Section 4 - Matter Related to Accountants and Financial Statements

Edgar Filing: TECHLABS INC - Form 8-K

Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant.

a) On or about January 7, 2006, Webb & Company, the Company's principal accountant for Techlabs, Inc. resigned citing timing and financial considerations.

None of the reports of Webb & Company, on the Company's financial statements for either of the past two years or subsequent interim period contained an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, or was qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles, except that the report for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2003, and December 31, 2004 did contain a going concern paragraph.

There were no disagreements between the Company and Webb & Company on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Webb & Company, would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with its report. Further, Webb & Company has not advised the Registrant that:

- 1) internal controls necessary to develop reliable financial statements did not exist; or
- 2) information has come to the attention of Webb & Company which made it unwilling to rely upon management's representations, or made it unwilling to be associated with the financial statements prepared by management; or
- 3) the scope of the audit should be expanded significantly, or information has come to the attention of Webb & Company that they have concluded will, or if further investigated might, materially impact the fairness or reliability of a previously issued audit report or the underlying financial statements, or the financial statements issued or to be issued covering the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005.
