2. Legal provisions, basis of preparation and other information:

(a) Legal provisions:

The General Banking Law in its Article No.15 authorizes the Chilean Superintendency of Banks (SBIF) to issue generally applicable accounting standards for entities it supervises. The Corporations Law, in turn, requires generally accepted accounting principles to be followed.

Based on the aforementioned laws, banks should use the criteria provided by the Superintendency in accordance with the Compendium of Accounting Standards (Compendium), and any matter not addressed therein, as long as it does not contradict its instructions, should adhere to generally accepted accounting principles in technical standards issued by the Chilean Association of Accountants, that coincide with international accounting standards and international financial reporting standards agreed upon by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB). Should there be discrepancies between these generally accepted accounting principles and the accounting criteria issued by the SBIF, the latter shall prevail.

3. New Accounting Pronouncements:

3.1 Accounting rules issued by IASB

The following is a summary of new standards, interpretations and improvements to the International Financial Reporting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB), which are no effective as of September 30, 2014:

3.1 Accounting rules issued by IASB:

IFRS 9 Financial Instruments

The July 24, 2014, IASB completed its upgrade project about accounting for financial instruments with the publication of IFRS 9 Financial Instruments.

This standard includes new requirements based on new principles for the classification and measurement, it introduces a more prospective model of expected credit losses on impairment accounting and a focus substantially renovated for hedge accounting.

Classification and measurement

The classification determines how financial assets and financial liabilities are accounted for in financial statements and, in particular, how they are measured on an ongoing basis. IFRS 9 introduces a logical approach for the classification of financial assets driven by cash flow characteristics and the business model in which an asset is held. This single, principle-based approach replaces existing rule-based requirements that are complex and difficult to apply. The new model also results in a single impairment model being applied to all financial instruments removing a source of complexity associated with previous accounting requirements.

Impairment

The IASB has introduced a new, expected loss impairment model that will require more timely recognition of expected credit losses. Specifically, the new Standard requires entities to account for expected credit losses from when financial instruments are first recognised and it lowers the threshold for recognition of full lifetime expected losses.

Hedge Accounting

IFRS 9 introduces a substantially-reformed model for hedge accounting with enhanced disclosures about risk management activity. The new model represents a substantial overhaul of hedge accounting that aligns the accounting treatment with risk management activities, enabling entities to better reflect these activities in their financial statements. In addition, as a result of these changes, users of the financial statements will be provided with better information about risk management and the effect of hedge accounting on the financial statements

Entity s Own Credit Risk

IFRS 9 removes the volatility in profit or loss caused by changes in the credit risk to liabilities measured at fair value. This change in accounting means that the profit produced by the quality decline of own credit risk of the entity in this kind of obligations are not recognized in profit or loss of the period. IFRS 9 permits early application of this improved in the financial information, before any other change in the accounting for financial instruments.

Adoption date mandatory January 1, 2018.

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the possible impact of adoption of these changes on the consolidated financial statements, however, that impact will depend on the assets maintained by the institution as of the adoption date. It is not practicable to quantify the effect on the issuance of these consolidated financial statements. To date, this standard has not been approved by the Superintendency of Banks, event that is required for their application.

IFRS 11 Joint Ventures

In May of 2014 the IASB modified IFRS 11, to provide guides about the accounting of acquisitions of participations in joint operations, whose activity constitute a business.

This IFRS requires that the acquirer of an participation in joint operation whose activity constitute a business, like it is defined in IFRS 3 Business Combination, applies all the principles about accounting of business combination of IFRS 3 and others IFRS, except those that conflict with guidelines of these IFRS.

The effective date is beginning on January 1, 2016 and its early application is permitted.

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the impact of these rules in its consolidated financial statements.

IAS 16 Property, plant and equipment and IAS 38 Intangible assets

In May of 2014 the IASB modified IAS 16 and 38 with purpose of clarifies accepted method of depreciation and amortization.

The amendment of IAS 16 prohibits for property, plant and equipment, depreciation based on ordinary income.

The amendment of IAS 38 introduces the presumption of ordinary income are not an appropriate base for the amortization of intangible asset. This presumption only is refuted in two circumstances: (a) intangible asset is expressed like a unit of ordinary income; and (b) ordinary income and consumption of intangible asset are highly correlated.

Also, it introduces guidelines to explain that expected futures reductions in the prices of sale could be indicator of reductions in futures economics benefits in an asset. The effective date is beginning on January 1, 2016, its early application is permitted.

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the impact of this rule in its consolidated financial statements.

IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers

In May 2014 was issued IFRS 15, whose objective is to establish the principles that an entity shall apply to report useful information to users of financial statements about the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from a contract with a customer.

Application of the standard is mandatory for annual reporting periods starting from January 1, 2017 onwards. Earlier application is permitted.

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the impact of this rule in its consolidated financial statements.

IAS 27 Consolidated and Separated Financial Statements

In August 2014, the IASB published the amendment that will allow entities to use the equity method to account for investments in subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates in their separate financial statements.

This amendment has the objective of facilitating the implementation of IFRS in jurisdictions where this method is required, thus reducing the costs of developing separated financial statements.

The effective date is beginning on January 1, 2016 and its early application is permitted

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the impact of this rule in its consolidated financial statements.

IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Join Venture and IFRS 10 - Consolidated Financial Statements

In September 2014, the IASB issued amendments to IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements and IAS 28 Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures .

