EXPLANATORY NOTE

On November 13, 2013, the Company filed a report that contained a Power Point presentation that is anticipated to be delivered to accredited potential investors related to a private placement offering, beginning November 13, 2013. The presentation contained two errors. In one instance, there was an inadvertent use of the word "banking" when the word "insurance" should have been utilized in a characterization of a management team member's experience. In the second instance, there was an inadvertent reference to "insurance companies" within a given bullet point when the reference should have been in the following bullet point.

The Company hereby files this amendment to the 8-K (the 8-K/A) to correct that information. None of the other information previously disclosed in the 8-K is modified by this 8-K/A.
