On November 16, 2009, Vonage Holdings Corp. (the Company) reached a definitive agreement to settle a previously disclosed investigation into certain of the Company's business practices by the attorneys general of certain states. The settlement will be filed for Court approval where such approval is required. There was no finding of any violation or wrongdoing by the Company, and the 32 states participating in the settlement have released the Company and its affiliates from the matters investigated.

In connection with the settlement, the Company agreed to pay an aggregate of $3.0 million to the participating states, including to cover legal and investigation fees incurred. To improve the customer experience and promote continued customer satisfaction, the Company also agreed to implement certain enhancements to its business practices, many of which the Company implemented prior to completion of the settlement. The Company also agreed to provide refunds for certain affected consumers. The Company previously made a reserve in the second quarter of 2009 for the amount of the payment to the states and the customer refunds, and in September 2009, placed into escrow the $3 million payment to the states.
