PART I

ITEM 1. DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS.

Old Goat Enterprises, Inc. ( Old Goat , the Company , we , or our Company ) was incorporated on April 23, 2002 in the State of Nevada. We have not yet commenced operations and we currently have no business revenue and no significant assets. Our company has never declared bankruptcy, it has never been in receivership, and it has never been involved in any legal action or proceedings. Subsequent to incorporation, Old Goat has been in the developmental stage and has no operations to date. Our principal activities have only consisted of the issuance of shares to our original shareholders and completion of an offering of 750,000 shares of our common stock at $0.10 per share to the public by a Registration Statement on Form SB-2 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and by qualification of the offering in the State of Nevada. The offering was fully subscribed by 42 subscribers and completed on April 30, 2003.

The Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission periodic and current reports under Rule 13(a) of the Exchange Act, including quarterly reports on Form 10-QSB and annual reports on Form 10-KSB.

We are creating a business as a retailer of specialty personal care products. These products are designed for the use of consumers who are sensitive to certain chemical additives commonly found in mass produced personal care products. Our Company intends to sell products that will provide customers with alternative products that have been manufactured without certain compounds that may cause irritation for the consumer.

We have also recently commenced activities surrounding the evaluation of other new business opportunities that may enable us to provide additional returns to our stockholders. There can be no assurances that we will be successful in these activities or that we will identify other suitable business strategies or directions.

Principal Products and Services

We are initially planning to offer two parallel types of products for sale to consumers. The first is a line of specialty products based on the naturally moisturizing properties of goat's milk. This by-product of the production of milk, cheese and yogurt is a super-rich milk and is appropriate for cosmetic uses. It is believed that the goat's milk contains naturally occurring proteins and compounds that are absorbed by the skin, resulting in a natural moisturizing effect. This product line may consist of goat's milk soaps, goat's milk moisturizing lotions, goat's milk body wash and goat's milk foaming milk bath.

The second is an assortment of personal care products that do not contain certain chemical compounds believed to be irritants to the consumers. If a consumer believes that certain chemical compounds found in body care products are irritants to their skin, they will be able to purchase alternative personal care products that are manufactured using different methods and ingredients. This area of our markets includes sufferers from certain rheumatoid diseases.

From the abundance of personal care products evaluated by our Company, only a relatively few such products have warranted further examination as potential products. Product evaluation is predicated on the suitability of the product for Old Goat's target market. A number of potentially suitable products have been found to be regional in nature, limiting their availability to the mass market, or marketed in such a fashion as to be difficult or impossible to obtain, particularly in Canada, by Old Goat's target market. Discussions of an exploratory and preliminary nature have been held by telephone with several manufacturers of evaluated products, however no understandings or agreements, formal or informal, have been entered into by our Company.

Product evaluation is an ongoing process with Old Goat continuing to seek suitable personal care products that will be appropriate for its target market. All of the products the Company will be selling are manufactured and packaged giving complete instructions and information.

Potential Market

Our target market is the baby boomer generation. This demographic is the largest consumer group in North America and has the largest disposable income. Within this target market are persons who are allergy sufferers and sufferers of other ailments who cannot use standard personal care products due to the risk of adverse reactions to them. Our initial planned marketing efforts will involve the use of an Internet site that we plan to develop.

These consumers are becoming concerned that the personal care products being used may contain chemicals that are harmful to the body. There is a heightened public awareness internationally that environmental contamination is affecting our health. Consumers are beginning to seek out personal care products that are naturally produced without harmful chemicals, and are responding to the increasing baby boomer demographic awareness of personal health. As such we believe that the market for personal care products that contain non-reactive ingredients will grow as more consumers use these products and communicate their experiences.

