Variable Compensation Program

On January 27, 2012, the Company's Board of Directors unanimously approved, upon the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, a 2012 variable compensation program (2012 VCP) for the Company's executives. The 2012 VCP is a short-term incentive compensation program that is designed to provide an opportunity for the Company's executives to earn performance-based compensation that is conditioned upon the Company meeting during 2012 certain metrics tied to revenue growth, growth in new first year orders (NFYO), growth in non-GAAP adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (Adjusted EBITDA) and growth in non-GAAP adjusted earnings per share (Adjusted EPS). The 2012 VCP establishes award levels that are based on the Company meeting 100 percent, 110 percent and 120 percent of the target for each metric. The independent Directors collectively may, in their discretion, adjust the awards downward to reflect an individual executive's performance.
