Note with respect to Forward-Looking Statements:

This Annual Report on Form 10-K, and in particular the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" section of Exhibit 13.1 hereto, which is incorporated by reference into Item 7 of Part II, contains forward-looking statements concerning future operations and performance of the Company. Forward-looking statements are subject to market, operating and economic risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual results in future periods to be materially different from any future performance suggested herein. Factors that may cause such differences include, among others: increased competition, increased costs, changes in general market conditions, changes in industry trends, changes in the regulatory environment, changes in anticipated levels of government spending on infrastructure, changes in loan relationships or sources of financing, changes in management, changes in information systems, and costs to comply with the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Such forward-looking statements are made pursuant to the Safe Harbor Provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

PART I

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Michael Baker Corporation ("Baker" or "the Company") was founded in 1940 and organized as a Pennsylvania corporation in 1946. Today, through its operating subsidiaries, Baker provides engineering and energy expertise for public and private sector clients worldwide.

The Company's business segments reflect how management makes resource decisions and assesses its performance. The Company's three reportable segments are Engineering, Energy and Non-Core. Information regarding these business segments is contained in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, which is included within Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such information is incorporated herein by reference.

Information regarding the amounts of revenues, income from operations with and without corporate expenses allocated, total assets, capital expenditures, and depreciation and amortization expense attributable to the Company's reportable segments is contained in Note 5 to the consolidated financial statements, which is included within Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such information is incorporated herein by reference.

According to the annual listings published in 2003 by Engineering News Record magazine, Baker ranked 42nd among the top 500 U.S. design firms; 15th among "pure design" firms; 15th among water supply firms; 16th among site assessment and compliance firms; 14th among transportation design firms, including 14th in highways, 12th in bridges and 18th in airports; 32nd among construction management-for-fee firms; 20th among telecommunications firms, including 8th in transmission lines and cables; 66th among environmental firms, including 20th in environmental science; and 66th among global design firms. These rankings were based on 2002 revenues. In addition, the Company believes that it is one of the largest providers of outsourced operations and maintenance services in the Gulf of Mexico.

BUSINESS SEGMENTS

The following briefly describes the Company's business segments:

Engineering - The Engineering segment provides a variety of design and related consulting services. Such services include design-build, construction management, consulting, planning, program management, surveying, mapping, geographic information systems, architectural and interior design, construction inspection, constructability reviews, software development, site assessment and restoration, strategic regulatory analysis, regulatory compliance, and advanced management systems. The Engineering segment has designed a wide range of projects, such as highways, bridges, airports, busways, corporate headquarters, data centers, correctional facilities and educational facilities. This segment also provides services in the water/wastewater, pipeline, emergency and consequence management, resource management, and telecommunications markets. This segment is susceptible to upward and downward fluctuations in Federal and state government spending.

The Company's transportation services have benefited from the U.S. government's Federal transportation infrastructure legislation (TEA-21 and AIR-21) in recent years. Additionally, the Company has benefited from increased Federal government spending in the Departments of Defense and Homeland Security. The Company intends to partner with other contractors to pursue selected design-build contracts, which continue to be a growing project delivery method within the transportation and civil infrastructure markets.

Energy - The Energy segment specializes in providing a full range of Total Asset Management services for operating energy production facilities worldwide. This segment's comprehensive services range from complete outsourcing solutions to specific services such as training, personnel recruitment, pre-operations engineering, maintenance management systems, field operations and maintenance, procurement and supply chain management. The Energy segment primarily serves both major and smaller independent oil and gas producing companies, but does not drill, own or develop oil or gas properties for its own account.

One delivery method employed by the segment is Managed Services (formerly known as OPCO(R)), an operating model that has broadened the Energy segment's service offerings in the offshore Gulf of Mexico and the onshore United States. This model has the potential to enhance both the Company's and its clients' operating margins. Onshore, the Company has taken over full managerial and administrative responsibility for clients' vast producing properties. Offshore, the segment has built a network of marine vessels, helicopters, shore bases, information technology, safety and compliance systems, specialists, and a leadership team that manages the sharing of resources, thereby resulting in improved profitability for participants. Presently, the Company is working under Managed Services agreements with oil and gas producers in the Gulf of Mexico, the Panhandle of Texas, and in the Powder River Basin in Wyoming and Montana.