Competition and Competitive Strategy

At present there are many companies selling personal care products on the Internet. However, most of the sites are based in the United States. We believe there is an opportunity for a Canadian based Internet marketer for our proposed products. Due to currency exchange differences and the problems with shipping and customs, many Canadian consumers are reluctant to purchase from non-Canadian Internet retailers. By offering a full service Canadian alternative with complete product lines and comprehensive information and customer service resources, we believe we can capture a large enough portion of the Canadian Internet market to make the web based portion of the business profitable. The currency exchange difference between the Canadian and U.S. dollar may well make our product lines price competitive with those of U.S. sellers and therefore attract a portion of the business currently being served by the American Internet retailers.

We intend to register and list our web address with search engines and directories such as Lycos, Yahoo, WebCrawler, and Infoseek. We also plan to participate in special interest mailing lists to gain visibility among a targeted audience and generate traffic for our web site. E-mail messages would be sent to specific targeted mailing lists. We also plan to participate in industry related newsgroups to gain visibility and develop relationships with targeted audiences.

Online commerce, however, has been characterized by rapid technological change, evolving industry standards, changes in user and consumer requirements and preferences, frequent new product and service introductions embodying new technologies and the emergence of new industry standards and practices that could render our website obsolete. We may experience difficulties that delay or prevent our being able to respond to these changes. The systems we develop may also be affected by outages, delays and other difficulties due to system failures of Internet service providers, online service providers and other website operators that control access to the Internet. Any such events could substantially harm our business.

We also believe that Old Goat can capture an adequate amount of the traditional walk-up retail trade to make a retail sales location profitable. From our market investigations, we have found that while many retail outlets sell personal care products, very few retailers provide resource information that relates to health and the environment. Due to the increased consumer awareness of environmental issues, we believe that consumers will respond very favorably to a retailing campaign based on sound product information and consumer education. Our intent is to anchor the dot.com side of our business with a traditional bricks-and-mortar base.

Although we will utilize our website to generate revenue, if we fail to secure suitable future retail space to conduct business at a reasonable cost and on acceptable terms, our company's ability to generate an optimal volume of sales will be hampered. Without the ability to aggressively pursue this avenue of sales, our company's activities could be severely restricted and it may take much longer to build a profitable business.

Sources and Availability of Products and Supplies

All products and supplies that we require for consumption or re-sale are readily available from numerous industry wholesalers. Product shortages, restrictions or any other type of limiting factors has not characterized this industry, and there are no indications that such problems will occur in the foreseeable future. We have initiated preliminary discussions with a private label personal care products manufacturer in Surrey, British Columbia, with regards to product sourcing, sales, distribution and marketing.

We are in contact with a supplier in the Province of Quebec for the goats milk products. They are already selling their products in a very small way in the United States through an associate in Vermont. One of the other suppliers of goat's milk cosmetics known to Old Goat is based in the State of Washington. Management is of the belief that both these suppliers are FDA compliant.

Dependence on One or a Few Major Customers

This retail business is not the type of business that is, or can be, dominated by one or a small number of customers.

Patent, Trademark, License & Franchise Restrictions and Contractual Obligations & Concessions

There are no inherent factors or circumstances associated with this industry, or any of the products or services that we plan to provide that would give cause for any patent, trademark or license infringements or violations. Our Company has also not entered into any franchise agreements or other contracts that have given, or could give rise to obligations or concessions.

Governmental Controls and Approvals

As a retailer, the major area for government control or need for government approval would be concerning business licensing, Labor Standards and Occupational Health and Safety. Our Officers and Directors are aware of the various requirements in this regard and will make the necessary arrangements as the business grows and employees are hired.

All of the products being offered for sale will be purchased from reputable wholesale distributors and manufacturers and will carry the necessary Government and industry standard approvals.

Existing or Probable Government Regulations

Old Goat falls within the jurisdiction of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) when selling products into the United States. A substantial part of Old Goat's internet marketing strategy is to provide for Canadians a website where they can order, without the hassles of customs and foreign exchange, products available presently only in the United States. The majority of the products that Old Goat will initially handle for sale will be products manufactured in the United States, and as such, management believes, will be FDA compliant.

