2006 PARS Program and Series D Out-Performance Program

As reported in our Current Report on Form 8-K dated February 9, 2006, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on February 15, 2006, on February 10, 2006, the Board of Directors (the Board) of United Dominion Realty Trust, Inc. (the Company), approved the Company's Series D Out-Performance Program, pursuant to which certain of our executive officers and other key employees may be given the opportunity to invest in performance shares of United Dominion Realty, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership in which we are the general partner, and the 2006 PARS Program, under which participants are awarded a number of shares of common stock with a target grant date value equal to a percentage of the participant's base salary. A description of the Series D Out-Performance Program was attached as Exhibit 10.2 to the Company's Form 8-K dated February 9, 2006.

On May 2, 2006, the Compensation Committee determined the starting stock price for the measurement period for the Series D Out-Performance Program. The starting stock price for the measurement period was set at $22.94. The initial investment in the program is $830,000, assuming 100% participation. Attached as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K is a revised description of the Series D Out-Performance Program which reflects this information and includes information regarding participation in the program. Exhibit 10.1 to this report is incorporated herein by reference.

The form of Notice of Performance Contingent Restricted Stock Award for awards under the 2006 PARS Program on May 2, 2006 is attached as Exhibit 10.2 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

Director and Designated Officer Indemnification Agreements

On May 2, 2006, the Company entered an indemnification agreement, in the form approved by the Board on May 2, 2006, with each of the following directors: Katherine A. Cattanach, Eric J. Foss, Robert P. Freeman, Jon A. Grove, James D. Klingbeil, Robert C. Larson, Thomas R. Oliver, Lynne B. Sagalyn, Mark J. Sandler, Robert W. Scharar, Thomas W. Toomey and Thomas C. Wajnert. On the same date, the Company entered into an indemnification with each of the following designated officers of the Company: W. Mark Wallis, Christopher D. Genry, Richard A. Giannotti, Martha R. Carlin, Sara Jo Light, Mary Ellen Norwood and David L. Messenger. The Company currently expects that it will enter into indemnification agreements in the same form with any future directors and certain designated officers.

In general, the indemnification agreements provide that the Company will, to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law and subject to certain limitations, indemnify the director and the designated officer against certain expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties and settlement amounts that may be incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of any claim, criminal, civil or administrative action or proceeding to which the director and the designated officer becomes subject in connection with the director's service as a director of the Company or the designated officer's employment with the Company. The agreements provide for indemnification rights regarding both third-party claims and proceedings brought by or in the right of the Company. In addition, the indemnification agreements provide for the mandatory advancement of expenses incurred by the indemnitee in connection with any proceeding covered by the agreement to the fullest extent permitted by Maryland law. The indemnification agreements also establish certain procedures and presumptions that apply in determining whether the director and the designated officer are entitled to indemnification. The indemnification agreements do not exclude any other rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses to which the indemnitee may be entitled, including any rights arising under the charter or bylaws of the Company, or Maryland law. The form of indemnification agreement is filed as Exhibit 10.3 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.
