NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
TO BE HELD ON APRIL 24, 2002

The Annual Meeting of Stockholders of Fidelity National Corporation ("Fidelity") will be held on Wednesday, April 24, 2002, at 3:00 p.m. at its office at ONE SECURITIES CENTRE, 3490 PIEDMONT ROAD, SUITE 1550, ATLANTA, GEORGIA 30305, for the purposes of considering and voting upon:

- 1. The election of nine directors to constitute the Board of Directors to serve until the next Annual Meeting and until their successors are elected and qualified.
- 2. Such other matters as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Only holders of Common Stock of record at the close of business on March 7, 2002, will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

A Proxy Statement and a Proxy solicited by the Board of Directors are enclosed herewith. It is important that your shares be represented and voted at the meeting. Please sign, date, and return the Proxy promptly in the enclosed business reply envelope. If you attend the meeting you may, if you wish, withdraw your Proxy and vote in person.

Also enclosed is a copy of Fidelity's 2001 Annual Report to Stockholders.

By Order of the Board of Directors,

/s/ Martha C. Fleming

Martha C. Fleming
Secretary

March 22, 2002

PLEASE COMPLETE AND RETURN THE ENCLOSED PROXY PROMPTLY SO THAT YOUR VOTE MAY BE RECORDED AT THE MEETING IF YOU DO NOT ATTEND PERSONALLY.

PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished to you in connection with the solicitation of Proxies by the Board of Directors of Fidelity National Corporation ("Fidelity") for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders ("Meeting") to be held at its office at ONE SECURITIES CENTRE, 3490 PIEDMONT ROAD, SUITE 1550, ATLANTA, GEORGIA 30305, on April 24, 2002, at 3:00 p.m. and any adjournment thereof. The purposes of the Meeting are set forth in the accompanying Notice of the Annual Meeting. It is anticipated that this Proxy Statement and the accompanying Proxy will first be mailed to Stockholders on March 22, 2002.

The record date of holders of Common Stock entitled to vote at the Meeting was taken as of the close of business on March 7, 2002. On that date, Fidelity had outstanding and entitled to vote 8,781,628 shares of Common Stock, no par value, with each share entitled to one vote.

A Proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the holder of the Common Stock who attends the Meeting and gives oral or written notice of his or her election to vote in person, without compliance with any other formalities. In addition, any Proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked prior to the Meeting by delivering an instrument revoking it or a duly executed Proxy bearing a later date to the Secretary of Fidelity. If the Proxy is properly completed and returned by the holder of the Common Stock and is not revoked, it will be voted at the Meeting in the manner specified thereon. If the Proxy is returned but no choice is specified thereon, it will be voted "FOR" all of the nominees for director named herein and upon such other matters as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with the best judgment of the holders of the Proxy.

The presence of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at the Meeting represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting will constitute a quorum. The nine nominees receiving the highest vote totals will be elected as directors of Fidelity. All other matters will be decided by the affirmative vote of the majority of the votes entitled to be cast present or represented at the Meeting.

Abstentions, withheld votes and broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of votes represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting in determining whether the quorum requirement is satisfied, but will not be counted as votes cast for any matter to be voted upon. Broker "non-votes" occur when a broker holding shares of capital stock for a beneficial owner votes on one matter pursuant to the broker's discretionary authority or pursuant to instructions from the beneficial owner, but does not vote on another matter for the reason that the broker does not have discretionary authority to vote such shares on such other matter and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes will not affect the votes required to elect the directors, which is the only matter known to management that will be presented at the Meeting.

The expenses of this solicitation, including the cost of preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement, will be paid by Fidelity. Copies of solicitation materials may be furnished to banks, brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for forwarding to beneficial owners of shares of the Common Stock and normal handling charges may be paid for such forwarding service. In addition, directors, officers and other employees of Fidelity, who will not be additionally compensated therefor, may solicit proxies in person or by telephone.

ITEM 1 - NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The number of directors is currently set at nine by resolution of the Board of Directors. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors or of the Stockholders, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of an incumbent director. The terms of office for directors continue until the next annual meeting of Stockholders and until their successors are elected and qualified.

