Item 5.01 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 15, 2007, Tidelands Oil & Gas Corporation (the “Company”) entered into a new employment agreement with James B. Smith in his capacities as Chief Executive Officer and President. Mr. Smith was appointed Chief Executive Officer and President in December 2006. The employment agreement replaces Mr. Smith’s previous employment agreement, which was entered into when Mr. Smith was appointed Chief Financial Officer in October 2004.

Mr. Smith’s employment agreement has a term of five (5) years, with an annual cash salary of $300,000. In addition, Mr. Smith is entitled to annual stock grants with a fair market value of $1 million. Therefore, the number of shares granted to Mr. Smith each year will vary based on the Company’s stock price. Mr. Smith may also be awarded additional equity grants or cash bonuses, in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors. Mr. Smith is entitled to all employee benefits generally provided by the Company to employees. He is also entitled to four weeks paid vacation, an annual automobile allowance of $12,000, supplemental disability insurance and a life insurance policy payable to his heirs in the amount of $2 million. Mr. Smith continues to serve as Chief Financial Officer, but does not receive any additional compensation specifically for such duties. If the Company terminates Mr. Smith’s employment without cause, as defined in the employment agreement, Mr. Smith is entitled to continue to receive payment of his cash and annual equity compensation for the remainder of the five year term.

The foregoing summary of the employment agreement with Mr. Smith is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full and complete terms of the employment agreement with Mr. Smith, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.