This segment operates in over a dozen foreign countries, with major projects in the U.S., Venezuela, Thailand, Trinidad, Algeria and Nigeria. The local political environment in certain of these countries subjects the Company's related trade receivables, due from subsidiaries of major oil companies, to lengthy collection delays. Based upon past experience with these clients, after giving effect to the Company's related allowance for doubtful accounts balance at December 31, 2003, management believes that these receivable balances will be fully collectible.

Non-Core - The Non-Core segment includes activity associated with the former buildings and transportation construction operations that are being wound down, and the former Baker Support Services, Inc. subsidiary, which was sold in June 2000.

DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN OPERATIONS

For the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, approximately 87%, 88% and 86% of the Company's total contract revenues, respectively, were derived from work performed for U.S.-based clients within the United States. Further financial information regarding the Company's domestic and foreign operations is contained in Notes 5 and 12 to the consolidated financial statements, which are included within Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such information is incorporated herein by reference. Of the Company's domestic revenues, the majority comprises engineering work performed in the Mid-Atlantic region of the U.S. and operations and maintenance work performed by its Energy segment in Texas, Louisiana, Wyoming, Montana and the Gulf of Mexico. The Company's international revenues are derived primarily from its Energy segment.

BACKLOG

(In millions)	DECEMBER 31, 2003	December 31, 2002
-----	-----	-----
Engineering	$ 470.7	$ 448.8
Energy	250.0	96.4
Non-Core	-	-
	-----	-----
Total	$ 720.7	$ 545.2

The Company's backlog consists of that portion of uncompleted work that is represented by signed or executed contracts. Most of the Company's contracts with the Federal government and other clients may be terminated at will, or option years may not be exercised; therefore, no assurance can be given that all backlog will be realized. The Company's backlog at December 31, 2003 and 2002 was $721 million and $545 million, respectively. Of the Company's total backlog at December 31, 2003, amounts totaling $255 million and $129 million are expected to be recognized as revenue within the next year by the Engineering and Energy segments, respectively. In the Engineering segment, the 2003 increase reflects a 7% increase in backlog for its transportation business as a result of continued TEA-21 funding. In the Energy segment, backlog increased significantly during 2003 due to the addition of two new four-year, Managed Services contracts totaling $144 million to operate and maintain onshore oil and gas producing properties, as well as the renewal of a five-year contract totaling $17 million to provide operations and maintenance and workforce nationalization services overseas. Oil and gas industry merger, acquisition and disposition programs affecting the Company's clients can also result in increases or decreases to the Company's Energy backlog.

There is no direct correlation between the Company's total backlog amounts and its annual total contract revenues. Further, the Company's backlog amounts do not represent a guarantee of future revenues or results of operations. In the case of multi-year contracts, total contract revenues are spread over several years and correspond to the timing of the contract rather than the Company's fiscal year. Many multi-year contracts, particularly with agencies of the U.S. government, provide for optional renewals on the part of the customer. The Company's experience has been that these optional contract renewals have generally been exercised. Engineering backlog generally is highest during the last quarter of the Company's fiscal year because that corresponds to the first quarter of the U.S. government's fiscal year, which is when many government contract renewals occur.

SIGNIFICANT CUSTOMERS

Contracts with various branches of the U.S. government accounted for 17%, 14% and 12% of the Company's total contract revenues for the years ended December 31, 2003, 2002 and 2001, respectively. No individual contract accounted for more than 10% of the Company's total contract revenues in 2003, 2002 or 2001.

