Revocation will occur by delivering a written notice of revocation to the Company or by duly executing a proxy bearing a later date. Revocation will also occur if the individual attends the meeting and votes in person.

Voting and Solicitation

In the election of directors, each stockholder will be entitled to vote for six nominees and the six nominees with the greatest number of votes will be elected.

The cost of this solicitation will be borne by the Company. The Company may reimburse expenses incurred by brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares in forwarding solicitation material to beneficial owners. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum, but will not be counted for purposes of determining the number of votes cast with respect to the election of directors. Proxies which are properly signed and returned will be voted at the meeting along with the shares of Common Stock represented in person and voting. In the absence of such specifications, the proxy will be voted "FOR" the six nominees for the Board of Directors.

No Right of Appraisal

Neither Delaware law, our Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, nor our Bylaws, as amended, provide for appraisal or other similar rights for dissenting stockholders in connection with the proposal to elect directors to the Board of Directors. Accordingly, stockholders will have no right to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

Deadline for Receipt of Stockholder Proposals

Stockholders may submit proposals for consideration at future stockholder meetings. Our Bylaws govern the submission of nominations for director or other business proposals that a stockholder wishes to have considered at a meeting of stockholders, but which are not included in Company-sponsored proxy materials for that meeting. To be timely under our Bylaws, Stockholder proposals which are intended to be presented at the Company's 2010 Annual Meeting must be received by the Company not less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the first anniversary of the Company's 2009 annual meeting. The notice must contain the information required by the Bylaws.

These advance notice provisions are in addition to, and separate from, the requirements that a stockholder must meet in order to have a proposal included in Company-sponsored proxy materials. In order for a stockholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement for next year's Annual Meeting, the written proposal must be received by the Company no later than March 22, 2010. Such proposals also will need to comply with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Rule 14a-8, regarding the inclusion of stockholder proposals in company-sponsored proxy materials.

Board Committees

Audit and Finance Committee

The Audit and Finance Committee is comprised of Dr. Cooley (Chair), Mr. Greene, Mr. Cooper, and Mr. Fridson. The Board has determined that Dr. Cooley is an “audit committee financial expert” as defined by Item 401 of SEC Regulation S-K. The Board has determined that Dr. Cooley, Mr. Greene, Mr. Cooper, and Mr. Fridson meet the special independence requirements applicable to audit committee members under Nasdaq’s rules. The Audit and Finance Committee has adopted a written charter, a copy of which was appended to the 2006 Proxy Statement.

The Audit and Finance Committee oversees the Company’s accounting and financial reporting processes and the audits of its financial statements. The Committee also monitors the independence, performance and qualifications of the Company’s registered public accounting firm. The report of the Audit and Finance Committee is included in this Proxy Statement under the heading “REPORT OF THE AUDIT AND FINANCE COMMITTEE.”

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee is currently comprised of Mr. Cooper (Chair), Dr. Cooley and Mr. Dash. The Compensation Committee considers the hiring and election of corporate officers, salary and incentive compensation policies for officers, and the granting of stock options to employees. Nominating and Governance Committee

The Nominating and Governance Committee is comprised of Mr. Greene (Chair) and Mr. Dash, both of whom are “independent” as measured by the Nasdaq rules applicable to this committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee assists the Board in identifying individuals qualified to become directors by recommending nominees for election at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders or for appointment to fill vacancies on the Board, and by developing and recommending corporate governance guidelines. The Board adopted a Charter for the Nominating and Governance Committee, a copy of which was appended to the 2004 Proxy Statement.

Nominees are chosen for their ability to represent all of the stockholders, and for their character, judgment, fairness and overall ability. As a group, they are expected to set the appropriate policy for the Company, and to bring to the Board of Directors broad experience in business matters and an insight and awareness of the appropriate and ever changing role that corporations should have in society. Because the advice of those facing similar problems is of particular value, executive officers of other corporations are desirable nominees.

The following personal criteria will be considered in selecting candidates for the Board of Directors:

- Independence
- Wisdom
- Integrity
- Understanding and general acceptance of our corporate philosophy
- Valid business or professional knowledge and experience that can bear on our strategies and deliberations
  - Proven record of accomplishment
  - Willingness to speak one’s mind
  - Ability to challenge and stimulate management
  - Future orientation
  - Willingness to commit time and energy

The Nominating Committee will also consider nominations from stockholders, which are made in writing to the Secretary of the Company and comply with Bylaw requirements. The recommendation must contain sufficient background information concerning the nominee to enable a proper judgment to be made as to his or her qualifications. Recommendations must also include a written statement from the candidate expressing a willingness to serve.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Audit and Finance Committee recommends in advance the independent registered public accounting firm to be retained by the Company to provide audit and audit related services. In addition, the Chair of the Audit and Finance Committee pre-approves any engagement of accountants to provide non-audit services and all such engagements are reviewed and ratified by the Committee at its next meeting.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit and Finance Committee reviewed and discussed with management the audited consolidated financial statements of the Company to be set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008. The Audit and Finance Committee also discussed with Dixon-Hughes, PLLC, the Company's independent registered public accounting firm responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited consolidated financial statements with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, "Communication with Audit Committees," as amended. The Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 includes, among other items, matters relating to the conduct of an audit of the Company's consolidated financial statements under generally accepted auditing standards.

