Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration

Chiesi Investment in the Company and Initial Purchase from Certain Stockholders May 6, 2009

On May 6, 2009, the Company and Chiesi entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the Stock Purchase Agreement), pursuant to which the Company agreed, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Stock Purchase Agreement, to issue and sell 11,902,741 shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.001 per share (Common Stock), to Chiesi (the Company Stock Sale). The Stock Purchase Agreement provided that, in exchange for the shares to be issued to Chiesi, Chiesi would (i) grant the Company an exclusive ten-year license to distribute and market Chiesi's Curosurf® product in the United States and (ii) pay the Company $15,465,075 in cash. The Stock Purchase Agreement also contemplated that the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws be amended to incorporate certain corporate governance provisions consistent with the terms of the Governance Agreement described below.

Concurrently with the closing of the Company Stock Sale on July 28, 2009, Chiesi purchased an aggregate of 1.6 million shares of Common Stock owned by two stockholders that are entities controlled by Craig A. Collard, the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Steven M. Lutz, the then Executive Vice President, Manufacturing and Trade of the Company, pursuant to a separate stock purchase agreement (the Stockholders Stock Purchase Agreement), for $5.50 per share in cash. Following the closing of the Initial Stock Sale and the closing of the Company Stock Sale on July 28, 2009, Chiesi owned approximately 51% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Stock Purchase Agreement).

In connection with and concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company, Chiesi and, solely with respect to certain sections identified therein, certain stockholders of the Company, entered into a Governance Agreement (the Governance Agreement), which set forth certain rights and obligations of the Company, Chiesi and such stockholders concerning, among other things, certain corporate governance matters, the voting of Chiesi's shares of Common Stock, certain limitations on future acquisitions and dispositions of shares of Common Stock by Chiesi and certain rights of first offer to distribute and market the other party's products. The Governance Agreement became effective upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale. The Governance Agreement also provided that during the period beginning on the date of closing of the Company Stock Sale and ending 24 months thereafter (the Blackout Period), Chiesi would not directly or indirectly acquire or offer to acquire any shares of Common Stock except pursuant to certain exceptions described in the Governance Agreement.

In connection with and concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company, Chiesi and certain stockholders of the Company, entered into a Stockholders Agreement, as amended (the Stockholders Agreement) pursuant to which the stockholders agreed not to sell or otherwise transfer a number of shares equal to approximately 80% of the shares of Common Stock held by them as of May 6, 2009 (the Covered Shares), subject to certain exceptions described in the Stockholders Agreement. In addition, the stockholders agreed they would not, directly or indirectly, acquire or offer to acquire any shares of Common Stock, subject to certain exceptions described in the Stockholders Agreement. The Stockholders Agreement also provided that beginning on the date on which the restrictions on transfers by the stockholders of the Covered Shares lapsed and for a 30 day period thereafter, Chiesi had the option, exercisable in whole but not in part on a single occasion, to acquire all the stockholders' Covered Shares, at a price per share of $12.00 (subject to adjustment for any stock split, stock dividend, reverse stock split or similar adjustment). Each stockholder also agreed, subject to certain conditions, that at any meeting of the stockholders of the Company called to consider a transaction in which Chiesi or its affiliate would acquire all the outstanding capital stock of the Company, the stockholder would vote all shares of Common Stock owned by such stockholder at the applicable record date set for such meeting in the same proportions that the shares of Common Stock owned by the other stockholders of the Company (other than Chiesi and its affiliates) were voted on such matter. The Stockholders Agreement became effective upon the closing of the Company Stock Sale.

In connection with and concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company and Chiesi entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the Chiesi Registration Rights Agreement), pursuant to which the Company agreed to provide registration rights to Chiesi with respect to the shares of Common Stock that are beneficially owned by Chiesi. Under such agreement, following the Blackout Period, Chiesi was entitled to require the Company to file with the SEC certain registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (each a Demand Registration) with respect to the resale of the shares of Common Stock acquired pursuant to the Initial Stock Purchase Agreement and the Stock Purchase Agreement up to four times, and to include its shares of Common Stock in any registration the Company proposed for its own account or for the account of one or more of its stockholders.

In connection with and concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company and the stockholders of the Company who entered into the Stockholders Agreement also entered into a Registration Rights Agreement (the Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement) substantially similar to the Chiesi Registration Rights Agreement. Under such agreement, such stockholders were entitled to two Demand Registrations during the Blackout Period and three Demand Registrations thereafter. The stockholders also had the right to include their shares of Common Stock in any registration the Company proposed for its own account or for the account of one or more of its stockholders.

In connection with and concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company and Chiesi entered into a Voting Agreement (the Chiesi Voting Agreement), pursuant to which Chiesi agreed to vote all of its shares of Common Stock in favor of the approval and adoption of the proposed amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation.

In connection with and concurrently with the execution and delivery of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company also, on May 6, 2009, entered into a voting agreement with Chiesi and certain stockholders of the Company named therein (the Stockholders Voting Agreement), solely with respect to Section 2(b) thereof, which provided that the Company would not, and was unconditionally instructed not to, permit on its books and records transfers by, issue new certificates to or record any vote of such stockholders, unless such stockholder had complied with the terms of the Stockholders Voting Agreement. Pursuant to the Stockholders Voting Agreement, the stockholders named therein granted to Chiesi irrevocable proxies over the shares of Common Stock owned by them and agreed to vote the shares of Common Stock owned by them in favor of the Company Stock Sale and approval and adoption of the proposed amendment to the Company's certificate of incorporation, subject to the terms and conditions of the Stockholders Voting Agreement.