In the event that any nominee withdraws or for any reason is not able to serve as a director, the Proxy will be voted for such other person as may be designated by the Board of Directors as substitute nominee unless the Board of Directors or Stockholders by resolution provide for a lesser number of directors, but in no event will the Proxy be voted for more than nine nominees. Management has no reason to believe that any nominee will not serve if elected. All the nominees are currently directors of Fidelity.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

Fidelity initially entered into an employment agreement with Larry D. Peterson in 1997. The initial employment agreement with Mr. Peterson was for a three-year period ending September 14, 2000. A new three-year employment agreement was entered into commencing September 15, 2000. The employment agreements provided for an annual base salary of $300,000. Also, Fidelity provided Mr. Peterson a disability policy, which provides disability benefits at the annual rate of $210,000.

The employment agreement with Mr. Peterson provides that if the executive terminates his employment or if his employment is terminated by Fidelity for cause, such executive is subject to a non-compete provision for a period of one year.

STOCK OPTIONS

No stock options or stock appreciation rights were granted to executive officers during 2001.

The following table sets forth, with respect to the Named Executive Officers, information concerning any exercise of stock options in 2001 and all unexercised stock options held as of December 31, 2001.

- (1) The average of the high and low value of a share of Common Stock of Fidelity on December 31, 2001, was $7.49.

401(K) PLAN

Fidelity has adopted a tax-qualified savings plan, which is intended to qualify under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("Code"). Employees may elect to contribute to the 401(k) Plan through payroll deductions up to the statutory limitation and may direct the investment of their accounts into various investment funds. Under Section 401(k) of the Code, the employee's contributions to the 401(k) Plan are not taxable to the employee until such amounts are distributed to the employee. Fidelity pays the administrative expenses of the 401(k) Plan and makes voluntary contributions from time to time, which are allocated to each eligible employee's account as required by the Code. Fidelity's voluntary contributions become fully vested at the earlier of six years of service or at normal retirement age. Fidelity's voluntary contributions in 2001 were $252,503.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Prior to October 2001, each non-employee director of Fidelity was paid $1,000 for each Board of Directors' meeting attended and $250 for committee meetings attended on a day that was not a regularly scheduled Board meeting date.

Effective October 1, 2001, each non-employee director of Fidelity was paid $2,000 for each Board of Directors' meeting attended and $500 for each committee meeting attended on a day that was not a regularly scheduled Board meeting date. Effective January 1, 2002, each non-employee director of Fidelity is paid a $10,000 annual retainer, paid in four quarterly installments. In addition, a director will receive $500 for each committee meeting attended on a day that is not a regularly scheduled Board meeting date.

Directors who are employees do not receive a fee for attending Board or committee meetings.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

The members of the Compensation Committee ("Committee") are W. Clyde Shepherd, Jr., Chairman, Robert J. Rutland, and Rankin M. Smith, Jr. No member of the Committee is an employee of Fidelity or any subsidiary.

The Bank leases space from a corporation of which Mr. Shepherd, Jr., a director and member of the Compensation and Executive Committees, is the majority shareholder. The Bank leases approximately 2,200 square feet at an average annual rate of approximately $12 per square foot subject to a pro rata increase for increases in taxes and insurance. The lease agreement was made substantially on the same terms as those prevailing at the time for comparable leases for similar facilities.

Kevin S. King, a director, is of counsel to the law firm, Dietrick, Evans, Scholz & Williams, LLC, which provided legal services to the Bank during

The Bank and Fidelity National Capital Investors, Inc. have had, and expect to have in the future, banking and other business transactions in the ordinary course of business with directors (including members of the Committee) and officers of Fidelity and its subsidiaries, including members of their families or corporations, partnerships or other organizations in which such officers or directors have a controlling interest, on substantially the same terms (including price, or interest rates and collateral) as those prevailing at the time of comparable transactions with unrelated parties. Such transactions have not and will not involve more than the normal risks of collectibility, nor present other unfavorable features. As of December 31, 2001, the Bank had direct and indirect loans outstanding to officers and directors and their affiliates aggregating approximately $1.95 million.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee is responsible for evaluating the remuneration of executives of Fidelity to provide competitive levels of compensation which take into account the annual and long-term performance goals, whether there has been above average corporate performance, the levels of an individual's initiative, responsibility and achievements, and the need of Fidelity to attract and retain well trained and highly motivated executives. The Committee fixes the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer of Fidelity and the Chief Executive Officer of the Bank, and generally reviews the compensation of the other executive officers. All decisions by the Committee relating to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officers of Fidelity and the Bank are reviewed by the full Board of Directors.

