election form will become no election shares, except to the extent a subsequent election is properly made with respect to any or all of such shares of Floridian common stock prior to the election deadline. Subject to the terms of the merger agreement and the election form, the exchange agent has the reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the election forms, and any good faith decisions of the exchange agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. None of Seacoast, Floridian or the exchange agent shall be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in an election form.

Proration Procedures

If a Floridian shareholder elects to receive the cash election consideration, and the cash election amount is greater than the available cash election amount, such shareholder will receive:

an amount in cash (without interest) equal to (i) the cash election consideration of $12.25 multiplied by (ii) the cash fraction; and a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Seacoast common stock equal to the product of (i) the stock election consideration of 0.8140 multiplied by (ii) a fraction equal to one minus the cash fraction.

If a Floridian shareholder elects to receive the stock election consideration, and the available cash election amount is greater than the cash election amount, such shareholder will receive:

an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the amount of such excess divided by the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which stock elections were made; and a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of Seacoast common stock equal to the product of (i) the stock election consideration of 0.8140 multiplied by (ii) a fraction, the numerator of which will be the difference between (a) the cash election consideration of $12.25 minus (b) the amount of cash calculated in the immediately preceding bullet, and the denominator of which will be the cash election consideration of $12.25.

Set forth below are illustrative examples of how the proration and adjustment procedures will work in the event there is an oversubscription of the cash election or the stock election.

Example A Oversubscription of Cash Election. For purposes of this example, assume the following:

there are 6,203,884 outstanding shares of Floridian common stock;

Floridian shareholders make the mixed election with respect to 620,388 shares (or 10%) of Floridian common stock;

Floridian shareholders make the cash election with respect to 3,101,942 shares (or 50%) of Floridian common stock;

Floridian shareholders make the stock election with respect to the remaining 2,481,554 shares (or 40%) of Floridian common stock; and

no Floridian shareholders exercise their right to appraisal.

In this example, the cash election consideration, prior to proration and allocation, would be $12.25. Without proration or allocation, the cash election would be oversubscribed because the cash election amount would be approximately $37,998,789.50 (the product of the total number of shares of Floridian common stock for which the cash election has been made multiplied by the cash election consideration), an amount that is greater than the available cash election amount (which is approximately $23,939,237.39, the difference between (a) the product of the cash component of the mixed election consideration multiplied by the total number of outstanding shares of Floridian common stock, minus (b) the product of the total number of shares of Floridian common stock for which the mixed election has been made multiplied by the cash component of the mixed election consideration). The unprorated aggregate cash consideration is equal to the sum of

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(i) 620,388, the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which the mixed election has been made, multiplied by $4.29, the cash component of the mixed election consideration, and (ii) 3,101,942, the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which a cash election has been made, multiplied by $12.25, the cash election consideration. To adjust for the oversubscription, the consideration received for a Floridian share for which a cash election is made will be adjusted so that it is equal to:

$7.72 in cash (which is equal to the product of the cash election consideration of $12.25 and the cash fraction (the available cash election amount divided by the cash election amount); and

0.3012 shares of Seacoast common stock (which is equal to the product of (i) the stock election consideration of 0.8140 and (ii) 1 minus the cash fraction.

Example B Oversubscription of Stock Election. For purposes of this example, assume the following:

there are 6,203,884 outstanding shares of Floridian common stock;

Floridian shareholders make the mixed election with respect to 620,388 shares (or 10%) of Floridian common stock;

Floridian shareholders make the cash election with respect to 1,240,777 shares (or 20%) of Floridian common stock;

Floridian shareholders make the stock election with respect to the remaining 4,342,719 shares (or 70%) of Floridian common stock; and

no Floridian shareholders exercise their right to appraisal.

In this example, the stock election is oversubscribed because, without proration or allocation, the cash election amount would be $15,199,515.80, an amount that is less than the available cash election amount (which is approximately $23,939,237.39). The unprorated aggregate cash consideration is equal to the sum of (i) 620,388, the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which the mixed election has been made, multiplied by $4.29, and (ii) 1,240,777, the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which a cash election has been made, multiplied by $12.25, the cash election consideration. To adjust for the oversubscription, the consideration received for a Floridian share for which a stock election is made will be adjusted so that it is equal to:

0.6802 shares of Seacoast common stock (which is equal to the stock election consideration of 0.8140 multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the difference between the cash election consideration of $12.25, and $2.01, the cash amount calculated in the following bullet, and the denominator of which is the cash election consideration of $12.25); and

$2.01 in cash (which is equal to the available cash election amount minus the cash election amount, divided by the number of shares of Floridian common stock for which the stock election has been made.

The greater the oversubscription of the stock election, the less stock and more cash a Floridian shareholder making the stock election will receive. Reciprocally, the greater the oversubscription of the cash election, the less cash and more stock a Floridian shareholder making the cash election will receive. However, in no event will a Floridian shareholder who makes the cash election or the stock election receive less cash and more shares of Seacoast common stock, or fewer shares of Seacoast common stock and more cash, respectively, than a shareholder who makes the mixed election.

No Recommendation Regarding Elections

Neither Floridian nor Seacoast is making any recommendation as to which merger consideration election a Floridian shareholder should make. If you are a Floridian shareholder, you must make your own decision with respect to these elections and may wish to seek the advice of your own attorneys or accountants.

Information About the Merger Consideration Elections

The mix of consideration payable to Floridian shareholders who make the cash election or the stock election will not be known until the results of the elections made by Floridian shareholders are tallied, which will not occur until near or after the closing of the merger.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Procedures for Converting Shares of Floridian Common Stock into Merger Consideration

Exchange Agent

Prior to the effective time of the merger, Seacoast will designate a bank or trust company that is reasonably acceptable to Floridian to act as the exchange agent in connection with the merger (such agent is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the exchange agent). The exchange agent shall also act as the agent for Floridian shareholders for the purpose of receiving and holding their election forms and Floridian certificates and book-entry shares and shall obtain no rights or interests in the shares represented thereby. At or immediately after the effective time of the merger, Seacoast will deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the exchange agent the aggregate amount of cash and number of shares of Seacoast common stock necessary to satisfy the aggregate merger consideration payable (and any dividends or other distributions with respect thereto).

Transmittal Materials and Procedures

Promptly (but not more than five business days) after the effective time of the merger, Seacoast will cause the exchange agent to send transmittal materials, which will include the appropriate form of letter of transmittal, to holders of record of shares of Floridian common stock (other than excluded shares and dissenting shares) providing instructions on how to effect the transfer and cancellation of shares of Floridian common stock in exchange for merger consideration.

After the effective time of the merger, when a Floridian shareholder delivers a properly executed letter of transmittal and any other documents as may reasonably be required by the exchange agent, the holder of shares of Floridian common stock will be entitled to receive, and the exchange agent will be required to deliver to the holder (i) the number of shares of Seacoast common stock and an amount in cash that such holder is entitled to receive as a result of the merger (after taking into account all of the shares of Floridian common stock held immediately prior to the merger by such holder, and such holder's merger consideration election) and (ii) any cash in lieu of fractional shares and in respect of dividends or other distributions to which the holder is entitled.

No interest will be paid or accrued on any amount payable upon cancellation of shares of Floridian common stock. The shares of Seacoast common stock issued and cash amount paid in accordance with the merger agreement upon conversion of the shares of Floridian common stock (including any cash paid in lieu of fractional shares) will be deemed to have been issued and paid in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the shares of Floridian common stock.

If any portion of the merger consideration is to be delivered to a person or entity other than the holder in whose name any surrendered certificate is registered, it will be a condition of such exchange that (i) the certificate surrendered must be properly endorsed or must be otherwise in proper form for transfer and (ii) the person or entity requesting such payment pays any transfer or other similar taxes required by reason of the payment of the merger consideration to a person or entity other than the registered holder of the certificate surrendered or will establish to the satisfaction of Seacoast that such tax has been paid or is not required to be paid. Payment of the applicable merger consideration with respect to book-entry shares will only be made to the person or entity in whose name such book-entry shares are registered. The shares of Seacoast common stock constituting the stock portion of the merger consideration may be in uncertificated book-entry form, unless a physical certificate is otherwise required by any applicable law.

Treatment of Floridian Options and Warrants

Each Floridian stock option outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, whether or not vested or exercisable, will be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to receive a cash amount equal to the aggregate number of Floridian shares subject to such option multiplied by the excess, if any, of the per share merger consideration value over the exercise price of such option.

Each warrant to purchase Floridian common stock that has not been exercised prior to the effective time of the merger shall automatically expire as of such effective time and no holder thereof shall have any further rights with respect thereto.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Conduct of Business Pending the Merger

Regulatory Matters

This proxy statement/prospectus forms part of a Registration Statement on Form S-4 which Seacoast has filed with the SEC. Seacoast has agreed to use all reasonable efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective.

Each of Seacoast and Floridian has agreed to use all reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or blue sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and each of Seacoast and Floridian has agreed to furnish all information concerning it and the holders of its capital stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

Seacoast and Floridian have agreed to use all respective reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper, or advisable under applicable laws, to permit the consummation of the merger as promptly as practicable.

Seacoast and Floridian will consult with each other with respect to the obtaining of all regulatory consents and other material consents advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and each party will keep the other apprised of the status of material matters relating to the completion of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Floridian has agreed to provide Seacoast with the opportunity to participate in meetings or substantive telephone conversations that it or its representatives may from time to time have with any governmental authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Additionally, each of Seacoast and Floridian has agreed to cooperate fully with and furnish information to the other party, and obtain all consents of, and give all notices to and make all filings with, all governmental authorities and other third parties that may be or become necessary for the performance of its obligations under the merger agreement and the consummation of the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In connection with seeking regulatory approval for the merger, Seacoast is not required to agree to any condition or consequence that would have a material adverse effect on Seacoast or any its subsidiaries, measured on a scale relative to Floridian.

NASDAQ Listing

Seacoast has agreed to cause the shares of Seacoast common stock to be issued to the holders of Floridian common stock in the merger to be authorized for listing on the NASDAQ Global Select Market, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the effective time of the merger.

Employee Matters

Following the effective time of the merger, Seacoast has agreed to maintain employee benefit plans and compensation opportunities for full-time active employees of Floridian and its subsidiaries on the closing date of the merger (referred to below as "covered employees") that provide employee benefits and compensation opportunities which, in the aggregate, are substantially comparable to or greater than the employee benefits and compensation opportunities that are available on a uniform and non-discriminatory basis to similarly situated employees of Seacoast or its subsidiaries (provided that in no event are covered employees eligible to participate in any closed or frozen plan of Seacoast or its subsidiaries). Seacoast will give the covered employees full credit for their prior service with Floridian and its subsidiaries for purposes of eligibility (including initial participation and eligibility for current benefits) and vesting under any qualified or non-qualified employee benefit plan maintained by Seacoast in which covered employees may be eligible to participate and for all purposes under any welfare benefit plans, vacation plans, and similar arrangements maintained by Seacoast.

With respect to any Seacoast health, dental, vision or other welfare plan in which any covered employee is eligible to participate, for the plan year in which such covered employee is first eligible to participate, Seacoast or its applicable subsidiary must use its commercially reasonable best efforts to: (i) cause any pre-existing condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such plan to be waived with respect to the covered employee to the extent the condition was, or would have been, covered under the Floridian benefit plan in which the covered employee participated immediately prior to the effective time of the merger; and (ii) recognize any health, dental, vision or other welfare expenses incurred by the covered employee in the year that includes the closing date of the merger (or, if later, the year in which such covered employee is first eligible to participate) for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements.

If, within 6 months after the effective time of the merger, any covered employee is terminated by Seacoast or its subsidiaries other than for cause or as a result of unsatisfactory job performance, then Seacoast will pay severance to the covered employee in an amount as set forth in the severance policies of Floridian and its subsidiaries as of the date of the merger agreement. Any severance to which a covered employee may be entitled in connection with a termination occurring more than 6 months after the effective time of the merger will be as set forth in the severance policies of Seacoast and its subsidiaries as then in effect.

Indemnification and Directors and Officers Insurance

From and after the effective time of the merger, Seacoast has agreed to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the present and former directors and officers of Floridian against any liability, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of Floridian or its subsidiaries, or the merger agreement or any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, to the greatest extent as such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses pursuant to the organizational documents of Floridian or its subsidiaries and the FBCA.

