FOR THE THREE AND NINE MONTHS ENDED SEPTEMBER 30, 2007 AND 2006

NOTE 1 BASIS OF PRESENTATION

(A) The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated balance sheets, statements of operations and comprehensive income (loss), stockholders' equity and cash flows reflect all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments and other adjustments, that are, in the opinion of management, necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position of Dragon Pharmaceutical Inc. ("the Company"), at September 30, 2007, and the results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods ended September 30, 2007 and 2006.

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, which contemplate continuation of the Company as a going concern. The Company has a working capital deficiency of $654,000 as at September 30, 2007. However, the Company has developed and is implementing a plan to decrease its debt and increase its working capital which will allow the Company to continue operations.

The Company plans to seek additional equity through the conversion of some of its liabilities and expects to raise funds through private placements in order to support existing operations and expand the range and scope of its business. The Company has also significantly increased production levels to generate additional cash flow under contracted supply agreements. In addition, the Company intends to continue to renegotiate and extend loans, as required, when they become due, as has been done in the past. There is no assurance that such additional funds will be available for the Company on acceptable terms, if at all, or that the Company will be able to negotiate and extend the loans. If adequate funds are not available or not available on acceptable terms or the Company is unable to negotiate or extend its loans, the Company may be required to scale back or abandon some activities. Management believes that actions presently taken provide the opportunity for the Company to continue as a going concern. However, the Company's ability to achieve these objectives cannot be determined at this time. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. These financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from this uncertainty.

The results of operations for the interim periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

(B) In July 2006, FASB issued Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48). This Interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with SFAS Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes" This Interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. This Interpretation also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. The Company adopted FIN 48 as of January 1, 2007. The adoption of FIN 48 did not have an impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements during the current period.

In September 2006, FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). The objective of SFAS 157 is to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and to expand disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements and does not require any new fair value measurements. The provisions of SFAS 157 are effective for fair value measurements made in fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company has not determined the effect, if any, that the adoption of SFAS 157 will have on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities (SFAS 159). SFAS 159 permits entities to choose to measure many financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected will be reported in earnings. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company has not determined the effect, if any, that the adoption of SFAS 159 will have on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

The Company had sales of $12,215,000 in the Chemical Divisions to customers in India, representing 20% of the Company's revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2007; while the Company had sales of $12,674,000 in the Chemical Division to customers in India, representing 33% of the Company's revenues for the nine months ended September 30, 2006. Substantially all of the Company's assets at September 30, 2007 and 2006 were located in China.

Sales to the Company's five largest customers accounted for approximately 47% and 65% of the Company's sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively; while sales to the Company's largest customer accounted for approximately 20% and 33%, respectively. Amounts owing from one customer represented 4.4% of the Company's trade and other receivables at September 30, 2007.

The Company is exposed to the risk arising from changing interest rates. A detailed analysis of the Company's Loans Payable, together with their respective interest rates and maturity dates, are included in Note 9.

The majority of the Company's assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses are denominated in Renminbi, which was tied to the US Dollar and is now tied to a basket of currencies of China's largest trading partners, is not a freely convertible currency. The appreciation of the Renminbi against the US Dollar would result in an increase in the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses of the Company and a foreign currency gain included in comprehensive income. Conversely, the devaluation of the Renminbi against the US Dollar would result in a decrease in the assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses of the Company and a foreign currency loss included in comprehensive income. At September 30, 2007, US$3,180,000 of cash and cash equivalents is held in Renminbi.

NOTE 18 COMPARATIVE FIGURES

Certain of the comparative figures have been reclassified to conform with the presentation adopted in the current period.

NOTE 19 SUBSEQUENT EVENT

The Company has repaid and renegotiated a loan payable subsequent to September 30, 2007 as described in Note 9.

Subsequent to the quarter end, the Company signed an agreement on November 5, 2007 with a non-affiliated third party to sell the assets of the biotech operations. According to the agreement, the buyer will pay the Company a total of US$ 2.08 million (or RMB 15.6 million) in three installments within six months after the completion of the transaction, which is expected to be completed during the fourth quarter of 2007, in exchange for certain fixed assets and certain net working capital of the biotech business (see note 6).

