-3-

Q&A for Ameritrade Canada Employees from Ameritrade Canada and TD Waterhouse Canada

An update on your questions related to the June 22nd announcement.

1. Where are TD Wealth Management locations?

TD Waterhouse operates five Investor Service Centres located across Canada: Edmonton, Montreal, Ottawa and two in Markham. Additional service and support departments are located in Toronto at 77 Bloor Street West and 161 Bay Street, Canada Trust Tower.

2. What happens to the vacation days I have already scheduled?

Ameritrade Human Resources has confirmed that approved vacation days that have already been scheduled for 2005 will remain the same. If you have accumulated unused vacation time, you are encouraged to schedule these days before the closing date.

3. What will happen to my employment status if I am currently on Parental leave or will be going on leave shortly?

Nothing changes and Ameritrade Human Resource has confirmed your employment status will remain the same while you are on leave. If you are still on leave when the deal closes, an HR Representative from TD will assist you in a job search for a comparable position within TD Bank Financial Group (TDBFG).

4. What will happen to my trading license and registration?

Once the deal closes and you become a TDBFG employee, your trading license and registration will be transferred if relevant to your new position. It is your responsibility to ensure your qualifications are up to date.

5. How and when will I be eligible to receive a severance?

Subject to deal approval and close, TD anticipates placing employees into meaningful roles within TD Waterhouse or TD Bank Financial Group. TD Human Resources will be scheduling individual meetings with each employee to discuss career opportunities. Discussions with regards to severance options may take place upon the closing with individual employees if a comparable position isn't identified within TDBFG. TD Bank Financial Group is a large organization with many opportunities to learn and expand your career.