For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Seacoast will provide directors and officers liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former officers and directors of Floridian with respect to claims against them arising from facts or events occurring at or before the effective time of the merger (including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement). The directors and officers liability insurance will contain at least the same coverage and amounts, and contain terms and conditions no less advantageous in the aggregate to the indemnified person as the coverage currently provided by Floridian; provided, however, that Seacoast may substitute policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous in the aggregate than such Floridian policy. In no event shall Seacoast be required to expend for the tail insurance a premium in an aggregate amount in excess of 150% of the annual premiums paid by Floridian for its directors and officers liability insurance in effect as of the date of the merger agreement.

Third Party Proposals

Floridian has agreed that it will not, and will cause its directors, officers, employees and representatives and affiliates not to, directly or indirectly: (a) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate inquiries or proposals with respect to; (b) continue, engage or participate in any negotiations concerning; (c) provide to any person any confidential or nonpublic information or data or have or participate in any discussions with any person relating to; or (d) approve, recommend, agree to or accept, any acquisition proposal. An acquisition proposal is defined as any offer, proposal or inquiry relating to, or any third party indication of interest in: (i) any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 15% or more of the consolidated assets of Floridian and its subsidiaries or 15% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Floridian or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 15% of the consolidated assets of Floridian; (ii) any tender offer (including a self-tender offer) or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in a third party beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Floridian or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 15% of the consolidated assets of Floridian; (iii) any merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction involving Floridian or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 15% of the consolidated assets of Floridian; or (iv) any other transaction the consummation of which could reasonably be expected to impede, interfere with, prevent or materially delay the merger or the bank merger or that could reasonably be expected to dilute materially the benefits to Seacoast of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

However, the merger agreement provides that at any time prior to the approval of the merger agreement by the Floridian shareholders, if Floridian receives an unsolicited bona fide acquisition proposal that does not violate the no shop provisions in the merger agreement and Floridian's board of directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel, and with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor) that failure to take such actions would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, then Floridian may: (i) enter into a confidentiality agreement with the third party making the acquisition proposal with terms and conditions no less favorable to Floridian than the confidentiality agreement entered into by Floridian and Seacoast prior to the execution of the merger agreement; (ii) furnish non-public information or data to the third party making the acquisition proposal pursuant to such confidentiality agreement (and provide to Seacoast any information not previously provided to Seacoast); and (iii) participate in such negotiations or discussions with the third party making the acquisition proposal regarding such proposal. Floridian must promptly advise Seacoast within 48 hours following receipt of any acquisition proposal, any request for information, discussion or negotiation that is reasonably likely to lead to or that contemplates an acquisition proposal, or any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to, an acquisition proposal. Floridian must furnish a copy of, or a description of the material terms and conditions of such proposal and must keep Seacoast informed of any related developments, discussions and negotiations on a timely basis. Floridian must also promptly (within 48 hours) notify Seacoast if it determines to begin providing information or to engage in discussions or negotiations concerning an acquisition proposal and shall not provide such information or engage in such discussions prior to providing such notice to Seacoast.

Floridian Board Recommendation

The merger agreement generally prohibits Floridian's board of directors from making an adverse recommendation change (i.e., from: (i) withdrawing, modifying or qualifying in a manner adverse to Seacoast the approval, recommendation or declaration of advisability by the Floridian board of directors set forth in this proxy statement/prospectus that the Floridian shareholders vote to approve the merger agreement; (ii) adopting, approving, recommending, endorsing or otherwise declaring as advisable the adoption of any acquisition proposal; (iii) resolving, agreeing or proposing to take any such actions; or (iv) submitting the merger agreement to its shareholders without recommendation). At any time prior to the approval of the merger agreement by the Floridian shareholders, however, the Floridian board of directors may effect an adverse recommendation change in response to (i) an acquisition proposal that constitutes a superior proposal (as defined below) or (ii) an intervening event (as defined below), if the board of directors concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor) that the failure to effect such adverse recommendation change would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties to shareholders under applicable law.

The board of directors of Floridian may not effect an adverse recommendation change without providing Seacoast with at least five business days' prior written notice of its intention to take such action and with a reasonably detailed description of the acquisition proposal or intervening event giving rise to its determination to take such action, and without taking into account in good faith, at the end of such notice period, any amendment or modification of the merger agreement proposed by Seacoast and determining, after taking into account the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor, that failure to effect an adverse recommendation change would nevertheless result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Floridian has further agreed to, and to cause its financial and legal advisors to, negotiate with Seacoast in good faith (to the extent Seacoast seeks to negotiate) regarding any revisions to the merger agreement proposed by Seacoast during such five (5) business day period. Any material amendment to any acquisition proposal or any material development with respect to any intervening event, as the case may be, will require a new five business days notice period as referred to above.

A superior proposal means any bona fide, unsolicited, written acquisition proposal for at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian common stock on terms that the Floridian board of directors concludes in good faith to be more favorable from a financial point of view to its shareholders than the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (including taking into account the terms, if any, proposed by Seacoast to amend or modify the terms of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in response to such proposal) (i) after receiving the written advice of its financial advisor, (ii) after taking into account the likelihood of consummation of such transaction on the terms set forth therein and (iii) after taking into account all legal (with the written advice of outside counsel), financial (including the financing terms of any such proposal), regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and any other relevant factors permitted under applicable law.

An intervening event means any material event or development or material change in circumstance with respect to Floridian that arises or occurs after the date of the merger agreement and was neither known by nor reasonably foreseeable to the Floridian board of directors as of or prior to the date of the merger agreement and does not relate to any acquisition proposal or any required regulatory consent.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If the Floridian board of directors effects an adverse recommendation change and Seacoast determines to terminate the merger agreement, Floridian will be required to pay Seacoast a termination fee of $3,000,000 in cash. See The Merger Agreement Termination, beginning on page 72 of this proxy statement/prospectus and The Merger Agreement Termination Fee beginning on page 73 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Notwithstanding any superior proposal, intervening event or anything contained in the merger agreement, unless the merger agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, the Floridian special meeting shall be convened for the purpose of submitting the merger agreement to the Floridian shareholders to vote on the approval of such and any other matters contemplated thereby.

Termination Fee

Floridian will owe Seacoast a $3,000,000 termination fee if:

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Seacoast terminates the merger agreement as a result of Floridian not substantially complying with its obligations under the merger agreement with respect to third party acquisition proposals or by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the special meeting.

Except in the case of a breach of the merger agreement, the payment of the termination fee will fully discharge Floridian from any losses that may be suffered by Seacoast arising out of the termination of the merger agreement.

Amendment; Waiver

The merger agreement may be amended by the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, at any time before or after approval of the matters presented in connection with the merger by the Floridian shareholders, in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties, provided that after any approval of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the Floridian shareholders, there may not be, without further approval of the Floridian shareholders, any amendment of the merger agreement that requires further approval under applicable law.

At any time prior to the effective time of the merger, the parties, by action taken or authorized by their respective boards of directors, may, to the extent legally allowed: (i) waive any default in the performance of any term of the merger agreement by the other party; (ii) extend the time for the compliance or fulfillment of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party; and (iii) waive any or all of the conditions precedent to the obligations contained in the merger agreement on the part of the other party, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in the violation of any applicable law. Any agreement on the part of a party to any extension or waiver must be in writing signed on behalf of such party. Any such extension or waiver or failure to insist on strict compliance with an obligation, covenant, agreement or condition will not operate as a waiver of any subsequent or other failure.

Expenses

Regardless of whether the merger is completed, all expenses incurred in connection with the merger, the bank merger, the merger agreement and other transactions contemplated thereby will be paid by the party incurring the expenses.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the merger agreement is terminated because the Floridian shareholder approval is not obtained, then Floridian shall reimburse Seacoast for all of its reasonable out-of-pocket fees and expenses in connection with the merger up to a cap of $500,000; provided that, such payment of expenses by Floridian shall not relieve Floridian: (i) of any subsequent obligation to pay the termination fee, if applicable; and (ii) from any liability or damage resulting from a breach prior to such termination of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements set forth in the merger agreement. In the event the termination fee later becomes payable by Floridian, any such expenses paid will be credited against the termination fee.

Election of Directors	Under the FBCA, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the holders of the shares entitled to vote in an election of directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present. However, notwithstanding the plurality standard, in an uncontested election for directors, Seacoast's Corporate Governance Guidelines provide that if any director nominee receives a greater number of votes withheld from his or her election than votes for such election, then the director will promptly tender his or her resignation to the board of directors following certification of the shareholder vote, with such resignation to be effective upon acceptance by the board of directors. The Compensation and Governance Committee would then review and make a recommendation to the board of directors as to whether the board should accept the resignation, and the board of directors would ultimately decide whether to accept the resignation. Seacoast's articles of incorporation and bylaws provide that directors may be removed only for cause upon the affirmative vote of (1) 66 2/3% of all shares of common stock entitled to vote and (2) holders of a majority of the outstanding common stock that are not beneficially owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by any person (1) who is the beneficial owner of 5% or more of the common stock or (2) who is an affiliate of Seacoast and at any time within the past five years was the beneficial owner of 5% or more the company's then outstanding common stock (Independent Majority of Shareholders).

BUSINESS OF FLORIDIAN FINANCIAL GROUP, INC.

General

Floridian is a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, for Floridian Bank, and is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and Florida Office of Financial Regulation and is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Florida. Its main office is located at 175 Timacuan Boulevard, Lake Mary, Florida 32746. Floridian Bank is a Florida-chartered state nonmember bank, which commenced operations in 2006, and is subject to the supervision and regulation of the Florida Office of Financial Regulation and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Floridian Bank is a full-service commercial bank, providing a wide range of business and consumer financial services in its target marketplaces, and is headquartered in Daytona Beach, Florida. Floridian became a multi-bank holding company in 2008 when it acquired Orange Bank of Florida (Orange Bank), a Florida-chartered commercial state nonmember bank headquartered in Orlando, Florida. In 2014, Orange Bank merged with and into Floridian Bank, with Floridian Bank continuing as the surviving Florida-chartered state nonmember bank.

At September 30, 2015, Floridian had total assets of approximately $423.4 million, total deposits of approximately $361.5 million, total net loans of approximately $284.1 million, and shareholders equity of approximately $51.0 million.

Business

Historically, Floridian Bank's market areas have been served both by large banks headquartered out of state as well as a number of community banks offering a high level of personal attention, recognition and service. The large banks have generally applied a transactional business approach, based upon volume considerations, to the market while community banks have traditionally offered a more service relationship approach.

Floridian Bank provides a range of consumer and commercial banking services to individuals, businesses and industries. The basic services offered include: demand interest-bearing and noninterest-bearing accounts, money market deposit accounts, NOW accounts, time deposits, safe deposit services, business credit cards, debit cards, direct deposits, night depository, travelers checks, cashier's checks, domestic collections, bank drafts, automated teller services, drive-in tellers, banking by mail and the full range of consumer loans, both collateralized and uncollateralized. In addition, Floridian Bank makes secured and unsecured commercial and real estate loans and issues standby letters of credit. Floridian Bank provides automated teller machine (ATM) cards and is a member of several ATM networks, which permit customers to use the convenience of Floridian Bank's ATM networks and other ATMs throughout the world. Floridian Bank does not have trust powers and, accordingly, no trust services are provided.

Floridian Bank's target market is consumers, professionals, small businesses, real estate developers and commercial real estate investors. The small business customer (typically a commercial entity with sales of up to $25 million) has the opportunity to generate significant revenue for banks yet is generally underserved by large bank competitors. These commercial customers generally can afford more profitability opportunities than the average retail customer.

The revenues of Floridian Bank are primarily derived from interest on, and fees received in connection with, real estate and other loans, from interest and dividends from investment securities, service charge income generated from demand accounts, gains on sales of residential loans, ATM fees, and other services. The principal sources of funds for Floridian Bank's lending activities are customer deposits, loan repayments, and proceeds from investment securities.

The principal expenses of Floridian Bank include interest paid on deposits, and operating and general administrative expenses.

As is the case with banking institutions generally, Floridian Bank's operations are materially and significantly influenced by general economic conditions and by related monetary and fiscal policies of financial institution regulatory agencies, including the Federal Reserve and the FDIC. Deposit flows and costs of funds are influenced by interest rates on competing investments and general market rates of interest. Lending activities are affected by the demand for financing of real estate and other types of loans, which in turn is affected by the interest rates at which such financing may be offered and other factors affecting local demand and availability of funds. Floridian Bank faces strong competition in the attraction of deposits (the primary source of lendable funds) and in the origination of loans. This topic is discussed in more detail in the section entitled Business of Floridian Financial Group, Inc. Competition beginning on page 83 of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Banking Services

Commercial Banking. Floridian Bank focuses its commercial loan originations on small- and mid-sized businesses (generally up to $25 million in annual sales) and such loans are usually accompanied by significant related deposits. Commercial underwriting is driven by cash flow analysis supported by collateral analysis and review. Commercial loan products include commercial real estate construction and term loans; working capital loans and lines of credit; demand, term, and time loans; and equipment, inventory and accounts receivable financing. Floridian Bank offers a range of cash management services and deposit products to commercial customers. Computerized banking is available to commercial customers.

