Subject: Update on RSC

We've had several positive developments in the RSC merger recently, and I want to keep everyone up-to-date.

On the legal front, you may have seen the announcement that we received a no-action letter from the Canadian Competition Bureau. This is another important step on the path to closing the deal. Things are moving forward, and we've narrowed our expected timeframe for the closing to the second quarter. We have also announced today that we are initiating steps to finance the transaction.

The integration process is also becoming more concrete. Integration leaders for both RSC and United Rentals are building the plan that will weave our two companies together. Your emails to integration@ur.com are being taken into account, so please continue to use this channel.

Employee feedback is also helping us expand the FAQs. The FAQs are intended to be a work in progress - if we see the same question raised by several employees, or a new issue comes up, it gets added to the document. The most recent set of FAQs can be downloaded from the Intranet at <http://intranet.ur.com/index.php/answer> or your manager can give you a hardcopy.

I want to thank all of our employees for reinforcing the positive message of this merger. The reaction from our investors and key customers has been almost universally supportive. And we've created a lot of buzz in the industry: you may have seen the coverage in RER, Rental Management and other trade magazines, including a front cover feature in the current issue of International Rental News.

An important part of our rationale for the RSC deal is that we believe equipment rental is entering an exciting new era of growth. We're doing our part to get the rental message out through the media; here's a recent example on Fox Business:

We'll be back in touch soon. In the meantime, please remain focused on our customers and our commitment to become an even safer United Rentals.

Michael
