This Amendment No. 15 to Schedule 14D-9 amends and supplements the Solicitation/Recommendation Statement on Schedule 14D-9 (as amended from time to time, the Schedule 14D-9) originally filed by Vulcan Materials Company, a New Jersey corporation (Vulcan or the Company), with the Securities and Exchange Commission on December 22, 2011 and subsequently amended, relating to the unsolicited exchange offer by Martin Marietta Materials, Inc., (Martin Marietta), a North Carolina corporation, to exchange each of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Vulcan (the Vulcan Common Stock) for 0.50 shares of the common stock (the Exchange Ratio), par value $0.01 per share, of Martin Marietta, together with the associated preferred stock purchase rights (the Martin Marietta Common Stock).

Except as specifically noted herein, the information set forth in the Schedule 14D-9 remains unchanged. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Amendment No. 15 have the meanings ascribed to them in the Schedule 14D-9.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation

Item 4 of the Statement is hereby amended and restated by inserting the following paragraph after the last paragraph of the section titled Background of the Offer :

On May 4, 2012, the Delaware Chancery Court ruled that Martin Marietta breached two binding contracts in pursuing its Offer and proxy contest to seek control of Vulcan. The Court ruled that Martin Marietta shall be enjoined for a period of four months from prosecuting a proxy contest, making an exchange or tender offer, or otherwise taking steps to acquire control of Vulcan shares or assets. The Court held further that [d]uring that period, [Martin Marietta] is also enjoined from any further violations of the two binding agreements.

On May 7, 2012, Martin Marietta announced its intent to pursue an appeal and seek a stay of the Delaware Chancery Court's decision pending the outcome of the appeal.

Item 4 of the Statement is further amended and restated by replacing the subsection entitled (IV) The Offer is illegal with the following:

(IV) The Offer is illegal.

Prior to launching the Offer, Martin Marietta obtained from Vulcan highly sensitive, material, non-public and confidential information pursuant to a letter agreement covering confidentiality, use restrictions and other terms, dated as of May 3, 2010, between the parties and a common interest, joint defense and confidentiality agreement, dated as of May 18, 2010, between the parties and between their respective counsel. Each of these agreements contains, among other things, strict prohibitions on misusing and improperly disclosing confidential information. Vulcan commenced litigation in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama, Southern Division and filed a counterclaim in the Delaware Court of Chancery to enforce its rights under these agreements and the federal securities laws and accordingly to enjoin the Offer, as described further under Item 8. Additional Information Litigation. On May 4, 2012, the Delaware Chancery Court ruled that Martin Marietta breached these two binding contracts in pursuing its Offer and proxy contest to seek control of Vulcan. The Court ruled that Martin Marietta shall be enjoined for a period of four months from prosecuting a proxy contest, making an exchange or tender offer, or otherwise taking steps to acquire control of Vulcan shares or assets. The Court held further that [d]uring that period, [Martin Marietta] is also enjoined from any further violations of the two binding agreements.

Item 5. Persons/Assets Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used

Item 5 of the Statement is hereby amended and restated in its entirety as follows:

Vulcan has retained Goldman, Sachs & Co. in connection with, among other things, Vulcan's analysis and consideration of, and response to, the exchange offer. Goldman will be paid fees to be determined by the Company for such services, may be reimbursed for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including certain fees and disbursements of its legal counsel), and will be indemnified against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of the engagement.

Vulcan has engaged MacKenzie Partners, Inc. (MacKenzie) to assist it in connection with Vulcan's communications with its shareholders in connection with the Offer. Vulcan has agreed to pay customary compensation to MacKenzie for such services. In addition, Vulcan has agreed to reimburse MacKenzie for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify it and certain related persons against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of the engagement.

Vulcan has also retained Sard Verbinnen & Co. (Sard Verbinnen) as its public relations advisor in connection with the Offer. Vulcan has agreed to pay customary compensation to Sard Verbinnen for such services. In addition, Vulcan has agreed to reimburse Sard Verbinnen for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify Sard Verbinnen and certain related persons against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of the engagement.

Vulcan has retained Bank of America Merrill Lynch (BAML) as an additional independent financial advisor in connection with, among other things, Vulcan's analysis and consideration of, and response to, the Offer. Vulcan will pay BAML fees to be determined by the Company for its services, reimburse it for certain of its expenses (including certain fees and disbursements of its legal counsel), and indemnify it and certain related persons against certain liabilities relating to or arising out of the engagement.