Retail Banking. Floridian Bank's retail banking activities emphasize consumer deposit and checking accounts. An extensive range of these services is offered by Floridian Bank to meet the varied needs of their customers from young persons to senior citizens. In addition to traditional products and services, Floridian Bank offers contemporary products and services, such as debit cards, Internet banking, and electronic bill payment services. Consumer loan products offered by Floridian Bank include home equity lines of credit, second mortgages, new and used auto loans, new and used boat loans, overdraft protection, and unsecured personal credit lines.

Employees

As of September 30, 2015, Floridian Bank had 78 full-time equivalent employees. The employees are not represented by a collective bargaining unit. Floridian Bank considers relations with employees to be good.

Properties

The main office of Floridian is located at 175 Timacuan Boulevard, Lake Mary, Florida 32746. The main office of Floridian Bank is located at 1696 N. Clyde Morris Blvd., Daytona Beach, Florida 32117. Floridian Bank also has 9 branch offices located in Clermont, Lake Mary, Lake Nona, Longwood, Orlando, Ormond Beach, Palm Coast, Port Orange, and Winter Park, Florida.

Legal Proceedings

Floridian Bank is periodically a party to or otherwise involved in legal proceedings arising in the normal course of business, such as claims to enforce liens, claims involving the making and servicing of real property loans, and other issues incident to its business. As of the date hereof, management does not believe that there is any pending or threatened proceeding against Floridian Bank which, if determined adversely, would have a material adverse effect on Floridian Bank's financial position, liquidity, or results of operations.

Competition

Floridian Bank encounters strong competition both in making loans and in attracting deposits. The deregulation of banking industry and the widespread enactment of state laws which permit multi-bank holding companies as well as an increasing level of interstate banking have created a highly competitive environment for commercial banking. In one or more aspects of its business, Floridian Bank competes with other commercial banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, finance companies, mutual funds, insurance companies, brokerage and investment banking companies, and other financial intermediaries. Most of these competitors, some of which are affiliated with bank holding companies, have substantially greater resources and lending limits, and may offer certain services that Floridian Bank does not currently provide. In addition, many of Floridian Bank's non-bank competitors are not subject to the same extensive federal regulations that govern bank holding companies and federally insured banks. Recent federal and state legislation has heightened the competitive environment in which financial institutions must conduct their business, and the potential for competition among financial institutions of all types has increased significantly. There is no assurance that increased competition from other financial institutions will not have an adverse effect on Floridian Bank's operations.

DESCRIPTION OF SEACOAST CAPITAL STOCK

Common Stock

General

The following description of shares of Seacoast's common stock, par value $0.10 per share, is a summary only and is subject to applicable provisions of the FBCA and to Seacoast's amended and restated articles of incorporation and its amended and restated bylaws. Seacoast's articles of incorporation provide that it may issue up to 60 million shares of common stock, par value of $0.10 per share. Seacoast common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol SBCF.

Voting Rights

Each outstanding share of Seacoast's common stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders, including the election of directors. The holders of Seacoast common stock possess exclusive voting power, except as otherwise provided by law or by articles of amendment establishing any series of Seacoast preferred stock.

There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that the holders of a plurality of Seacoast's outstanding shares of common stock can elect all of the directors then standing for election. Since the closing of the CapGen offering on December 17, 2009 (which we refer to as the CapGen Offering), CapGen Capital Group III LP, or CapGen, was entitled to appoint one director to Seacoast's board of directors, so long as CapGen retained ownership of all of the shares of common stock purchased in that offering, adjusted as applicable. On September 11, 2015, such CapGen representative resigned and a replacement representative director has yet to be appointed. On November 13, 2015, CapGen sold an aggregate of 500,000 shares of Seacoast common stock.

When a quorum is present at any meeting, questions brought before the meeting will be decided by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares present and voting on such matter, whether in person or by proxy, except when the meeting concerns matters requiring the vote of the holders of a majority of all outstanding shares under applicable Florida law. Seacoast's articles of incorporation provide certain anti-takeover provisions that require super-majority votes, which may limit shareholders' rights to effect a change in control as described under the section below entitled Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Articles of Incorporation Provisions.

Registration Rights

On January 13, 2014, Seacoast completed the sale to CapGen of $25 million of its common stock pursuant to a Stock Purchase Agreement, dated November 6, 2013, entered into in connection with its $75 million offering of common stock in November 2013. In connection with such offering, Seacoast granted certain registration rights to CapGen pursuant to a Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of January 13, 2014.

Dividends, Liquidation and Other Rights

Holders of shares of common stock are entitled to receive dividends only when, as and if approved by Seacoast's board of directors from funds legally available for the payment of dividends. Seacoast's shareholders are entitled to share ratably in its assets legally available for distribution to its shareholders in the event of Seacoast's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, voluntarily or involuntarily, after payment of, or adequate provision for, all of Seacoast's known debts and liabilities and of any preferences of any series of Seacoast's preferred stock that may be outstanding in the future. These rights are subject to the preferential rights of any series of Seacoast's preferred stock that may then be outstanding.

Holders of shares of Seacoast common stock have no preference, conversion, exchange, sinking fund or redemption rights and have no preemptive rights to subscribe for any of Seacoast's securities. Seacoast's board of directors, under its articles of incorporation, may issue additional shares of its common stock or rights to purchase shares of its common stock without shareholder approval.

Restrictions on Ownership

The Bank Holding Company Act requires any bank holding company, as defined in the Bank Holding Company Act, to obtain the approval of the Federal Reserve prior to the acquisition of 5% or more of our common shares. Any person, other than a bank holding company, is required to obtain prior approval of the Federal Reserve to acquire 10% or more of our common shares under the Change in Bank Control Act. Any holder of 25% or more of our common shares, or a holder of 5% or more if such holder otherwise exercises a controlling influence over us, is subject to regulation as a bank holding company under the Bank Holding Company Act.

Certain provisions included in our amended and restated articles of incorporation and bylaws, as described further below, as well as certain provisions of the FBCA and federal law, may discourage, delay or prevent potential acquisitions of control of us, particularly when attempted in a transaction that is not negotiated directly with, and approved by, our board of directors, despite possible benefits to our shareholders. These provisions are more fully described in the documents and reports filed with the SEC pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus.

Preferred Stock

General

Seacoast is authorized to issue 4 million shares of preferred stock, 2,000 shares of which have been designated as Series A Preferred Stock, and 50,000 of which have been designated as Series B Preferred Stock. On December 31, 2013, Seacoast redeemed in full all 2,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock then issued and outstanding. Such Series A Preferred Stock was originally issued to the U.S. Treasury Department under the Capital Purchase Program and subsequently auctioned to private investors. No shares of Series B Preferred Stock are issued and outstanding as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Under Seacoast's amended and restated articles of incorporation, its board of directors is authorized, without shareholder approval, to adopt resolutions providing for the issuance of up to 4 million shares of preferred stock, par value $0.10 per share, in one or more series. Seacoast's board of directors may fix the voting powers, designations, preferences, rights, qualifications, limitations and restrictions of each series of preferred stock. A series of preferred stock upon issuance will have preference over Seacoast common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation or dissolution of Seacoast. The relative rights, preferences and limitations that Seacoast's board of directors has the authority to determine as to any such series of such stock include, among other things, dividend rights, voting rights, conversion rights, redemption rights, and liquidation preferences. Because Seacoast's board of directors has the power to establish the relative rights, preferences and limitations of each series of such stock, it may afford to the holders of any such series, preferences and rights senior to the rights of the holders of the shares of common stock. Although Seacoast's board of directors has no intention at the present time of doing so, it could cause the issuance of any additional shares of preferred stock that could discourage an acquisition attempt or other transactions that some, or a majority of, the shareholders might believe to be in their best interests or in which the shareholders might receive a premium for their shares of common stock over the market price of such shares.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Certain Articles of Incorporation Provisions

Seacoast's Articles of Incorporation contain certain provisions that make it more difficult to acquire control of it by means of a tender offer, open market purchase, a proxy fight or otherwise. These provisions are designed to encourage persons seeking to acquire control of Seacoast to negotiate with its directors. Seacoast believes that, as a general rule, the interests of its shareholders would be best served if any change in control results from negotiations with its directors.

Seacoast's Articles of Incorporation provide for a classified board to which approximately one-third of its board of directors is elected each year at its annual meeting of shareholders. Accordingly, Seacoast's directors serve three-year terms rather than one-year terms. The classification of Seacoast's board of directors has the effect of making it more difficult for shareholders to change the composition of its board of directors. At least two annual meetings of shareholders, instead of one, will generally be required to effect a change in a majority of Seacoast's board of directors. Such a delay may help ensure that its directors, if confronted by a shareholder attempting to force a proxy contest, a tender or exchange offer, or an extraordinary corporate transaction, would have sufficient time to review the proposal as well as any available alternatives to the proposal and to act in what they believe to be the best interests of Seacoast's shareholders. The classification provisions apply to every election of directors, however, regardless of whether a change in the composition of Seacoast's board of directors would be beneficial to Seacoast and its shareholders and whether or not a majority of its shareholders believe that such a change would be desirable.

The classification of Seacoast's board of directors could also have the effect of discouraging a third party from initiating a proxy contest, making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of Seacoast, even though such an attempt might be beneficial to Seacoast and its shareholders. The classification of Seacoast's board of directors could thus increase the likelihood that incumbent directors will retain their positions. In addition, because the classification of Seacoast's board of directors may discourage accumulations of large blocks of its stock by purchasers whose objective is to take control of Seacoast and remove a majority of its board of directors, the classification of its board of directors could tend to reduce the likelihood of fluctuations in the market price of its common stock that might result from accumulations of large blocks of its common stock for such a purpose. Accordingly, Seacoast's shareholders could be deprived of certain opportunities to sell their shares at a higher market price than might otherwise be the case.

Seacoast's articles of incorporation require the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds of all the shares of its stock outstanding and entitled to vote generally in the election of directors in addition to the votes required by law or elsewhere in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws or otherwise, to approve: (a) any sale, lease, transfer, purchase and assumption of all or substantially all of its consolidated assets and/or liabilities; (b) any merger, consolidation, share exchange or similar transaction, or any merger of any significant subsidiary, into or with another person; or (c) any reclassification of securities, recapitalization or similar transaction that has the effect of increasing other than pro rata with the other shareholders, the proportionate amount of shares that is beneficially owned by an affiliate (as defined in Seacoast's articles of incorporation). Any business combination described above may instead be approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on the plan of merger (if required under the FBCA) if such business combination is approved and recommended to the shareholders by (x) the affirmative vote of two-thirds of Seacoast's board of directors and (y) a majority of the continuing directors (as defined in Seacoast's articles of incorporation).

Seacoast's articles of incorporation also contain additional provisions that may make takeover attempts and other acquisitions of interests in it more difficult where the takeover attempt or other acquisition has not been approved by its board of directors. These provisions include:

A requirement that any change to Seacoast's articles of incorporation relating to the structure of its board of directors, certain anti-takeover provisions and shareholder proposals must be approved by the affirmative vote of holders of two-thirds of the shares outstanding and entitled to vote;

A requirement that any change to Seacoast's bylaws, including any change relating to the number of directors, must be approved by the affirmative vote of either (a) (i) two-thirds of its board of directors and (ii) a majority of the continuing directors (as defined in Seacoast's articles of incorporation) or (b) (i) two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors and (ii) an Independent Majority of Shareholders;

A requirement that shareholders may call a meeting of shareholders on a proposed issue or issues only upon the receipt by Seacoast from the holders of 50% of all shares entitled to vote on the proposed issue or issues of signed and dated written demands for the meeting describing the purpose for which it is to be held; and

A requirement that a shareholder wishing to submit proposals for a shareholder vote or nominate directors for election comply with certain procedures, including advanced notice requirements.

Seacoast's articles of incorporation provide that, subject to the rights of any holders of its preferred stock to act by written consent instead of a meeting, shareholder action may be taken only at an annual meeting or special meeting of the shareholders and may not be taken by written consent. The Articles of Incorporation also include provisions that make it difficult to replace directors. Specifically, directors may be removed only for cause and only upon the affirmative vote at a meeting duly called and held for that purpose upon not less than thirty days prior written notice of (i) two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote generally in the election of directors and (ii) an Independent Majority of Shareholders. In addition, any vacancies on the board of directors for any reason, and any newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors, may be filled only by the board of directors (except if no directors remain on the board, in which case the shareholders may act to fill the vacant board).

