Proxy Statement

Your vote is very important. If you are unable to attend this year's annual meeting, the Board of Directors requests that you allow your common stock to be represented at the meeting by the proxies named on the enclosed proxy card. This proxy statement is being sent to you in connection with this request and has been prepared for the Board by our management. The terms we, our, GPT and the Company all refer to Government Properties Trust, Inc. The proxy statement is being sent to our stockholders on or about April 26, 2006.

General information about the meeting

Who can vote

You may vote your GPT common stock if our records showed that you owned your shares on April 19, 2006. At the close of business on that date, a total of 20,763,136 shares of our common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of GPT common stock has one vote. The enclosed proxy card shows the number of shares that you may vote. Your vote is confidential and will not be disclosed to persons other than those recording the vote, except as may be required by law or as authorized by you.

Voting your proxy

If you own your common stock through a broker, bank or other nominee, you will receive instructions from them that you must follow to vote your shares.

If you own your shares directly in your own name, you may instruct the proxies how to vote your common stock by signing, dating and mailing the proxy card in the postage paid envelope that we have provided for you. You can always come to the meeting and vote your shares in person. Whichever method you use, the proxies will vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you sign and return a proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, your shares will be voted as recommended by our Board of Directors.

Matters to be presented

We are not aware of any matters that will be presented other than those described in this proxy statement. If any matters not described in the proxy statement are properly presented at the meeting, the proxies will use their judgment to determine how to vote your shares. If the meeting is adjourned, the proxies can vote your common stock on the new meeting date as well, unless you have revoked your proxy instructions.

Revoking your proxy

You may revoke your proxy instructions at any time before the meeting. To do so, you must:

advise our Corporate Secretary in writing;

deliver new proxy instructions; or attend the meeting and vote your shares in person.

How votes are counted

We will hold the annual meeting if a majority of our outstanding common stock is represented at the meeting. If you have returned valid proxy instructions or attend the meeting in person, your common stock will be counted for the purpose of determining whether there is a quorum, even if you wish to abstain from voting on some or all matters introduced at the meeting.

If you own your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee (in street name) and you do not instruct your nominee how to vote your shares, your nominee may either leave your shares unvoted or vote your shares on the matters that will be considered at the annual meeting.

Table of Contents

If your shares are held in street name, your nominee cannot vote on matters that are not routine if you have not provided it with voting instructions. Your shares will constitute broker non-votes. Broker non-votes count for quorum purposes, but we do not count broker non-votes as votes for or against any proposal.

Cost of this proxy

We will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, our directors, officers and employees may solicit stockholders personally, by telephone, by e-mail or by facsimile. Our employees will not receive any additional compensation for doing this. We will, on request, reimburse banks, brokers and other nominees for their expenses in sending proxy materials to their customers who are beneficial owners and obtaining their voting instruction.

Attending the annual meeting

If you are a holder of record and plan to attend the annual meeting, please indicate this when you vote. The lower portion of the proxy card is your admission ticket. If you own your common stock through a broker, bank or other nominee, you will need proof of ownership to be admitted to the meeting. A recent brokerage statement or a letter from a bank or broker are examples of proof of ownership. If you want to vote in person common stock that you own through a nominee, you must get a written proxy in your name from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds your shares.

PROPOSAL 1:

Election of directors

Our Board of Directors currently consists of six Directors. Our Nominating and Governance Committee has nominated six Directors for election at this annual meeting. If elected, the nominees will serve until our 2007 annual meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Spencer I. Browne, a former Director, passed away in 2005. The Board, through its Nominating and Governance Committee, thereafter initiated the process of selecting a replacement.

As of the date of this proxy statement, the selection process was continuing. Pursuant to our bylaws, once a replacement has been selected by the Board, that individual will be expected to serve until our 2007 annual meeting of stockholders. Until a replacement has been selected, Jerry Bringard is serving as acting Chairman of the Compensation Committee.

Policy on candidates

The Nominating and Governance Committee considers candidates for Board membership suggested by its members and other Board members, as well as management and stockholders. The committee may in its discretion retain third party search firms to identify potential candidates. Stockholders wishing to recommend Director candidates for consideration by the committee can do so by writing to our Corporate Secretary at 13625 California Street, Suite 310, Omaha, Nebraska 68154, giving the candidate's name, biographical data and qualifications. Our Corporate Secretary will, in turn, deliver any stockholder recommendations for Director candidates prepared in accordance with our bylaws to the committee. Any such recommendation must be accompanied by a written statement from the individual of his or her consent to be named as a candidate and, if nominated and elected, to serve as a Director.

Table of Contents

Description of selection process

The Nominating and Governance Committee utilizes a variety of methods for identifying and evaluating nominees for Director. The committee assesses the appropriate size of the Board and whether any vacancies on the Board are expected due to retirement or otherwise. If vacancies are anticipated, or otherwise arise, the committee considers various potential candidates for director. Potential candidates may come to the attention of the committee through current Board members, search firms, stockholders or other persons. These candidates will be evaluated at meetings of the committee and may be considered at any point during the year. The committee will also consider properly submitted stockholder nominations for candidates for the Board. In evaluating potential nominees for Board membership, the Nominating and Governance Committee assesses individuals who the committee believes can provide balance to the Board as between their knowledge of the Company's business, their prior experience with other boards and management, and their specific skills such as skills in accounting, finance or law, Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the meeting. This means that the nominees receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected. Votes withheld for any nominee will not be counted.

Table of Contents

Although we know of no reason why any of the nominees would not be able to serve, if any nominee is unavailable for election, the proxies will vote your common stock to approve the election of any substitute nominee proposed by the Board of Directors. The Board may also choose to reduce the numbers to be elected, as permitted by our bylaws.

