Single Touch Appoints Jerry Hug as

Interim Chief Executive Officer

JERSEY CITY, NJ – August 27, 2014 –Single Touch Systems, Inc. (OTC BB: SITO), a technology-based mobile media solutions provider, today announced that Jerry Hug has been appointed as the company’s interim chief executive officer. Mr. Hug, previously Single Touch’s vice president of corporate development, replaces James Orsini, who departs on September 19, 2014 to pursue other opportunities.

“Having recently completed a successful acquisition and achieved revenue diversification, Single Touch is in the midst of a significant transition as we prepare for the next phase of growth,” said Betsy Beatty, lead director of the board of directors. “James has been instrumental in helping to orchestrate and execute this transformation, and we thank him for his contribution to the company. We are confident Jerry will continue the operational momentum we have been building and look forward to working with him.”

Simultaneously, the company announced that the executive change does not alter any aspect of the company’s outlook, as discussed on the Single Touch conference call on August 12, 2014.

Prior to his role as vice president of corporate development at Single Touch, Mr. Hug was executive vice president and chief strategy officer of Wireless Retail Inc., a $400 million wireless services company which helped pioneer the store-in-store model for selling mobile phones for wireless carriers in large national retailers. Mr. Hug served as interim CFO prior to Wireless Retail’s eventual sale to the Radio Shack Corporation. Prior to Wireless Retail, Mr. Hug was Managing Partner of Redwood Partners, an early-stage merchant bank and advisory firm that focused on providing early-stage capital and executive management to technology, media and telecom businesses.