Item 2.

Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Overview

The following discusses the Company's financial condition and results of operations for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2007 based upon the Company's unaudited interim consolidated financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with the United States generally accepted accounting principles. It should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto and other financial information included in the Company's Form 10-KSB for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

As used in this report, the terms "we", "us", "our", "the Company" and "Dragon" shall mean Dragon Pharmaceutical Inc. and its subsidiaries unless otherwise indicated. Further, unless otherwise indicated, reference to dollars shall mean United States dollars.

General

Dragon is a diversified pharmaceutical company with three key business units consisting of a Chemical Division for manufacturing bulk active pharmaceutical ingredient (API) and pharmaceutical intermediates, a Pharma Division for manufacturing formulated generic drugs with a focus on Cephalosporin antibiotics and freeze-dry injectables, and a Biotech Division for manufacturing biologics, currently Erythropoietin or EPO.

The Company currently has four production facilities in Datong, China, including three GMP (Good Manufacturing Practice) production facilities certified by Chinese State Food and Drug Administration ("SFDA"): one pharmaceutical facility with a capacity of producing freeze-dry injectables, one biotech facility producing Erythropoietin injectables and one chemical facility producing bulk Clavulanic Acid. The fourth facility produces bulk 7-ACA, an intermediate for Cephalosporin antibiotics by a fermentation process. 7-ACA is an intermediate and no GMP is required for the production facility. The Company now has 47 drugs approved by the Chinese SFDA of which the Pharma division products are sold only in the Chinese markets while products from the Chemical and Biotech divisions are sold in both Chinese and selected international markets.

The Company completed the acquisition of Oriental Wave Holding Ltd. ("Oriental Wave") on January 12, 2005 which transformed us from a single product company into a diversified pharmaceutical company with three key business units consisting of a Chemical Division for bulk pharmaceutical intermediate and API, a Pharma Division for formulated generic drugs and a Biotech Division for biotech products.

The Company's headquarters, located in Vancouver, British Columbia accommodates corporate functions such as financial reporting, SEC compliance, corporate finance, investor relations, and regulatory affairs for international product approval. The Company also has corporate offices in Beijing & Datong, China to manage its businesses in China including strategy formulation in the Chinese market, product development, production and sales and marketing management.

During the quarter, the Company has made a strategic decision to focus on its chemical and its associated downstream formulation businesses that have shown tremendous growth since its establishment in 2004. As a result, the Company decided to sell its assets of the Biotech division and freeze-dry injectable workshop. This strategic sale will further enable the Company to exploit the significant market share growth that has already been achieved over the past year in its core businesses. In addition, the management of the Company is also actively exploring additional business opportunities in broadening its core product offerings in its chemical and formulation portfolios and increasing production capacities which may involve an investment in a new production campus. These exploration activities are in their initial stages.

Business Segments

The Company originally operated three key business units consisting of a Chemical Division for bulk pharmaceutical API and intermediates such as Clavulanic acid and 7-ACA and a Pharma Division for formulated drugs with a focus of Cephalosporin antibiotics. However, during the quarter ended September 30, 2007, the Company decided to sell certain assets of the Biotech Division and therefore it has been reclassified as discontinued operations.

Chemical Division

The Chemical Division's facilities are located on Datong Gongnong Road, Datong City, Shanxi Province, China. The Chemical Division produces bulk pharmaceutical intermediates and API to sell to other pharmaceutical companies for further processing and formulation into finished products. The Chemical Division manages the production of Clavulanic acid and 7-ACA for both Chinese and international markets. The production for Clavulanic acid was started in January 2004 and the production of 7-ACA was started in July 2004.

In October, 2007, the Company has successfully established a new production line producing 7-ACA using the biotech method, adding an additional annual production capacity of 120 tons 7-ACA. Using the biotech method, the new production line uses enzymes to catalyze reactions, therefore eliminates the use of expensive solvents and toxic reagents, leading to a considerable reduction in the waste generation. In addition, the biotech process operates at a moderate temperature which leads to lower energy expenses. The technology would bring immediate benefit to the operation by increasing production efficiency and by saving environmental protection costs with the elimination of hazardous chemicals. The overall adoption of the technology in the operation would further enhance the Company's competitiveness in the global market.

