~ Compelling merger edging closer to completion ~

May 2, 2016

VANCOUVER, BC Westport Innovations Inc. (TSX: WPT / Nasdaq: WPRT) (Westport), engineering the world's most advanced natural gas engines and vehicles, reported today that Fuel Systems Solutions, Inc. (Nasdaq: FSYS) (Fuel Systems) has scheduled its Special Meeting of Stockholders to vote on the proposed business combination between Westport and Fuel Systems (the Merger) for May 31, 2016. The Fuel Systems Board of Directors is recommending that Fuel Systems stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the amended merger agreement, which is necessary to complete the Merger.

The approval is one of the final steps to completing this transaction and follows the Special Meeting of Westport Shareholders, at which 95% of votes cast were in favour of the resolution relating to the Merger.

Westport's leadership team brings a thorough and strategic plan to achieve synergies and drive growth. Our position is clear: we believe the Merger will provide long-term value to shareholders of Westport and Fuel Systems along with benefits for customers, business partners and employees. The combined company will bring together a complementary mix of products, technology and R&D; strong customer relationships; and talented employee bases, representing a compelling and unique opportunity to create one of the world's premier fuel, vehicle and engine companies, says David Demers, CEO of Westport.

Our shareholders have spoken and clearly believe, as do we, that this merger will create a stronger company with greater scale, global reach and substantial synergies. We look forward to working together as one company as we await the results of Fuel Systems' stockholder meeting.

Benefits of the Merger to Shareholders of both companies and Board Recommendations

The Westport Board of Directors believes that the Merger will provide the shareholders of both companies with a number of significant strategic and financial benefits, including:

Scale The combined company is expected to deliver scale and expertise to compete effectively, grow, and deliver strong shareholder returns.

Strength The combined company is expected to benefit from a strengthened balance sheet and enhanced liquidity, and to be positioned for continued investment and long-term financial stability. On a pro forma basis, the combined company had approximately $89 million in cash and short-term investments as of December 31, 2015.

Global reach The combined company will have a broad global reach enabling it to best serve customers and distributors. It will offer state-of-the-art facilities on five continents and a distribution network serving 70 countries, including the world's largest and fastest-growing markets. It will also bring together strong product brands including: Emer, Prins, OMVL, BRC, IMPCO, Zavoli and more.

Enhanced R&D and product development The Merger will combine Westport's expertise in medium- and heavy-duty, and high horsepower applications with Fuel Systems' core focus and development efforts in automotive and industrial applications. The combined technological expertise and product development will span from passenger cars to heavy-duty trucks to locomotives, and from marine applications to stationary power.

Deep OEM relationships The combined company is expected to have strong Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) relationships. Both companies have built long-standing relationships with OEMs such as General Motors Company, Ford Motor Company, Nissan Motor Company, Kia Motors Corporation, Subaru of Fuji Heavy Industries, Mitsubishi Group, Volkswagen, Fiat Chrysler Automobiles, Tata Motors, GAZ Group, PACCAR Inc., Weichai and Cummins.

About Westport
