STOCKHOLDERS ELECTION PROCESS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQ)

Definitions:

Closing Date is the date on which the merger will be completed.

Election Deadline is the last day on which Election Forms will be accepted by the Exchange Agent for a valid election. The Election Deadline is 5:00 p.m. New York time on the business day immediately preceding the Closing Date. Once we have determined when the merger will be completed, we will issue a press release announcing this date and the Election Deadline and will file the press release with the SEC and will post it on Washington Mutual's website at www.wamu.com and Dime's website at www.dime.com.

Election Form is the document Dime stockholders must complete in order to elect to receive Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both in exchange for their shares of Dime common stock. This document must be properly completed and returned to the Exchange Agent before the Election Deadline. The Election Form must be accompanied by the stockholder's Dime stock certificate(s), unless shares are held in street name (i.e., through a broker) or book-entry (i.e., through Dime's Dividend Reinvestment and Optional Cash Purchase Program (the "Dime DRIP")).

Exchange Agent is Mellon Investor Services LLC. As Exchange Agent, Mellon is responsible for handling the exchange of shares of Dime common stock for Washington Mutual common stock and/or cash. Mellon is also responsible for collecting the Election Forms and calculating the final distribution of Washington Mutual common stock and cash.

Measurement Period is the ten consecutive full trading days ending on the tenth business day before the Closing Date.

Merger Consideration is the Washington Mutual common stock, cash or combination of both to be received in exchange for shares of Dime common stock in connection with the merger.

SEC is the Securities and Exchange Commission.

1. What should I do with the Election Form?

In connection with the merger, you may elect to receive Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both in exchange for your shares of Dime common stock. To make your election, you must properly complete the Election Form and return it to the Exchange Agent, along with your Dime stock certificate(s), before the Election Deadline.

2. What is the deadline for completing the Election Form and submitting it to the Exchange Agent?

The Election Deadline is 5:00 p.m. New York time on the business day immediately preceding the Closing Date. If you wish to choose the type of merger consideration you would prefer to receive in exchange for your shares of Dime common stock, you must deliver a properly completed Election Form and your Dime stock certificate(s) to the Exchange Agent before the Election Deadline.

If you do not deliver your election materials to the Exchange Agent before the Election Deadline, you will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock in exchange for your Dime shares. (Please see Question 9 below.)

You are reminded that, even though you may choose to receive a specific type of consideration in the merger, what you receive in the merger may be different, depending on the elections made by other Dime stockholders.

3. When will the merger be completed?

The closing of the merger of Dime with Washington Mutual is currently expected to occur in January 2002, subject to receipt of required regulatory approvals. Once we have received these necessary approvals, we will issue a press release announcing the expected Closing Date for the merger. This release will be filed with the SEC.

For up to the minute information regarding the Election Deadline and the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock, please contact the Exchange Agent toll-free at 1-866-323-8162 or visit Washington Mutual's website at www.wamu.com or Dime's website at www.dime.com.

4. What will I receive as a result of the merger?

You will be offered the opportunity to elect to receive Merger Consideration in the form of Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both in exchange for your shares of Dime common stock. However, because the total amount of cash consideration to be paid in the merger is fixed at $1,428,809,000, regardless of your choice, you may actually receive a combination of cash and shares of Washington Mutual common stock for your Dime shares depending on the election made by other Dime stockholders. (Please see Question 9 below.) The Exchange Agent will calculate the Merger Consideration for each Dime stockholder after it receives all of the Election Forms and tallies the results.

5. How will the value of the Merger Consideration be calculated?

The formula to calculate the value of the Merger Consideration per share of Dime common stock is: the sum of (i) 0.7511 times the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock during the Measurement Period and (ii) $11.6245. The value of the Merger Consideration and the actual exchange ratio per Dime share on the Closing Date will vary from the initial assumed value of $40.84 per Dime share and implied exchange ratio of 1.05 shares of Washington Mutual common stock per Dime share if the average Washington Mutual common stock price during the Measurement Period is greater or less than $38.89, which is likely. Please refer to pages 35-37 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, dated October 12, 2001, as well as the Proxy Statement Supplement, dated October 24, 2001, both of which you received in connection with the Dime stockholders' meeting for examples of how the value of the Merger Consideration may change depending on fluctuations in the price of Washington Mutual's common stock.