The initial designed annual production capacity for clavulanic acid and 7-ACA were 30 tons and 400 tons respectively. After the Company's investment in the process optimization, technology improvement and a new production line, the annual production capacity reaches 50 tons and 720 tons for clavulanic acid and 7-ACA respectively.

One of the key products in Chemical Division is clavulanic acid, a drug that combines with antibiotics increase the effectiveness of the antibiotics. Another key product in the Chemical Division is 7-ACA, an intermediate for Cephalosporin antibiotics. The 720-ton production facility of 7-ACA positions Dragon as one of the main producers of this product in the world. The export of 7-ACA to India commenced in 2004 and the Company currently has a target to sell 50% of its 7-ACA production to the Indian market. The Chemical Division operates its business strategies to upgrade its technology in order to improve yields and lower production cost, to develop 7-ACA and clavulanic acid downstream bulk products in order to position the Company as one of the important producers of such products worldwide.

Pharma Division

The Company's Pharma division offered two product lines, Cephalosporin powder for injection and freeze-dry injectable products. Subsequent to the quarter end, the Company decided to sell the assets of the freeze-dry injectables workshop to an unaffiliated party. The Company is determined to focus on downstream Cephalosporin formulation products in the Pharma Division as the Company is one of the important producers of 7-ACA, an intermediate for Cephalosporin antibiotics, worldwide. In the past, the Company has used qualified contract manufacturers to produce the Cephalosporin powder for injection and key sales agents and distributors to sell the formulation products in the Chinese market. As the Company's sales volume and market share for its formulation products continue to increase in the Chinese market, the Company will consider leasing certain manufacturing assets in the future so that the Company will have even better control of its manufacturing cost and product quality assurance.

Discontinued Operations: Biotech Division

The Biotech Division's facility was relocated to Datong, China from its original production site in Nanjing City, China at the end of December, 2005. In the facility, the capacity for bulk EPO is 120 grams and the capacity for sterile vialing is 5 million vials. The sole product of the Biotech Division is Erythropoietin or EPO, an injectable that stimulates red blood cell development.

During the third quarter of 2007, the Company determined that the biotech business was not aligned with the Company's current core business strategy to focus on its chemical and downstream formulation portfolio, and consequently, began actively looking to dispose of this operation. This biotech operation has been categorized as discontinued. The assets and liabilities of the Biotech division included in discontinued operations are presented in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheet under the captions "Assets held for sale", "Liabilities related to assets held for sale". The results for the Biotech division have been shown separately as discontinued operations on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Subsequent to the quarter end, the Company signed an agreement on November 5, 2007 with a non-affiliated third party to sell the assets of the biotech operations. According to the agreement, the buyer will pay the Company a total of US$ 2.08 million (or RMB 15.6 million) in three installments within six months after the completion of the transaction, which is expected to be completed during the fourth quarter of 2007, in exchange for certain fixed assets and certain net working capital of the biotech business. Management reviewed the carrying value of the discontinued operations and recognized a non-cash impairment charge of $1.68 million for intangible assets and $0.97 million for goodwill during the quarter and nine-month period ended September 30, 2007. These intangible assets and goodwill in the Biotech division were created as a result of the reverse take-over of Dragon Pharmaceutical Inc. by Oriental Wave Holdings Limited on January 12, 2005. Such a write-down of the Biotech division's intangible assets and goodwill has no cash impact to the Company's financial results but created a loss from discontinued operations for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007. Excluding the impact of the non-cash impairment of the intangible assets and goodwill, the Biotech division would have been profitable for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007.

Critical Accounting Policies and Estimates and Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The accompanying management's discussion and analysis of results of operations and financial condition are based upon Dragon's consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The preparation of these financial statements requires management to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Management evaluates estimates on an ongoing basis. Management bases its estimates on historical experiences and various other factors and assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ materially from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Significant accounting policies are described in Note 1 to the annual Consolidated Financial Statements contained in Dragon's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2006. Certain of these significant accounting policies are considered to be critical accounting policies which include: stock based compensation and impairment of long-lived assets and goodwill and intangible assets.

