CVRD wins nine gas exploration license in ANP auction

Rio de Janeiro, November 27, 2007 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD) announces that it won today, for R$ 31 million, the right to explore nine gas exploration blocks in different regions in Brazil in the public auction promoted by Agência Nacional do Petróleo, Gás Natural e Biocombustíveis (ANP), the Brazilian regulatory agency for the oil industry. CVRD aims to use the natural gas resulting from this exploration effort to meet its energy consumption needs.

In the Santos basin, off the Brazilian Southeastern Coast, CVRD will explore three blocks: (1) S-M-791 and S-M-792, through the consortium CVRD (30%), Petrobras (40%) and Maersk Oil (30%), and (2) S-M-731, through the consortium CVRD (40%) and Petrobras (60%).

In the Pará Maranhão basin, the Company won the right to explore four blocks PAMA-M187, PAMA-M188, PAMA-M222, and PAMA-M223 through the consortium CVRD (30%), Petrobras (40%) and Ecopetrol S.A. (30%).

In the Brazilian Northeastern region, in the Parnaíba basin, CVRD will explore two blocks, PN-T66 and PN-T86, through the consortium CVRD (20%), Petrobras (40%) and Devon Energy Corporation (40%).

As a major energy consumer, CVRD is seeking to diversify and optimize its energy grid through increased use of thermal coal, renewable fuels and natural gas.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian and Canadian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore and nickel business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