You are reminded that the value of Washington Mutual common stock will vary both before and after the date that the merger is completed. Thus, the value of the Merger Consideration you will receive in the form of stock will fluctuate.

6. If I choose to exchange all of my Dime shares for Washington Mutual common stock, how many shares will I receive?

The number of shares of Washington Mutual common stock you will receive in exchange for your Dime shares (in the absence of any proration as described in Question 9 below) will be calculated by:

(1) multiplying the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock during the Measurement Period by 0.7511;

(2) adding $11.6245 to that result;

(3) dividing that sum by the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock calculated during the Measurement Period; and

(4) multiplying the result by the number of Dime shares you own.

If the conversion of your Dime stock into Washington Mutual common stock results in a fractional share (e.g., a half or a quarter of a share of stock), the Exchange Agent will issue you a check for the value of this fractional interest. Fractional shares will not be issued in the merger.

7. If I choose to exchange all of my Dime shares for cash, how much cash will I receive?

The amount of cash you will receive in exchange for your Dime shares (in the absence of any proration as described in Question 9 below) will be calculated by:

(1) multiplying the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock during the Measurement Period by 0.7511;

(2) adding $11.6245 to that result; and

(3) multiplying the result by the number of Dime shares you own.

8. If I choose to exchange all of my Dime shares for a combination of Washington Mutual common stock and cash, what will I receive?

The amount of Washington Mutual common stock and cash you will receive in exchange for your Dime shares (in the absence of any proration as described in Question 9 below) will be calculated in accordance with the formulas set forth in Questions 6 and 7 above.

9. Will I receive Merger Consideration in the form that I elect?

The terms of the merger provide that $1,428,809,000 of the total Merger Consideration will be paid in cash. After the Election Deadline, the Exchange Agent will calculate the election results, based on all valid elections received. If Dime stockholders' total elections for cash would require that an amount greater than $1,428,809,000 be payable as cash consideration, the amount of cash consideration that each stockholder electing cash will receive will be reduced on a pro rata basis. As a result of this proration, these stockholders will receive Washington Mutual common stock instead of cash for some of their Dime shares. Conversely, if Dime stockholders' total elections for cash would require that an amount less than $1,428,809,000 be payable as cash consideration, the amount of Washington Mutual common stock that each stockholder electing stock will receive will be reduced on a pro rata basis, and these stockholders will receive cash instead of Washington Mutual common stock for some of their Dime shares.

Edgar Filing: WASHINGTON MUTUAL INC - Form 424B3

As a result, regardless of your choice, you may actually receive a combination of cash and shares of Washington Mutual common stock for your Dime shares depending on the elections made by other Dime stockholders.

10. Do I have to send in my Dime stock certificate(s)?

Yes. Your Dime stock certificate(s) must be returned with the Election Form.

11. What if I cannot locate my Dime stock certificate(s)?

If you cannot locate your Dime stock certificate(s), please contact Dime's stock transfer agent, Equiserve, toll-free at 1-800-730-4001, as soon as possible to request replacement instructions. Please note that the replacement process can take as long as six weeks to complete and Equiserve may charge you a fee for posting a bond for the lost certificate.

If the Exchange Agent does not receive your replacement certificate(s) by the Election Deadline, you will be treated as if you missed the Election Deadline and will be deemed to have elected to receive

Washington Mutual common stock in the merger in exchange for your Dime shares. (Please see Question 14 below.)