Seacoast believes that the power of its board of directors to issue additional authorized but unissued shares of its common stock or preferred stock without further action by its shareholders, unless required by applicable law or the rules of any stock exchange or automated quotation system on which its securities may be listed or traded, will provide Seacoast with increased flexibility in structuring possible future financings and acquisitions and in meeting other needs that might arise. Seacoast's board of directors could authorize and issue a class or series of stock that could, depending upon the terms of such class or series, delay, defer or prevent a transaction or a change in control that might involve a premium price for holders of Seacoast's common stock or that its shareholders otherwise consider to be in their best interest.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

THIS AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this Agreement) is made and entered into as of November 2, 2015, by and among Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida, a Florida corporation (SBC), Seacoast National Bank, a national banking association and wholly owned subsidiary of SBC (SNB and, collectively with SBC, Seacoast), Floridian Financial Group, Inc., a Florida corporation (Holdings), and Floridian Bank, a Florida chartered commercial bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings (the Bank and, collectively with Holdings, the Company).

Preamble

WHEREAS, the Boards of Directors of SBC and Holdings have approved this Agreement and the transactions described herein and have declared the same advisable and in the best interests of SBC and Holdings, respectively, and their respective shareholders;

WHEREAS, this Agreement provides for the acquisition of Holdings by SBC pursuant to the merger of Holdings with and into SBC (the Merger). This Agreement also provides for the merger of the Bank with and into SNB (the Bank Merger) pursuant to the terms of the Plan of Merger and Merger Agreement between SNB and the Bank attached hereto as Exhibit A (the Bank Merger Agreement);

WHEREAS, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, it is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code; and

WHEREAS, concurrently with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, as a condition and inducement to Seacoast's willingness to enter into this Agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of the Company who hold shares of Holdings Common Stock have executed and delivered to SBC an agreement in substantially the form of Exhibit B (each a Company Shareholder Support Agreement), pursuant to which they have agreed, among other things, subject to the terms of such Company Shareholder Support Agreement, to vote the shares of Holdings Common Stock held of record by such Persons or as to which they otherwise have beneficial ownership to approve this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Merger.

Certain terms used and not otherwise defined elsewhere in this Agreement are defined in Section 7.1.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the above and the mutual warranties, representations, covenants, and agreements set forth herein, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, and intending to be legally bound hereby, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

TRANSACTIONS AND TERMS OF MERGER

1.1 Merger. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time (as defined in Section 1.4 herein), Holdings shall be merged with and into SBC in accordance with the provisions of the FBCA. SBC shall be the surviving corporation (the Surviving Corporation) resulting from the Merger and the separate corporate existence of Holdings shall thereupon cease. SBC shall continue to be governed by the Laws of the State of Florida, and the separate corporate existence of SBC with all of its rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises shall continue unaffected by the Merger.

1.2 Bank Merger. Prior to the Effective Time, the Boards of Directors of SNB and the Bank will execute the Bank Merger Agreement. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement, the Bank shall be merged with and into SNB in accordance with the provisions of 12 U.S.C. Section 215 and with the effect provided in 12 U.S.C. Section 215. SNB shall be the surviving bank resulting from the Bank Merger and the separate existence of the Bank shall thereupon cease. SNB shall continue to be governed by the Laws of the United States, and the separate existence of SNB with all of its rights, privileges, immunities, powers and franchises shall continue unaffected by the Bank Merger. Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions to closing set forth in the Bank Merger Agreement, the Bank Merger shall occur immediately following the Merger unless otherwise determined by Seacoast in its sole discretion.

1.3 Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Merger (the Closing) shall take place at 10:00 a.m., New York City time, at the offices of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, 200 Liberty Street, New York, New York 10281, on a date which shall be no later than three (3) Business Days after the satisfaction or waiver (subject to applicable Law) of the latest to occur of the conditions set forth in Article 5 hereof (other than those conditions that by their nature can only be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver thereof), unless another date, time or place is agreed to in writing by SBC and Holdings. The date on which the Closing occurs is referred to in this Agreement as the Closing Date .

1.4 Effective Time. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, on the Closing Date, the Parties shall cause to be filed articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida as provided in the FBCA (the Articles of Merger). The Merger shall become effective as of the date and time specified in the Articles of Merger (such date and time, the Effective Time).

1.5 Organizational Documents of Surviving Corporation; Directors and Officers. (a) The Organizational Documents of SBC in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the Organizational Documents of the Surviving Corporation after the Effective Time until otherwise amended or repealed.

(b) The directors of SBC immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors of the Surviving Corporation as of the Effective Time. The officers of SBC immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the officers of the Surviving Corporation as of the Effective Time, until the earlier of their resignation or removal or otherwise ceasing to be an officer or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified, as the case may be.

1.6 Tax Consequences. It is intended that the Merger shall qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and this Agreement is intended to be and is adopted as a plan of reorganization for the purposes of Sections 354 and 361 of the Code.

1.7 Structure Change. Seacoast may at any time change the method of effecting the Merger and the Bank Merger (including by providing for the merger of Holdings with a wholly-owned Subsidiary of SBC) if and to the extent requested by Seacoast, and Holdings agrees to enter into such amendments to this Agreement as Seacoast may reasonably request in order to give effect to such restructuring; provided, however, that no such change or amendment shall (a) alter or change the amount or kind of the Merger Consideration provided for in this Agreement, (b) adversely affect the Tax treatment of the Merger with respect to Holdings shareholders or (c) be reasonably likely to cause the Closing to be prevented or materially delayed or the receipt of the Required Consents to be prevented or materially delayed.

ARTICLE 2

TREATMENT OF SECURITIES

2.1 Treatment of Common Stock.

- (a) Treatment of Holdings Common Stock. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the Parties or holders of any securities of Holdings or of SBC, subject to Section 2.1(c) and any applicable withholding Tax, each share of Holdings Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (other than Holdings Shares to be cancelled in accordance with Section 2.1(b) and other than any Dissenting Shares) shall be automatically converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof in accordance with, and subject to, the terms, conditions and procedures set forth in this Article 2 (including the proration procedures in Section 2.2(c)), the following consideration (collectively, the Merger Consideration), in each case without interest:
- (i) the combination (such election, a Mixed Election) of (A) $4.29 in cash (the Mixed Cash Consideration) and (B) 0.5291 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable SBC Shares (the Mixed Stock Consideration), (ii) (such election, a Cash Election) $12.25 in cash (the Cash Election Consideration), or (iii) (such election, a Stock Election) 0.8140 validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable SBC Shares (such number of SBC Shares, the Stock Election Consideration). From and after the Effective Time, all such Holdings Shares shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and each applicable holder of such Holdings Shares shall cease to have any rights with respect thereto, except the right to receive the Merger Consideration therefor upon the surrender of such Holdings Shares in accordance with Section 2.3, including the right to receive, pursuant to Section 2.7, cash in lieu of fractional shares of SBC Common Stock, if any, into which such Holdings Shares have been converted pursuant to this Section 2.1(a) (the Fractional Share Consideration), together with the amounts, if any, payable pursuant to Section 2.3(f).
- (b) Cancellation of Holdings Common Stock. At the Effective Time, all Holdings Shares owned by any of the Parties or by any of their respective Subsidiaries (other than any such shares owned in a fiduciary capacity or as a result of debts previously contracted) shall be cancelled and shall cease to exist, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.
- (c) Adjustment to Merger Consideration. The Merger Consideration shall be adjusted appropriately to reflect the effect of any stock split, reverse stock split, stock dividend (including any dividend or distribution of securities convertible into Holdings Common Stock or SBC Common Stock, as applicable), reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, combination, exchange of shares or other like change with respect to the number of shares of Holdings Common Stock or SBC Common Stock outstanding after the date hereof and prior to the Effective Time.
- (d) SBC Common Stock. At and after the Effective Time, each share of SBC Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall remain an issued and outstanding share of SBC Common Stock and shall not be affected by the Merger.

2.2 Election and Proration Procedures. (a) An election form in such form as SBC shall reasonably specify and as shall be reasonably acceptable to Holdings (the Election Form) shall be mailed on a date to be mutually agreed by the Parties that is not more than forty-five (45) days nor less than thirty (30) days prior to the anticipated Closing Date or on such other date as the Parties shall mutually agree (the Mailing Date) to each holder of record of Holdings Common Stock as of the close of business on the fifth (5th) Business Day prior to the Mailing Date (the Election Form Record Date).

(b) SBC shall make available one or more Election Forms as may reasonably be requested from time to time by all Persons who become holders (or beneficial owners) of Holdings Common Stock between the Election Form Record Date and the close of business on the Business Day prior to the Election Deadline, and Holdings shall provide to the Exchange Agent all information reasonably necessary for it to perform as specified herein.

(c) Each Election Form shall permit the holder (or the beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions) to specify (x) the number of shares of such holder's Holdings Common Stock with respect to which such holder makes a Mixed Election (each such share, a Mixed Election Share), (y) the number of shares of such holder's Holdings Common Stock with respect to which such holder makes a Cash Election (each such share, a Cash Election Share), and (z) the number of shares of such holder's Holdings Common Stock with respect to which such holder makes a Stock Election (each such share, a Stock Election Share). Any Holdings Shares with respect to which the Exchange Agent has not received an effective, properly completed Election Form (including duly executed transmittal materials included with the Election Form), accompanied by any Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to which such Election Form relates, or by an appropriate customary guaranty of delivery of the related Holdings Certificates from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States, on or before 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the twenty-fifth (25th) day following the Mailing Date (or such other time and date as the Parties shall agree) (the Election Deadline) (other than Holdings Shares to be cancelled in accordance with Section 2.1(b) and other than Dissenting Shares) shall be deemed to be No Election Shares, and the holders of such No Election Shares shall be deemed to have made a Mixed Election with respect to such No Election Shares. The Parties shall cooperate to issue a press release reasonably satisfactory to each of them announcing the date of the Election Deadline not more than fifteen (15) Business Days before, and at least five (5) Business Days prior to, the Election Deadline. Not later than ten (10) Business Days after the Election Deadline, unless the Effective Time has not yet occurred, in which case as soon after the Effective Time as is reasonably practicable, SBC shall cause the Exchange Agent to effect the following prorations to the Merger Consideration:

A-3

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(i) If the Cash Election Amount is greater than the Available Cash Election Amount, then each Cash Election Share shall, instead of being converted into the Cash Election Consideration, be converted into the right to receive (A) an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the product of the Cash Election Consideration, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the Available Cash Election Amount and the denominator of which shall be the Cash Election Amount (such fraction, the Cash Fraction), and (B) a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable SBC Shares equal to the product of the Stock Election Consideration multiplied by a fraction equal to one (1) minus the Cash Fraction.

(ii) If the Available Cash Election Amount is greater than the Cash Election Amount, then each Stock Election Share shall, instead of being converted into the right to receive the Stock Election Consideration, be converted into the right to receive (A) an amount of cash (without interest) equal to the amount of such excess divided by the number of Stock Election Shares, and (B) a number of validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable SBC Shares equal to the product of the Stock Election Consideration multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the difference between (I) the Cash Election Consideration minus (II) the amount calculated in clause (A) of this paragraph, and the denominator of which shall be the Cash Election Consideration.

(d) Any election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form (including duly executed transmittal materials included with the Election Form), accompanied by any Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares to which such Election Form relates, or by an appropriate customary guaranty of delivery of the related Holdings Certificates from a member of any registered national securities exchange or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States, by the Election Deadline. Any Election Form may be revoked or changed by the authorized Person properly submitting such Election Form, by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. In the event an Election Form is revoked prior to the Election Deadline, the shares of Holdings Common Stock represented by such Election Form shall become No Election Shares, except to the extent a subsequent election is properly made with respect to any or all of such shares of Holdings Common Stock prior to the Election Deadline. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the Election Forms, and any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. 2.3 Payment for Securities; Surrender of Holdings Certificates.

