Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

In connection with meetings to be held from time to time by the chief executive officer and other members of the senior management team of Manitex International, Inc. (the Company) with investors, stockholders, analysts and others in the investment community, the Company's management team intends to present the presentation slides furnished herewith as Exhibit 99.1, in whole or in part and with immaterial modifications. These slides are also posted on the Company's website at www.manitexinternational.com.

The information contained in the presentation slides is summary information that is intended to be read and considered in the context of the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and other public announcements that the Company may make, by press release or otherwise, from time to time.

The statements in the presentation slides other than historical data and information constitute forward looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those stated or implied by such forward-looking statements. The potential risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the risk that the Company may not realize the expected benefits of owning the assets of Crane & Machinery, Inc. and Schaeff Lift Truck Inc.; difficulties in implementing new systems, integrating acquired businesses, managing anticipated growth, and responding to technological change; the risk that, in the event of extreme market events, such as the global credit crisis, the Company could incur substantial risk of loss due to market volatility; the Company's ability to obtain additional debt or equity financing when needed; the cyclical nature of the markets the Company operates in; increases in interest rates; government spending, fluctuations in the construction industry, and capital expenditures in the oil and gas industry; the performance of the Company's competitors; shortages in supplies and raw materials; the Company's level of indebtedness and ability to meet financial covenants required by its debt agreements; the performance of the Company's computer systems; the Company's ability to protect its trademarks; product liability claims, intellectual property claims, and other liabilities; the volatility of the Company's stock price; the willingness of the Company's stockholders and directors to approve mergers, acquisitions, and other business transactions; and currency transaction (foreign exchange) risk and the risks related to forward currency contracts. More information about potential factors that could affect the Company's business and financial results is included in the Company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including in its annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 and subsequent quarterly reports on Form 10-Q.