Immediately following the Closing Date, all Dime stockholder records will be transferred to Washington Mutual's stock transfer agent, Mellon Investor Services LLC. After the Closing Date, please contact Mellon toll-free at 1-866-323-8162 with any questions regarding replacement of your Dime stock certificates.

12. What if my Dime stock certificate(s) are not readily available?

If your Dime stock certificate(s) are not readily available, you may make an election by completing the Election Form and having a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery properly completed and duly executed by a member of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States. In order for your election to be valid, the stock certificates, the delivery of which is thereby guaranteed, must be received by Mellon no later than 5:00 p.m. New York time, on the third business day after the Election Deadline.

13. If I hold Anchor Bancorp Inc., North American Mortgage Company, Lakeview Financial Corp. or Westwood Financial Corporation stock certificate(s), which I have not yet exchanged for Dime certificate(s), how do I elect to receive consideration in the merger?

In order to make an election for Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both, you must first exchange your Anchor Bancorp Inc., North American Mortgage Company, Lakeview Financial Corp. or Westwood Financial Corporation stock certificate(s) for Dime stock certificates. Please contact Dime's stock transfer agent, Equiserve, toll-free at 1-800-730-4001 as soon as possible to request replacement instructions.

If the Exchange Agent does not receive your replacement certificate(s) by the Election Deadline, you will be treated as if you missed the Election Deadline and will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock in the merger in exchange for your shares. (Please see Question 14 below.)

Edgar Filing: WASHINGTON MUTUAL INC - Form 424B3

14. What happens if I miss the Election Deadline or my Election Form is not properly completed?

If your Election Form and Dime stock certificate(s) are not received by the Exchange Agent before the Election Deadline, or your Election Form is not properly completed, you will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock in exchange for your Dime shares. (Please see Question 9 above.)

Because the Election Deadline is absolute, you may wish to consider sending your Election Form and Dime stock certificate(s) by express delivery or registered mail. We recommend that you send the materials via return-receipt, registered mail, insure the contents for two percent of the value of the exchange to cover the lost certificate(s) bond, and retain the Post Office (or delivery service) receipt verifying the time and date of delivery.

15. If the Exchange Agent does not receive my Election Form and Dime stock certificate(s) before the Election Deadline, how will I exchange my Dime shares for Washington Mutual common stock?

If you do not properly complete and submit an Election Form to the Exchange Agent before the Election Deadline, the Exchange Agent will mail you a Letter of Transmittal approximately two weeks following the Closing Date with instructions on how to complete the Letter of Transmittal and return it to the Exchange Agent with your Dime stock certificate(s). If your properly completed Election Form is received by the Exchange Agent after the Election Deadline, you will not receive a Letter of Transmittal. However, you will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock in exchange for your shares of Dime common stock, regardless of any election you may actually have made. (Please see Question 9 above.)

16. What are the federal income tax effects of the merger?

You will not recognize gain or loss if you exchange your Dime shares solely for Washington Mutual common stock. If you receive cash in exchange for any of your shares of Dime common stock, you will generally recognize gain, but not loss, with respect to the excess of the cash and the value of the Washington Mutual common stock you receive over your basis in the Dime common stock exchanged therefor, but in any case not in excess of the amount of cash received by you in the merger. Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your tax advisors to determine the tax effect to you of receiving Washington Mutual shares or cash, including the application and effect of foreign, state, local, or other tax laws. Neither Washington Mutual, nor Dime, nor the Exchange Agent can provide you with tax advice.

17. I have been a participant in the Dime DRIP. How will the merger affect me?

The Dime DRIP was suspended on September 4, 2001. After that date, no further dividends were paid to the Dime DRIP and no optional cash purchases were accepted. However, any and all shares accumulated in your Dime DRIP account remain on account as book-entry shares. Section 1 - "About You and Your Shares" of your Election Form indicates the number of shares you own in certificate form and the number of book-entry shares you own in the Dime DRIP. Whether you receive Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both, you will receive Merger Consideration based on the total number of Dime shares you own. Any shares of Washington Mutual common stock you receive in the merger will be issued in certificated form.