(a) Exchange Fund. Prior to the Effective Time, SBC shall designate a bank or trust company reasonably acceptable to Holdings to act as the exchange agent in connection with the Merger (the Exchange Agent). The Exchange Agent shall also act as the agent for Holdings' shareholders for the purpose of receiving and holding their Election Forms and Holdings Certificates and Book-Entry Shares and shall obtain no rights or interests in the shares represented thereby. At or immediately after the Effective Time, SBC shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, with the Exchange Agent (i) evidence of SBC Common Stock issuable pursuant to Section 2.1(a) in book-entry form equal to the aggregate SBC Common Stock portion of the Merger Consideration (excluding any Fractional Share Consideration), and (ii) cash in immediately available funds in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate cash portion of the Merger Consideration, Fractional Share Consideration and any dividends under Section 2.3(f) (such evidence of book-entry shares of SBC Common Stock and cash amounts, together with any dividends or other distributions with respect thereto, the Exchange Fund), in each case, for the sole benefit of the holders of shares of Holdings Common Stock. In the event the Exchange Fund shall be insufficient to pay the aggregate cash portion of the Merger Consideration, Fractional Share Consideration and any dividends under Section 2.3(f), SBC shall promptly deposit additional funds with the Exchange Agent in an amount which is equal to the deficiency in the amount required to make such payment. SBC shall cause the Exchange Agent to make, and the Exchange Agent shall make, delivery of the Merger Consideration, including payment of the Fractional Share Consideration, and any amounts payable in respect of dividends or other distributions on shares of SBC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3(f) out of the Exchange Fund in accordance with this Agreement. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose that is not expressly provided for in this Agreement. The cash portion of the Exchange Fund shall be invested by the Exchange Agent as reasonably directed by SBC; provided, however, that no such investment or loss thereon shall affect the amounts payable to holders of Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares pursuant to this Article 2. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments shall be paid to SBC on the earlier of (A) one (1) year after the Effective Time or (B) the full payment of the Exchange Fund.

(b) Procedures for Surrender. Promptly (but not more than five (5) Business Days) after the Effective Time, SBC shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail (and make available for collection by hand) to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding Holdings Shares (the Holdings Certificates) or non-certificated Holdings Shares represented by book-entry (Book-Entry Shares) and whose Holdings Shares were converted pursuant to Section 2.1 into the right to receive the Merger Consideration and who has not theretofore submitted its Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares with an Election Form (i) a letter of transmittal, which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Holdings Certificates shall pass, only upon delivery of the Holdings Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) to the Exchange Agent and shall be in such form and have such other provisions as SBC may reasonably specify and (ii) instructions for effecting the surrender of the Holdings Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares in exchange for payment of the Merger Consideration into which such Holdings Shares have been converted pursuant to Section 2.1, including any amount payable in respect of Fractional Share Consideration in accordance with Section 2.7, and any dividends or other distributions on shares of SBC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3(f). Upon surrender of a Holdings Certificate (or an affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Share for cancellation to the Exchange Agent or to such other agent or agents as may be appointed by SBC, together with such letter of transmittal or Election Form duly completed and validly executed in accordance with the instructions thereto, and such other documents as may be required pursuant to such instructions, the holder of such Holdings Certificate or Book-Entry Share shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the applicable Merger Consideration pursuant to the provisions of this Article 2, any Fractional Share Consideration that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of Section 2.7, and any amounts that such holder has the right to receive in respect of dividends or other distributions on shares of SBC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3(f) for each Holdings Share formerly represented by such Holdings Certificate or Book-Entry Share, to be mailed (or made available for collection by hand if so elected by the surrendering holder) within five (5) Business Days following the later to occur of (x) the completion of the prorations to the Merger Consideration as described in Section 2.2(c) and (y) the Exchange Agent's receipt of such Holdings Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Share, and the Holdings Certificate (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Share so surrendered shall be forthwith cancelled. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Holdings Certificates (or affidavits of loss in lieu thereof) or Book-Entry Shares upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. If payment of the Merger Consideration is to be made to a Person other than the Person in whose name the surrendered Holdings Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition precedent of payment that (A) the Holdings Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or shall be otherwise in proper form for transfer and (B) the Person requesting such payment shall have paid any transfer and other similar Taxes required by reason of the payment of the Merger Consideration to a Person other than the registered holder of the Holdings Certificate surrendered or shall have established to the satisfaction of SBC that such Tax either has been paid or is not required to be paid. Payment of the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to Book-Entry Shares shall only be made to the Person in whose name such Book-Entry Shares are registered. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.3, each Holdings Certificate and Book-Entry Share shall be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive the applicable Merger Consideration as contemplated by this Article 2, including any amount payable in respect of Fractional Share Consideration in accordance with Section 2.7, and any dividends or other distributions on shares of SBC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3(f), without interest thereon.

(c) Transfer Books; No Further Ownership Rights in Holdings Shares. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of Holdings shall be closed and thereafter there shall be no further registration of transfers of Holdings Shares on the records of Holdings. From and after the Effective Time, the holders of Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Holdings Shares except as otherwise provided for herein or by applicable Law. If, after the Effective Time, Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation for any reason, they shall be cancelled and exchanged as provided in this Agreement.

(d) Termination of Exchange Fund; No Liability. At any time following twelve (12) months after the Effective Time, SBC shall be entitled to require the Exchange Agent to deliver to it any funds (including any interest received with respect thereto) remaining in the Exchange Fund that have not been disbursed, or for which disbursement is pending subject only to the Exchange Agent's routine administrative procedures, to holders of Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, and thereafter such holders shall be entitled to look only to SBC (subject to abandoned property, escheat or other similar Laws) as general creditors thereof with respect to the applicable Merger Consideration, including any amount payable in respect of Fractional Share Consideration in accordance with Section 2.7, and any dividends or other distributions on shares of SBC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3(f), payable upon due surrender of their Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares and compliance with the procedures in Section 2.3(b), without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither SBC nor the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of a Holdings Certificate or Book-Entry Share for any Merger Consideration or other amounts delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

(e) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Holdings Certificates. In the event that any Holdings Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Holdings Certificates, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, the applicable Merger Consideration payable in respect thereof pursuant to Section 2.1 hereof, including any amount payable in respect of Fractional Share Consideration in accordance with Section 2.7, and any dividends or other distributions on shares of SBC Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.3(f).

(f) Dividends or Distributions with Respect to SBC Common Stock. No dividends or other distributions with respect to SBC Common Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Holdings Certificate or Book-Entry Share with respect to the shares of SBC Common Stock issuable hereunder, and all such dividends and other distributions shall be paid by SBC to the Exchange Agent and shall be included in the Exchange Fund, in each case until the surrender of such Holdings Certificate or Book-Entry Share (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) in accordance with this Agreement. Subject to applicable Laws, following surrender of any such Holdings Certificate or Book-Entry Share (or affidavit of loss in lieu thereof) there shall be paid to the holder thereof, without interest, (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such shares of SBC Common Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to this Agreement and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender payable with respect to such shares of SBC Common Stock.

2.4 Dissenters' Rights. Any Person who otherwise would be deemed a holder of Dissenting Shares (a Dissenting Shareholder) shall not be entitled to receive the applicable Merger Consideration with respect to the Dissenting Shares only until such Person shall have failed to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost such holder's right to dissent from the Merger under the FBCA. Each Dissenting Shareholder shall be entitled to receive only the payment provided by the provisions of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA with respect to shares of Holdings Common Stock owned by such Dissenting Shareholder. Holdings shall give SBC (a) prompt notice of any written demands for appraisal, attempted withdrawals of such demands, and any other instruments served pursuant to applicable Law received by Holdings relating to shareholders' rights of appraisal and (b) the opportunity to direct all negotiations and proceedings with respect to demand for appraisal under the FBCA. Holdings shall not, except with the prior written consent of SBC, voluntarily make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisals of Dissenting Shares, offer to settle or settle any such demands or approve any withdrawal of any such demands.

2.5 Treatment of Holdings Options; Holdings ESPP. (a) As of the Effective Time, each option to purchase Holdings Common Stock (a Holdings Stock Option) granted under any Holdings Stock Plan that is outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time, whether or not then vested or exercisable, shall be cancelled and automatically converted into the right to promptly receive the Holdings Stock Option Consideration. For purposes of this Agreement, the Holdings Stock Option Consideration means an amount of cash, without interest, equal to the product of (x) the aggregate number of shares of Holdings Common Stock subject to such Holdings Stock Option multiplied by (y) the excess, if any, of the Per Share Merger Consideration Value over the exercise price per share of the Holdings Stock Option. Per Share Merger Consideration Value means (i) the Mixed Cash Consideration plus (ii) the Mixed Stock Consideration multiplied by the Average Closing Price.

(b) Holdings will take all actions reasonably necessary to (i) terminate the Floridian Financial Group, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the Holdings ESPP) as of immediately following the end of the offering period that is in progress as of the date of this Agreement (which is scheduled to occur on January 1, 2016 (the Termination Date)), and (ii) avoid the commencement of any new offering period under the Holdings ESPP prior to the Termination Date. Any shares of Holdings Common Stock acquired under the Holdings ESPP prior to or on the Termination Date will be treated as outstanding shares of Holdings Common Stock for purposes of Sections 2.1 and 2.2.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, Holdings shall pass resolutions as are necessary for the treatment of the Holdings Stock Options and the Holdings ESPP as contemplated by this Section 2.5.

2.6 Withholding. SBC shall be entitled to deduct and withhold, or cause the Exchange Agent to deduct and withhold, from the consideration otherwise payable to a holder of Holdings Common Stock pursuant to this Agreement, any amounts as are required to be withheld or deducted with respect to such consideration under the Code, or any applicable provisions of state, local or foreign Tax Law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld and timely remitted to the appropriate Governmental Authority, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of Holdings Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

2.7 Fractional Shares. No certificate or scrip representing fractional shares of SBC Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Holdings Certificates or Book-Entry Shares, and such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any other rights of a shareholder of SBC. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, each holder of shares of Holdings Common Stock converted pursuant to the Merger who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of SBC Common Stock shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash, without interest, in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of SBC Common Stock multiplied by the Average Closing Price.

Holdings may not effect an Adverse Recommendation Change unless (i) it gives SBC at least five (5) Business Days prior written notice of its intention to take such action and a reasonably detailed description of the Acquisition Proposal or Intervening Event giving rise to its determination to take such action (including, in the case of an Acquisition Proposal, the latest material terms and conditions and the identity of the third party in any such Acquisition Proposal (including an unredacted copy of all proposed agreements and other documents with respect to such Acquisition Proposal) or any amendment or modification thereof) and (ii) at the end of such notice period, the Board of Directors of Holdings takes into account in good faith any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by SBC and after receiving the advice

During the five (5) Business Day period prior to effecting an Adverse Recommendation Change, the Company shall, and shall cause its financial and legal advisors to, negotiate with SBC in good faith (to the extent SBC seeks to negotiate) regarding any revisions to the terms of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement proposed by SBC. Any material amendment to any Acquisition Proposal or material development with respect to any Intervening Event will be deemed to be a new Acquisition Proposal or Intervening Event, as the case may be, for purposes of this Section 4.5(a) and will require a new notice period as referred to in this Section 4.5(a).

(b) Holdings shall adjourn or postpone the Holdings Shareholder Meeting, if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled there are insufficient shares of Holdings Common Stock represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting; provided, that Holdings shall not be required to adjourn or postpone the Holdings Shareholder Meeting more than one (1) time pursuant to this first sentence of Section 4.5(b). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, the Holdings Shareholder Meeting shall be convened and this Agreement shall be submitted to the shareholders of Holdings at the Holdings Shareholder Meeting, for the purpose of voting on the approval of this Agreement and the other matters contemplated hereby, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve Holdings of such obligation.

The Parties agree to use all reasonable best efforts to obtain all Permits required by the Securities Laws to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and each Party agrees to furnish all information concerning it and the holders of its capital stock as may be reasonably requested in connection with any such action.

(d) Each Party agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment and supplement thereto, if any, become effective under the 1933 Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading, and (ii) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto, at the date of mailing to Holdings shareholders and at the time of the meeting of Holdings shareholders, will contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or necessary to correct any statement in any earlier statement in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto. Each Party further agrees that if it shall become aware prior to the Effective Time of any information furnished by it that would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other Party thereof and to take the necessary steps to correct the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or the Registration Statement.

4.6 Listing of SBC Common Stock. SBC shall cause the shares of SBC Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Effective Time.

4.7 Reasonable Best Efforts. (a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Parties will use all reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and each will cooperate fully with and furnish information to the other Party to that end, and obtain all consents of, and give all notices to and make all filings with, all Governmental Authorities and other third parties that may be or become necessary for the performance of its obligations under this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, that nothing contained herein shall preclude any Party from exercising its rights under this Agreement.

(b) Immediately following the Effective Time (or such later time as SBC may direct), the Parties shall take all actions necessary to consummate the Bank Merger and cause the Bank Merger Agreement effecting the Bank Merger to be filed with the OCC.