The amendments address an acknowledged inconsistency between the requirements of IFRS 10 and IAS 28 (2011), in the treatment of the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and the associate or joint venture.

The main consequence of the amendments is that all gain or loss is recognized when the transaction involves a business (if it is a subsidiary or not).

A partial profit or loss is recognized when the transaction involves assets that do not constitute a business, even if these assets are in a subsidiary.

The effective date is beginning on January 1, 2016 and its early application is permitted

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the impact of this rule in its consolidated financial statements.

Annual improvements IFRS

In September 2014, the IASB issued Annual improvements to IFRS: 2012 2014 Cycle, which include changes to the following standards.

• IFRS 5 Non-current assets held for sale and discontinued operations.

This amendment is related with the accounting treatment when there is a change of disposition of the asset or disposal group and the result is the reclassification from held for sale to held for distribution (or vice versa).

• IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures.

This amendment clarifies the additional disclosures required by the amendments to IFRS 7, where more information is required to be disclosed in the condensed interim financial statements in accordance with IAS 34 information.

In addition, are added guidelines that clarify how an entity should apply the guides of the paragraph 42C of IFRS 7.

• IAS 19 Employee Benefits. Discount rate: topic of the regional market.

It is clarified that corporate bonds with high quality credit used to estimate the discount rate for obligations for post-employment benefits should be denominated in the same currency as the liabilities, clarifying the extent of the market for corporate bonds to be assessed at the level of the currency and no country.

• IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

In regarding significant events and transaction on entity shall include of the financial statements, if necessary, when doesn t have access to the information by cross-reference on the same terms and at the same time, the interim financial report is incomplete.

The effective date is beginning on January 1, 2016 and its early application is permitted

Banco de Chile and its subsidiaries are assessing the impact of this rule in its consolidated financial statements.

3.2 Accounting rules issued by SBIF:

On February 17, 2014 SBIF issued a Circular No. 3,565, which introduces changes to the instructions related to monthly information sent to the Superintendency. Changes have as objective inform in separate way the investment in entities controlled abroad and requires information of credit and its overdue maintained for the subsidiaries controlled. These changes are applied in present consolidated financial statements.

3.3 Rules issued by the Superintendency of Securities and Insurance (Superintendencia de Valores y Seguros (SVS))

On January 13, 2014 SVS issued a Circular No. 2,137, which regulates financial statements that insurance brokers (not individuals) must be sent to SVS. This rule establishes the presentation of financial statements under IFRS since January 1, 2015 and establishes accounting criteria related to income recognition for concept of commissions.

On October 17, 2014 SVS issued an Oficio Circular No. 856, which establishes exceptionally, accounting for differences produced assets and liabilities for deferred taxes caused by the increase in the tax rate introduced by Law No. 20,780 tax reform amending the system of taxation of income and introduces various adjustments in the tax system, in equity. This oficio circular does not impact the consolidated financial statements of Banco de Chile.

4. Changes in Accounting Policies and Disclosures:

On December 1, 2013, new rules are beginning in application. These are about return of premiums not accrued for the insurance contracts, according to established by law No. 20,667 of 9th. of May of 2013 and Circular No. 2,114 issued by the SVS on July 26, 2013. The legal change requires returns of premiums collected in advance but not accrued, due to the early termination or extinction of an insurance contract. The premium to return it will be calculated in proportion of the remaining time.

During the period ended as of September 30, 2014, the Bank and its subsidiary Banchile Corredores de Seguros have established provisions for the concept of commission s refunds to the insurance companies for the policies (paid in advance) commercialized since December 1, 2013. This estimation is based in the history of the prepayments and disclaimers of its products portfolio that originate the commissions.

Additionally, the legal exchange for the return of premiums collected in advance and unearned, also had an impact on the income expense of commissions recognized directly in income. This means that it has begun to defer a portion of the commission earned jointly with future costs of sales.

These estimates correspond to changes in an accounting estimates, whose effects are registered in income under item Income from fees and commissions . The effect of the change involves a lesser income in the period by an amount of Ch$6,006 million.

6. Segment Reporting, continued:

The financial information used to measure the performance of the Bank s business segments is not necessarily comparable with similar information from other financial institutions because it is based on internal reporting policies. The accounting policies used to prepare the Bank s operating segment information are similar as those described in Summary of Significant Accounting Principles . The Bank obtains the majority of its income from: interest, revaluations and fees, discounted the credit cost and expenses. Management is mainly based on these concepts in its evaluation of segment performance and decision-making regarding goals, allocation of resources for each unit individually. Although the results of the segments reconcile with those of the Bank at total level, it is not thus necessarily concerning the different concepts, since the management is measured and controls in individual form and applying the following criteria:

• The net interest margin of loans and deposits is measured on an individual transaction and individual client basis, stemming from the difference between the effective customer rate and the related Bank s fund transfer price in terms of maturity, re-pricing and currency.

• The internal performance profitability system considers capital allocation in each segment in accordance to the Basel guidelines.

• Operating expenses are distributed at each area level. The Bank allocates all of its indirect operating costs to each business segment by utilizing a different cost driver in order to allocate such costs to the specific segment.

The Bank did not enter into transactions with a particular customer or third parties that exceed 10% or more of its total income during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2014 and 2013.

Transfer pricing between operating segments are on an arm s length basis in a manner similar to transactions with third parties.

Taxes are managed at a corporate level and are not allocated to business segments.