COMPETITIVE CONDITIONS

The Company's business is highly competitive with respect to all principal services it offers. Baker competes with numerous public and private firms that provide some or all of the services provided by the Company. The competitive conditions in the Company's businesses relate to the nature of the contracts being pursued. Public-sector contracts, consisting mostly of contracts with Federal and state governmental entities, are generally awarded through a competitive process, subject to the contractors' qualifications and experience. The Company's business segments employ cost estimating, scheduling and other techniques for the preparation of these competitive bids. Private-sector contractors compete primarily on the basis of qualifications, quality of performance and price of services. Most private and public-sector contracts for professional services are awarded on a negotiated basis.

The Company believes that the principal competitive factors (in various orders of importance) in the areas of services it offers are quality of service, reputation, experience, technical proficiency and cost of service. The Company believes that it is well positioned to compete effectively by emphasizing the quality of services it offers and its widely known reputation in providing engineering, management and operations services.

SEASONALITY

Based upon the Company's experience, the Engineering segment's total contract revenues and net income have historically been lower for the first fiscal quarter than for the remaining quarters due to the effect of winter weather conditions, particularly in the Mid-Atlantic and Midwest regions of the United States. Typically, these seasonal weather conditions unfavorably impact the Company's offering of construction management services.

PERSONNEL

At December 31, 2003, the Company had 4,355 total employees. Of this year-end 2003 total, the Engineering segment had 1,971 employees, the Energy segment had 2,342, and the Company's Corporate staff included 42 employees. Certain employees of the Company's 53%-owned Nigerian subsidiary are subject to an in-country collective bargaining agreement. The remainder of the Company's workforce is not subject to collective bargaining arrangements. Management believes that its relations with its employees are good.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

The Company's Internet website address is www.mbakercorp.com. The Company posts its annual reports on Form 10-K, its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, its current reports on Form 8-K, and all amendments to those reports to its website as soon as reasonably practicable after such reports are electronically filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These reports and any amendments to them are also available at the website of the Securities and Exchange Commission, <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company also posts all press releases, earnings releases, the Code of Ethics for Senior Officers and the Charters related to the Governance and Nominating Committee, Audit Committee and Compensation Committee to its website. The Company's website and the information contained on it are not incorporated by reference into this Form 10-K.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

The Company's headquarters offices were relocated in January 2003 to Moon Township, Pennsylvania, at which location approximately 117,000 square feet of office space is leased for use by the Company's Engineering segment and its Corporate staff. The Company's Engineering and Energy segments primarily occupy leased office space in stand-alone or multi-tenant buildings at costs based on market prevailing prices at lease inception. Aside from its Moon Township offices, the Company's Engineering segment also has a major leased office in Alexandria, VA, and leases other office space totaling approximately 352,000 square feet in the U.S. and Mexico. Likewise, the Company's Energy segment has its principal offices in Houston, TX, and leases office space totaling approximately 77,000 square feet in the U.S. and abroad. These leases expire at various dates through the year 2013.

The Company also owns a 75,000 square foot office building located in Beaver, Pennsylvania, which is situated on approximately 230 acres and utilized by the Company's Engineering segment. The Company believes that its current facilities will be adequate for the operation of its business during the next year, and that suitable additional office space is readily available to accommodate any needs that may arise.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In July 2001, the Company announced that it had become aware that certain activities related to the operations of a 53% owned Nigerian subsidiary engaged in energy-related operations are the subject of an inquiry by the U.S. Department of Justice. The Company acquired the Nigerian subsidiary as part of its acquisition of the Overseas Technical Services companies in 1993. The inquiry appears to be focused upon payments made to certain individuals in connection with the subsidiary's operations in Nigeria as they relate to potential violations of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and other relevant statutes. The Company retained legal counsel to represent it in this matter and initiated an internal investigation of these issues. The Company has cooperated fully with the government's inquiry; however, there has been no recent activity in this matter. At this time, the Company is uncertain but does not expect the costs of its investigation, its cooperation with the government's inquiry or the outcome thereof, to have a material adverse financial impact on its future financial results. However, the government's inquiry has not been concluded and the Company's assessment of the outcome may vary as the matter proceeds.