(c) Each Party undertakes and agrees to use its reasonable efforts to cause the Merger to qualify, and to take no action that would prevent the Merger from qualifying, as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;

(d) The Parties shall consult with respect to the character, amount and timing of restructuring charges to be taken by each of them in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and shall take such charges in accordance with GAAP, as such Parties mutually agree upon.

4.8 Applications and Consents. (a) The Parties shall cooperate in seeking all Consents of Governmental Authorities and other Persons necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing, the Parties shall cooperate in (i) the filing of applications and notices, as applicable, with the Federal Reserve Board under the BHC Act with respect to the Merger and the OCC under the Bank Merger Act with respect to the Bank Merger, and obtaining approval of such applications and notices, (ii) the filing of any required applications or notices with any foreign or state banking, insurance or other Regulatory Authorities and obtaining approval of such applications and notices, (iii) making any notices to or filings with the Small Business Administration, (iv) making any notices or filings to the extent required under the HSR Act, and (v) making any filings with and obtaining any Consents in connection with compliance with the applicable provisions of the rules and regulations of any applicable industry self-regulatory organization, including approvals that are required under consumer finance, mortgage banking and other similar Laws (collectively, the Regulatory Consents). Each Party shall file any application and notice required of it to any Regulatory Authority within sixty (60) days following the date of this Agreement.

(c) Each Party agrees that it will consult with the other Party with respect to obtaining Regulatory Consents and other material Consents necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each Party will keep the other Party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby. All documents that the Parties or their respective Subsidiaries are responsible for filing with any Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (including to obtain Regulatory Consents) will comply as to form in all material respects with the provisions of applicable Law. To the extent permitted by Law, the Company shall provide Seacoast with the opportunity to participate in meetings or substantive telephone conversations that it or its Representatives may from time to time have with any Governmental Authority with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Seacoast and its Affiliates shall not be required to take any action if the taking of such action or the obtaining of or compliance with any Permits or Consents is reasonably likely to result in a restriction, requirement or condition having an effect of the type referred to in Section 5.1(b)(ii).

4.9 Notification of Certain Matters. Each Party will give prompt written notice to the other (and subsequently keep such other Party informed on a current basis) upon its becoming aware of the occurrence or existence of any fact, event, change, circumstance or effect that (a) is reasonably likely to result in any Material Adverse Effect on it, or (b) would cause or constitute a breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants, or agreements contained herein; provided, that any failure to give notice in accordance with the foregoing with respect to any breach shall not be deemed to constitute the failure of any condition set forth in Section 5.2(a) or 5.2(b), or Section 5.3(a) or 5.3(b), as the case may be, to be satisfied, or otherwise constitute a breach of this Agreement by such Party due to its failure to give such notice unless the underlying breach would independently result in a failure of the conditions set forth in Section 5.2(a) or 5.2(b), or Section 5.3(a) or 5.3(b), as the case may be, or give rise to a termination right under Section 6.1. The Company shall deliver to Seacoast a copy of each written opinion (or any withdrawal of such opinion) of Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P. and Austin Associates LLC or any other financial advisor, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Company's receipt thereof.

4.10 Investigation and Confidentiality. (a) Upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Laws, the Company, for the purposes of Seacoast verifying the representations and warranties of the Company and preparing for the Merger and the Bank Merger and the other matters contemplated by this Agreement, shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, afford to the officers, employees, accountants, counsel, advisors and other Representatives of Seacoast, access, during normal business hours during the period prior to the Effective Time, to all its properties, books, contracts, commitments, personnel, information technology systems and records, and, during such period, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, make available to Seacoast such information concerning its business, properties and personnel as Seacoast may reasonably request. Seacoast shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with the Company's regular business operations during any such access. Neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the Company (after giving due consideration to the existence of any common interest, joint defense or similar agreement between the Parties) or contravene any Law or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The Parties will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply. No investigation by Seacoast shall affect the representations and warranties of the Company or the right of Seacoast to rely thereon.

(b) Each Party shall, and shall cause its directors, officers, employees and Representatives to, maintain the confidentiality of all confidential information furnished to it by the other Party concerning its and its Subsidiaries businesses, operations and financial positions to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the Confidentiality Agreement, and shall not use such information for any purpose except in furtherance of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.11 Press Releases; Publicity. Prior to the Effective Time, each Party shall consult with and obtain the approval (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) of the other as to the form and substance of any press release, other public statement or shareholder communication related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby prior to issuing such press release, public statement or shareholder communication or making any other public or shareholder disclosure related thereto; provided, that nothing in this Section 4.11 shall be deemed to prohibit any Party from making any disclosure that its counsel deems necessary or advisable in order to satisfy such Party's disclosure obligations imposed by Law or NASDAQ.

4.12 Acquisition Proposals. The Company agrees that it will not, and will cause its directors, officers, employees and Representatives and Affiliates not to, directly or indirectly (a) initiate, solicit, encourage or knowingly facilitate inquiries or proposals with respect to, (b) continue, engage or participate in any negotiations concerning, (c) provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have or participate in any discussions with, any Person (other than Persons who are affiliates or representatives of the Company or Seacoast) relating to, or (d) approve, recommend, agree to or accept, any Acquisition Proposal; provided, that, prior to, but not after, the time the Holdings Shareholder Approval is obtained, if the Company receives an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal that was not received in violation of clauses (a) - (d) above, the Company may, and may permit its officers and Representatives to, furnish or cause to be furnished nonpublic information or data to and participate in such negotiations or discussions with the Person making such Acquisition Proposal to the extent that the Board of Directors of Holdings concludes in good faith (after receiving the advice of its outside counsel and, with respect to financial matters, its financial advisor) that failure to take such actions would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided further, that prior to providing any nonpublic information permitted to be provided pursuant to the foregoing proviso, the Company shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to it than the Confidentiality Agreement and shall provide to Seacoast any such information not previously provided to Seacoast. The Company will immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any Persons other than

Seacoast with respect to any Acquisition Proposal. The Company shall promptly, and in any event within 48 hours of receipt, advise Seacoast in writing in the event the Company or any of its directors, employees, officers or Representatives receives (i) any Acquisition Proposal or indication by any Person that it is considering making an Acquisition Proposal, (ii) any request for information, discussion or negotiation that is reasonably likely to lead to or that contemplates an Acquisition Proposal or (iii) any inquiry, proposal or offer that is reasonably likely to lead to an Acquisition Proposal, in each case together with the terms and conditions of such Acquisition Proposal, request, inquiry, proposal or offer, and shall furnish Seacoast with a copy of such Acquisition Proposal (or, where such Acquisition Proposal is not in writing, with a description of the material terms and conditions thereof). The Company shall keep Seacoast informed (orally and in writing) in all material respects on a timely basis of the status and details (including, within 48 hours after the occurrence of any amendment, modification, development, discussion or negotiation) of any such Acquisition Proposal, request, inquiry, proposal or offer, including furnishing copies of any written inquiries, correspondence and draft documentation, and written summaries of any material oral inquiries or discussions. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the Company shall promptly (and in any event within 48 hours) notify Seacoast orally and in writing if it determines to begin providing information or to engage in discussions or negotiations concerning an Acquisition Proposal and shall in no event begin providing such information or engaging in such discussions or negotiations prior to providing such notice. The Company agrees that any breach by its Representatives of this Section 4.12 shall be deemed a breach by the Company. Neither the Board of Directors of Holdings nor any committee thereof shall (i) except as expressly permitted by Section 4.5(a), (A) withdraw (or modify or qualify in any manner adverse to Seacoast) the approval, recommendation or declaration of advisability by the Board of Directors of Holdings or any such committee of this Agreement, the Merger, or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby, (B) adopt, approve, recommend, endorse or otherwise declare advisable the adoption of any Acquisition Proposal, (C) resolve, agree or propose to take any such actions or (D) submit this Agreement to its shareholders without recommendation (each such action set forth in this clause (i) being referred to herein as an Adverse Recommendation Change) or (ii) (A) cause or permit Holdings or the Bank to enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, acquisition agreement, merger agreement, option agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other Contract constituting or relating to, or which is intended to or is reasonably likely to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal or (B) resolve, agree or propose to take any such actions.

4.13 Takeover Laws. If any Takeover Law may become, or may purport to be, applicable to the transactions contemplated hereby, Holdings and the members of its Board of Directors will grant such approvals and take such actions as are necessary (other than any action requiring the approval of its shareholders (other than as contemplated by Section 4.5)) so that the transactions contemplated by this Agreement may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise act to eliminate or minimize the effects of any Takeover Law on any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.14 Employee Benefits and Contracts. (a) Following the Effective Time, SBC shall maintain or cause to be maintained employee benefit plans and compensation opportunities for the benefit of employees (as a group) who are full-time active employees of the Company and its Subsidiaries on the Closing Date (Covered Employees) that provide employee benefits and compensation opportunities which, in the aggregate, are substantially comparable to or greater than the employee benefits and compensation opportunities that are made available on a uniform and non-discriminatory basis to similarly situated employees of SBC or its Subsidiaries, as applicable; provided, however, that in no event shall any Covered Employee be eligible to participate in any closed or frozen plan of SBC or its Subsidiaries. SBC shall give the Covered Employees full credit for their prior service with the Company and its Subsidiaries (i) for purposes of eligibility (including initial participation and eligibility for current benefits) and vesting under any qualified or non-qualified employee benefit plan maintained by SBC and in which Covered Employees may be eligible to participate and (ii) for all purposes under any welfare benefit plans, vacation plans and similar arrangements maintained by SBC, provided that the foregoing shall not result in the duplication of benefits or to benefit accrual under any pension plan.

(b) With respect to any employee benefit plan of SBC that is a health, dental, vision or other welfare plan in which any Covered Employee is eligible to participate, for the plan year in which such Covered Employee is first eligible to participate, SBC or its applicable Subsidiary shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) cause any pre-existing condition limitations or eligibility waiting periods under such SBC or Subsidiary plan to be waived with respect to such Covered Employee to the extent such condition was or would have been covered under the Company Benefit Plan in which such Covered Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) recognize any health, dental, vision or other welfare expenses incurred by such Covered Employee in the year that includes the Closing Date (or, if later, the year in which such Covered Employee is first eligible to participate) for purposes of any applicable deductible and annual out-of-pocket expense requirements under any such health, dental, vision or other welfare plan.

(c) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall take, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to take, all actions requested by SBC that may be necessary or appropriate to (i) cause one or more of the Company Benefit Plans to terminate as of the Effective Time, or as of the date immediately preceding the Effective Time, (ii) cause benefit accruals and entitlements under any Company Benefit Plan to cease as of the Effective Time, or as of the date immediately preceding the Effective Time, (iii) cause the continuation on and after the Effective Time of any contract, arrangement or insurance policy relating to any Company Benefit Plan for such period as may be requested by SBC, or (iv) facilitate the merger of any Company Benefit Plan into any employee benefit plan maintained by SBC or an SBC Subsidiary. All resolutions, notices, or other documents issued, adopted or executed in connection with the implementation of this Section 4.14(c) shall be subject to SBC's reasonable prior review and approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

(d) [Reserved]

(e) Nothing in this Section 4.14 shall be construed to limit the right of SBC or any of its Subsidiaries (including, following the Closing Date, the Company and its Subsidiaries) to amend or terminate any Company Benefit Plan or other employee benefit plan, to the extent such amendment or termination is permitted by the terms of the applicable plan, nor shall anything in this Section 4.14 be construed to require SBC or any of its Subsidiaries to retain the employment of any particular Covered Employee for any fixed period of time following the Closing Date, and the continued retention (or termination) by SBC or any of its Subsidiaries of any Covered Employee subsequent to the Effective Time shall be subject in all events to SBC's or its applicable Subsidiary's normal and customary employment procedures and practices, including customary background screening and evaluation procedures, and satisfactory employment performance.

(f) If, within six (6) months after the Effective Time, any Covered Employee is terminated by SBC or its Subsidiaries other than for Cause or as a result of unsatisfactory job performance, then SBC shall pay severance to such Covered Employee in an amount set forth in the severance policies set forth in Section 4.14(f) of the Company Disclosure Letter (and based upon the non-exempt and exempt status and/or title for the Covered Employee with the Company at the Closing). Any severance to which a Covered Employee may be entitled in connection with a termination occurring more than six (6) months after the Effective Time will be as set forth in the severance policies set forth in Section 4.14(f) of the Seacoast Disclosure Letter.

(g) The provisions of this Section 4.14 are solely for the benefit of the parties hereto, and no current or former employee, director or independent contractor or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third party beneficiary of this Agreement, and nothing herein shall be construed as an amendment to any Benefit Plan, employment agreement or any other employee benefit plan for any purpose.