Except as set forth above, neither Vulcan nor any person acting on its behalf has or currently intends to employ, retain, or compensate any person to make solicitations or recommendations to the shareholders of Vulcan on its behalf with respect to the Offer.

Item 8. Additional Information

The subsection of Item 8 entitled Litigation - Delaware Litigation is hereby deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

On December 12, 2011, Martin Marietta Materials, Inc. commenced litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery against Vulcan seeking declaratory and injunctive relief. The action is captioned Martin Marietta Materials, Inc. v. Vulcan Materials Co., C.A. No. 7102-CS (Del. Ch.). In its complaint, Martin Marietta asked the court to issue a declaration that the May 3, 2010 letter agreement covering confidentiality, use restrictions and other terms between Martin Marietta and Vulcan does not prohibit (1) the exchange offer launched by Martin Marietta on December 12, 2011 or (2) Martin Marietta's anticipated nomination of five candidates for Vulcan's board of directors at the 2012 annual meeting. Martin Marietta also sought an injunction prohibiting Vulcan from prosecuting any action under the May 3, 2010 letter agreement covering confidentiality, use restrictions and other terms in any jurisdiction other than Delaware.

On December 20, 2011, Vulcan answered the complaint and asserted counterclaims against Martin Marietta. Vulcan alleged that Martin Marietta violated the May 3, 2010 letter agreement covering confidentiality, use restrictions and other terms by using and disclosing confidential material protected by the agreement to launch its exchange offer. On this basis, Vulcan sought (1) a declaration that Martin Marietta is barred from disclosing material received pursuant to the May 3, 2010 letter agreement in connection with its exchange offer, and (2) a decree of specific performance or an injunction prohibiting Martin Marietta from pursuing its exchange offer and requiring Martin Marietta to withdraw the documents it has publicly filed that disclose information covered by the agreement.

In order to ensure efficient and prompt resolution of the contract disputes between Vulcan and Martin Marietta, Vulcan agreed during a conference with the Court to litigate together in the Delaware Court of Chancery its claims under the May 3, 2010 letter agreement covering confidentiality, use restrictions and other terms, and its claims then pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama (see Alabama Litigation, below) under the May 18, 2010 common interest, joint defense and confidentiality agreement.

On January 18, 2012, Vulcan filed with the Court its amended answer and counterclaim, alleging that Martin Marietta violated both the May 3, 2010 letter agreement covering confidentiality, use restrictions and other terms and the May 18, 2010 common interest, joint defense, and confidentiality agreement in connection with its exchange offer. To remedy Martin Marietta's breaches of contract, Vulcan sought (1) an order enjoining Martin Marietta from pursuing its exchange offer, (2) an order enjoining Martin Marietta from pursuing its proposed proxy contest, and (c) a declaration that Martin Marietta may not disclose any further confidential Vulcan information in order to satisfy the requirements of the federal securities laws or otherwise.

The Court held a four-day trial on the parties' claims between February 28, 2012 and March 2, 2012. Post-trial briefing was completed on March 30, 2012, and the Court held argument on April 9, 2012.

On May 4, 2012, the Delaware Chancery Court ruled that Martin Marietta breached two binding contracts in pursuing its Offer and proxy contest to seek control of Vulcan. The Court ruled that Martin Marietta shall be enjoined for a period of four months from prosecuting a proxy contest, making an exchange or tender offer, or otherwise taking steps to acquire control of Vulcan shares or assets. The Court held further that [d]uring that period, [Martin Marietta] is also enjoined from any further violations of the two binding agreements. Martin Marietta has announced its intent to pursue an appeal and seek a stay of the Delaware Chancery Court's decision pending the outcome of the appeal.

The subsection of Item 8 entitled Litigation - New Jersey Litigation is hereby amended by adding the following after the third-to-last paragraph:

On April 5, 2012, the Court held a hearing related to discovery procedures. In an order issued on the same date, the Court, among other things, ordered Vulcan and Martin Marietta to enter into a confidentiality agreement or other protective order for the purpose of sharing certain information between the parties.

On April 25, 2012, Martin Marietta filed a motion seeking a preliminary injunction prohibiting Vulcan from declaring Martin Marietta's nominees ineligible for election.

On May 7, 2012, Martin Marietta withdrew its motion for a preliminary injunction in light of the Chancery Court's opinion.
