PART III. NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Alliance One International, Inc. (the Company) is in the process of investigating discrepancies in accounts receivable and inventory of Alliance One Tobacco (Kenya) Limited that were discovered in the course of implementing current global restructuring and cost-saving initiatives. As a result of the continued investigation, the Company is unable to file its Form 10-Q for the three months ended December 31, 2015 (the Form 10-Q) by the prescribed due date without unreasonable expense or delay. The Company is working toward filing the Form 10-Q as soon as practicable. At this time, the Company is unable to represent that the Form 10-Q will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following its prescribed due date.

Based on current information, the Company estimates the total amount of the discrepancies in Kenya to be just under $50 million at September 30, 2015, with approximately $3 million related to accounts receivable and approximately $47 million related primarily to inventory. Preliminary September 30, 2015 results, after giving effect to the discrepancies, estimate total accounts receivable and inventory at approximately $258 million and $965 million, respectively. The investigation is currently working to conclude a roll-back of the September 30, 2015 balance sheet to prior periods that will be utilized to help assess the magnitude of any effect on previously issued consolidated financial statements.

This Form 12b-25 contains forward-looking statements as defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on current expectations of future events and may be impacted by the current investigation noted above. Such statements include, but are not limited to, statements about future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. Such statements are based on the current beliefs and expectations of management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. If underlying assumptions prove inaccurate or known or unknown risks or uncertainties materialize, actual results may differ materially from those currently anticipated expected or projected. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements: changes in the timing of anticipated shipments, changes in anticipated geographic product sourcing, political instability in sourcing locations, currency and interest rate fluctuations, shifts in the global supply and demand position for tobacco products, resolution of tax matters, Alliance One's ability to satisfy the New York Stock Exchange's continued listing standards, and the impact of regulation and litigation on customers. Additional factors that could cause the Company's results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements can be found in its most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K and the other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) which are available at the SEC's Internet site (<http://www.sec.gov>).
