Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 16, 2006, Piper Jaffray Companies (the "Company") entered into an accelerated share repurchase agreement ("ASR Agreement") with Goldman, Sachs & Co. ("Goldman Sachs") to repurchase $100 million of the Company's common stock on an accelerated basis. The accelerated share repurchase is part of a previously announced repurchase program authorized by the Company's board of directors to repurchase up to $180 million of common shares over a period commencing with the closing of the Company's sale of its Private Client Services branch network to UBS Financial Services Inc. and ending on December 31, 2007. The branch network sale closed on August 11, 2006.

Under the ASR Agreement, the Company will repurchase a number of shares to be determined based on the volume weighted average share price of the Company's common stock during a specified period of time, subject to certain provisions that establish a minimum and maximum number of shares that may be repurchased by the Company. The minimum number of shares the Company will repurchase under the ASR Agreement will be determined by dividing $100 million by 110% of the volume weighted average share price of the Company's common stock over a period of up to approximately one month following execution of the ASR Agreement, and the maximum number of shares the Company will repurchase under the ASR Agreement will be determined by dividing $100 million by 91.5% of the volume weighted average share price over the same time period. Goldman Sachs will deliver the minimum number of shares to the Company within this time period, and the Company understands that Goldman Sachs will borrow the minimum number of shares to be delivered. Over a period that is expected to be approximately one to four months following this minimum share delivery, Goldman Sachs is expected to purchase sufficient shares in the open market to return to lenders. At the end of the one- to four-month period, the Company may receive additional shares from Goldman Sachs depending on the volume weighted average price of the shares during that period, and subject to the maximum share delivery provisions of the ASR Agreement.

The Company will prepay the $100 million to Goldman Sachs on August 21, 2006. Thereafter, the Company has no other obligations under the ASR Agreement to pay additional amounts or deliver shares to Goldman Sachs in connection with the accelerated share repurchase.

Shares repurchased under the ASR Agreement will be held in the Company's treasury and may be reissued for various corporate purposes.

From time to time the Company engages Goldman Sachs as its advisor for corporate development activities, including the sale of the Company's Private Client Services branch network to UBS Financial Services Inc. that closed on August 11, 2006. In addition, Goldman Sachs Asset Management, L.P. owns approximately 3.3% of the outstanding common shares of the Company.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.
