ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER.

Under the terms of the Partnership Agreement, the General Partners share the power to vote the Class B Common held by the Partnership. Further, under such terms, the General Partners generally exercise such power by a vote of the General Partners holding a majority of the general partnership interests.

CUSIP NO. 629579 20 02

Schedule 13D

Under the terms of the Partnership Agreement, the Partnership may not dispose of Class B Common or convert Class B Common into Class A Common without the consent of the General Partners holding more than 75% of the general partnership interests in the Partnership and the consent of the holders of more than 75% of all partnership interests, including the general partnership interests, in the Partnership ("Partnership Interests").

The Partnership Agreement restricts the transfer of Partnership Interests by the Partners and provides the Partners and the Partnership with a right of first refusal to acquire Partnership Interests that a Partner desires to sell and a repurchase obligation to compel the sale of Partnership Interests by the Partners under certain circumstances. These transfer restrictions, rights of first refusal and repurchase obligations are more fully set forth in the Partnership Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2, and incorporated herein in its entirety.

Each of the Reporting Persons is a party to the Stockholders' Agreement, dated as of March 15, 1990, as amended (the "NACCO Stockholders' Agreement," a copy of which is attached or incorporated hereto as Exhibits 3 and 4 and incorporated herein in its entirety), among the Company, National City Bank, (Cleveland, Ohio), as successor depository (the "Depository") and the individuals, custodianships and trusts listed therein and thus is a "Participating Stockholder" within the meaning of the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement.

The NACCO Stockholders' Agreement requires a Participating Stockholder to offer the shares of Class B Common beneficially owned by such Participating Stockholder to all of the other Participating Stockholders upon the occurrence of either of the following: (a) the proposed conversion of shares of Class B Common by such Participating Stockholder into shares of Class A Common Stock, par value $1.00 per share, of the Company ("Class A Common"), and (b) the proposed sale, transfer or other disposition of Class B Common by such Participating Stockholder to any permitted transferee (under the terms of the Class B Common) who is not a signatory to the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement. In either of these cases, the Participating Stockholder proposing to enter into one of these transactions must notify all other Participating Stockholders of such proposed transaction and then must allow each such other Participating Stockholder the opportunity to purchase such Participating Stockholder's pro rata portion of the shares of Class B Common which are subject to the proposed transaction in accordance with the procedures described below. The NACCO Stockholders' Agreement, however, does not restrict transfers of Class B Common among the Participating Stockholders or any other permitted transferee who becomes a signatory to the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement.

A Participating Stockholder proposing to engage in a transaction triggering a right of first refusal must first give written notice of the proposed transaction by registered mail to the Depository. The Depository, in turn, is required to send such notice promptly to all of the other Participating Stockholders and to the Company. Following receipt of such notice, each other Participating Stockholder will have seven (7) business days to elect whether or not to purchase his, her or its pro rata portion of the shares of the Class B Common which have triggered the right of first refusal. A Participating Stockholder's pro rata portion will be determined by dividing the number of shares of Class B Common which such person owns by the number of shares of Class B Common which are owned by all of the other Participating Stockholders who similarly may elect to purchase the shares of Class B Common which have triggered the right of first refusal. A notice electing to purchase a pro rata portion of the shares of Class B Common must be sent to the Depository by the end of the seven (7) business day period. If the other Participating Stockholders electing to purchase do not elect to purchase all of the shares of Class B Common being offered, then such other Participating Stockholders have an additional five (5) business days to agree among themselves how to allocate the shares not purchased. If they cannot reach an agreement, the allocation shall be pro rata. If there are still shares of Class B Common which are not purchased following such allocation, then the Company shall have an additional three (3) business days to decide whether or not to purchase the remaining shares. The Company, however, is under no obligation to purchase any such shares.

Following the completion of such procedures, the Participating Stockholder who has triggered the right of first refusal is free, for a period of thirty (30) business days, to convert the shares of Class B Common, if any, which remain, into shares of Class A Common. If the Participating Stockholder had originally proposed to transfer the shares, such Participating Stockholder would be free to transfer shares of Class A Common in accordance with the originally proposed transaction.

Participating Stockholders who elect to exercise the right of first refusal and purchase shares of Class B Common may pay for such shares in cash, an equivalent number of shares of Class A Common, or in a combination of cash and shares of Class A Common. The purchase price to be paid is the higher of what is specified in the notice sent by the Participating Stockholder who has triggered the right of first refusal and the average of the last sales price of Class A Common on the New York Stock Exchange for the five (5) days prior to the date of such notice.

The NACCO Stockholders' Agreement only restricts the conversion or the sales or other disposition outside of the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement, of shares of Class B Common held by each Participating Stockholder. The NACCO Stockholders' Agreement does not restrict in any respect how a Participating Stockholder may vote the shares of Class B Common which are subject to the terms of the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement.

Effective March 27, 2002, each of the Company, the Depository and the Participating Stockholders executed an Amendment to Stockholders' Agreement amending the Stockholders' Agreement pursuant to which the trustees of trusts for the benefit of certain Participating Stockholders became a Participating Stockholder under the Stockholders' Agreement. A copy of the Amendment to Stockholders' Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 4 and is incorporated herein in its entirety.

On November 19, 2001, a Registration Statement on Form S-4 (Reg. No 333-65134 (the "Registration Statement")) registering up to 200,000 shares of Class A Common became effective. The Registration Statement identifies Alfred M. Rankin, Jr., Thomas T. Rankin, Clairborne R. Rankin and Roger F. Rankin, each of whom is a Reporting Person, or in each case his revocable trust as selling stockholders under the Registration Statement (the "Selling Stockholders"). The Registration Statement contemplates transfers, from time to time, of up to 50,000 shares of Class A Common, on a share for share basis by each of the Selling Stockholders in exchange for an aggregate of 200,000 shares of Class B Common from holders of Class B Common that are so called "permitted transferees" pursuant to the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement. Each exchange would result in one or more of the Selling Stockholders transferring one share of Class A Common for each share of Class B Common transferred by other parties to the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement to the Selling Stockholder or Selling Stockholders. The recipients of the Class A Common from the Selling Stockholders must be parties to the NACCO Stockholders' Agreement. Parties to the Stockholders' Agreement who transfer their shares of Class B Common, on a share for share basis, to the Selling Stockholders in exchange for shares of Class A Common will reduce their voting power. The Selling Stockholders who receive shares of Class B Common in exchange for their Class A Common, on a share for share basis, will increase their voting power.

Except as set forth above in this Restated Schedule 13D and the Schedule 13D (and exhibits attached thereto) filed on February 18, 1998 by RMI, the Reporting Individuals and the other persons named therein with respect to the Class A Common held by Rankin Associates II, L.P., as amended on March 30, 1998, and as further amended on each of April 20, 1998, January 11, 1999, May 28, 1999, November 13, 2000, February 14, 2001 and January 10, 2002 (which Schedule 13D and exhibits are incorporated herein by reference), none of the persons named in response to Item 2 hereof have any contracts, arrangements, understandings or relationships (legal or otherwise) with any person with respect to any securities of the Company, including but not limited to transfer or voting of any such securities, finder's fees, joint ventures, loan or option arrangements, puts or calls, guarantees of profits or loss, or the giving or withholding of proxies.