4.15 Indemnification. (a) From and after the Effective Time, in the event of any threatened or actual claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, or administrative, in which any Person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of this Agreement, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, a director or officer of the Company (each an Indemnified Party) is, or is threatened to be, made a party based in whole or in part on, or arising in whole or in part out of, or pertaining to (i) the fact that the Indemnified Party is or was a director, officer or employee of the Company or its Subsidiaries or any of its predecessors, or (ii) this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in any case

If the Stock Election Consideration is so increased, the Mixed Stock Consideration shall be automatically increased to equal the amount obtained by multiplying the increased Stock Election Consideration determined pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence by 0.65. If within such five (5) Business Day period, SBC delivers written notice to Holdings that it intends to proceed with the Merger by paying such additional consideration as contemplated by the two preceding sentences, then no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 6.1(i), and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Stock Election Consideration and Mixed Stock Consideration shall have been so modified).

In no event shall the Company be required to pay the Termination Fee on more than one occasion.

7.5 Entire Agreement. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, this Agreement (including the Company Disclosure Letter, the Seacoast Disclosure Letter and the Exhibits) constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the transactions contemplated hereunder and supersedes all prior arrangements or understandings with respect thereto, written or oral, other than the Confidentiality Agreement, which shall remain in effect. The representations and warranties in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the Parties and are for the sole benefit of the Parties. Any inaccuracies in such representations and warranties are subject to waiver by the Parties in accordance herewith without notice or liability to any other Person. In some instances, the representations and warranties in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the Parties of risks associated with particular matters regardless of the knowledge of any of the Parties. Consequently, Persons other than the Parties may not rely upon the representations and warranties in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, no consent, approval, or agreement of any third party beneficiary will be required to amend, modify or waive any provision of the Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person, other than the Parties or their respective successors, any rights, remedies, obligations, or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing clause, following the Effective Time only (but not unless and until the Effective Time occurs), (i) the provisions of Section 4.15 shall be enforceable by each Indemnified Party described therein, and (ii) each holder of Holdings Common Stock, who properly surrenders his, her or its Holdings Common Stock in accordance with Article 2, shall have the right to receive the applicable Merger Consideration and such right shall be enforceable by such holder of Holdings Common Stock.

7.6 Amendments. Before the Effective Time, this Agreement (including the Company Disclosure Letter and the Exhibits) may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the Parties, whether before or after the Holdings Shareholder Approval has been obtained, except to the extent that any such amendment would require the approval of the shareholders of Holdings, unless such required approval is obtained.

7.7 Waivers. (a) Prior to or at the Effective Time, either Party shall have the right to waive any Default in the performance of any term of this Agreement by the other Party, to waive or extend the time for the compliance or fulfillment by the other Party of any and all of such other Party's obligations under this Agreement, and to waive any or all of the conditions precedent to its obligations under this Agreement, except any condition which, if not satisfied, would result in the violation of any Law. No waiver by a Party shall be effective unless in writing signed by a duly authorized officer of such Party.

(b) The failure of any Party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect the right of such Party at a later time to enforce the same or any other provision of this Agreement. No waiver of any condition or of the breach of any term contained in this Agreement in one or more instances shall be deemed to be or construed as a further or continuing waiver of such condition or breach or a waiver of any other condition or of the breach of any other term of this Agreement.

7.8 Assignment. Except as expressly contemplated hereby, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests, or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any Party hereto without the prior written consent of each other Party. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the Parties and their respective successors and assigns.

WHEREAS, as of the date hereof, the Shareholder is the record and beneficial owner of, and has the right to vote and dispose of, the number of shares of Holdings Common Stock set forth on the signature page of the Shareholder hereto (such Holdings Common Stock, together with any other capital stock of Holdings acquired by the Shareholder after the date hereof whether acquired directly or indirectly, upon the exercise of options or warrants, conversion of convertible securities or otherwise, and any other securities issued by Holdings that are entitled to vote on the approval of the Merger Agreement held or acquired by the Shareholder (whether acquired heretofore or hereafter), being collectively referred to herein as the Shares);

WHEREAS, receiving the Holdings Shareholder Approval is a condition to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and

WHEREAS, as an inducement to SBC to enter into the Merger Agreement and incur the obligations therein, SBC has required that the Shareholder enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing, the mutual covenants and agreements set forth herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

Section 1. Agreement to Vote. Restrictions on Voting and Dispositions. Revocation of Proxies.

Any Transfer in violation of this provision shall be void. The Shareholder further agrees to authorize and request Holdings to notify Holdings transfer agent that there is a stop transfer order with respect to all of the Shares owned by the Shareholder and that this Agreement places limits on the voting of the Shareholder's Shares.

Section 2. Non-Solicit. Except as expressly permitted pursuant to the exceptions set forth in Sections 4.5(a) and 4.12 of the Merger Agreement, the Shareholder shall not, and shall use his or her reasonable best efforts to cause his or her affiliates and each of their respective officers, directors, employees and Representatives not to, directly or indirectly, Section 3. Representations, Warranties and Covenants of the Shareholder.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The Shareholder represents and warrants to SBC as follows:

(i) Capacity. The Shareholder is an individual and has all requisite capacity, power and authority to enter into and perform his or her obligations under this Agreement. No filing with, and no permit, authorization, consent or approval of, any Governmental Authority is necessary on the part of the Shareholder for the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Shareholder or the consummation by the Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(ii) Due Authorization. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Shareholder and the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the Shareholder and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of the Shareholder.

(iv) Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Shareholder does not, and the performance by the Shareholder of his or her obligations hereunder and the consummation by the Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which the Shareholder is a party or by which the Shareholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which the Shareholder is subject. Except as contemplated by this Agreement, neither the Shareholder nor any of its affiliates (a) has entered into any voting agreement or voting trust with respect to any Shares or entered into any other contract relating to the voting of the Shares or (b) has appointed or granted a proxy or power of attorney with respect to any Shares, in either case, which is inconsistent with the Shareholder's obligations pursuant to this Agreement.

(v) Ownership of Shares. Except for restrictions in favor of SBC pursuant to this Agreement, and except for such transfer restrictions of general applicability as may be provided under the 1933 Act, and the blue sky laws of the various States of the United States, the Shareholder owns, beneficially and of record, all of the Shareholder's Shares, as applicable, free and clear of any proxy, voting restriction, adverse claim, pledge, security interest, voting trust or agreement, understanding or arrangement, or other encumbrance or lien and has voting power and power of disposition with respect to the Shareholder's Shares with no restrictions on the Shareholder's rights of voting or disposition pertaining thereto and no person other than the Shareholder has any right to direct or approve the voting or disposition of any of the Shareholder's Owned Shares. As of the date hereof, the number of Owned Shares equals the number of Shares set forth on the Shareholder's signature page hereto, and would include, if exercised the number of shares of Holdings Common Stock issuable upon the exercise of Holdings Stock Options set forth on the Shareholder's signature page hereto.

(i) the Shareholder agrees not to take any action that would make any representation or warranty of the Shareholder contained herein untrue or incorrect or have the effect of preventing, impeding, or, in any material respect, interfering with or adversely affecting the performance by the Shareholder of its obligations under this Agreement;

(ii) the Shareholder hereby agrees, while this Agreement is in effect, to promptly notify SBC of the number of any new shares of Holdings Common Stock acquired by the Shareholder, if any, after the date hereof. Any such shares shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement as though owned by the Shareholder on the date hereof; and

Section 5. Termination. Other than with respect to this Section and Section 7, which shall survive any termination of this Agreement, this Agreement will terminate upon the earliest of (A) the Merger Agreement being approved by the requisite affirmative vote of the shareholders of Holdings and (B) the date of termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms (the Expiration Time); provided that no such termination shall relieve any party hereto from any liability for any breach of this Agreement occurring prior to such termination.

Section 6. Appraisal Rights. The Shareholder hereby waives any rights of appraisal or rights to dissent from the Merger that the Shareholder may have under applicable law, including Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA.

(c) Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the same meanings provided in the Merger Agreement.

2. Restrictive Covenants.

(a) Nondisclosure of Confidential Information. From and after the Effective Time, Director shall not directly or indirectly transmit or disclose any Confidential Information to any Person, or use or permit others to use any such Confidential Information, directly or indirectly, for any purpose for so long as such information remains Confidential Information, without the prior express written consent of the Chief Executive Officer of SBC, which consent may be withheld in the sole discretion of SBC's Chief Executive Officer. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, Director shall not be restricted from disclosing information that is required to be disclosed by law, court order or other valid and appropriate legal process; provided, however, that in the event such disclosure is required by law, Director shall (i) if allowed by law or legal process, provide SBC with prompt written notice of such requirement so that SBC may seek an appropriate protective order prior to any such required disclosure by Director; and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain assurances that any Confidential Information disclosed will be accorded confidential treatment. If, in the absence of a required waiver or protective order, Director is nonetheless, in the opinion of his counsel, required to disclose Confidential Information, disclosure may be made only as to that portion of the Confidential Information that counsel advises Director is legally required to be disclosed.

It is acknowledged that general advertisements not specifically targeted at any of the foregoing persons shall not be deemed to violate this provision.

(c) Nonsolicitation of Customers. Director hereby agrees that, for five (5) years following the Effective Time, Director shall not, without the prior written consent of SBC's Chief Executive Officer, which consent may be withheld at the sole discretion of SBC's Chief Executive Officer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of himself or of anyone other than the Company, SBC or any Affiliated Company, in the Restricted Area (as defined in Section 2(d) below), solicit or attempt to solicit any customer or client, or any prospective customer or client, of the Company during Director's services as a director of the Company or any of its Affiliated Companies, for the purpose of either (i) providing any Business Activities (as defined in Section 2(d)) or (ii) inducing such customer or client, or prospective customer or client, to cease, reduce, restrict or divert its business with the Company, SBC or any Affiliated Company. It is acknowledged that general advertisements not specifically targeted at customers or clients, or any prospective customers or clients, of the Company during Director's services as a director of the Company or any of its Affiliated Companies shall not be deemed to violate this provision.

(d) Noncompetition. Director hereby agrees that, for five (5) years following the Effective Time, Director shall not, without the prior written consent of SBC's Chief Executive Officer, which consent may be withheld at the sole discretion of SBC's Chief Executive Officer, prepare or apply to commence, or engage or participate in, Business Activities as an officer, director, manager, owner, partner, joint venture, consultant, independent contractor, employee, or shareholder of, or otherwise on behalf of, any other Person, business or enterprise that competes in the Restricted Area with SBC and its Affiliated Companies with respect to Business Activities. home equity lines of credit. For avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Section 2(d) shall prohibit a Director from providing services that the Director provides as of the date of this Agreement as well as services that the Director has provided prior to the date of this Agreement as a part of such Director's current business to any entity which engages in Business Activities within the Restricted Area. The Restricted Area shall mean Volusia, Flagler, Orange, Seminole and Lake counties in Florida. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 2(d) shall prohibit (i) Director from serving on any board of directors as a non-employee director of a bank or bank holding company located within the Restricted Area after the second (2nd) anniversary of the Effective Time; (ii) Director from acquiring or holding, for investment purposes only, less than five percent (5%) of the outstanding securities of any business organization which may compete directly or indirectly with the Company, SBC or any of their Affiliated Companies; provided, however, that Director shall inform SBC at least five (5) Business Days before making any such investment; or (iii) Director or any of Director's Affiliated Companies from continuing to hold outstanding securities held by Director and any of Director's Affiliated Companies as of the date of this Agreement so long as such investment in a financial institution engaged in Business Activities in the Restricted Area is disclosed on Schedule A hereto.

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. Director acknowledges and agrees that the covenants in this Agreement are direct consideration for a sale of a business and should be governed by standards applicable to restrictive covenants entered into in connection with a sale of a business. Director acknowledges that each of SBC and its Affiliated Companies have a current and future expectation of business within the Restricted Area and from the current and proposed customers of the Company that are derived from the acquisition of the Company by SBC. Director acknowledges that the term, geographic area, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Agreement are reasonable, and agrees that he will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein. Director agrees that his position as a director of the Company involves duties and authority relating to all aspects of the Business Activities and all of the Restricted Area. Director further acknowledges that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude him from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. Director and SBC agree that Director's obligations under the above covenants are separate and distinct under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of SBC to perform its obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of this covenant. Director and SBC agree that if any portion of the foregoing provisions is deemed to be unenforceable because the geography, time or scope of activities restricted is deemed to be too broad, the court shall be authorized to substitute for the overbroad term an enforceable term that will enable the enforcement of the covenants to the maximum extent possible under applicable law. Director acknowledges and agrees that any breach or threatened breach of this covenant will result in irreparable damage and injury to SBC and its Affiliated Companies and that damages arising out of such breach would be difficult to ascertain. Director hereby agrees that, in addition to all other remedies provided at law or in equity, SBC will be entitled to exercise all rights including, without limitation, obtaining one or more temporary restraining orders, injunctive relief and other equitable relief, including specific performance in the event of any breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, without the necessity of posting any bond or security (all of which are waived by Director), and to exercise all other rights or remedies, at law or in equity, including, without limitation, the rights to damages.