18. All of my Dime shares are in the Dime DRIP and I hold no certificates. Do I still have to make an election and return the Election Form?

Yes. If you wish to make an election for shares of Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both for the Dime shares you hold in the Dime DRIP, you must complete and return the Election Form prior to the Election Deadline. If you do not return the Election Form, you will be deemed to have elected only Washington Mutual common stock.

19. Does Washington Mutual have a dividend reinvestment program and if so, can my Dime shares be automatically enrolled into Washington Mutual's program?

Washington Mutual has a comprehensive Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan (the "WM DRIP") that is similar, but not identical, to Dime's. You may enroll in the WM DRIP if and when your Dime shares have been exchanged into Washington Mutual shares.

To review the WM DRIP and/or request enrollment forms, please contact Mellon Investor Services LLC, the Plan Administrator for the WM DRIP, toll-free at 1-800-234-5835 and request a brochure or you may view the WM DRIP online at www.melloninvestor.com.

20. What is Washington Mutual's stock symbol?

Washington Mutual common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "WM."

21. Where can I find more information about Washington Mutual?

Please visit Washington Mutual's website at www.wamu.com for an overview of the company's history, products, services, financial performance and current and past stock prices. You may also call Washington Mutual's Investor Relations information line at 206-461-8856 to request financial publications. Please leave a message clearly stating your name, full address and telephone number and the requested information will be mailed to you within two weeks.

December 5, 2001

To Our Clients:

Washington Mutual, Inc. and Dime Bancorp, Inc. have agreed to merge. Stockholders of Dime approved the merger at their Special Meeting on November 27, 2001. The merger is currently expected to close in January 2002, subject to receipt of regulatory approval.

The value of the merger consideration per share of Dime common stock is equal to the sum of 0.7511 times the average of the closing stock prices for Washington Mutual's common stock during the ten consecutive full trading days ending on the tenth business day before the completion of the merger (the "Measurement Period") and $11.6245. Under the terms of the merger agreement, which are explained more fully in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated October 12, 2001, as supplemented, Dime stockholders may elect to exchange their Dime shares for shares of Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination of both. However, because the total amount of cash consideration payable in the merger is fixed at $1,428,809,000, regardless of your choice, you may actually receive a combination of cash and shares of Washington Mutual common stock for your Dime shares depending on the election made by other Dime stockholders. Accordingly, the companies cannot guarantee that you will receive your election choice.

You may make your election only by completing and delivering the enclosed Election Instructions to us. If you do not complete and deliver valid Election Instructions, you will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock.

YOUR ELECTION OPTIONS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

1. Exchange all of your Dime shares for shares of Washington Mutual common stock.

You may elect to receive shares of Washington Mutual common stock in exchange for all of your Dime shares. The number of shares of Washington Mutual common stock you will receive in exchange for your Dime shares (assuming there is no proration as described below) will be calculated by:

- (1) multiplying the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock during the Measurement Period by 0.7511;
- (2) adding $11.6245 to that result;
- (3) dividing that sum by the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock calculated during the Measurement Period; and
- (4) multiplying the result by the number of Dime shares you own.

Please note that Washington Mutual will not issue fractional shares in the merger. Instead, Washington Mutual will pay cash for any fractional shares issued based on the average of the closing stock prices of Washington Mutual common stock during the ten days preceding the Closing Date.

2. Exchange all of your Dime shares for cash.

You may elect to receive cash in exchange for all of your Dime shares. The amount of cash you will receive in exchange for your Dime shares (assuming there is no proration as described below) will be determined by:

- (1) multiplying the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock calculated during the Measurement Period by 0.7511;
- (2) adding $11.6245 to that result; and
- (3) multiplying the result by the number of Dime shares you own.