Board recommendation

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR each nominee.

The Board

GPT is governed by a Board of Directors and various committees of the Board that meet throughout the year. Directors discharge their responsibilities throughout the year at Board and committee meetings and also through other communications with the chairman, chief executive officer and others regarding matters of concern and interest to the Company. During 2005, the Board met four times.

The Board of Directors has regularly scheduled meetings of non-management directors. If you wish to communicate with our chairman or the non-management Directors as a group, please follow the procedures set forth below under Stockholder communications. The chairman of our Board of Directors presides over all meetings of non-management Directors.

Director Independence

Under applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange, a majority of the members of the Board of Directors must be independent, and no Director qualifies as independent unless the Board of Directors affirmatively determines that the Director has no material relationship with GPT, other than as a Director. The Board has affirmatively determined that each non-employee Director is independent as that term is defined in the applicable New York Stock Exchange rules.

No non-employee Director has any material relationship with the Company other than as a director. Mr. Peschio is not independent because he is employed as an executive officer of GPT.

In doing so, the committee has periodically discussed the various attributes and qualifications that would make for a good director in the Company. This process of evaluation is the same without regard to whether a potential candidate is brought to the committee's attention by another director, one or more stockholders, an officer or an outside source. It also periodically prepares and submits to the Board for adoption the committee's selection criteria for director nominees. For further details on this subject, please see the information above under the heading Description of selection process.

Table of Contents

Tax consequences for compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally prohibits a tax deduction to public companies for annual compensation over $1 million paid to each of the corporation's chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated executive officers, except to the extent such compensation qualifies as performance-based. Provided that our business objectives are met, we intend to structure future incentive compensation arrangements for our executive officers in a manner that will allow such compensation to be fully deductible for Federal income tax purposes.

Compensation Committee report on executive compensation

Our executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee approves compensation objectives and policies as well as compensation plans and specific compensation levels for all executive officers.

Compensation policies

The Compensation Committee seeks to provide a total compensation package that will motivate and retain key employees. The Compensation Committee also seeks to provide incentives to achieve short and long-term business objectives that will enhance the value of our stock. When determining compensation amounts, the Compensation Committee considers (1) the base salary levels of executives with similar responsibilities in companies in a similar line of business, (2) the executive's experience in his or her position and in the line of business as well as his or her performance over a sustained period of time, (3) the historical and projected financial performance and operating of GPT, and (4) performance of the individual executive. A review of the financial performance includes such measures as revenues, funds from operations, operating margin, net income, return on stockholders' equity, return on revenues and total market value. The Compensation Committee makes a subjective determination based upon all such factors. The executive officers' compensation has three components: (1) base salary, (2) cash and/or stock bonuses, and (3) long-term incentive compensation.

Long-term incentive compensation

Long-term incentive compensation opportunities are possible through stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock awards, phantom stock unit awards, performance share unit awards and other stock bonus awards under our equity incentive plan. To date, there have been awards of restricted stock as bonuses to the CEO and CFO in 2004 and to the CFO in 2006 as described above in "Executive compensation".

Compensation elements for senior executive officers

The key elements of our executive compensation program are:

1. Base Salary. The base salaries for our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have been agreed to by the Company in separate employment agreements with the CEO and CFO, respectively. These salaries were established after taking into account competitive market compensation paid by other companies for similar positions and given the particular talents and skills sets of the individuals involved. For further details, see the discussion above under Competitive employment agreements.

Table of Contents

2. Performance Bonus. For 2005, Board and management determined that the Company's principal business objective should be the acquisition of additional qualified properties for its portfolio using proceeds from the Company's initial public offering in 2004 together with long term mortgage money. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee and Mr. Peschio agreed upon a formula for his 2005 annual bonus based solely on the Company's completed property acquisitions.

The amount of Mr. Peschio's bonus had the potential to be a minimum of 40 percent of base salary increasing to as much as 80 percent of base salary if the aggregate purchase price of properties acquired in 2005 exceeded specific thresholds. The bonus figure as a percent of base salary was prorated between 40 percent and 80 percent to the extent that the aggregate purchase price of the acquired properties fell between specific thresholds. After the end of 2005, the Compensation Committee reviewed the Company's acquisitions for the year. Certain properties were judged to have been part of the completed acquisition category although a formal closing and transfer of title did not occur until early 2006. The committee decided that the properties in question had completed all but the formalities for acquisition by the Company, and for reasons based on the best interests of the Company particularly cost savings, management had chosen to defer the closings until early 2006.

The committee therefore awarded Mr. Peschio the minimum bonus which he could receive pursuant to the terms of the performance bonus plan for 2005 amounting to $145,980 given that in the committee's judgment the Company had achieved the acquisition threshold necessary to receive a performance bonus equal to 40 percent of base salary for 2005.

For 2006, the committee is awaiting completion of certain revisions to the Company's 2006 business plan and budget before it and Mr. Peschio come to final terms on the conditions for his annual performance bonus for this year. It is expected that the conditions will be agreed upon in the near future.

3. CEO Perquisites. Under his employment agreement, Mr. Peschio is provided with perquisites that we believe are reasonable, competitive and consistent with the Company's overall executive compensation program. These perquisites include a car allowance of $1,200 per month (together with reimbursement for related operating expenses, taxes, insurance and fees); reimbursement for tax preparation and financial planning costs up to $7,500 annually; a contribution of $8,400 to Mr. Peschio's 401(k) plan for 2005 and payment of premiums for whole life insurance on Mr. Peschio of $500,000, with Mr. Peschio, or his assignee, as the owner of the policy.
