Westlake Chemical Corporation issued the following press release today:

Westlake Chemical Issues Open Letter to Axiall Corporation Shareholders

Urges Shareholders to Encourage Axiall to Enter into Discussions with Westlake Immediately

Westlake Has Not Been Contacted Regarding Building Products Sales

HOUSTON, March 7, 2016 Westlake Chemical Corporation (NYSE: WLK) today issued the following letter to Axiall Corporation's (NYSE: AXLL) (the Company) shareholders, regarding its proposal to acquire all outstanding shares of Axiall. In the letter, Westlake urges Axiall shareholders to encourage Axiall to enter into discussions with Westlake.

The full text of the letter is as follows:

March 7, 2016

Dear Fellow Axiall Shareholder,

Over the past few weeks, Westlake has spoken to Axiall shareholders who collectively own a majority of Axiall's stock. We have received a consistent message: shareholders would like Axiall to begin discussions with us regarding our proposal to acquire all outstanding shares of Axiall for $20.00 per share (comprised of $11.00 in cash and 0.1967 of a Westlake share, which represented a value of $9.00 based on Westlake's closing price on January 22, 2016, the last trading day before we made the proposal). Unfortunately, despite the fact that we know Axiall shareholders have reached out directly to the Company to urge them to engage with us, to date, Axiall has not done so.

Our $20 per share proposal represented a 108% premium to Axiall's share price of $9.60 at the time we made it and offers both certainty and upside potential through the combination of cash (at a premium to the unaffected stock price) and an ownership interest in a better integrated, more diversified, financially stronger and more profitable combined company. We look forward to discussing this compelling proposal with Axiall and are prepared to begin discussions at any time. We believe our proposal provides superior value to Axiall shareholders versus Axiall's announced plans and we know, based on our conversations, that you agree. Given these clear views, we urge all Axiall shareholders to reach out to Axiall's management and board to express your desire for Axiall to discuss our proposal with us.

INVESTORS SHOULD BE CONCERNED ABOUT RECENT ASSET SALES

We are concerned that Axiall's implementation of its standalone strategic plan could be destroying value rather than creating it. Despite Westlake being one of a few potential buyers of the building products businesses, and our clearly expressed interest in these businesses, we have not been asked to participate in the divestiture of either the assets that were recently sold or the core building products business that is currently being marketed. We believe that it would be in Axiall's and its shareholders' best interest to understand how we value these assets in our bid for the whole company.

Axiall shareholders of which we believe we are one of the top ten largest with approximately 4.4% of Axiall's outstanding stock have a right to know more about the impact of the recently announced sales. The sale of these businesses, which represented approximately $200 million of Axiall's annual revenue, resulted in only $41.1 million of proceeds. Axiall did not provide details on the price, structure, or residual contractual obligations associated with these asset sales and we are concerned about their impact, and that of the pending sale of the core building products business, on the Company's value.

AXIALL S PUBLIC COMMENTS ABOUT BEING OPEN TO ALL OPTIONS TO CREATE VALUE ARE INCONSISTENT WITH ITS ACTIONS

Axiall s recent actions do not align with management s public statements. On a recent earnings call, Axiall s Chief Executive Officer, Tim Mann, said the Company is keenly focused on creating shareholder value and is open to all options to create long-term shareholder value. In our view it is inconsistent to make these claims while not engaging with us on our proposal and not considering the potential negative impact of Axiall s past and planned asset sales on the value of the entire company.

NOMINATION OF AN ALTERNATIVE BOARD SLATE PROVIDES AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AXIALL SHAREHOLDERS TO ENSURE THEIR CONCERNS AND OPINIONS ARE BEING CONSIDERED

Given Axiall s lack of engagement to date, on February 16, 2016, Westlake nominated ten independent, experienced and highly-qualified directors who are committed to acting in the best interests of all Axiall shareholders. Each of our nominees has a proven track record and the experience and credentials to ensure that Axiall shareholders are well served by their Board.

The Annual Meeting represents a key opportunity for shareholders to ensure that their concerns and opinions are being considered. The Company has not yet indicated when this significant event will occur. We are concerned, as all Axiall shareholders should be, that the Company s actions may be intended to delay the Annual Meeting, and therefore the opportunity for shareholders to voice their concerns in a formal manner.

OUR STRATEGICALLY COMPELLING PROPOSAL ENHANCES AXIALL SHAREHOLDER VALUE AND IS SUPERIOR TO A STANDALONE STRATEGY

Our proposal offers a cash component at an immediate premium to Axiall s unaffected stock price and a substantial share component in the combined company, providing significant upside potential to Axiall shareholders. We remain confident that our proposal provides superior value to a standalone strategic plan and represents the best way to maximize shareholder value. By combining Axiall with Westlake, we will create an integrated business that can capture value throughout the commodity cycle with increased scale and improved cost structure. The combined business will have greater product and geographic diversity and a strong and flexible balance sheet that can capitalize on future opportunities and grow the combined business. The significant stock component of our proposal gives Axiall shareholders the opportunity to participate in these benefits.

THE TIME TO ACT IS NOW LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD

By working together, the management of both companies can explore in depth opportunities to reduce waste and create value. We urge Axiall shareholders to let your management know that they should start discussions with Westlake without further delay. We look forward to beginning discussions with Axiall management as soon as possible to lock in the value of our proposal.

Sincerely,

Albert Chao

President and CEO
