	We expect that delivery of the notes will be made to investors on or about the closing date specified on the cover page of the prospectus supplement, which will be the fourth business day following the date of the prospectus supplement (such settlement being referred to as T+4 ). Under Rule 15c6-1 under the Exchange Act, trades in the secondary market are required to settle in three business days, unless the parties to any such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade notes prior to the delivery of the notes may be required, by virtue of the fact that the notes initially settle in T+4, to specify an alternate settlement arrangement at the time of any such trade to prevent a failed settlement. Purchasers of the notes who wish to trade the notes prior to their date of delivery should consult their advisors.
