Compensation of Directors and Senior Management

The aggregate annual compensation paid by us to the members of the senior management of our subsidiaries (six individuals) was $2.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2010, consisting of $2.7 million in salary and bonus, pension contribution of $0.2 million and other benefits. Our non-employee directors are each entitled to receive annual directors fees of $20,000, such amount to be pro-rated for any portion of a full calendar year that a non-employee director is a member of our board of directors, plus reimbursement for actual expenses incurred while acting in their capacity as director. In addition, the chairmen of the committees of our board of directors shall each receive annual fees of $10,000, such amount to be pro-rated for any portion of the full calendar year that the director is chairman of the committee, plus reimbursement for actual expenses incurred while acting in their capacity as chairman. We do not maintain a medical, dental, or retirement plan for our directors. Members of our senior management who also serve as directors will not receive additional compensation for their services as directors.

Board of Directors and Committees

Our board of directors currently consists of five directors. Our board of directors has determined that each of Messrs. Gregos, Arnesen and Tsirigakis are independent under the rules of the NASDAQ Stock Market. Under the NASDAQ Stock Market rules, a director is not considered independent unless our board of directors affirmatively determines that the director has no direct or indirect material relationship with us or our affiliates that could reasonably be expected to interfere with the exercise of such director's independent judgment. In making this determination, our board of directors broadly considers all facts and circumstances it deems relevant from the standpoint of the director and from that of persons or organizations with which the director has an affiliation.

We have established an audit committee that, effective September 12, 2011, is comprised of Messrs. Gregos, Arnesen and Tsirigakis, each of whom our board of directors has determined is financially literate and meets the independence requirements of Rule 10A-3 under the Exchange Act. Our board of directors has determined that Mr. Tsirigakis qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as defined under current SEC regulations. The audit committee, among other things, reviews our external financial reporting, engages our external auditors and oversees our internal audit activities, procedures and the adequacy of our internal accounting controls.

Effective September 12, 2011, we established a compensation committee and a nominating and corporate governance committee, each of which is comprised of Messrs. Gregos, Arnesen and Tsirigakis. The compensation committee is responsible for determining the compensation and benefits of our executive officers. The nominating and corporate governance committee is responsible for recommending to the board of directors nominees for membership on the board of directors, considering director nominees proposed by shareholders in accordance with our Second Amended and Restated Bylaws and advising the board of directors with regard to corporate governance practices.
