Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, as well as information included in oral statements or other written statements made or to be made by us, contain statements that constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based on our current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of our business, future plans and strategies, and other future conditions. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as "anticipate," "believe," "envision," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan "predict," "project," "target," "potential," "will," "would," "could," "should," "continue," "ongoing," "contemplate" and other expressions, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, statements we make regarding:

- ·future financial position;
- ·business strategy;
- ·budgets, projected costs and plans;
- ·future industry growth;
- ·financing sources;
- ·the impact of litigation, government inquiries and investigations; and
- ·all other statements regarding our intent, plans, beliefs or expectations or those of our directors or officers. We may not actually achieve the plans, intentions or expectations disclosed in our forward-looking statements, and you should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Actual results or events could differ materially from the plans, intentions and expectations disclosed in the forward-looking statements we make. Important factors that could cause actual results and events to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements include, among others, the following:
- ·our dependence on the operational and financial results of, and our relationships with, our franchisees and the success of their new and existing stores;
- ·risks relating to damage to our brand and reputation;
- ·our ability to successfully implement our growth strategy;
- ·technical, operational and regulatory risks related to our third-party providers' systems and our own information systems;
- ·our and our franchisees' ability to attract and retain members;
- ·the high level of competition in the health club industry generally;
- ·our reliance on a limited number of vendors, suppliers and other third-party service providers;
- ·the substantial indebtedness of our subsidiary, Planet Fitness Holdings, LLC;
- ·risks relating to our corporate structure and tax receivable agreements; and
- •the other factors identified under the heading "Risk Factors" in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The forward-looking statements in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q represent our views as of the date of this Report. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statements whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