Executive officers' overall compensation is intended to be consistent with the compensation paid to executives of financial institutions and of other companies similar in size, complexity, and character to Fidelity, provided that the performance of Fidelity and the executive officer warrants the compensation being paid.

Compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers of Fidelity in 2001, as reflected in the foregoing compensation tables, consisted of the following elements: base salary, bonus, matching contributions paid with respect to the 401(k) Plan and certain perquisites. No stock options were granted to executive officers in 2001. In addition, Fidelity has adopted certain broad-based employee benefit plans in which executives, and other officers together with employees, have the option to participate. Benefits under these plans are not directly or indirectly tied to Fidelity's performance, except that contributions by Fidelity to the 401(k) Plan are voluntary, at the election of the Board of Directors. Bonuses were granted to Messrs. Buchanan and Proctor based upon the 2001 performance of the units for which they had responsibility and their individual performance.

During 1999, Fidelity purchased a no load single premium company owned life insurance policy on Mr. Miller which provides a tax exempt yield to Fidelity if held to maturity. Mr. Miller will receive taxable income for the economic benefit he receives under the policy as noted in the Summary Compensation Table.

The Chief Executive Officer recommends the compensation of all other executive officers.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

Each of the Audit Committee members satisfies the definition of independent director as established by the National Association of Securities Dealers. The Board of Directors of Fidelity has adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee has reviewed Fidelity's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2001, and discussed the statements with management. The Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young, Fidelity's independent accountants, those matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit and Finance Committees, as amended.

The Audit Committee reviewed the written disclosures and independence letter required by the Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 received from Ernst & Young, and discussed the independence of Ernst & Young. The Audit Committee has determined that the providing of professional services, in addition to audit related services, is compatible with the maintenance of the accountant's independence. Based upon the review and discussions noted above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors of Fidelity that the audited consolidated financial statements of Fidelity be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, and be filed with the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

This report of the Audit Committee shall not be deemed incorporated by reference by any general statement incorporating by reference this Proxy Statement into filings under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that Fidelity specifically incorporates this information by reference and should not otherwise be deemed filed under such Acts.

MEETINGS AND COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

During 2001, the Board of Directors held seven (7) meetings. Each of the directors attended at least seventy-five percent (75%) of the aggregate meetings of the Board of Directors and the committees on which the director served. Fidelity does not have a nominating committee. All nominees for the Board of Directors are nominated by the entire Board of Directors.

Audit Committee. The primary functions of Fidelity's Audit Committee are to see that an audit program is in place to protect the assets of Fidelity, assure that adequate internal controls exist, oversee the internal audit function, and recommend the independent auditors for appointment by the Board of Directors. During 2001, the Audit Committee held six (6) meetings. The Audit Committee is governed by a written charter approved by the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors.

Compensation Committee. The primary functions of the Compensation Committee are to evaluate and administer the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and to review the general compensation programs of Fidelity, including the compensation of the other executive officers. During 2001, the Compensation Committee held two (2) meetings.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is authorized to exercise any and all of the powers of the Board of Directors in the management of the business and affairs of Fidelity except where specific power is limited to the Board of Directors by the Bylaws or by applicable law. During 2001, the Executive Committee held five (5) meetings.

AUDITORS

Ernst & Young audited the consolidated financial statements of Fidelity for the year ended December 31, 2001, and have been selected to audit the consolidated financial statements for 2002. Representatives of Ernst & Young are expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and will respond to appropriate questions.

AUDIT FEES

Fees billed to Fidelity by Ernst & Young during 2001 for professional services rendered for the audit of Fidelity's consolidated annual financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, and the reviews of the financial statements included in Fidelity's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for that fiscal year were $127,000. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of Fidelity has determined that the providing of the services covered under the captions "Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees," and "All Other Fees" is compatible with maintaining the independence of Ernst & Young.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES

No fees were billed by Ernst & Young for professional services relating to financial information systems design and implementation rendered during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

ALL OTHER FEES

The aggregate fees billed by Ernst & Young for all other professional services, including audit related fees of $121,500, rendered during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001, other than as stated above under the captions "Audit Fees," and "Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees," were $964,468. This amount includes $748,087 for business advisory services rendered in connection with the OCC Consent Order and its review of the Trust Department of the Bank.
