Tyson and IBP Meet on Proposed Merger

Springdale, AR (June 18, 2001)

Tyson Foods, Inc. (NYSE: TSN) announced that it and IBP, inc. (NYSE: IBP) held a positive and productive meeting Sunday afternoon. Both parties agreed to work toward completing a merger of the two companies on financial terms identical to those previously agreed. Although details have not been finalized, based on these discussions, Tyson does not currently expect to appeal Friday's decision of the Delaware Chancery Court.

John Tyson, Chairman, President and CEO of Tyson said, "As I first said in December, combining the operations of Tyson and IBP will create a protein company with unmatched reach. The new company will have unparalleled ability to develop innovative, branded food products that fit today's changing consumer lifestyles."

Mr. Tyson continued, "The management of both Tyson and IBP continue to believe the combination of these two companies is a great strategic and financial decision, a fact both Bob Peterson and I testified to at trial. We both performed our duties as senior managers of our respective companies in the courtroom and harbor no resulting ill will. We are satisfied that IBP's accounting issues have been resolved and have every confidence in Dick Bond and his management team. We look forward to their contribution as we work together to run the world's premier protein provider."