As discussed more fully below, the Audit and Finance Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Dixon-Hughes, PLLC required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, "Independence Discussions with Audit Committee", has considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditors' independence, and has discussed with Dixon-Hughes, PLLC their independence from the Company.

In reliance on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit and Finance Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited consolidated financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for 2008 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The foregoing report is submitted by the Audit and Finance Committee in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (as amended) and the rules and regulations hereunder.

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Compensation Philosophy. The Company's executive compensation program is designed to attract and retain executives who are vital to the firm's long-term success. Decisions with respect to executive compensation are made by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors on an individual basis, based upon a number of factors, including the provisions of any existing employment contract with an executive, evaluation of the executive's performance, the level of responsibility associated with the executive's position, recruitment requirements and the performance of the Company. Compensation of the executives of the Company has historically been structured to motivate, reward and retain the executives consistent with the needs of the Company from time to time. Mr. Biglari, appointed as President and Chief Executive Officer in May 2007, is excluded from this program due to his election not to receive any compensation for serving in these capacities.

In 2007, the Compensation Committee established a policy that disregards both the market value of the Company and the profitability of the parent Company in determining the compensation for these executives. The principal components of the Company's executive compensation program for 2007 and forward are salary and bonus. The Company has frozen all stock option plans and will not issue new grants of stock options to executives as of the beginning of the second quarter of 2007. Only 1,000 options were issued in 2007, prior to the freeze on new grants. The Compensation Committee believes that each executive's overall remuneration should reflect his or her performance over time, and a mix of salary and bonus is used to achieve that goal. Compensation will not be related to activities that are not under the executives' domain.

Base Salary. Factors considered by the Compensation Committee in setting executive salaries are typically subjective, such as the Committee's perception of functional responsibility and performance. In the case of the Chief Executive Officer (prior to Mr. Biglari's appointment), the Committee also considered its expectations as to his future contributions in directing the long-term success of the Company and its business. Base salaries have historically been reviewed annually and may be changed based upon the individual performance, subject to any contractual arrangement with the executive. This philosophy is also applied to key executives of the Company's subsidiaries, such as Mr. Moore who was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries Western Sizzlin Stores, Inc. and Western Sizzlin Franchise Corporation in July 2008. Mr. Moore replaced James C. Verney in these positions.

Mr. Moore's salary in 2008 was $250,000 annually, pro-rated for his time with the Company. In 2009, Mr. Moore's salary will be $250,000. Mr. Verney's salary in 2008, 2007 and 2006 was $210,000, $260,000 and $260,000, respectively.

The Compensation Committee also sets the base salary of the Chief Financial Officer. Mrs. Mabe's salary in 2008, 2007 and 2006 was $129,000 and $125,000, and $121,000, respectively. In 2009, Mrs. Mabe's salary will be $132,000.

Cash Bonus. The Company utilizes two types of bonuses — a performance based bonus and a discretionary bonus. The performance based bonus programs are established annually by the Compensation Committee and approved by the Board, with bonus payments tied to performance milestones applicable to each executive. No performance bonuses were paid in 2008 to any of the named executive officers. Mrs. Mabe was paid discretionary bonuses in 2008 and 2007 of $8,000 and $10,000 in 2006, on the basis of her expeditiously facilitating a number of initiatives directed by the Board. Mr. Moore did not receive a discretionary bonus in 2008. Mr. Verney did not receive a discretionary bonus in either 2008 or 2007; he was paid a $25,000 discretionary bonus in 2006. Discretionary bonuses are tied to the Compensation Committee's judgment of the executive's performance in the following areas and other areas deemed appropriate in the Board's discretion:

- Retention of current franchises.

- Addition of new franchises.
- Restaurant openings by franchises.
- Profit performance of the five Company-owned stores.
- Management of the Company's accounts receivable and notes receivable.

Overarching these four areas is the Board's interest in increasing free cash flow.

In 2009, the Company intends to utilize a bonus structure similar to that applied in 2008, with updated targets set in regard to return on investment, cash flow, and system-wide sales increases.