3. Exchange a portion of your Dime shares for Washington Mutual shares and the balance for cash.

You may elect to exchange a portion of your Dime shares for Washington Mutual shares and the balance for cash. The number of shares of Washington Mutual common stock, and the amount of cash, you will receive in exchange for your Dime shares (assuming there is no proration as described below) will be determined in accordance with options 1 and 2 above.

Proration. If Dime stockholders' total elections for cash exceed $1,428,809,000, cash will be paid on a pro-rata basis. In this case, if you elected to receive cash, you will not receive the amount of cash you elected in the merger, but will instead receive a portion of your payment in cash and the remainder of your consideration in Washington Mutual common stock. Conversely, if Dime stockholders' total elections for cash are for less than $1,428,809,000, the amount of Washington Mutual common stock paid will be reduced on a pro-rata basis. In this case, if you elected to receive shares of Washington Mutual common stock, you will not receive the amount of Washington Mutual common stock you elected in the merger, but will instead receive a portion of your payment in Washington Mutual common stock and the remainder of your consideration in cash.

Because we are the holder of record for your shares, we can only make an election for your Dime shares in accordance with your instructions. Please instruct us as to what election we should make regarding the exchange of your shares. If you do not instruct us to make an election, we will not make an election for you, and you will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock in exchange for your Dime shares.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING:

The election deadline will be at 5:00 p.m. New York time on the business day immediately preceding the completion of the merger. Although the election deadline has not been determined, the companies anticipate the merger will be completed within 90 days, but no sooner than 20 business days, of the mailing of election materials to Dime stockholders. We encourage you to advise us of your instructions promptly. You should note that the merger consideration and, therefore, the amount of cash or number of Washington Mutual shares that you will receive for each Dime share (subject to proration and other limitations) will be calculated based on the average of the closing prices of Washington Mutual common stock during the Measurement Period. As a result, the merger consideration will not be known until after completion of the Measurement Period. Once the merger consideration is determined, Dime and Washington Mutual will issue a press release announcing the value of the merger consideration. You may obtain this information on the SEC website at www.sec.gov, on the Washington Mutual website at www.wamu.com, on the Dime website at www.dime.com, and by calling Mellon toll-free at 1-866-323-8162.

To revoke or change your election, you must notify us as soon as possible so that we can appropriately notify Mellon prior to the Election Deadline.

If you miss the Election Deadline and we are unable to comply with the election procedures, you will be deemed to have elected to receive all Washington Mutual common stock.

This election applies only to those shares of Dime that we hold beneficially for you. If you have Dime shares in certificated form, you will receive an Election Form and additional election materials directly from Washington Mutual. Please follow the instructions enclosed with that Election Form in order to make a valid election with respect to those shares.

Because individual circumstances may differ, you should consult your tax advisors to determine the tax effect to you of receiving Washington Mutual shares or cash, including the application and effect of foreign, state, local, or other tax laws.

Please provide your signed instructions below:

To: Brokers, Dealers, Commercial Banks
Trust Companies, and Other Nominees:

Washington Mutual, Inc. and Dime Bancorp, Inc. have agreed to merge. Stockholders of Dime approved the merger of the two companies at the Special Meeting of Stockholders on November 27, 2001. The merger is currently expected to close in January 2002, subject to receipt of regulatory approval.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, which are explained more fully in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus dated October 12, 2001, as supplemented, Dime stockholders may elect to exchange their Dime shares for Washington Mutual common stock, cash or a combination thereof. Please note that, because the total amount of cash consideration payable in the merger is fixed at $1,428,809,000, Dime stockholders may actually receive, regardless of their election, a combination of cash and shares of Washington Mutual common stock for their Dime shares depending on the election made by other Dime stockholders. Dime stockholders who hold shares through you or your nominee may make an election only by instructing you to complete and deliver the enclosed Election Form. If they do not instruct you to complete and deliver a valid Election Form, they will be deemed to have elected to receive Washington Mutual common stock.