Most Canadian manufacturers of cosmetics of a nature that would be of interest to Old Goat are likely FDA compliant as there is an insufficient market in Canada of such products to warrant only domestic production. Under the North American Free Trade Act (NAFTA) and because of growing International Standards Organization (ISO) compliance (Canada and the United States are both ISO members), coupled with the fact that most raw materials for such products are imported from the United States, there is a distinct possibility that potential Canadian products to be marketed by Old Goat are already FDA compliant. Canadian private label manufacturers are also usually ISO and FDA compliant due to the considerable amount of custom business they do annually within the United States.

Other than the licensing requirements discussed above, there are no other types of government regulations existing or being contemplated that would adversely affect our Company's ability to operate.

Compliance With Environmental Laws

There are no environmental laws that have been enacted, nor are we aware of any such laws being contemplated for the future to address issues specific to our business.

Employees

Our company has no employees at the present time. Our President and Board Members are responsible for all planning, developing and operational duties, and will continue to do so throughout the early stages of our growth.

We have no intention of hiring employees until the business has been successfully launched and we have sufficient, reliable sales revenue flowing into the Company. Human resource planning will be part of an ongoing process that will include constant evaluation of operations and revenue realization.

Our President and Board Members presently devote only a portion of their time to the operation of our business (See Item 10).

ITEM 2. DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.

We do not own or rent facilities of any kind. At present we are operating from our official address that is located within the offices of our President. This space is provided free of charge. We will continue to use this space for our executive offices for the foreseeable future. We have recently reviewed our business plan, and although there can be no assurance, are planning to rent a retail store when we have earned sufficient revenue from Internet sales.

We do not have any plants and have minimal equipment for the operation of our office.

We do not intend to invest in real estate.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

None.

ITEM 4. SUBMISSION OF MATTERS TO A VOTE OF SECURITY HOLDERS.

We have not yet held a stockholders meeting in 2003, or submitted matters to a vote of stockholders in 2003. 2003 was our first year of operations since our incorporation on April 23, 2002.

PART II

ITEM 5. MARKET FOR REGISTRANT'S COMMON EQUITY AND RELATED STOCKHOLDER MATTERS.

No market currently exists for our securities and there is no assurance that a regular trading market will develop, or if developed, that it will be sustained. We will be attempting to have our shares listed for trading on the Bulletin Board owned by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. A shareholder in all likelihood, therefore, will be unable to resell the securities referred to herein should he or she desire to do so. Furthermore, it is unlikely that a lending institution will accept our securities as pledged collateral for loans unless a regular trading market develops.

We have no outstanding options or warrants, or other securities convertible into, common equity. Of the 3,550,000 shares of common stock outstanding as of May 8, 2003, 2,800,000 shares were owned by our officers, directors and affiliates, and may only be resold in compliance with Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933.

At May 8, 2003, there were 45 holders of record.

Dividends

We have not declared any cash dividends, nor do we intend to do so. We are not subject to any legal restrictions respecting the payment of dividends, except that they may not be paid to render us insolvent. Dividend policy will be based on our cash resources and needs and it is anticipated that all available cash will be needed for our operations in the foreseeable future.

SEC Rule 15g

Our Company's shares are covered by Section 15g of the Securities Act of 1934, as amended that imposes additional sales practice requirements on broker/dealers who sell such securities to persons other than established customers and accredited investors (generally institutions with assets in excess of $5,000,000 or individuals with net worth in excess of $1,000,000 or annual income exceeding $200,000 or $300,000 jointly with their spouses). For transactions covered by the Rule, the broker/dealer must make a special suitability determination for the purchase and have received the purchaser's written agreement to the transaction prior to the sale. Consequently, the Rule may affect the ability of broker/dealers to sell our securities and also may affect your ability to sell your shares in the secondary market.

Section 15g also imposes additional sales practice requirements on broker/dealers who sell penny securities. These rules require a one page summary of certain essential items. The items include the risk of investing in penny stocks in both public offerings and secondary marketing; terms important to in understanding of the function of the penny stock market, such as "bid" and "offer" quotes, a dealers "spread" and broker/dealer compensation; the broker/dealer compensation, the broker/dealers duties to its customers, including the disclosures required by any other penny stock disclosure rules; the customers rights and remedies in causes of fraud in penny stock transactions; and, the NASD's toll free telephone number and the central number of the North American Administrators Association, for information on the disciplinary history of broker/dealers and their associated persons.