3. Successors.

(a) This Agreement is personal to Director, is not assignable by Director, and none of Director's duties hereunder may be delegated.

(b) This Agreement may be assigned by, and shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of SBC and any of its Affiliated Companies and their successors and assigns.

4. Miscellaneous.

(a) Waiver. No provision of this Agreement may be modified, waived or discharged unless such waiver, modification or discharge is agreed to in writing signed by Director and SBC. No waiver by either party hereto at any time of any breach by the other party hereto of, or compliance with, any condition or provision of this Agreement to be performed by such other party shall be deemed a waiver of provisions or conditions at the same or any prior subsequent time.

(b) Litigation Expenses. In the event that a party seeks to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided by this Agreement through Litigation, and in the event that such party prevails in any such Litigation pursuant to which an arbitral panel, court or other Governmental Authority issues a final order, judgment, decree or award granting substantially the relief sought, then the prevailing party shall be entitled upon demand to be paid by the other party, all reasonable costs incurred in connection with such Litigation, including the reasonable legal fees and charges of counsel.

(c) Governing Law and Forum Selection. SBC and Director agree that this Agreement shall be governed by and construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida without giving effect to its conflicts of law principles. Director agrees that any action to enforce this Agreement, as well as any action relating to or arising out of this Agreement, shall be filed only in the state courts of Martin County, Florida. With respect to any such court action, Director hereby (i) irrevocably submits to the personal jurisdiction of such courts; (ii) consents to service of process; (iii) consents to venue; and (iv) waives any other requirement (whether imposed by statute, rule of court, or otherwise) with respect to personal jurisdiction, service of process, or venue. Both parties hereto further agree that the state courts of Martin County, Florida are convenient forums for any dispute that may arise herefrom and that neither party shall raise as a defense that such courts are not convenient forums.

(d) Notices. Any notice, consent, demand, request or other communication given to a party hereto in connection with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given such party (i) when delivered personally to such party or (ii) provided that a written acknowledgement of receipt is obtained, five (5) days after being sent by prepaid certified or registered mail or two (2) days after being sent by a nationally recognized overnight courier, to the address (if any) specified below for such party (or to such other address as such party shall have specified by ten (10) days advance notice given in accordance with this Section 4(d)), or (iii) in the case of SBC only, on the first business day after it is sent by facsimile to the facsimile number set forth below (or to such other facsimile number as shall have been specified by ten (10) days advance notice given in accordance with this Section 4(d)), with a confirmation copy sent by certified or registered mail or by overnight courier in accordance with this Section 4(d).

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, upon the effective time of the Merger, each share of Holdings Common Stock (except for certain shares of Holdings Common Stock, as specified in the Agreement), shall be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof in accordance with, and subject to, the terms, conditions and procedures set forth in the Agreement, the Merger Consideration. The Agreement provides, generally, that shareholder elections may be adjusted as necessary to result in an overall ratio of 35% of Holdings Common Stock being converted into the right to receive the cash consideration and 65% of Holdings Common Stock being converted into the right to receive the stock consideration. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Holdings Common Stock.

Sandler O Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O Neill, we or our), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) certain audited financial statements and other historical financial information of the Company, as provided by Holdings, that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of SBC that we deemed relevant; (iv) internal earnings estimates for Holdings for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018, as provided and confirmed by the senior management of Holdings; (v) publicly available analyst earnings per share estimates for SBC for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017 and an estimated long term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of SBC; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on SBC based on assumptions relating to earnings per share for Holdings for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, SBC s announced acquisition of certain branch offices, estimated transaction expenses, certain accounting adjustments and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of SBC; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for SBC common stock, including a comparison of certain financial and stock market information for SBC and similar publicly available information for certain other similar companies the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for Holdings and SBC with similar institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry (on a statewide and national basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. TABLE OF CONTENTS

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by the Company or SBC or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have relied, at the direction of Holdings, without independent verification or investigation, on the assessments of the management of Holdings as to its existing and future relationships with key employees and partners, clients, products and services and we have assumed, with your consent, that there will be no developments with respect to any such matters that would affect our analyses or opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Holdings and SCB that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Holdings or SBC or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of Holdings or SBC or their respective subsidiaries. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Holdings or SBC, or the combined entity after the Merger and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to Holdings or SBC, or any of their respective subsidiaries.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal earnings estimates for Holdings for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018, as provided and confirmed by the senior management of Holdings, as well as publicly available analyst earnings per share estimates for SBC for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2017 and an estimated long term earnings growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of SBC. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analysis certain assumptions relating to earnings per share for Holdings for the years ending December 31, 2015 through December 31, 2018 and a long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, SBC's announced acquisition of certain branch offices, estimated transaction expenses, certain accounting adjustments and cost savings, as provided by the senior management of SBC. With respect to those estimates and judgments, the respective managements of Holdings and SBC confirmed to us that those estimates and judgments reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of those respective managements of the future financial performance of Holdings and SBC, respectively, and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such estimates or judgments, or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in Holdings' or SBC's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Holdings and SBC will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that each of the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Holdings, SBC or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, (iv) the Merger will be consummated without Holdings' rights under Section 6.1(i) of the Agreement having been triggered, or if such rights have been triggered, SBC shall have exercised the option referred to in Section 6.1(i)(ii) of the Agreement, and (v) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that Holdings has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading value of SBC common stock after the date of this opinion or what the value of SBC common stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of Holdings Common Stock.

We have acted as Holdings' financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee from Holdings for rendering this opinion. Company has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement. In the two years preceding the date of this opinion, we have provided certain other investment banking services to Holdings and received fees for such services. Additionally, as we have previously advised you, in the two years preceding the date of this opinion, we have provided certain investment banking services to SBC and received fees for such services, and may provide, and receive compensation for, such services in the future, including during the pendency of the Merger. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to Holdings, SBC or their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of Holdings, SBC or their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Holdings in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of either Holdings or SBC as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the adoption of the Agreement and approval of the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Holdings Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of Holdings to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger and/or other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for Holdings or the effect of any other transaction in which Holdings might engage. This opinion shall not be reproduced or used for any other purposes, without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the amount of compensation to be received in the Merger by any Holdings or SBC officer, director or employee, if any, relative to the amount of compensation to be received by any other shareholder.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to holders of Holdings Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,
/s/ Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

Board of Directors
Floridian Financial Group, Inc.
175 Timacuan Blvd.
Lake Mary, FL 32746

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Floridian Financial Group, Inc. (Floridian) and its shareholders, of the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of November 2, 2015 (the Agreement) by and between Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida (Seacoast) and Floridian. The Agreement provides for the merger of Floridian with and into Seacoast, with Seacoast being the surviving company. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Agreement.

The financial terms of the Agreement provide for Merger Consideration valued at $12.25 for each share of Floridian common stock as of the date of the Agreement. The Merger Consideration will be payable in cash, Seacoast common stock or some combination thereof, pursuant to shareholder election and subject to proration. Upon completion of the Merger, each share of Floridian common stock will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of each shareholder: (1) a combination of $4.29 in cash and 0.5291 shares of Seacoast common stock (the Mixed Election Consideration); (2) $12.25 in cash (the Cash Election Consideration); or (3) 0.8140 shares of Seacoast common stock (the Stock Election Consideration). Shares of Floridian common stock with respect to which no election is made will receive the Mixed Election Consideration. The proration procedures provide for the aggregate amount of cash paid and Seacoast shares issued in the Merger as a whole are equal to the total amount of cash and total number of Seacoast shares that would have been paid and issued if all Floridian shareholders received the Mixed Election Consideration.

Holders of outstanding Floridian stock options will receive cash in an amount equal to the in-the-money value of such option. Any remaining Floridian warrants that have not been exercised prior to the effective time shall automatically expire. - the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on Seacoast, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses,
- (v) preliminary purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings as discussed with representatives of Seacoast and Floridian;
 - (vi) publicly reported historical price and trading activity for Seacoast common stock, including an analysis of certain financial and stock market information of Seacoast compared to certain other publicly traded companies;
 - (vii) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;
 - (viii) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and,
 - (ix) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant.

We also discussed with certain members of senior management of Floridian the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Floridian, including certain operating, regulatory and other financial matters. We held similar discussions with Seacoast's representatives regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Seacoast.

Management of Floridian and Seacoast, respectively, have represented that there has been no material adverse change in their respective company's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Floridian and Seacoast will remain as going concerns, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement, and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived.

Finally, we have relied upon the advice Floridian has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

In our review and analysis, we relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to us or publicly available, and have not attempted to verify the same. As part of the due diligence process we made no independent verification as to the status and value of Floridian or Seacoast's assets, including the value of the loan portfolio and allowance for loan and lease losses, and have instead relied upon representations and information concerning the value of assets and the adequacy of reserves of both companies in the aggregate. In addition, we have assumed in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the transaction, no condition will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the transaction to Floridian and its shareholders.

This opinion is based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances existing on, and information made available as of, the date hereof. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Floridian and its shareholders of the terms of the Agreement and does not address the underlying business decision by the Board of Directors to pursue the Merger.

Austin reserves the right to review any public disclosures describing this fairness opinion or its firm. Austin has received a fee for its services in preparing this fairness opinion. Austin's fee is not contingent upon closing of the Merger. In addition, Floridian agreed to indemnify Austin against certain liabilities.

Based upon our analysis and subject to the qualifications described herein, we believe that as of the date of this letter, the terms of the Agreement are fair, from a financial point of view, to Floridian and its shareholders.

Respectfully,

Austin Associates, LLC

TABLE OF CONTENTS

(e) For the purposes of paragraph (d) only, the term beneficial owner means any person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, or understanding, other than a revocable proxy, has or shares the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, shares, provided that a member of a national securities exchange shall not be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person solely because such member is the recordholder of such securities if the member is precluded by the rules of such exchange from voting without instruction on contested matters or matters that may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the securities to be voted. When two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of the corporation, each member of the group formed thereby shall be deemed to have acquired beneficial ownership, as of the date of such agreement, of all voting shares of the corporation beneficially owned by any member of the group.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment thereto may limit or eliminate appraisal rights for any class or series of preferred shares, but any such limitation or elimination contained in an amendment to the articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates appraisal rights for any of such shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment or that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell thereafter pursuant to any conversion, exchange, or other right existing immediately before the effective date of such amendment shall not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within 1 year of that date if such action would otherwise afford appraisal rights.

(4) A shareholder entitled to appraisal rights under this chapter may not challenge a completed corporate action for which appraisal rights are available unless such corporate action:

(a) Was not effectuated in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section or the corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, or board of directors' resolution authorizing the corporate action; or

(b) Was procured as a result of fraud or material misrepresentation.

(1) A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder only if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record shareholder's name under this subsection shall be determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different record shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to shares of any class or series held on behalf of the shareholder only if such shareholder:

(a) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights no later than the date referred to in s. 607.1322(2)(b)2.

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers of Seacoast

The Florida Business Corporation Act, as amended, or the FBCA, permits, under certain circumstances, the indemnification of officers, directors, employees and agents of a corporation with respect to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, to which such person was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party, by reason of his or her being an officer, director, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of, such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including appeals thereof; provided, however, that the officer, director, employee or agent acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any such third-party action by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, create a presumption that the person (i) did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation or (ii) with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

In the case of proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, the FBCA permits for indemnification of any person by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of, such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against liability incurred in connection with such proceeding, including appeals thereof; provided, however, that the officer, director, employee or agent acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification is made where such person is adjudged liable, unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

To the extent that such person is successful on the merits or otherwise in defending against any such proceeding, Florida law provides that he or she shall be indemnified against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith.

Our Bylaws contain indemnification provisions similar to the FBCA, and further provide that we may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of directors, officers, employees and agents in their capacities as such, or serving at the request of the corporation, against any liabilities asserted against such persons whether or not we would have the power to indemnify such persons against such liability under our Bylaws.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that, in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and
- (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
