Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers, Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(b) On February 24, 2012 Corn Products International, Inc. (the Company) was advised by Robin A. Kornmeyer, age 63, the Company's Vice President and Controller, of his intention to retire on December 31, 2012, and to resign as the Company's Controller and principal accounting officer upon the identification of his successor.

The Company has retained an executive search firm to advise it concerning potential candidates and has commenced a comprehensive internal and external search to identify Mr. Kornmeyer's successor. Mr. Kornmeyer will continue to serve as Vice President and Controller until his successor is named, and will remain with the Company thereafter until his retirement in order to facilitate a smooth transition.