The Company has been named as a defendant or co-defendant in other legal proceedings wherein substantial damages are claimed. Such proceedings are not uncommon to the Company's business. After consultations with counsel, management believes that the Company has recognized adequate provisions for probable and reasonably estimable liabilities associated with these proceedings, and that their ultimate resolutions will not have a material adverse effect on the consolidated financial position or annual results of operations of the Company.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR THE COMPANY'S COMMON STOCK AND RELATED SECURITY HOLDER MATTERS

Information relating to the market for the Company's Common Stock and other matters related to the holders thereof is set forth in the "Supplemental Financial Information" section of Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such information is incorporated herein by reference.

The Company's present policy is to retain any earnings to fund the operations and growth of the Company. The Company has not paid any cash dividends since 1983 and has no plans to do so in the foreseeable future. The Company's loan agreement with its banks places certain restrictions on payments of dividends.

At March 1, 2004, the Company had 1,560 holders of its Common Stock

ITEM 6. SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

A summary of selected financial data for the five years ended December 31, 2003 is set forth in the "Selected Financial Data" section of Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such summary is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

A discussion of the Company's results of operations, cash flow and financial condition is set forth in the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" section of Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such discussion is incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Currently, the Company's primary interest rate risk relates to its variable-rate debt obligations, which totaled $13.5 million as of December 31, 2003. Assuming a 10% increase in interest rates on these variable-rate debt obligations (i.e., an increase from the actual weighted average interest rate of 3.42% as of December 31, 2003, to a weighted average interest rate of 3.76%), annual interest expense would be approximately $46,000 higher in 2003 based on the outstanding balance of variable-rate obligations as of December 31, 2003. The Company's primary interest rate risk as of December 31, 2002 related to its variable-rate investments, which totaled $3.9 million. Assuming a 10% decrease in interest rates on these variable-rate investment balances (i.e., a decrease from the actual weighted average investment rate of 1.16% at December 31, 2002, to a weighted average investment rate of 1.04%), annual interest income would have been approximately $5,000 lower in 2002, based on the respective year-end outstanding balance for variable-rate investments. Accordingly, the Company has no material exposure to interest rate risk, nor does it have any interest rate swap or exchange agreements.

The Company has several foreign subsidiaries that transact portions of their local activities in currencies other than the U.S. Dollar. At December 31, 2003, such currencies included the British Pound, Mexican Peso, Nigerian Naira, Thai Baht and Venezuelan Bolivar. These subsidiaries composed 10.8% of the Company's consolidated total assets at December 31, 2003, and 4.0% of its consolidated total contract revenues for the year then ended. In assessing its exposure to foreign currency exchange rate risk, the Company recognizes that the majority of its foreign subsidiaries' assets and liabilities reflect ordinary accounts receivable and accounts payable balances. These receivable and payable balances are substantially settled in the same currencies as the functional currencies of the related foreign subsidiaries, thereby not exposing the Company to material transaction gains and losses. Accordingly, assuming that foreign currency exchange rates could change unfavorably by 10%, the Company has no material exposure to foreign currency exchange rate risk. The Company has no foreign currency exchange contracts.

Based on the nature of the Company's business, it has no direct exposure to commodity price risk.

ITEM 8. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND SUPPLEMENTARY DATA

The consolidated financial statements, together with the report thereon of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, dated March 10, 2004, and supplementary financial information are set forth within Exhibit 13.1 to this Form 10-K. Such financial statements and supplementary financial information are incorporated herein by reference.

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

Not applicable.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

The Company's principal executive officer and principal financial officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the Company's "disclosure controls and procedures," as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), as of December 31, 2003. Based upon their evaluations, the principal executive officer and principal financial officer concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures are effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in the reports filed or submitted by it under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC's rules and forms, and to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed by the Company in such reports is accumulated and communicated to the Company's management, including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

(b) Changes in Internal Controls

Edgar Filing: BAKER MICHAEL CORP - Form 10-K

There was no change in the Company's "internal control over financial reporting" (as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) under the Exchange Act) that occurred during the quarter ended December 31, 2003, and that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
