Veolia Environnement confirms the filing of a request to voluntarily delist its American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) from the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) in view of terminating its registration with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC)

In accordance with its press release dated December 1, 2014, Veolia Environnement today confirms the filing with the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) of a Form 25 to request the voluntary delisting of its American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) from the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). The last day of trading of the ADRs on the NYSE should occur on December 22, 2014. Thereafter, Veolia Environnement ADRs will be traded on the US Over-The-Counter (OTC) market.

As announced, Veolia Environnement will maintain its American ADR program, managed by The Bank of New York Mellon, as a sponsored Level one program. The current holders of Veolia Environnement ADRs may then continue to hold and trade Veolia Environnement ADRs after the delisting from the NYSE and the termination of registration with the SEC.

Promptly after the effective delisting from the NYSE, Veolia Environnement will file a Form 15F with the SEC in order to terminate its registration and its disclosure requirements under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Veolia Environnement will continue to publish its annual reports and other financial disclosures in English and French. These documents will be made available to American holders of ADRs and other investors on Veolia Environnement's website (<http://www.finance.veolia.com>).