Stock-based Compensation

Stock-based compensation expense, which is a non-cash charge, results in part from estimating the fair value of employee stock options granted using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The exercise price for option grants are based on the market value of the Company's common shares. The Company accounts for employee stock options in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), Share-based Payment, a revision of SFAS 123. The Black-Scholes option pricing model requires the input of the fair value of the Company's stock at the date of grant of the stock options as well as the input of several subjective assumptions including: the expected life of the option, the expected volatility at the time of the options are granted, and the expected forfeiture rate at the time the options were granted. Changes in the inputs and assumptions can materially affect the measure of the estimated fair value of employee stock options. Also, the accounting estimate of stock-based compensation expense is reasonably likely to change from period to period as further stock options are granted and adjustments are made for stock option forfeitures and cancellations.

Long-lived Assets

The Company periodically evaluates its long-lived assets for potential impairment under SFAS 144, Accounting for the Impairment of Disposal of Long-lived Assets. The Company performs these evaluations whenever events or changes in circumstances suggest that the carrying amount of an asset or group of assets is not recoverable. If impairment recognition criteria in SFAS 144 have been met, the Company charges impairments of the long-lived assets to operations.

Impairment of Goodwill and Intangible Assets

In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standard, or SFAS 142, Goodwill and Other Intangibles, the Company is required to perform impairment tests annually or whenever events or changes in circumstances suggest that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. While the Company uses available information to prepare the estimates and to perform impairment evaluations, actual results in the future could differ significantly. Impairment tests in future periods may result in impairment charges which could materially impact the Company's future reported results.

Adoption of New Accounting Policies

In July 2006, FASB issued Interpretation No. 48. This Interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with SFAS Statement No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes". This Interpretation prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. This Interpretation also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition.

FASB issued Interpretation No. 48 was adopted by the Company beginning January 1 2007. The adoption of FASB issued Interpretation No. 48 did not have an impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements during the current period.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In September 2006, FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements (SFAS 157). The objective of SFAS 157 is to increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and to expand disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS 157 applies under other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements and does not require any new fair value measurements. The provisions of SFAS 157 are effective for fair value measurements made in fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company has not determined the effect, if any, that the adoption of SFAS 157 will have on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

In February 2007, the FASB issued SFAS No. 159, The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities (SFAS 159). SFAS 159 permits entities to choose to measure many financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected will be reported in earnings. SFAS 159 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The Company has not determined the effect, if any, that the adoption of SFAS 159 will have on the Company's consolidated financial position or results of operations.

Results of Operations for the Three and Nine Months Ended September 30, 2007 and 2006

Revenues

Sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 increased 102% to $23.10 million from $11.41 million for the same period in 2006. $17.45 million or approximately 76% of the sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 were generated from the sales of products in the Chinese market, and the remaining $5.65 million or approximately 24% were generated from the sales of products in the international markets (outside of China). Comparatively, 54% of the sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 were generated from the sale of products in the Chinese market while the remaining 46% of the sales were generated in the international market outside of China. In the quarter ended September 30, 2007, $5.59 million or approximately 24% of the sales were from the Pharma Division and $17.52 million or 76% of sales were from the Chemical Division. For the same period in 2006, 13% of sales were from the Pharma Division and 87% of sales were from the Chemical Division. The increase in sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 as compared to the prior year was due to increase in sales prices and quantities for both divisions. Pharma Division and Chemical Division experienced a year-over-year growth rate of 266% and 77% respectively.

Cost of sales for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 was $18.79 million compared to $10.68 million for the same period of 2006. The cost of sales is attributed to the production costs of products. The increase in the cost of sales was mainly due to the increase in production and sales of products from the Chemical and Pharma Divisions. Gross profit and gross margin for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 were $4.31 million and 18.66% compared to $0.73 million and 6.38% for the same period of 2006. The increase in gross margin was mainly due to an improved margin of both divisions especially the Chemical Division with an increase in selling prices and sales quantity and lower production cost because of a higher utilization of the production facilities.

Sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 increased 60% to $59.98 million from $37.46 million for the same period in 2006. $41.89 million, or 70% of the sales for the first nine months of 2007 were generated from the sales of products in the Chinese market, and the remaining $18.09 million or 30% were generated from the sales of products in the international markets (outside of China). Comparatively, $21.14 million, or 56% of the sales for the first nine months of 2006 were generated from the sales of products in the Chinese market, and the remaining 44% were generated from the sales of products in international markets (outside of China).