Employment Agreements. Mr. Biglari, who was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer in May 2007, does not have an employment agreement. Mr. Moore, who was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries Western Sizzlin Stores, Inc. and Western Sizzlin Franchise Corporation in July 2008, did not have an employment agreement in 2008. Mr. Verney was employed pursuant a written Employment Agreement dated July 1, 2003, as subsequently amended by a written Binding Memorandum of Understanding dated January 4, 2005 and an Amendment dated May 16, 2007. The initial term of the agreement was 18 months, and it renewed for successive one-year terms absent written notice of non-renewal from either party. The agreement (as amended) provided Mr. Verney compensation in the form of a base salary, cash bonus and stock options. The salary amount was subject to annual adjustment by the Compensation Committee, as described above. Mr. Verney was eligible to receive performance bonuses pursuant to a plan established annually by the Compensation Committee. All stock options required to be granted by the Company to Mr. Verney under this agreement were issued since 2005. No discretionary options were issued since that time. Mr. Verney's agreement provided other benefits of the type available to other Company employees such as health insurance and retirement plan participation. The agreement provided for a severance payment of one year's base salary at the rate then in effect plus reimbursement for premiums for health benefits in the event of termination without cause. Mr. Verney's employment was terminated in July 2008 by mutual agreement of the parties and pursuant to the terms of a Severance and Release Agreement. Severance payments to Mr. Verney are consistent with his Employment Agreement and are comprised of one-year's base salary at the rate then in effect and pursuant to the Company's regular payroll practices, plus reimbursement for premiums for health benefits, totaling approximately $216,000. The Severance and Release Agreement also provides for mutual non-disparagement, non-solicitation (19 months), confidentiality/trade secret and intellectual property protection, non-competition (12 months) and mutual releases.

In March, 2009, the Company entered into a written Employment Agreement with Robert R. Moore, President and Chief Executive Officer the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries Western Sizzlin Stores, Inc., and Western Sizzlin Franchise Corporation. The Agreement provides Mr. Moore with a minimum base salary of $250,000 per year. He is eligible for bonus compensation equal to twenty percent (20%) of Cash Flows (as defined in the Agreement) in excess of $2.3 million annually as adjusted by a charge of 20% of any incremental investment of capital during each year. He also receives a monthly car allowance of $1,500 per month and a housing allowance of $1,500 per month. He is eligible for such other benefits as are offered other employees from time to time and will be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses pursuant to the Company's existing policies. The initial term of the agreement expires on December 31, 2009, and it automatically renews for successive one-year renewal terms. During any term the Agreement is terminable by either party on thirty (30) days prior written notice, automatically in the event of Mr. Moore's death or disability, any time by mutual written agreement, or by the Company for cause (as defined in the Agreement). In the event the Agreement is terminated by the Company without cause, Mr. Moore is entitled to severance benefits equal to three (3) months' salary during the initial term, six (6) months' salary during the first renewal term, nine (9) months' salary during the second renewal term and twelve (12) months' salary if during a subsequent renewal term. In the event of such termination he would also be offered continuing insurance coverage pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) and the Company will reimburse premiums paid by him for a period of three (3) months. The Agreement also contains customary provisions concerning the protection of Company property and confidential information. It also provides for periods of non-competition and non-solicitation.

On September 11, 2007, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Robyn B. Mabe, its Chief Financial Officer. This agreement provides Mrs. Mabe with an annual base salary of $125,000 and eligibility for an annual discretionary performance bonus. The Company's employment agreement with Mrs. Mabe also contains certain severance provisions. The agreement provides certain termination benefits in the event that Mrs. Mabe's employment with the Company is terminated without cause and upon a change of control. Under the terms of the agreement, in the event of termination without cause Mrs. Mabe will receive termination benefits equal to six months of her annual base salary in effect on the termination date and the continuation of health and welfare benefits through the termination date of the agreement. If within one year following the occurrence of a change of control Mrs. Mabe's employment is terminated, in lieu of the severance benefits previously described, she will receive termination benefits equal to her base salary in effect on the change of control date and the continuation of health and welfare benefits through the termination date of the agreement. Assuming a termination date of December 31, 2008, as required by SEC rules, the approximate value of the severance benefits would have been approximately $135,000. The agreement also contains a restrictive covenant prohibiting Mrs. Mabe from competing with the Company and requiring her to maintain the confidentiality of certain Company information.

The Company's obligations under the above-described agreements are conditioned upon compliance with the terms of the agreement, which include as applicable provisions concerning non-disclosure of confidential information, non-solicitation of employees, and covenants not to compete with the Company.
