Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On February 20, 2013, Michael Wilhelm resigned from his position as Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of SmartHeat, Inc., a Nevada corporation (the “Company”). Mr. Wilhelm stated that he was resigning due to being “named personally in a groundless shareholder suit, where the alleged (unproven) actions in question are alleged to have taken place long before my involvement with the company.” Mr. Wilhelm was added as a defendant to the class action lawsuit filed against the Company, its directors, and certain of its former officers, originally captioned Steven Leshinsky v. James Wang, et. al, in an amended complaint filed by the Rosen Law Firm on January 28, 2013 (the “Amended Complaint”).

Oliver Bialowons, President of the Company, also named as a defendant in the Amended Complaint, stated that he was disconcerted by Mr. Wilhelm’s resignation as result of what Mr. Bialowons believed were unfair and spurious claims. Mr. Bialowons believes Mr. Wilhelm, the Company and himself, have not committed any wrongdoing and noted that Mr. Wilhelm was not an executive officer of the Company during the alleged class period. Mr. Bialowons further stated that Mr. Wilhelm was a diligent and extremely competent Chief Financial Officer whose intelligence and acumen were a valuable addition to the Company. Mr. Bialowons believes the search for a Chief Financial Officer to replace Mr. Wilhelm will likely be difficult, because the Rosen Law Firm appears intent on including any officer of the Company in the class action. The difficulty in retaining a suitable Chief Financial Officer, who is qualified to sign the requisite Sarbanes-Oxley certifications, due to the legal harassment of the Company’s officers by the plaintiffs and lawyers in the class action, may delay the Company’s 2012 Annual Report on Form 10K required to be filed by April 1, 2013.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits

(d) Exhibits

None.