In the first nine months of 2007, $11.13 million, or 19% of the sales, were from the Pharma Division and $48.86 million, or 81% of sales were from the Chemical Division. For the same period in 2006, 11% of sales were from the Pharma Division and 89% of sales were from the Chemical Division. The increase in sales during the nine months ended September 30, 2007 as compared to the same period for the prior year was primarily due to increases in sales from the Pharma Division (with a year-over-year growth rate of 166%) and the Chemical Division, especially 7-ACA in the Chinese market (with a year-over-year growth rate of 100%) and Clavulanic Acid in the international market (with a year-over-year growth rate of 65%).

Cost of sales for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 was $48.37 million compared to $32.33 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2007. Gross profit and gross margin for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 were $11.61 million and 19.35% compared to $5.12 million and 13.68% for the same period of 2006. The increase in gross margin was mainly due to an improved margin for the Chemical division especially for 7-ACA products.

Divisional Revenues and Gross Margin Analysis

The Company's businesses were organized under three business divisions: the Chemical Division, the Pharma Division and the Biotech Division. However, as the Company decided to sell the Biotech division during the fourth quarter of 2007, the financial results of the biotech divisions has been reclassified under gain/(loss) from discontinued operations.

Chemical Division

The Chemical Division's revenues for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 were $17.52 million, representing a 77% increase from the revenues of $9.88 million during the same period in 2006. Such increase in revenues was attributed by both 7-ACA and Clavulanic Acid, which had a year-over-year growth rate of 78% and 74% respectively, out of which Clavulanic Acid and 7-ACA experienced 84% and 183% year-over-year growth in the Chinese market while Clavulanic Acid had a 66% growth in revenues in the international market (outside of China).

The Chemical Division's gross margin for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 was 27.57% compared to 10.68% for the quarter ended September 30, 2006. The increase in gross margin reflected an increase in selling prices & sales quantities together with the lowering of per unit production costs as the production level continued to increase.

Pharma Division

The Pharma Division's revenues for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 were $5.59 million, accounting for 24% of the total revenues of the Company. Comparatively, Pharma Division's revenues were $1.53 million for the same period in 2006, contributing 13% of the total revenues of the Company. The 266% increase in revenues of the Pharma division during the third quarter of 2007 as compared to the same period in 2006 was mainly due to the continued gain in market share resulting in increasing sales quantity in the Chinese market.

The overall gross margin for the Pharma Division for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 was -9.24% as compared to -21.42% for the same period of 2006. The increase in the gross margins was due to an increase of the selling price despite the Company has adopted a competitive pricing scheme with an objective to gain further market share in China.

Expenses

Total operating expenses were $3.00 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2007. The major category of operating expenses was general and administration expenses of $1.78 million, selling expense of $1.08 million, and depreciation and amortization expenses of $0.13 million. Total operating expenses were $1.26 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2006 with the major expenses being general and administration expenses of $1.01 million, selling expense of $0.13 million, and depreciation and amortization expenses of $0.12 million.

During the third quarter ended September 30, 2007, the general and administration expenses included $0.02 million for non-cash stock based compensation, $0.43 million for salaries and benefits, $0.23 million for accounting and auditing and $0.30 million for technology improvement expenses compared to $0.27 million for non-cash stock based compensation, $0.21 million for salaries and benefits, $0.06 million for accounting and auditing for the same period in 2006. The increase in operating expenses of $1.74 million for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 as compared to the same period for the prior year was mainly due to a $0.95 million increase in selling expenses with the increase in revenues, $0.30 million for technology improvement and an increased provision of $0.17 million for accounting and audit expenses.

Total operating expenses were $7.67 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 compared to $5.08 million for the same period in 2006. The major category of operating expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 was General and Administration expenses which included $1.04 million for non-cash stock based compensation expenses, $1.26 million for salaries and benefits, $0.82 million for accounting and auditing expenses, $0.37 million for travel expenses, $0.29 million office expenses and $0.33 million for technology improvement expenses compared to $0.27 million for non-cash stock based compensation expenses, $1.19 million for salaries and benefits, $0.37 million for accounting and auditing expenses, $0.37 million for travel expenses and $0.28 million for office expenses for the first nine months of 2006. Operating expenses for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 also included selling expense of $2.02 million and depreciation and amortization of $0.43 million. The increase in operating expenses of $2.59 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2007 as compared to the same period for the prior year reflected mainly the increase in non-cash stock based compensation, accounting and audit expenses and technology improvement expenses.