On July 28, 2011, the Governance Agreement terminated pursuant to its terms; however, certain of the other agreements discussed above continue to have ongoing obligations.

Chiesi Additional Purchase of Shares from Certain Stockholders December 16, 2010

Pursuant to the Governance Agreement while it was in effect, Chiesi was permitted to make additional purchases of the Company's common stock to the extent necessary to maintain its beneficial ownership of the Company's common stock at 51% on a Fully Diluted Basis (as defined in the Governance Agreement). As a result of the issuance of additional equity awards under the Company's stock option plan following the closing of the Initial Stock Sale, Chiesi's beneficial ownership on a Fully Diluted Basis had dropped below 51%. Accordingly, Chiesi approached entities controlled by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz regarding their willingness to sell additional shares to Chiesi in a private transaction. The parties agreed that a private sale was in the best interests of the parties, the Company and the Company's other stockholders in that it would avoid potential short-term market distortions that could have occurred had Chiesi sought to purchase the shares in the open market.

Accordingly, on December 16, 2010, the entities controlled by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz sold an additional 450,000, of Common Stock to Chiesi pursuant to a stock purchase agreement dated December 16, 2010 (the December 16, 2010 Stock Purchase Agreement) at a price of $6.02 per share, for aggregate proceeds of $2.7 million. The agreed-upon sales price was determined based on the average closing price of the Common Stock during the twenty trading days prior to the date of the sale.

Open Market Transactions

On November 29, 2011, December 14, 2011, March 12, 2012, March 14, 2012 and March 15, 2012, Chiesi acquired an aggregate of 21,200 shares of outstanding Common Stock at prices ranging from $5.0649 to $6.08 per share, in open market transactions. These purchases were made to maintain Chiesi's beneficial ownership percentage of the Company's outstanding Common Stock on a fully diluted basis.

Chiesi Agreement to Purchase Shares from Carolina March 16, 2012

On March 16, 2012, Carolina Pharmaceuticals Ltd., a Bermuda company (Carolina) and Chiesi entered into a stock purchase agreement (the March 16, 2012 Stock Purchase Agreement), whereby Carolina agreed to sell, and Chiesi agreed to purchase, 1,443,913 shares of Common Stock held by Carolina for $6.25 per share for aggregate proceeds of approximately $9.0 million. Chiesi had approached Carolina regarding its willingness to sell additional shares in a private transaction to allow Chiesi to increase its ownership in the Company. The parties agreed that a private sale was in the best interests of the parties, the Company and the Company's other stockholders in that it would avoid potential short-term market distortions that could have occurred had Chiesi sought to purchase the shares in the open market. The closing of the transaction contemplated by the March 16, 2012 Stock Purchase Agreement occurred on April 3, 2012 following approval of the transaction by the boards of directors of Chiesi and Carolina on March 30, 2012 and March 31, 2012, respectively.

Credit Agreement between Chiesi and the Company June 21, 2012

On June 21, 2012, the Company entered into a senior secured term loan facility (the Facility) with Chiesi, pursuant to a credit agreement (the 2012 Credit Agreement) between the Company and Chiesi executed on June 21, 2012. The Facility is comprised of (i) a five-year Term Loan A of $60 million at 7.5% interest per annum and (ii) a five-year Term Loan B of $30 million at 6.5% interest per annum. Principal amounts outstanding under Term Loan B may be converted into Common Stock at $7.098 per share at Chiesi's option at any time during the 24 months following the closing of the Facility, up to an aggregate of 4,226,542 shares of Common Stock.

The source of the consideration provided by Chiesi for the purchases of Common Stock and Term Loan B described above was working capital. No borrowed funds were used to purchases of Common Stock described above, other than any borrowed funds used for working capital purposes in the ordinary course of business.

The descriptions of the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Stockholders Stock Purchase Agreement, the Governance Agreement, the Stockholders Agreement, the Chiesi Registration Rights Agreement, the Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement, the Chiesi Voting Agreement, the Stockholders Voting Agreement, the December 16, 2010 Stock Purchase Agreement, the March 16, 2012 Stock Purchase Agreement and the 2012 Credit Agreement do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by the following, which are incorporated herein by reference: (i) the Stock Purchase Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 1; (ii) the Stockholders Stock Purchase Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 2; (iii) the Governance Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 3; (iv) the Stockholders Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 4, as amended by Exhibit 5; (v) the Chiesi Registration Rights Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 6; (vi) the Stockholders Registration Rights Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 7; (vii) the Chiesi Voting Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 8; (viii) the Stockholders Voting Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 9; (ix) the December 16, 2010 Stock Purchase Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 10; (x) the March 16, 2012 Stock Purchase Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 11; and (xi) the 2012 Credit Agreement, which is referenced herein as Exhibit 12.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

(a) (b) The purpose of the sales of Common Stock by the Company and by the entities controlled by Mr. Collard and Mr. Lutz and the entry into the other agreements entered into in connection with the proposed issuance and sale of shares of Common Stock to Chiesi is to form a strategic alliance between the Company and Chiesi through the transactions contemplated by the agreements described above.

Chiesi intends to review the performance of its investment in the Company from time to time. Depending on various factors, including the business, prospects and financial position of the Company, the current and anticipated future price levels of the Common Stock, the conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, as well as the other investment opportunities available to them, Chiesi will take such actions with respect to its investment in the Company as it deems appropriate in light of the circumstances existing from time to time.
