SEC's Collection of Information

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. Filing of Form N-17f-2 is mandatory for an investment company that has custody of securities or similar investments. Rule 17f-2 under section 17(f) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 requires the investment company to retain an independent public accountant to verify the company's securities and similar investments by actual examination three times during each fiscal year. The accountant must prepare a certificate stating that the examination has occurred and describing the examination, and must transmit the certificate to the Commission with Form N-17f-2 as a cover sheet. The Commission uses the Form to ensure that the certificate is properly attributed to the investment company. The Commission estimates that the burden of completing Form N-17f-2 is approximately 1.0 hours per filing. Any member of the public may direct to the Commission any comments concerning the accuracy of the burden estimate of this Form, and any suggestions for reducing this burden. This collection of information has been reviewed by the Office of Management and Budget in accordance with the clearance requirements of 44 U.S.C. § 3507. Responses to this collection of information will not be kept confidential.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Trustees

Voya Global Advantage and Premium Opportunity Fund (formerly ING Global Advantage and Premium Opportunity Fund)

We have examined management's assertion, included in the accompanying management statement regarding compliance with certain provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the Act), that Voya Global Advantage and Premium Opportunity Fund (the Fund) complied with the applicable requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 under the Act with respect to the securities held by affiliated sub-custodian banks pursuant to rule 17f-5 of the Act as of February 28, 2013. Management is responsible for the Fund's compliance with those requirements. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on management's assertion about the Fund's compliance based on our examination.

Our examination was conducted in accordance with the attestation standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included examining, on a test basis, evidence about the Fund's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Included among our procedures were the following tests performed as of February 28, 2013, and with respect to agreement of security purchases and sales, for the period September 30, 2012 (date of our last examination) through February 28, 2013:

- Confirmation of all securities held in book entry form by The Bank of New York Mellon (custodian);
- Confirmation of securities held in book entry form by ING Bank Slaski (affiliated sub-custodian bank);
- Confirmation of securities held in book entry form by Polish National Depository of Securities (foreign depository);
- Confirmation or inspection of documentation of all securities purchased but not received, hypothecated, pledged, placed in escrow, or out for transfer with brokers, pledges and/or transfer agents;
- Reconciliation of all such securities to the books and records of the Fund, the custodian and the affiliated sub-custodian banks;
- Agreement of selected security purchases and sales during the period of September 30, 2012 through February 28, 2013 from the books and records of the Fund to broker confirmations or bank statements;

Edgar Filing: Voya Global Advantage & Premium Opportunity Fund - Form 40-17F2

- Review of the BNY Mellon Asset Servicing Custody and Securities Lending Services Service Organization Control Report (SOC 1 Report) for the period October 1, 2012 to September 30, 2013 and noted no relevant findings were reported in the areas of Asset Custody and Control.

Edgar Filing: Voya Global Advantage & Premium Opportunity Fund - Form 40-17F2

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Fund's compliance with the specified requirements.

In our opinion, management's assertion that the Fund complied with the applicable requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 of the Act as of February 28, 2013, with respect to the securities reflected in the investment accounts of the Fund that are held by the affiliated sub-custodian banks pursuant to rule 17f-5 of the Act, is fairly stated, in all material respects. We have not examined the Fund's compliance with rule 17f-5 of the Act and express no opinion thereon.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Board of Trustees of the Fund, and the Securities and Exchange Commission, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

RE: Management Statement Regarding Compliance with Certain Provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We, as members of management of the Voya funds (formerly known as the ING Funds) listed in Appendix A (the Funds), are responsible for complying with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2, Custody of Investments by Registered Management Investment Company, of the Investment Company Act of 1940. We are also responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal controls over compliance with those requirements. We have performed an evaluation of the Funds' compliance with the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 as of February 28, 2013, July 31, 2013, and October 31, 2013, and for the period from October 1, 2012 through October 31, 2013.

Based on this evaluation, we assert that the Funds were in compliance with the applicable requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 as of February 28, 2013, July 31, 2013, and October 31, 2013, and for the period from October 1, 2012 through October 31, 2013 with respect to securities reflected in the investment accounts of the Funds that are held by affiliated foreign sub-custodians. We note that all affiliated sub-custodians that maintained assets of the Funds during the applicable period qualified as Eligible Foreign Custodians under rule 17f-5.

Very truly yours,

Voya funds