Other Income / Expense

During the third quarter ended September 30, 2007, the Company recognized a net other expense of $0.22 million which represented primarily interest expense, including $0.50 million cash interest expense and $0.04 million non-cash accreted interest expense on the long term payable

After-tax Income / (Loss) from Continuing Operations

The Company has an after-tax income from continuing operations of $0.97 million (net of $0.02 million non-cash stock based compensation expense) for the third quarter of 2007 as compared to an after-tax loss from continuing operations of ($0.97) million (net of $0.27 million non-cash stock based compensation expense) for the same period in 2006.

For the nine month period ended September 30, 2007, the Company has an after-tax income from continuing operations of $ 2.12 million (net of $1.04 million non-cash stock based compensation expense) compared to an after-tax loss from continuing operations of ($0.86) million (net of $0.27 million non-cash stock based compensation expense) for the same period of 2006.

After-tax Income / (Loss) from Discontinued Operations

During the quarter, the Company has decided to sell the assets of the Biotech division to an unaffiliated party. As a result, the operating results of the Biotech division have been reclassified as discontinued operations and assets held for sale in the Company's unaudited interim consolidated financial statements.

Biotech Division's revenues for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 was $0.61 million compared to $0.50 million for the same period in 2006. Gross margin for the quarter ended September 30, 2007 was at 58% as compared to 68% for the same period of 2006. The increase in revenues and slight decrease in gross margin for the third quarter of 2007 as compared to the same period of 2006 was mainly due to an increase in sales quantity but at a slightly lower price as a result of government price control measures.

Subsequent to the quarter end, the Company signed an agreement on November 5, 2007 with an non-affiliated third party to sell the assets of the biotech operations. According to the agreement, the buyer will pay the Company a total of US$ 2.08 million (or RMB 15.6 million) in three installments within six months after the completion of the transaction, which is expected to be completed during the fourth quarter of 2007, in exchange for certain fixed assets and certain net working capital of the biotech business. Management reviewed the carrying value of the discontinued operations and recognized a non-cash impairment charge of $1.68 million for intangible assets and $0.97 million for goodwill during the quarter and nine-month period ended September 30, 2007. These intangible assets and goodwill in the Biotech division were created as a result of the reverse take-over of Dragon Pharmaceutical Inc. by Oriental Wave Holdings Limited on January 12, 2005. Such a write-down of the Biotech division's intangible assets and goodwill has no cash impact to the Company's financial results but created a loss from discontinued operations of $ (2.57) million and $ (2.42) million for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007. Excluding the impact of the $2.64 million non-cash write-down of the intangible assets and goodwill in the discontinued operations, the Biotech division would have been profitable for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2007 with $0.07 million and $0.22 million respectively.

Comparatively, for the three-month and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2006, the Company has an after-tax income from discontinued operations of $3.97 million and $4.63 million respectively which was mainly attributed to the gain from sales of part of the Pharma division in 2006.

Net Income/(Loss)

The Company had a net loss of ($1.61) million, out of which continuing operations generated a net income of $0.97 million (net of a non-cash stock based compensation expense of $0.02 million) and discontinuing operations generated a net loss of ($2.57) million, for the quarter ended September 30, 2007. Comparatively, the Company had a net profit of $2.99 million for the same period in 2006 which included a net loss of ($0.97) million from continuing operations (net of a non-cash stock based compensation expense of $0.27 million) and a $3.97 million after-tax income from discontinued operations.

For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2007, Dragon has a net loss of ($0.30) million which included $ 2.12 million net income from continuing operations (net of a non-cash stock based compensation expense of $1.04 million) and ($2.42) million net loss from discontinued operations, out of which was a non-cash write down of $2.64 million of intangible assets and goodwill. Comparatively, the Company had a net income of $3.77 million for the same period of 2006 which included ($0.86) million net loss from continuing operations (net of a non-cash stock based compensation expense of $0.27 million) and an after-tax income from discontinued operations of $4.63 million.

