FIRST FINANCIAL NORTHWEST, INC.
ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF WILLIAM A. LONGBRAKE TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Renton, Washington – September 2, 2008 - First Financial Northwest, Inc. (the “Company”) (Nasdaq: FFW), the holding company for First Savings Bank Northwest (“Bank”), announced today that William A. Longbrake has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Company and the Bank.

“Bill’s financial industry experience, and particularly his strong background in regulatory and legislative policies and procedures, will be a great benefit to the Company and Bank and we are delighted to have someone of his caliber join our Board, “ said Victor Karpiak, Chairman, President and CEO.

“First Financial and First Savings have exciting opportunities ahead and I look forward to applying my experience to support the Company’s overall goals and operations” said Mr. Longbrake.

Mr. Longbrake previously served as Vice Chair of Washington Mutual, Inc. (“WaMu”), Seattle, Washington, and as a director of Washington Mutual Bank, fsb. He has been affiliated with WaMu and Washington Mutual Bank since 1982, except from 1995 to 1996 when he served as Chief Financial Officer and Deputy to the Chairman for Finance at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). During his service at WaMu in 2001, he was name Chief Financial Officer of the Year in the Driving Revenue Growth category by CFO Magazine. Mr. Longbrake began his professional career in 1971 with the FDIC and later with the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (“OCC”). He served in various positions including as Acting Senior Deputy Comptroller for Policy and Senior Deputy Controller for Resource Management for the OCC and as Special Assistant to the Chairman and Controller at the FDIC.

Mr. Longbrake has extensive experience in the regulatory and legislative fields and is active in numerous academic, business and community service organizations. He currently serves on the Board of the Local Initiative Support Corporation, which provides affordable housing nationwide. He chairs the Washington State Citizens Commission for Review of Tax Preferences and also is a member of the Governor’s Council of Economic Advisors for Washington State. He serves on the University of Washington Business School Advisory Board and the University of Maryland Robert H. Smith School of Business Board of Visitors. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Seattle and the Washington Financial League, is member of several committees for the American Bankers Association and is Chairman Emeritus of the Financial Services Roundtable’s Housing Policy Council.

Mr. Longbrake has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the College of Wooster, a Master's degree in Monetary Economics and a Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Wisconsin, and a PhD in Finance from the University of Maryland.

With respect to his academic contributions, Mr. Longbrake has taught courses in business administration and finance at the University of Maryland and Seattle University. Currently, he serves on the Boards of Trustees of the College of Wooster and Auburn Theological Seminary. In 2007, he received the Distinguished Alumnus of the Year from the Robert H. Smith School of Business of the University of Maryland.