For your information and for forwarding to your clients for whom you hold shares registered in your name or in the name of your nominee, we are enclosing the following documents:

- 1) an Election Form that includes a Substitute Form W-9 (copies of the Election Form may be used);

- 3) a proposed client letter that you may wish to use to obtain instructions from your clients; and
- 4) Frequently Asked Questions regarding the merger that you may wish to distribute to your clients.

YOUR PROMPT ACTION IS REQUIRED. PLEASE CONTACT YOUR CLIENTS AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

For an election to be valid, Mellon must receive a duly executed and properly completed Election Form, including any required signature guarantees or other documents, together with any certificate(s) representing surrendered Dime shares or timely confirmation of their book-entry transfer, before the Election Deadline. Dime stockholders whose certificate(s) are not immediately available or who cannot deliver such certificate(s) to Mellon, or cannot complete the procedures for book-entry transfer prior to the Election Deadline, must surrender their shares according to the procedure for guaranteed delivery set forth in the enclosed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery.

No fees or commissions will be payable by Washington Mutual or Dime, or any officer, director, stockholder, agent or other representative of Washington Mutual or Dime, to any broker, dealer or other person for soliciting surrender of shares pursuant to the election (other than fees paid to Mellon for their services in connection with the election and exchange process).

Any inquiries you may have with respect to the election should be addressed to Mellon at 1-866-323-8162.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

TIMING OF ELECTION:

1. TIME IN WHICH TO ELECT. IN ORDER FOR AN ELECTION TO BE EFFECTIVE, MELLON MUST RECEIVE A PROPERLY COMPLETED ELECTION FORM, ACCOMPANIED BY ALL STOCK CERTIFICATES REPRESENTING SHARES OF DIME COMMON STOCK CURRENTLY HELD BY YOU (OR A PROPER GUARANTY OF DELIVERY, AS DESCRIBED IN THE ELECTION FORM), NO LATER THAN 5:00 P.M. NEW YORK TIME ON THE BUSINESS DAY IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING THE COMPLETION OF THE MERGER (THE "ELECTION DEADLINE"). Persons whose stock certificates are not immediately available also may make an election by completing the Election Form (or a facsimile thereof) and having a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery properly completed and duly executed by a member of a registered national securities exchange or the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States (subject to the condition that the stock certificates, the delivery of which is thereby guaranteed, are in fact delivered to Mellon no later than 5:00 p.m. New York time, on the third business day after the Election Deadline (the "Guaranteed Delivery Deadline")).

If Mellon does not receive your properly completed Election Form, together with all of your stock certificates, by the Election Deadline (unless you have submitted a properly completed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and those certificates are received by Mellon by the Guaranteed Delivery Deadline), you will be deemed to have made an election to receive shares of Washington Mutual common stock in exchange for your shares of Dime common stock.

Washington Mutual will publicly announce the Election Deadline prior to the date of completion of the merger.

2. REVOCATION OR CHANGE OF ELECTION. Any election may be revoked by the person who submitted the Election Form to Mellon and the certificate(s) for shares withdrawn by written notice duly executed and received by Mellon prior to the Election Deadline. The notice must specify the person in whose name the shares of Dime common stock to be withdrawn had been deposited, the number of shares to be withdrawn, the name of the registered holder, the serial numbers shown on the certificate(s) representing the shares to be withdrawn, and must be accompanied by a Medallion Signature Guarantee. (Please see Section 5 of the Specific Instructions below for further information on obtaining a Medallion Guarantee.) If an Election Form is revoked, and the certificate(s) for shares withdrawn, the Dime common stock certificate(s) submitted will be promptly returned by Mellon to the person who submitted such certificate(s). Upon any such revocation, unless a duly completed Election Form is thereafter submitted, the holder shall be deemed to have made an election to receive shares of Washington Mutual common stock. Any election also may be effectively revoked and amended by submission to Mellon prior to the Election Deadline of a properly completed, duly executed and later dated Election Form.

