INTRODUCTION

Apache is including the Deferred Compensation Obligations in this registration statement because of the uncertainty as to whether the Deferred Compensation Obligations would or should be considered securities, or be subject to registration, under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). The inclusion of the Deferred Compensation Obligations in this registration statement is not an admission by Apache that the Deferred Compensation Obligations are securities or are subject to the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Item 4. Description of Securities

The Apache Corporation Non-Qualified Restorative Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan) is a non-qualified plan established by Apache to provide eligible employees with deferred retirement benefits and is filed as Exhibit 4.7 hereto. The following summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Plan.

Apache will provide eligible employees of Apache with the opportunity to elect to defer on a pretax basis: (1) from 8% up to 50% of eligible compensation other than bonuses (Eligible Compensation) in 1% increments and (2) from 8% up to 75% of eligible bonus (Eligible Bonus) (to the extent it is payable in cash) for the year in 1% increments. The Plan is expected to become effective on January 1, 2012. Subject to certain conditions, in general, Apache may make discretionary matching contributions that match a participating employee's contributions to the Plan once a participating employee's contributions to the Apache 401(k) Savings Plan reach the IRS contribution limit in a given year, up to the first 8% of eligible compensation. Additionally, Apache will also contribute to the Plan of an eligible employee if the employer's contribution under the Money Purchase Retirement Plan is reduced to comply with IRS contribution limits, up to 6% of the amount by which the employer's contribution is reduced. A participating employee's own contributions are immediately vested in the Plan, as well as earnings on those contributions. A participating employee will vest in employer contributions according to a schedule, with employer contributions and any associated earnings vesting fully upon five or more years of service with Apache, in addition to other vesting scenarios.

The Apache Corporation Retirement Plan Advisory Committee (the Committee) reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time.

The amount of compensation to be deferred by each participating employee (the Account) will be determined in accordance with the Plan based on elections by the participating employee, with a maximum deferral of up to 50% of Eligible Compensation and up to 75% of Eligible Bonus. Each Account and any vested employer contributions by Apache generally will be payable upon such participating employee's termination of employment or death, unless deferred by the participating employee. Amounts in the Account will be credited with investment earnings or losses as if the participating employee's account was invested in one or more alternatives, to be selected by the Committee. From time to time as determined by the Committee, a participating employee may determine the portion of his Account that is to be deemed invested in each alternative. Each Account is generally payable in cash, following a six month waiting period after termination of employment, in the form of a lump-sum distribution or in installments, at the election of the participating employee.

The Deferred Compensation Obligations, including the employer contributions, will be unsecured general obligations of Apache to pay the compensation deferred in accordance with the terms of the Plan, along with any interest deemed to accrue on the deferrals, and will rank equally with other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of Apache from time to time outstanding. Apache has established a trust whose assets can be used to pay Deferred Compensation Obligations, but there is no requirement that this trust remains funded with enough assets to pay all benefits. If Apache becomes insolvent or is in bankruptcy proceedings, Apache's general creditors will have access to the funds in the trust, and participating employees will be considered general creditors with respect to Plan benefits.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Apache's Restated Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that, to the full extent permitted under the Delaware General Corporation Law, Apache's directors shall not be personally liable for monetary damages. Apache's Bylaws provide that Apache shall indemnify its officers, directors, employees and agents.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), inter alia, authorizes a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, because such person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reason to believe his conduct was unlawful. Similar indemnity is authorized for such persons against expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and reasonably incurred in defense or settlement of any such pending, completed or threatened action or suit by or in the right of the corporation if such person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and provided further that, unless a court of competent jurisdiction otherwise provides, such person shall not have been adjudged liable to the corporation. Any such indemnification may be made only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination by the stockholders or disinterested directors that indemnification is proper because the indemnitee has met the applicable standard of conduct.

Section 145 of the DGCL further authorizes a corporation to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would otherwise have the power to indemnify him. Apache maintains policies insuring the officers and directors of Apache and its subsidiaries against specified liabilities for actions taken in their capacities as officers and directors, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

Article VII of Apache's Bylaws provides, in substance, that directors, officers, employees and agents of Apache shall be indemnified to the extent permitted by Section 145 of the DGCL. Additionally, Article Seventeen of Apache's Restated Certificate of Incorporation eliminates in specified circumstances the monetary liability of directors of Apache for a breach of their fiduciary duty as directors. These provisions do not eliminate the liability of a director:

for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Apache or its stockholders;

for acts or omissions by the director not in good faith;

for acts or omissions by a director involving intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law;

under Section 174 of the DGCL, which relates to the declaration of dividends and purchase or redemption of shares in violation of the DGCL; and for transactions from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof

(h) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