Comprehensive Income/(Loss)

Including a currency translation income of $0.60 million, the Company had a comprehensive loss of ($1.01) million for the third quarter of 2007. Comparatively, the Company had a comprehensive income of $3.40 million for the same period of 2006 which included a currency translation income of $ 0.40 million.

Including a currency translation income of $1.56 million, the Company had a comprehensive income of $1.25 million for the third quarter of 2007. Comparatively, the Company had a comprehensive income of $4.42 million for the same period of 2006 which included a currency translation income of $ 0.65 million.

The foreign currency translation income results from translation of the financial statements expressed in RMB to United States Dollar. The increase reflects the appreciation of the RMB relative to the United States dollar.

Net Income / (Loss) per Share from Continuing Operations

Company's net income per share has been computed by dividing the net income for the period by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the same period. The weighted average number of shares outstanding was 66,374,507 and 64,056,313 for the quarter and nine-month ended September 30, 2007 and 62,878,004 for both the quarter and nine-month ended September 30, 2006. The outstanding common stock options have no significant dilutive effect on the weighted average number of shares outstanding.

Dividends of the PRC subsidiary may only be distributed after allowance has been made for i) recovery of losses, if any; ii) appropriations to the reserve fund; iii) appropriations to the staff welfare fund; and iv) appropriations to an enterprise expansion fund if determined by the Board of Directors. Under current regulation, appropriations to the reserve fund should be at least 10% of the after tax net income determined in accordance with the PRC GAAP until the reserve is equal to 50% of PRC subsidiary's registered capital; appropriations to the staff welfare fund are at a percentage, as determined by the Board of Directors, of the after tax net income determined in accordance with the PRC GAAP; appropriations to the enterprise expansion fund are made at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The reserve fund and enterprise expansion fund are recorded as part of stockholders' equity but are not available for distribution to shareholders other than in liquidation; while the staff welfare fund is recorded as a liability and is not for distribution to shareholders. As at September 30, 2007, the Company's reserve fund is $2.69 million, 11.14% of the Company's registered capital.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of September 30, 2007, the Company had current liabilities of $34.42 million and current assets of $33.77 million, including cash and cash equivalents of $3.18 million, and accounts receivable of $6.48 million. The working capital deficiency is mainly due to the fact that some long-term accounts payable and bank loans will become due within a year and therefore transferred from long-term liabilities to short-term liabilities.

The Company has developed and is implementing a plan to decrease its debt and increase its working capital which will allow the Company to continue operations. To meet these objectives, the Company plans to seek additional equity through the conversion of some of its liabilities and expects to raise funds through private placements in order to support existing operations and expand the range and scope of its business. The Company has also significantly increased production levels to generate additional cash flow under contracted supply agreements. In addition, the Company intends to continue to renegotiate and extend loans, as required, when they become due, as has been done in the past. There is no assurance that such additional funds will be available for the Company on acceptable terms, if at all, or that the Company will be able to negotiate and extend the loans. If adequate funds are not available or not available on acceptable terms or the Company is unable to negotiate or extend its loans, the Company may be required to scale back or abandon some activities. Management believes that actions presently taken provide the opportunity for the Company to continue as a going concern. However, the Company's ability to achieve these objectives cannot be determined at this time. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from this uncertainty. (See below for private placement during the quarter ended September 30, 2007.)

As of September 30, 2007, the Company had outstanding short-term loans (less than one year term) and note payable totaling $12.38 million. The Company believes that it will be successful in the renegotiating loans due based on the assumption that the Company has enhanced its ability to generate additional cash flow from its operation since the loans were originally entered into, even though there is no assurance of renewing the loans.

Long-term Liabilities:

As of September 30, 2007, the Company had long-term liabilities of $22.59 million as follows:

During the third quarter ended September 30, 2007, the Company financed its operations and increased production level at its Chemical Division through operating revenues, and long-term loans. The Company intends to seek additional funding through equity financing to improve its financial position. During the quarter ended September 30, 2007, the Company issued 3,496,503 shares of restricted common stock upon conversion of US$1,500,000 non-interest bearing demand loans at US$0.429 per share.
