NEWS RELEASE ALICO, INC.

October 8, 2001

National Circuit
La Belle, Florida

The Company has been informed by the attorneys for Ben Hill Griffin, III that the judge in the pending litigation in state court in Polk County, Florida, between Ben Hill Griffin, III and the Four Sisters Protectorate has preliminarily ruled that the settlement agreement approved by the court on May 2, 2001 is enforceable. This ruling came in response to a challenge to the enforceability asserted by representatives of the family of Harriet Harris, one of the four sisters of Ben Hill Griffin, III. The Company is not a party to this litigation but understands that a large number of issues related to the mechanism and terms of the proposed distribution of certain of the assets of the Ben Hill Griffin, Jr. Revocable Intervivos Trust #1 to the families of the four sisters, including the Alico stock beneficially owned by the trust, remain to be worked out between representatives of the four sisters and Ben Hill Griffin III. These terms are expected to be set forth in a definitive separation agreement, which is still being negotiated by the parties to the litigation. The Company further understands that consummation of the settlement will be subject to various conditions which are still being discussed, but will include the requirement that the parties receive a ruling from the Internal Revenue Service that the transaction will be treated as a tax free split off for federal income tax purposes. No ruling request has yet been submitted. The Company has also been informed that the Harris family representatives have filed a new lawsuit in federal court in Leon County, Florida, seeking, among other things, to set aside the settlement. The Company cannot say when or if the settlement will be implemented but believes that the IRS ruling process alone could take 6 months from the date a ruling request is submitted.

During the course of the hearing in the state court proceeding, the Company understands that representatives of the Harris family introduced evidence about valuation methods used by the Four Sisters Protectorate's representatives and their advisers in arriving at their decision to support the settlement and the Harris family introduced evidence, which they asserted indicated that the valuations used by the representatives of the Four Sisters Protectorate were inflated. Neither Ben Hill Griffin, III, the Company, nor its representatives participated in the preparation of any of these evaluations. The Company is issuing this press release under Regulation FD because of questions it anticipates arising out of the introduction of testimony about the evaluations in the state court proceedings. The Company will make no further comment about the evaluations.

The state court litigation proceedings are being conducted in the Circuit Court of the 10th Judicial Circuit in and for Polk County, Florida, Case Number GC-G-0054 (Section 81) and are part of the public records of that county. The federal case is pending in the U.S. District Court, Northern District of Florida, Case Number 01-CV-432 in Leon County. The Company is not undertaking to keep the public informed about developments in either the state or federal litigation. Anyone interested should seek the information in the public records.