Section 16(a)

We are not subject to Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

RECENT SALES OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

The following is a history of our sales of unregistered securities since our incorporation on April 23, 2002.

Mr. Dennis Cox purchased 1,000,000 shares of our common stock on April 23, 2002 for $1,000. The securities were sold in reliance on Regulation D, Section 505 of the Securities Act of 1933. Mr. Cox is our President and Director of our Company, and continues to be subject to Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933.

During the period from May 1, 2002 to May 31, 2002, a private offering was completed, under which 1,800,000 shares of common stock were sold by subscription at a price of $.01 per share for a total of $18,000. 600,000 shares were sold to each of Mr. Cox, Ms. Laurel Blanchard and Ms. Jean Blanchard. The securities were sold in reliance on Regulation D, Section 505 of the Securities Act of 1933. All shareholders continue to be subject to Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933. Old Goat qualified for an exemption from registration under Rule 505 since it is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Act of 1933, is not an investment company, it had a specific business plan at the time it sold the securities, it was not a blank check company, as that term is defined in Rule 419(a)(2) of Regulation C or Rule 504 (a)(3) of Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933, and the aggregate offering price was less than $1,000,000. All of the places are Directors and Officers of our Company.

No underwriters were used, and no commissions or other remuneration was paid except to the company for any of the above noted.

USE OF PROCEEDS FROM REGISTERED SECURITIES

On April 30, 2003 we completed an offering under an SB2 Registration Statement for 750,000 shares of our common stock. 42 persons subscribed for our shares at the offering price of $0.10 per share and the offering was fully subscribed for. No underwriters were used, and no commissions or other remuneration was paid except to our Company. All of the proceeds of the offering, or $75,000, were deposited into our treasury. The proceeds are to be used to implement our business plan.

DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

The holders of our Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share held and have the sole right and power to vote on all matters on which a vote of stockholders is taken. Voting rights are non-cumulative. The holders of Common Stock are entitled to receive dividends when, as, and if declared by the Board of Directors, out of funds legally available therefore and to share pro rata in any distribution to stockholders. Upon liquidation, dissolution, or the winding up of our company, the holders of the Common Stock are entitled to receive the net assets of the Company in proportion to the respective number of shares held by them after payment of liabilities which may be outstanding. The holders of Common Stock do not have any preemptive right to subscribe for or purchase any shares of any class of stock of the Company. The outstanding shares of Common Stock will not be subject to further call or redemption and are fully paid and non-assessable.

None.

Stock Purchase Options

None.

Dividends

We have not paid any cash dividends since inception. We do not intend to pay cash dividends in the foreseeable future, but intend to retain earnings, if any, for use in our business operations.

ITEM 6. PLAN OF OPERATION.

We have not generated any revenues from products, services or operations since the inception of our company. The foregoing analysis should be read jointly with the financial statements, related notes, and the cautionary statement regarding forward-looking statements, which appear elsewhere in this filing.

Plan of Operation for the Next Twelve Months

Our offering of common stock by our Registration Statement on Form SB-2 closed on April 30, 2003. The offering was fully subscribed. This offering of 750,000 common shares has placed $75,000 into our treasury, allowing us to proceed with our Plan of Operation as set out in our prospectus, and in accordance with the budget set out for our corporate operations for the next twelve months.

Our future operations are also dependent upon the identification and successful completion of additional long-term or permanent equity financing, the support of creditors and shareholders, and, ultimately, the achievement of profitable operations. There can be no assurances that we will be successful, which would in turn significantly affect our ability to roll out our business plan. If not, we will likely be required to reduce operations or liquidate assets. We will continue to evaluate our projected expenditures relative to our available cash and to seek additional means of financing in order to satisfy our working capital and other cash requirements.