3. TERMINATION OF RIGHT TO ELECT. If for any reason the merger is not completed or is abandoned, all Election Forms will be void and of no effect and all certificates for Dime common stock previously received by Mellon and thereafter held by Mellon will be returned promptly by Mellon to the persons who submitted them.

Any disputes regarding your election or the elections made by other Dime stockholders will be resolved by Mellon (in consultation with Washington Mutual) and such decision will be final for all parties concerned. Mellon has the absolute right to reject any and all Election Forms which it determines are not in proper form or to waive minor defects in any form. Surrenders of certificates will not be effective until all defects or irregularities that have not been waived by Mellon have been corrected. Please return your Election Form promptly to allow sufficient time to correct any possible deficiencies before the Election Deadline.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS:

Section 1. ABOUT YOU AND YOUR SHARES

Section 1 of the Election Form shows your name(s) and the number of Dime shares owned by you as reflected on the records of Dime at the time of mailing the Election Form.

Mark through any incorrect address information that is printed in this area of the Election Form. Clearly print the correct address in the space beside the printed information. If any other information in this area of the Election Form is incorrect, please see Sections 3, 5 and 8 below.

Section 2. ELECTION AND PRORATION PROCEDURES

The terms of the merger agreement allow you to choose, subject to certain limitations, the type of consideration you wish to receive for your shares of Dime common stock. The Election Form allows you to elect to receive merger consideration in the form of shares of Washington Mutual common stock, cash, or a combination of both. However, because the total amount of cash consideration payable in the merger is fixed at $1,428,809,000, regardless of your choice you may actually receive a combination of Washington Mutual common stock and cash for your Dime shares. For more information, please refer to pages 37-38 of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

YOUR STOCK CERTIFICATES FOR ANY CERTIFICATED SHARES YOU HOLD MUST BE RETURNED WITH THE ELECTION FORM FOR YOUR ELECTION TO BE VALID. IF YOU HOLD ANY OF YOUR SHARES OF DIME COMMON STOCK IN STREET NAME, YOU WILL RECEIVE SEPARATE ELECTION INSTRUCTIONS FROM YOUR BROKER. YOU SHOULD FOLLOW THOSE ELECTION INSTRUCTIONS IN ORDER TO MAKE YOUR ELECTION TO RECEIVE SHARES OF WASHINGTON MUTUAL COMMON STOCK, CASH, OR A COMBINATION OF BOTH IN EXCHANGE FOR THOSE SHARES. IF YOUR SHARES OF DIME COMMON STOCK ARE HELD IN BOOK-ENTRY, YOU SHOULD STILL COMPLETE AND RETURN THIS ELECTION FORM TO MAKE YOUR ELECTION TO RECEIVE SHARES OF WASHINGTON MUTUAL COMMON STOCK, CASH, OR A COMBINATION OF BOTH.

ELECTION OPTIONS

Select only one of the three options:

- (a) EXCHANGE ALL OF YOUR DIME SHARES FOR SHARES OF WASHINGTON MUTUAL COMMON STOCK. If you select this option (or if you fail to make a valid election), you will receive shares of Washington Mutual common stock for each Dime share you own, subject to proration as described above and in Section 2.6 of the merger agreement. No fractional shares will be issued and you will receive a cash payment instead of fractional shares.
- (b) EXCHANGE ALL OF YOUR DIME SHARES FOR CASH. If you select this option, you will receive all cash for each Dime share you own, subject to proration as described above and in Section 2.6 of the merger agreement.
- (c) EXCHANGE A PORTION OF YOUR DIME SHARES FOR WASHINGTON MUTUAL COMMON STOCK AND THE BALANCE OF YOUR DIME SHARES FOR CASH. If you select this option, you will receive both shares of Washington Mutual common stock and cash for each Dime share you own, subject to proration as described above and in Section 2.6 of the merger agreement.