We have commenced with the development of a Corporate Identity Package, which consists of a unique and distinctive identifying mark, or logo, and a background and typeface color scheme for use in both printed material such as stationery, business cards and sales material, as well as for use on Old Goat's website. We have also begun to design and build our website. Our domain name www.oldgoatinc.com has been registered and we have made an information page available on the internet. Building of the complete website will start within the next several weeks.

The website will provide basic information and facts about personal care products and related environmental and health issues. It will discuss some of these common issues related to use of certain compounds in the environment and how these compounds may affect certain consumers. It will also discuss how to avoid the use of unwanted chemicals by using alternate products. It will also display all of the products our company has available for sale. Those items will include a variety of personal care products produced by various manufacturers. There will be full product descriptions, along with pictures and technical specifications for each individual item offered for sale.

In addition to the website, we are planning to open a retail facility in a mall in New Westminster. If inadequate funds are available for the development of our retail store, we will locate in a kiosk type structure situated in the main traffic area of the mall. We plan on reviewing these requirements in the near future.

While the Company has not yet secured product suppliers, there has been a significant amount of research into the availability and suitability of products. We will order inventory as soon as the manufacturers and/or suppliers are selected. Old Goat has confirmed through telephonic and other electronic contact such as e-mail, a number of potentially acceptable manufacturers and suppliers and foresees no problem in being able to meet our target objectives based on the information received from said manufacturers and suppliers.

Web server space will be contracted from a local Internet Service Provider (ISP), which has recently been chosen. The Company will be required to purchase a computer during the first year of operations, however if there are sufficient financial resources available to do so, a second one will be purchased and placed at the retail store location for convenience. The retail store location will have credit card point of sale (POS) facilities for processing credit card payments from both in-person store purchases as well as Internet purchases.

During the first stages of the Company's growth the Officers and Directors will provide all the labor required to operate the website as well as the retail store at no charge. Since we intend to operate with very limited administrative support, the Officers and Directors will continue to be responsible for these duties for at least the first year of operations.

How long Old Goat will be able to satisfy its cash requirements, and whether we will require additional outside funding in the next twelve months depends on how quickly our company can generate sales revenue and how much revenue can be generated.

Our ability to succeed is uncertain because we currently have no operating history upon which to base our growth projections. We expect, however, to experience significant growth when we are operational, and anticipate such growth will continue for the foreseeable future.

Our growth may place a significant strain on our managerial, financial, and operational resources. Failure to manage our growth effectively could harm our ability to generate revenues, which could impair our ability to compete, market, and promote our services.

Expenditures

The following chart provides an overview of our planned expenditures by major area of activity, for the next twelve (12) month period.

Expenditure Item	100%
Website Development	5,000
Marketing and Promotion	10,000
Inventory	20,000
Legal and Accounting	9,000
Website Hosting and Telecom	2,000
Furniture and Equipment	6,000
Retail Location	18,000

Miscellaneous Administrative Costs	5,000
Total	$75,000

Cash on hand is currently our only source of liquidity. We do not have any lending arrangements in place with banking or financial institutions and we do not anticipate that we will be able to secure these funding arrangements in the near future.

We believe our existing cash balances are sufficient to carry our normal operations for the next twelve months, before any cash requirements that may be needed for any further acquisitions or new business ventures, should we decide to pursue same, which may accelerate our need to raise additional cash. To the extent that we require additional funds to support our operations or the expansion of our business, we may sell additional equity or issue debt. Any sale of additional equity securities will result in dilution to our stockholders. There can be no assurance that additional financing, if required, will be available to our company or on acceptable terms.

We do not anticipate making any major purchases of capital assets in the next 12 months, or conducting any research and development. Our current corporate employee count is expected to remain the same for the next 12 months.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURE ABOUT MARKET RISK

We believe our market risk exposures arise primarily from exposures to fluctuations in interest rates and exchange rates. We presently only transact business in Canadian and US Dollars. We believe that the exchange rate risk surrounding the future transactions of the Company will not materially or adversely affect our future earnings. We do not use derivative financial instruments to manage risks or for speculative or trading purposes.
